STUDENTS LOSE MANY ARTICLES

MADISON, Wis.—(U.P.)— University of Wisconsin students, including bewildered freshmen, lost 60 books and articles of jewelry and clothing in the Memorial Union building, student activity center, during the first week of school this year.

Someone statistically minded figured, at that rate, that, among other things, 360 fountain pens will have accumulated, or passed through the lost and found office in the building, during the academic year. Seventy-two German texts will be lost or "abandoned."

Among the 2,160 articles to repose in the office until owners or finders claim them will be—figuring from the first week's toll—324 pairs of women's kid gloves. Raincoats and belts will be denied 108 students.

At least 36 sorority membership lists will become union, and public property. That in itself is a big loss.

Other articles which may be lost:

180 fee cards.

108 study lists and engineers' triangles.

72 caps and odd gloves.

36 assorted pins, bracelets, brooches, cigaret cases and compacts.

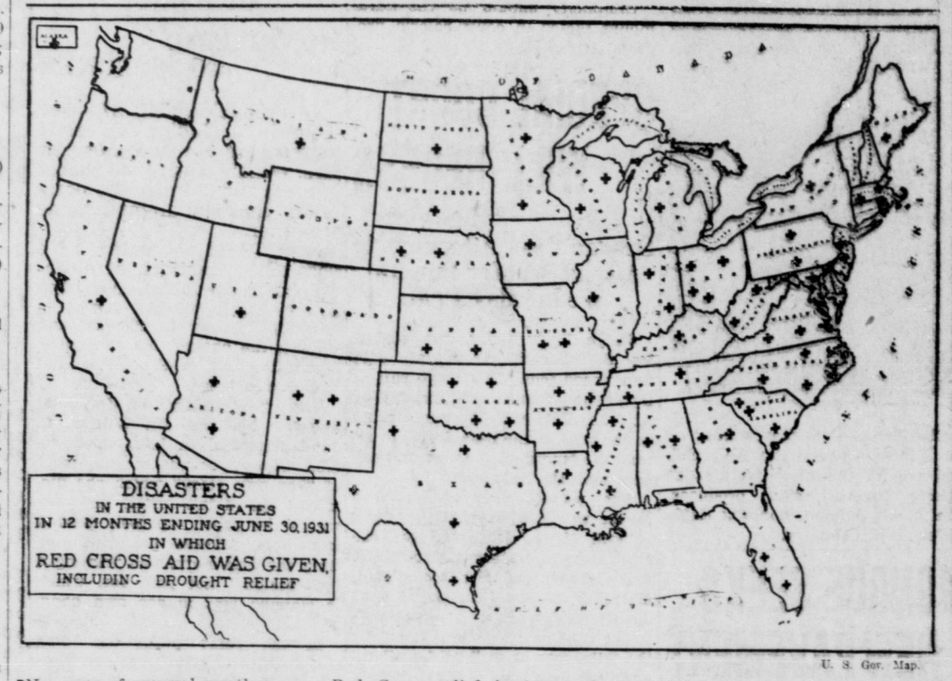
Disasters Hit 38 States in Past Year



U. S. Gov. Map.

IN a year of unusual weather conditions all over the world, the United States was especially hard hit, and in the twelve months ending June 30, 1931, the American Red Cross had given disaster relief in thirty-eight of the forty-eight states.

With the exception of a mine explosion, an epidemic of typhoid fever, a mine cave-in and a railroad accident, these disasters were all due to the elements. They were forest fires, tornadoes, floods, storms, cloudbursts and drought.

The drought, which spread over twenty-three states in the summer and fall of 1930, and has again wrought untold havoc in northwestern states in 1931, accounted for Red Cross relief in twenty-three states. The other disasters were, without exception, carried on simultaneously with the drought relief, and placed a heavy burden, not alone upon the funds of the national Red Cross, but upon its trained personnel of disaster relief workers.

At the peak of the drought relief, more than two million persons were being fed, clothed or given other help, and in all of the work more than 2,750,000 men, women and children were cared for by the Red Cross.

Funds for the drought relief were obtained, in part, through public contributions, because of the magnitude of the numbers affected. The public gave more than $10,000,000 and the American Red Cross appropriated $5,000,000 from its treasury. The cost of the other disaster relief operations was borne from the Red Cross treasury, and local funds contributed in the stricken communities.

