Reichert Charges 'Political Smear'

Evansville Mayor Wants Early Trial

Times State Service

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 4.—Five city and county officials indicted for "corrupt practices in office" today charged the indictments are a "political smear."

Attorney for Mayor Manson Reichert, Republican county chairman, said he will demand trial before the primary election May 6. Mr. Reichert is seeking renomination in the primary.

Meanwhile, Vanderburgh county Prosecutor Milford M. Miller said the grand jury will go back into session Wednesday "to continue its investigation along the lines of the indictments."

"The grand jury has more to do," said Mr. Miller.

"My conscience is clear," Mr. Reichert. "I am not charge in any ... he w ng ou

'Leak' Halts Secret Gambling Raid

Lottery 'Evidence' Found in Automobile

A "top secret" raid planned last night by Prosecutor Judson L. Stark on suspected gambling establishments was called off at the 11th hour.

The county official said he changed his plans after he found there had been a "leak" of information.

By this time, police already had raided the Avenue Cigar store, 404 Indiana ave., and the Perkins Exchange, 717 Indiana ave.

One motorist didn't wait to raided. When his autom involved in a minor night, he and two co leaving a list of 1 and S. club
