Wheeler Quizzed On Labor Stand

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 5 (UP)—High officials of the American Federation of Labor conferred with former Sen. Burton K. Wheeler here today to decide whether he is the right man to head an all-out AFL fight against the Taft-Hartley labor law and the Congressmen who voted for it.

Opposition to confirming Mr. Wheeler for the job developed in the AFL executive council after the former Montana Senator said in Washington that he did not favor opposing every candidate for Congress who approved the law.

Mr. Wheeler made the statement shortly after the AFL council "unanimously" chose him to lead an $8 million drive of labor's League for Political Education for repeal of the act.

Immediately, President David Dubinsky of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union asked that the Wheeler appointment be rescinded. Other AFL leaders joined him.

Mr. Wheeler, who said he had not accepted the post, flew here yesterday to discuss it with union leaders.

Paint Fumes 'Madden' Jap Family, Paper Says

TOKYO, Feb. 5 (UP)—A Tokyo newspaper today told the story of an entire family which "went mad" from the fumes of a paint-diluting oil which they had been inhaling since last August.

The paper reported five members of the family of Asataro Takamatsu, a painter in the town of Takamatsu on Shikoku, had 40 gallons of the evil-smelling oil stored by their house.

The family first reported severe stomach pains from which they recovered. But headaches persisted, and the whole family finally fell into fits of temporary insanity. Medical men suspected the oil contained ethel cyanide, which can paralyze the body and sometimes will affect the mind.

Real Estate Broker Sentenced in GI Fraud

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (UP)—George H. Williams, a real estate broker, faced a maximum sentence of 75 years in prison and $71,000, fine today after being convicted of cheating veterans on a Maryland housing project.

Williams was accused of accepting more than $100,000 in down payments on homes that were never built. A total of 138 veterans allegedly were victims of the fraud.
