

Brookville American.

W. H. FOSTER, Editor and Proprietor.
FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 2, 1860.
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
HANNIBAL HAMLIN,
OF MAINE.

Presidential Electoral Ticket.

ELECTORS FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.
WILL CUMBACK, of Decatur;
JOHN L. MANSFIELD, of Jefferson.
DISTRICT ELECTORS.
1st District—Cyrus M. Allen, of Knox;
2d District—John W. Ray, of Clarke;
3d District—Morton C. Hunter, of Monroe;
4th District—John H. Farquhar, of Franklin;
5th District—Nelson Truesler, of Fayette;
6th District—Ranier A. Riley, of Hancock;
7th District—John Hanna, of Putnam;
8th District—Samuel A. Huff, of Tippencoe;
9th District—James N. Tyler, of Miami;
10th District—Isaac Jenkinskin, of Allen;
11th District—David O. Uxley, of Huntington;

ATTENTION, WIDE-AWAKES!! ONE MORE RALLY

AT

BROOKVILLE,
Monday Night, Nov. 5th.

The Wide-Awakes from all parts of the county, and all lovers of freedom, are invited to meet at Brookville, on Monday night before the election, and pledge again their devotion to the CONSTITUTION, THE UNION, and the cause of human freedom.

Turn out, friends of all parties, and bring with you your wives, daughters and sons, to witness the beautiful demonstration of our gallant

Wide-Awakes! who will, on that occasion, have a grand Torch-Light Procession! The night of the 5th will close the memorable campaign of 1860, and speeches will be made by Col. John H. Farquhar, Wilson Morrow, Esq., Dr. John R. Goodwin, Dr. Samuel Davis, James O'Hair, Esq., and others who may be with us. One more rally good friends, for the country, and

HONEST OLD ABE.

The Issues. On Tuesday next the jury is to render the verdict that is to shape the policy of the Republicans for all time to come. It will then be decided whether our policy is to favor the spread of human bondage over the free Territories of the Government, or stay the aggressive course of the peculiar institution within the limits of the several States recognized.

Freemen of Indiana, do you wish to extend the institution of slavery into the territories now? If so, if you do, vote for Stephen A. Douglas, who has declared that he "does not care whether slavery is voted up or voted down." If you believe with the gallant, patriotic Harry Clay, that slavery is a "curse," and should be left to the people of the States, and not to them who are to be born in the territories, then vote for Honest Abe Lincoln, the true type of the people, "head and shoulders" over all his competitors.

Do you prefer Polygamy in the territories and deny the right in your Congress to prohibit the relic of barbarism, and believe with "Squatter Sovereignty" that a hand full of "Squatters" may do as they please, regardless of the consequences, then vote for Douglas.

If you prefer that "Squatter Sovereignty," which tolerates white slavery and whipping by their masters of white men, women and children, in your territories, and denies to Congress the power of preventing it, vote for Douglas.

If, on the contrary, you abhor and detest the accursed institution of Polygamy, and wish to preserve the purity and sacredness of the domestic hearth, vote for Lincoln, the honest, tried and true.

If you despise slavery, and especially that of your own race of white men, women and children, and your blood runs quicker when you think of such being whipped at the pleasure of their masters, so it is not done with "clubs and stripes," then show your detestation of such barbarism, as is practiced under

"Squatter Sovereignty" in the Territory of New Mexico, by voting for old Abe Lincoln on Tuesday next.

If you want our magnificent public domain of 1,000,000,000 of acres to be squandered away to irresponsible railroad corporations and land jobbing speculators, vote for Squatter Sovereignty Stephen A. Douglas.

If, however, you prefer to protect our public lands from the jobber and speculator, and give them in suitable quantities, say of 100 acres, to the actual settler and cultivator, vote for the man of destiny—the working man's candidate for President—Abraham Lincoln of Illinois.

The Court House Clique.

The Junto who preside over the destinies of this County, and mismanage its affairs, though defeated in everything in the late canvas but the possession of the County offices, are pretending to make fight on the Presidential issue.

Their *super*s are traversing the County under the guidance of the grand mogul, making appointments conflicting with those of the Republicans, prior made, that they may, if possible, keep their wavering followers from hearing the truth. It won't do, men of the Clique, to the cause that saves the Union and restores its policy to that of its founders.

Go to the polls early; see that your neighbor goes; encourage the wavering, if there be such; haul the sick and the lame, and lead the blind, that all may contribute to the glorious cause.

This one long, strong pull and all pull together, and our triumph will gladden the hearts of millions of free men, and plant permanently, once more, the tree of Liberty.