This disaster work of the Red Cross is supported, in part, from the annual roll call for members which occurs each year between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving Day. Each person who joins as a member of the Red Cross is contributing toward this effective and important emergency relief, should calamities occur anywhere affecting lives of their fellow citizens.

COURT HOUSE

Clyde Daughtry, former pugilist, was arrested Monday night on a charge of public intoxication. He was arraigned in Adams circuit court today and entered a plea of not guilty. Bond was fixed at $200, and Daughtry was released for 24 hours on his own recognizance.

Harold Daniels qualified as administrator in the estate of Minnie Daniels. Bond was filed and approved.

Ralph Welch, who failed to comply with a court order whereby he was to pay attorneys fees in a divorce suit, was given five days to meet the order or face a contempt of court charge.

Insanity proceedings were instituted against John J. Hendricks today. Dr. F. W. Lose and Dr. E. G. Coverdale were named to examine the man at the Adams county jail.

ENGLAND SHOWS MUCH INTEREST IN ELECTIONS

mum of 330 seats giving them a majority of 45. Unless they obtain many more than 330 seats they will have to cooperate with the national government to insure a working majority. In that case reactionary elements cannot demand the elimination of MacDonald and the formation of a pure conservative government as soon as possible.

Labor leaders claimed a minimum of 250 seats, meaning that labor would be the official opposition party.

A bitter election campaign worked by unusual rowdyism was climaxed by serious disorders in North Kensington, London, last night in which Hooligans freely used razors, bottles and blackjacks. Two hundred students charged a group of rowdies attempting to force their way into the office of J. A. L. Duncan, a conservative candidate.

Four students who suffered severe razor cuts were taken to hospitals. Less serious injuries were numerous. A policeman's head was split by a bottle and several women were hurt when mounted police reserves charged the crowd.

The polls opened in most constituencies at 8 a.m. to remain open for 12 hours.

The campaign centered around the record of the late labor government in office and the means by which Britain's threatened unfavorable trade balance of international payments can be converted into a favorable balance.

BEET GROWERS GET ESTIMATE

ceive their total 30 per cent, but that it would take a long time. He stated that the mortgaged indebtedness of the local plant was $500,000 and that the value of the plant in operation was about $3,000,000.

This, Col. Gallagher explained, should be sufficient to lead one to believe that in case of a receiver's sale, there would be enough money realized with which to pay all claims on the basis of 100 per cent.

Col. Gallagher said that it would be a waste of money for farmers in this community to secure attorneys to take care of the matter for them and he continued to explain that attorneys already had been hired by the receivership and that all growers' claims were now on file with the Federal court.

In view of the fact that the money is being collected now for a payment, local farmers expressed a desire to ascertain how much the next payment would be, before they made any decision concerning a compromise.

Col. Gallagher explained the status of the old company following a meeting of farmers and Chamber of Commerce members here last night. He answered a number of questions asked by farmers attending the meeting.

WHITE ACTS IN COAL TROUBLES

Ohio Governor Calls Two Meetings In Effort To Stabalize

Columbus, O., Oct. 27—(U.P.)—Gov. George White today asked coal operators and miners to join in two conferences with administration representatives to devise a plan to stabilize the state's bituminous coal industry.

The call came after recurrent strikes in Ohio. Monday 480 men walked out at two mines near Millfield. Today workers of one of the mines returned to their posts. Both strikers were in protest of working conditions.

A month ago strikes in the Millfield area led to disorders. An administration arbitration plan ended the strike.

Recently Governor White was invited to participate in a conference of governors representative at Lexington, Ky., on stabilization of soft coal industry. He accepted on provision miners be represented in the deliberations.

"We must stabilize the industry in our own state before we can hope to have wider success," he said, in calling the conference here for Oct. 30.

Army Fliers Will Test 2-Seated Pursuit Planes

Mt. Clemens, Mich., Oct. 27.—(U.P.)—Two-seated pursuit planes will be tried out for the first time by the army at Selfridge Field this winter, according to Maj. Gerald E. Brower, flight commander of the first pursuit group.

Major Brower said 24 of the new type planes were being sent here to undergo tests to determine how they can be used to the greatest advantage. Delivery of 45 new single seaters also is to start in November, Brower said.

The depression has cut into the activities of flying officers, Major Brower revealed. Whereas an officer usually flies 400 hours a year, h enow is flying at the rate of about 220 hours yearly, he said.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's on the red label. Resent any substitute. 25c at all stores. ©1931, C. M. C.
