In Loving Remembrance

of my fiance, Russell C. Shields, who passed away 2 years ago today, October 14, 1918:

Surrounded by friends, I am lonesome. In the midst of my pleasures I am sad. A smile on my face, still a heartache and longing for you. There are griefs that can not find comfort and wounds that can not be healed. You are gone, dear, but not forgotten, and shall you see me be as long as memory lasts. We are still inseparable. Though you are in the spirit realm, you are so near to me it seems. I hear the same sweet voice and laughter, and feel the touch of your guiding hand as I, too, glide down the pathway of life to the gateway of eternity. THELMA E. ZELLER.
