PETER SIMPLE
NOVELS,
AT 37 1-2 CENTS EACH.

UNIFORM EDITION.

THE great and constantly increasing demand for the novels of Captain Marryatt has induced the subscriber to commence the publication of a new edition of his entire writings, in a new form and at a reduced price — Several of his works that have not yet appeared in this country will be comprised in this series, which will, when completed, be the only uniform edition of his writings that has yet issued from the press

The work will be published in semi-monthly Numbers at 37 1-2 cents per Number. Each Number complete in itself; and containing the whole of one of his works, equal to Two Duodecimo volumes; a Title Page to each Number.

The whole series will be complete in Eight Numbers, and will form a royal octavo volume containing nearly Twelve Hundred Pages for Three Dollars.

List of works to be comprised in this edition:—

Frank Mildmay, or the Naval Officer:
Newton Foster, or the Merchant Service,
King's Own
Peter Simple, or the Adventures of a Midshipman.
Jacob Faithful.
Pacha of Many Tales.
Japhet in search of his Father,
Naval and Military Sketches.

The first Number will positively be issued early in January, and the whole will be completed by the last of April

The work will be stereotyped, and any of the Numbers can be had separate, if desired!

They will be sent by post to any part of the Union, so packed as to defy the friction of the mails. Postage under 100 miles 1 1-2 cents per sheet, over 100 miles 2 1-2 cents.

It is almost useless for the Subscriber to remark that this is the cheapest work ever offered. The simple fact of the number of pages being near twelve hundred, and the price only three dollars, speaks for itself The public may look upon this as the commencement of an enterprise to furnish them with works of fiction by the most celebrated authors, printed in a beautiful manner, on fine paper, at a price that will at once defy competition, and place it in the power of every person to possess a library of novels at an extremely low rate. The advantage of transmission by mail is one that will not be overlooked by non residents of large cities. The publisher thinks, and he presumes that the public will agree with him, that it is better to issue the works of each author, in series, at a stated price, than to publish a continuous work at so much per annum, for by this arrangement they may subscribe to the works of one author and reject another. Not being obliged to pay for that which they do not want.

A remittance of $10 will command four copies of the work. Single subscription $3.

☞Subscribers to the Lady's Book, or those wishing to become subscriber, will be furnished with the Lady's Book one year, and the set of Novels, for Five dollars, in advance, postage paid. Single subscriptions to either work, Three Dollars. Address,

LOUIS A. GODEY.
No 100 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

EAGLE
TAVERN.

G. W. GOULD,

HAVING purchased the eligible tavern stand formerly occupied by Hyacinth Lasselle, offers his services to his friends and the public in general. This stand has undergone a thorough repairing. From its location and convenience, as well as retired situation, it is rendered a desirable place for gentlemen travelling through the country with their families He also flatters himself, that from his long experience in his profession, as well as his known desire and capacity to please, he will receive a liberal share of public patronage.

In connexion with the house, a spacious wagon yard is attached for the benefit of movers and teamsters.

His stable is large and commodious, and well provided with all kinds of provender, and a careful ostler, who is always in attendance.

N. B.--His Bar is supplied with the most choice Liquors.

☞Horses to hire.

CAREY'S LIBRARY
OF CHOICE
Literature.

WHEN this work was about commencing, the Proprietors, in their Original Prospectus, stated, that their facilities were very great for conducting a publication of the kind. The selections already have given great satisfaction "The Life of Sir James Mackintosh," "Kincaid's Rifle Brigand," and "Characteristics of Hindostan," are works that at the same time are interesting and instructive. Nothing bearing a different character shall ever find a place in the Library

As a proof of our facilities, we have commenced in No 14, the publication of a work of History and Fiction, by James—received by us ONE MONTH IN ADVANCE OF ANY OTHER PUBLISHER. This gentleman is the author of those deservedly popular works, "Darnley," "De L'Orme," "Richelieu," "Mary of Burgundy," "John Marston Hall," "Mary of Burgundy," "The Gypsey," &c The present work will sustain his high reputation. The scene is laid in France, during the reign of its gallant monarch, Henri Quatre, and is full of those beautiful descriptions and stirring incidents which characterizes his writings. It is entitled

ONE IN A THOUSAND OR THE
DAYS OF HENRI QUATRE.

This work will be completed in advance of the regular days of publication to gratify our numerous readers, with what, when they commence, we are convinced they will anxiously look for—the Denouement.

Our extraordinary facilities will enable us to be always in advance with the works of this and many other celebrated authors

The Library is published weekly, each number containing 20 imperial octavo pages, in a stitched cover. The Literary Chronicle which accompanies it contains 4 pages, and is bound up at the completion of each volume at the end of the work.

Five Dollars per annum, payable in advance.

ALEXANDER'S
MODERN
Acting Drama,
New Series.

Embellished with Splendid Engravings,

THE publisher has been induced, from the extensive patronage bestowed on his work materially to change its typographical appearance and to improve and enlarge its pages—it is already known to be the most popular edition of Plays which has ever been attempted in this country, and the prospect of its further success is ample and satisfactory. In future the MODERN ACTING DRAMA will be published in monthly numbers of 48 pages each—12 of which will constitute a volume, or one year's subscription—embracing in all FIVE HUNERED AND SEVENTY-SIX PAGES Every PLAY or FARCE is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving making in the course of the year nearly FIFTY TWO EMBELLISHMENTS—to which will be added as a Frontispiece to the work, a full sized STEEL ENGRAVING, containing the likenesses of SIX DISTINGUISHED ACTORS AND ACTRESSES Every person who desires to preserve an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward his name forthwith, as the edition will be limited to the number which is absolutly subscribed for. ☞The publisher pledges himself to make this work equal in interest and superiority of execution to his prospectus, or he will refund the price of subscription, free of all charges.

The first number of the new series will appear about the first of March—this delay is occasioned by the time necessary consumed in preparing the Engravings. The terms of the MODERN ACTING DRAMA is three dollars per annum payable in advance Subscribers to the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM will be furnished with both works for five dollars.

☞Any Person collecting four subscribers to the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM or the MODERN ACTING DRAMA, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3) for each shall be presented with the NOVELISTS MAGAZINE in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity, and which is now selling for $3—it contains the productions of eight different authors well known to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day

☞A large and beautiful white sheet, imperial size, FILLED ON BOTH SIDES WITH HUMOROUS AND COSTLY ENGRAVINGS, will be published every quarter as a supplement to the SALMAGUNDI. It will be furnished gratuitously to all new subscribers to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or the Modern Acting Drama, and to all the old subscribers of these works who forward their subscriptions, for the present year, in advance, without further solicitation