RALLY! RALLY!!

To the Polls on Tuesday Next!!!

REPUBLICANS!

Wide-Awakes!

FREE WHITE MEN!!!

You that love freedom and hate slavery; you that love the men of your caste—that love the white race in preference to the black; you that want the free territories for the use of the free white men, women and children, to the exclusion of the negro slave; you that love Christianity, morality and Republicanism; to the polls, on Tuesday next, every man of you, and in time to vote early and work all day.

Remember, that hundreds of our friends have given their time and money, all the campaign, to the glorious cause of the Fathers, in the maintenance of free speech, free Press, and free territories, and it is asking but a slight sacrifice for you to devote one more day to the cause that saves the Union and restores its policy to that of its founders.

The ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The Atlantic Monthly for November presents the following table of contents:

ELECTIONS TO TAKE PLACE.—Louisiana holds her State election on the 5th of November, and on the 6th all the States vote for President, and Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Delaware, California and Maryland vote for Congress and State tickets. The Legislatures of Louisiana, Illinois, New York, Wisconsin, Iowa, and California are to select United States Senators for the terms vacated by Messrs. Slidell, Trumbull, Seward, Durkee, Harlan and Gwin respectively.

The grave question is presently to be decided whether a citizen of the United States, constitutionally elected to the Presidency, shall be permitted to perform the functions of that high office? We notice daily signs in the Southern papers, and read frequent letters from Southern politicians, all tending to one point, viz.: That if Mr. Lincoln should be elected, it will become the duty of the Southern people to make instant preparations for secession from the Union. Upon the basis of this threat many interests in Northern communities have been terrified, and many influences controlled. So industriously has it been persisted in, that hundreds of citizens of Philadelphia have allowed themselves to believe in it, and more than one man who has heretofore depended on his own energy, enterprise and talent to support himself and his family, has been convinced that if Mr. Lincoln should be elected President he will be ruined.

We are not for Lincoln in this fight. We cannot say that we are neither for Caesar nor for Antony, for we are for Douglas and for him squarely and sincerely; but is not all this sort of intimidation unworthy of American citizens and sensible men? Is it not disgraceful that mere traders in politics in the Southern States, and so vile a wretch, and so unscrupulous and remorseless a knave in the free States, are so utterly disgraced, privately and publicly, as the editor of the New York Herald, and those affiliated with him, should exercise a sort of terrorism over American citizens?

These are the conjoint influences that threaten, in a certain event, to destroy the Union, on the one hand, and on the other to break up the foundation of credit. Ought we not to be ashamed of ourselves as human beings to allow any such arguments as these to affect us? It will be a dark hour for this Republic when any citizen, constitutionally elected to the Presidency, cannot be inaugurated and permitted to make a trial in that high office. Our own belief is, that no American can be chosen.

Chief Magistrate without administering the duty of that office in strict justice to all sections of the Union. The very position itself will make him conservative and just. He could no more shut his eyes to the rights of the South than he could close his heart to the rights of the North; and we have a sufficiently good opinion even of the worst of Mr. Lincoln's enemies (for they, too, are American citizens) to believe that, if he should be triumphant in this fight, they themselves would be ready to consent to be sacrificed to the success of his administration.

Follow countrymen, there will be no disunion. Merchants and manufacturers of Philadelphia, there will be no secession. What the enemies of this Republic in the South fear is, that the people of the North may put them to the test. Vote your own sentiments, rely upon the love that all the people of the United States, North and South, feel for the union of these States, and the sequel will vindicate the experiment.

The friends of the late Governor Willard propose to erect a monument over his remains in the New Albany Cemetery. A number of persons throughout the State have been requested to act as agents to receive such contributions as may be made by the friends of the late Governor, and toward the same to Dr. E. Newland, at New Albany, who has consented to act as Treasurer. Mr. Baitzner is the agent for this county.

A wagon loaded with a Douglas pole broke down in the middle of the road near Michigan City, Indiana, one day last week. Night came on and the Woodpeckers concluded to postpone the pole raising until the next day. During the night a half dozen Lincoln boys might have been seen in that locality, and when the red caps returned in the morning, they found the pole split in two and the wagon fenced in.

The ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—A Douglas orator while making a speech at Syracuse, was asked to define Mr. Douglass' position on the slavery question. He said:

"Mr. Douglass believes that if slavery aint a mind to go where she is a mind to, she may stay where she is, if she doesn't want to; subject to the decision of the Supreme Court, and of the people of the territories when they are agreed on that p'int." It was satisfactory to his audience.

