PASTOR TO TALK ON THE HOME COMPLETE SHOW

'Courtship, Then and Now' to Be Sunday Night Subject.

The Rev. Florizel A. Pfleiderer announces that the other side of the Home Complete Exposition, "The Spiritual," will be presented at the popular Sunday evening services of the Sutherland Presbyterian church during the month of April.

On April 3, "Courtship—Then and Now" will be the theme of the evening and two tableaux presenting a courtship in a garden of 1732 and one of modern setting in 1932. Soloists will sing "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," "I'll Be Loving You Always" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mr. Pfleiderer will give a frank discussion of "Courtship—Petters vs. Lovers, Cheapened Loves and Lives, Loving vs. License and the Ten Commandments of Courtship."

April 10, "A. B. C. of Homemaking." The theme songs of the evening will be "Baby's Boat" and "You're a Wonderful Mother." The tableaux will present the home four or five years later and the discussion will include such problems as "Eugenics" and "Can You Afford Not to Have a Child?"

April 17, "Financing a Home." The tableau shows the family ten years after marriage hopelessly in debt, a dollar down and a dollar a week policy. Mr. Pfleiderer will discuss "Making a Family Budget."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE THEME ANNOUNCED

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 3.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:

The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid in their own foot taken. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands (Psalms 9: 15, 16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:

Truth's immortal idea is sweeping down the centuries, gathering beneath its wings the sick and sinning. My weary hope tries to realize that happy day, when man shall recognize the Science of Christ and love his neighbor as himself,—when he shall realize God's omnipotence and the healing power of the divine Love in what it has done and is doing for mankind.

At Christ Church, Episcopal, the Rev. E. Ainger Powell, rector. Holy communion at 8 a. m.; church school at 9:30 a. m.; kindergarten church hour will be held at 10:45 a. m. Choral Eucharist with sermon by the rector on "Living Unto God," at 10:45 a. m.

CHANCE HERE FOR YOU TO WIN CASH

Second photograph in the series of four in the Victor McLaglen movie memory contest appears above. It should be an easy one to name. The Times is offering $25 in cash and twenty theater tickets as prizes in this contest, which started Friday.

All you are required to do is to name the four pictures in which Victor McLaglen appeared, the scenes of which will be published in The Times, one each day until next Tuesday. This is the second of the series and show Victor McLaglen surrounded by a group of beauties.

Vic was a wise-cracking marine in the picture from which the scene was taken, and Edmund Lowe was his buddy. Together they were sent into many ports and always they fought between themselves over girls.

The title of the picture is easy, although it contained the word "Cockeyed." Now that's just the same as giving it away.

Victor McLaglen opens today at the Lyric in his personal appearance vaudeville act, with Charles Judels, another movie star in support. McLaglen and Judels are said to have one of the funniest acts ever sent out of Hollywood.

It is a scene taken from war-torn China, with McLaglen as a United States soldier and Judels in the French uniform.

Complete list of prizes was published Friday in The Times and will appear again Monday. After you have named the complete series of four, you are requested to write as essay of twenty words or less on "What I Like About Victor McLaglen," which should be sent to the Victor McLaglen Contest Editor of The Times before Wednesday noon.

The essay will be used in judging ties only. Another picture will appear in The Times on Monday and another on Tuesday. Watch for them.

Workers to Have Own Dance

Employes of Real Silk Mills to Attend Lyric Ballroom.

The big event at the Lyric ballroom next week is a party dance given by employes of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills on Tuesday night.

Manager Erroll Mushrush of the ballroom has made this event a "no-charge" affair for the Realsilkers.

Employes of the Real Silk are to be admitted free upon the presentation of their E. M. B. A. membership cards at the door.

The ballroom will also be open to the general public who wish to attend. A special program of dance music has been planned by Hal Bailey and his Collegians for this event.

The usual Ford frolic is the event for Monday night; on Wednesday, Ladies' night; a Leap Year party on Thursday, and a Collegiate hop on Friday.

The programs on Saturday and Sunday night will be given over to the usual whoopee parties, during which extra entertainment and dances will be given.

Free dance instructions will also be given on Tuesday nights between 7:30 and 8:30.

A ladies' breakaway dance is also to be featured on Wednesday.

EVERSON FIGHTS ARMY CASH CUT

Former Indiana Pastor Hits Economy Move.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A campaign to exempt the army from the 10 per cent cut which congress has ordered for the whole government has been organized here under the leadership of a Baptist minister.

The Rev. (major-general, retired) William G. Everson, Denver, former Muncie (Ind.) pastor, is the head of a new "Citizens' National Safety Committee," which is urging citizens to wire and write their congressmen and Speaker Garner in protest against the economy move.

Instant action is necessary, according to the committee's pamphlet, to prevent the 10 per cent army fund reduction, cut of the army's officer strength by 2,000 to 10,000, and a slash in pay and allowances of army officers.

The war department appropriation bill, long delayed in submission to the house, will carry these reductions when it is completed in a week or two, unless something drastic is done, the committee fears.

The economy move is supported, according to the committee, by "pacifist, war-resister, atheist, socialist, Communist, un-American and anti-American groups."
