Portland, Ore., Heat Puts Bridge Out of Order

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 2 (UP) —It was so hot in Portland yesterday that one of the city bridges took the afternoon off.

Expanding girders on the Morrison bridge over the Willamette River froze the draw span when a tug tooted for the right-of-way.

When the air cooled enough to allow the bridge to return to work, the span refused to close enough to permit auto traffic to go over.

A fireboat doused the girders with cool water, and the span was then closed.

4 In Memoriam

McINTIRE—In loving memory of my sister Grace McIntire Carey, who died one year ago today, Aug. 2.
God saw that you was suffering
And the hill was hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, peace be thine.
No one e'er will take your place
With us or in our hearts,
For I'll have your dear memory
To love while we're apart.
Sadly missed by Sister, BESSIE.

McINTIRE—In loving memory of my sister, Grace McIntire Carey, who left us 1 year ago today, Aug. 2.
She has gone across the river
To the shores of eyes green,
And we long to see her dear face,
But the river flows between.
Some day, sometime, our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well;
Some day we'll clasp her loving hand
And never say farewell.
We do not forget you, nor do we intend.
We think of you often, and will to the end;
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be;
Sadly missed by brother,
HARRY McINTIRE.

McINTIRE—In loving memory of my daughter, Grace McIntire Carey, who died one year ago today, Aug. 2.
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
A bitter grief, a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear.
I often sit and think of you
And think of how you died:
To think you could not say goodby
Before you closed your eyes.
The shock that I received that day
Will always with me dwell,
For all of us you did your best:
May God grant you eternal rest.
Sadly missed by mother,
MAGGIE McINTIRE.

McINTIRE—In loving memory of my sister, Grace McIntire Carey, who died one year ago today, Aug. 2. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last.
The world's weary trouble and trials are past.
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore.
Till God called her home, to suffer no more.
Sadly missed by BROTHER, FRED McINTIRE & FAMILY.
