Advertise in The Times

The One Great Problem of Business Today

is the problem of markets—the problem of finding, of creating, an outlet for the goods we make or buy to re-sell.

Markets for desirable goods are all about us, for markets are in human minds and can be created through skillful, persistent advertising.

The convention will show you how to find these markets today. The program for each department of the convention will be built around this idea: "Advertising, How and Now."

Every progressive business man and woman is invited to attend the

and to embrace this remarkable opportunity to obtain facts, ideas and impressions pertaining to better advertising.

Truthful, well-planned, constructive advertising is the greatest single force in the modern business world, but to use it with success, you must keep up to date.

Again this year, the business man or woman who desires to attend may do so without holding membership in the Association.

For further facts and hotel reservations please write or wire,
