Western Excitement

SUBSIDING.

NEW DISCOVERIES IN OLD

MONTGOMERY.

Confidence Restored at Home Diggings.

WE see from various statements given through the columns of public prints, in reference to success of many who have gone west for the purpose of seeking the precious ore, that the expedition has proved nearly an entire failure; and that they are now satisfied that "it is not all gold that glitters." Many doubtless who are now rusticating in the western wilds, would be glad were they but at home, among acquaintances and friends, in this our promised land, where peace and plenty abounds. To those in our community, who have been anticipating a tour to this unsafe country of the west, we wish to speak. If you are not of that turn of mind, unsuscepible of persuasion, or impregnable to truth and common sense, we can convince you in a few moments that any energetic, thorough-going man among us can SAVE MORE money if not DIRECTLY MAKE, by staying at home, and buying his Goods of

SHUE & EPPERSON,

than can possibly be made by visiting the gold fields of Pike's Peak. These men we know have a large and unsurpassed stock of Staple and Fancy

Dry Goods,

at low figures—enough for each, enough for all—and this cannot be said in truth in reference to the gold bearing country in question. No, no, it is a work of deception, agitated for the purpose of entrapping and fleecing the masses, for the enrichment of a few. Remember that "seeing is believing," and without the privilege of thus exercising this power of vision, there should be but little action. Then, with this view of things, we can but say to you as a friend,

SAVE YOUR MONEY

in the way of great

QUEENSWARE.

We wish to call the especial attention of the ladies to our NEW STOCK of Queensware. There are many valuable sets in this ware, and are open for inspection.

Carpetings, &c.

Carpets, brown and bleached Sheeting and Shirtings, Carpet Warp, Cotton Yarn, Batting, and in fact we know of no article in our line that will be called for, that we have not; and that of the best that could be bought in the East.—For proof of this, we invite all to call and examine for themselves.

OLD ACCOUNTS.

JOHN H. SHUE, the senior in the establishment, wishes his old customers (now that he has formed a co-partnership with Mr. Wm. Epperson,) to call and settle up old accounts. All accounts made with him previous to the 1st day of January, 1859, as he wishes to close his old books as soon as possible.