Douglas Men, ATTENTION!!—Chief Justice Taney pronounces the Douglas doctrine the worst heresy, and he supports Breckinridge and Lane. In the Wickliffe resolution of the Baltimore Convention the Douglassites promised to respect all the decisions of Judge Taney. Let them go with him to the support of Breckinridge and Lane.

The tongue that soon after spoke against that compact was the tongue of Mr. Douglass, and his was the hand that tore it asunder. Here is his glorification of that foul deed, spoken in Cleveland, September 22d, 1860, recorded by his own reporter, and published in his own organ, the Plain Dealer of September 24th:

"I had more to do with the repeal of the Missouri Compromise than any live man. I boldly avow it, and shoulder all the responsibility of the act. There is no act of my whole public life of which I have a more conscious pride than the repeal of the Missouri Compromise."

If the curses of Mr. Douglass were not "more sounds and fury, signifying nothing," we should expect to see his tongue blistered and his hand palsied after such a declaration. Of a truth, "curse, like chickens, come home to roost."

Political Discussion—Shall We Have It?

Mr. Ensign—I say by the announcement made, that Dr. J. R. Goodwin is to address his fellow-citizens on the political topics of the day, at New Haven, on Saturday the 3d inst., at 7 o'clock P. M., whether by accident or design, I know not, C. Kilgore, Esq., is to address us at the same time and place. Now it is proposed by some of the friends of both parties, that these two shall meet and hold a public discussion, at which all parties shall be invited to attend; time to be equal, as disputants may agree.

This arrangement will suit Dr. Goodwin and the Republicans. Will it meet the views of Mr. Kilgore and the Democrats? If so, let it be so understood.

On the part of the Republicans I would think that the proposition is made in good faith.

SAM DAVIS!

The Plain Dealer supposes that there are half a million Wide-Awakes in the States.

Nothing ever so stamped the American people as the immodesty and impudence of a Presidential candidate stamping the country.

A Democratic editor in whining over the election says "our people should be in mourning." Well they are—your people are.

A Democratic editor says that he "does not believe that any party can be established by lying." Well, he ought to know. He has tried a long time to establish one in that way.

An exchange says the Democratic party is "sectional in every end." But isn't the Republicans doing their best to put a national end to it?—Seymour Times.

Lady Franklin will soon leave New York to proceed to California, which it is expected she will make her future residence.

May Not an American Citizen be President of the United States?

[From the St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat.]

A REMARKABLE ARTICLE.

A Douglas Organ on the Present Aspect of the Canvass—Douglas Men Urged to Vote for Lincoln—His Election Predicted by a Million.

Cincinnati Markets.

Flour—No change in the market; the demand continues limited and the sales small; we quote superfine at $4 50¢ 95, and nominal and extra at $5 00 15.

Powder—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—Barrels and kegs are quoted at $1 25 00.

Wood—A continued good demand for Cuttings, with a price of $1 25 00.

Coals—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The amount offered is light, and the feeding in the market rather "scarce," though there are some who are offering at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Hay—The market is unchanged and steady at $1 25 00.

Butter—We quote prime Central Ohio and Western at $1 25 00.

Corn—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Flour—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The demand is moderate, with sales of 200 bushels prime at $1 25 00.

Hay—The market is unchanged and steady at $1 25 00.

Butter—We quote prime Central Ohio and Western at $1 25 00.

Corn—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Flour—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The demand is moderate, with sales of 200 bushels prime at $1 25 00.

Hay—The market is unchanged and steady at $1 25 00.

Butter—We quote prime Central Ohio and Western at $1 25 00.

Corn—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Flour—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The demand is moderate, with sales of 200 bushels prime at $1 25 00.

Hay—The market is unchanged and steady at $1 25 00.

Butter—We quote prime Central Ohio and Western at $1 25 00.

Corn—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Flour—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The demand is moderate, with sales of 200 bushels prime at $1 25 00.

Hay—The market is unchanged and steady at $1 25 00.

Butter—We quote prime Central Ohio and Western at $1 25 00.

Corn—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Flour—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The demand is moderate, with sales of 200 bushels prime at $1 25 00.

Hay—The market is unchanged and steady at $1 25 00.

Butter—We quote prime Central Ohio and Western at $1 25 00.

Corn—The demand is good and the market firm at $1 25 00.

Flour—A good demand for Mass Powder at $1 25 00.

Barrels—The demand is moderate, with sales of 6,000 bushels at $1 25 00.

Wheat—The demand is moderate, with sales of 200 bushels prime at $1 25 00.

<p