UNTIL THEN
KEEP SWEET

Some of our Republican brethren are getting hard in the 10th inning. The action of the publication committee of the Republican party in the matter of the publication of the campaign pamphlet and the said they said justified the means. The great question of taking without cost of 1000 the pamphlet from the 75 that was the idea that people get the office in the county. The honey short was valued just was all was the. Now the country must be saved to keep the tariff to a fair value and the evidence to the contrary—not a point. To help along matters Indiana was moving for a battle of Republican principles. Many has put power Carte Carter and put into the same force with their voice in the intelligent Hoosiers. The educated German on the point therefore. The figure of the Times had issued before. It was thought that a body of multitudes were elected to the legislature and who held the oath of office to support the constitution of the United States, of the state of Indiana and to perform their duties as members conscientiously and to the best of their ability, would give an honest decision to the evidence of fraud presented. Now we are told that the question of evidence is to have nothing to do with the case. That the senate which is Republican and the house which is Democratic will bring over party according to the party to which

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Many Pleasing Events Were Held on Thanksgiving Day

THE FAMILY DINNER

Are Given in Many Homes—Other Items of Interest Are Here Given

A pleasant surprise was prepared upon Mrs. Albert Butler yesterday in commemoration of her birthday anniversary and the event was one of many felicitations. Covers were spread for many friends of the honored guest and the dinner consisted of all conceivable delicacies. It was an occasion of an hour of pleasure. During the afternoon an impromptu game of 500 was played and Mrs. Butler and her companions will long remember the event. In the evening a similar party was formed at a dinner festive of the day of joy. In the party were Messrs. and Messrs. William Butler, Ben Butler, Harvey Butler, Bert Butler, Dennis Butler, Julius Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Butler, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Lena Butler and daughter Ethel, Mrs. Mary Elzey, Grandfather Butler and Samuel Bickel.

With Miss Nora McMillen, of Fort Wayne as the honored guest, Miss Marie Costello charmingly entertained at an elegant dinner last evening. A dainty turkey was served in four courses to the party, which consisted of Charles Bass and Charles Doell, of Fort Wayne and Bella Kibler, besides the guest of honor.

The family dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gillig was enjoyable. Besides the elegant dinner, a delightful social session was in order.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hall, of south Monroe street, entertained at a most sumptuous dinner last evening. The guests being Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eiting, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eiting and daughter and Mrs. Elizabeth Hovel, of Fort Wayne. The feast included the turkey, sauce and all the dishes that go to make up a Thanksgiving dinner and the occasion was a very happy one.

Quite a number of Decatur people took advantage of the special dinner at the Murray house yesterday and once and all express themselves as delighted. The menu as published in the other included all the delicacies of the season, and was the most complete dinner of the kind ever served in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Fraze gave a family dinner yesterday at their home, corner of Third and Monroe streets, and the little that was left was served for supper.

One of the most delightful dinners of Thanksgiving day was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lutz on Mercer avenue. It was a delicious feast and the hours of the day were each happy one for all. In addition to remaining for supper. Those who were present were Dr. Butler, wife and daughters, Lillian and Helen, D. M. Heaton, wife and children and Messrs. and Mesdames Spencer, C. E. Elzey, W. A. Lower and Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Archbold, of Fort Wayne.

The Columbian dance given Wednesday evening was well attended and was a social success. The music was delighful and the hours of the pastime had an end of enjoyment.

Mrs. L. C. Ainsee gave a Thanksgiving dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ainsee, of Hagley. A most delightful time was experienced by the following guests: A. Ainsee and Frank Ainsee, Hagley; T. H. and C. C. Ernst, of this city. The dinner was delicious.

Thanksgiving with all its festivities has come and gone, and might but the sacred remembrance of the home coming of loved ones and seasons of good cheer remain to mark the memorable occasion. Thanksgiving has always more than a single significance. It is looked forward to by the sportsman who delights in the pursuit of wild game; it is eagerly awaited by parents who anticipate the gathering of their beloved children, who may have in the course of a few fleeting years, sifted far apart; it is sacred

SHOES BURNED FROM FEET.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 26.—During a severe electrical storm north of Wabash, Forest Trego and Ernest Beaver, both ten years old, were struck by lightning and instantly killed. The shoes were burned from Trego's feet and the clothing below the waist from Beaver. When the lads recovered their senses they could not walk, but crawled a long distance to the home of one of the two. They were playing in umbrella with a lead pipe handle and walking was a

REWARD FOR MURDERER.

Buyer of Agent Another May Now Be Traced by Detectives.

Greencastle, Ind., Nov. 26.—A reward has been offered in the Bedford murder case for hundred dollars has been set aside by the county for this purpose and the detective company has agreed to give another $100. The city council of Greencastle has offered one more, swelling the total to $300. It is thought the murderer will be found for the reward will probably interest detectives in the case. Bedford was killed by a robber in the interurban station here. He was the local agent.
