Cardinals Stave Off Rally By Chicago Cubs To Win, 3 to 2

Chicago Nearly Nips St. Louis in 9th But Wilks Puts Out Fire

Schoendienst Raps 3 Singles, Musial 2 Doubles to Lead Redbirds

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24 (UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals still were leading the National League tonight, but the eighth-place Chicago Cubs tossed them quite a scare before bowing 3 to 2.

The Cardinals were leading, 3 to 0, going into the ninth when Frankie Baumholtz and Hal Jeffcoat singled to start the inning. Up to that point, Gerald Staley had yielded only four hits. Hank Sauer forced Jeffcoat and a single by Forrest Burgess spoiled Staley's bid for a shutout.

Bill Serena followed with another single, scoring Sauer and leaving runners on first and second with only one out when Ted Wilks relieved Staley. Wilks got Herman Reich on a long fly to center field and then struck out Roy Smalley to protect the Cardinals' half game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Stan Musial hit two doubles tonight. Both figured in the Cards' early scoring, though the Redbird slugger was guilty of some faulty base running in the first inning.

Al Schoendienst led off with a single and Marty Marion followed with another to put runners on first and third. Musial then doubled high against the right field screen, scoring Schoendienst. Musial kept right on running around second base, only to find Marion at third. He pulled up and was retired in a run-down and Marion, breaking for the plate, also was trapped and retired.

Dodgers Trounce Phils, 8-1

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (UP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers continued to menace the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals by trouncing the Philadelphia Phillies 8 to 1, tonight before an overflow crowd of 34,083.

Don Newcombe, who received a new automobile loaded with lesser gifts before the game celebrated "Newcombe night" by limiting the Phils to four hits and fanning nine batters.

The huge Negro came within one out of his fifth shutout. Andy Seminick blasting his 22d homer with two out in the ninth. Until the home run, Newcombe had permitted only one runner to reach second base. He walked three.

Roy Campanella also hit homer No. 22 for Brooklyn and Carl Furillo continued his climb into the "first five" hitters with his 17th homer in addition to a single.

Elliott got his 15th and 16th homers off Jansen and Adrian Zabala followed Jansen to the hill. He was greeted by Elliott with his 17th homer with Elbie Fletcher on base. Kirby Higbe pitched the ninth.

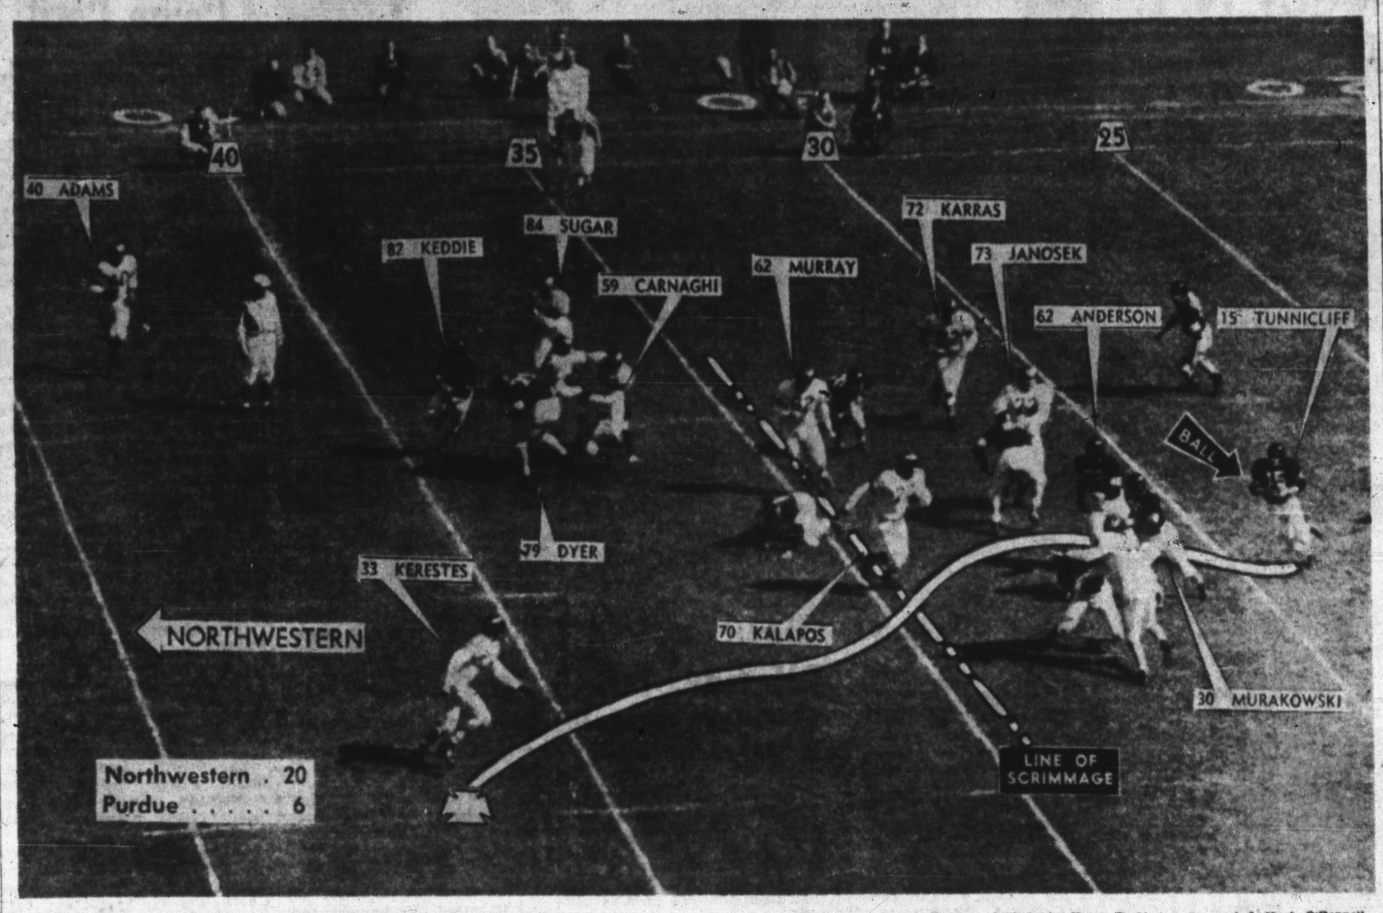
Wildcats Cut Loose When Purdue's Line Caves In



Tunnicliff of Northwestern (No. 15) ripped through his left tackle in the first quarter of yesterday's game against Purdue and went seven yards for a first down before he was finally pulled down by Purdue's Kerestes. The play started on the Northwestern 34 and stopped on the 41. Times Photographer Henry E. Glesing Jr., made this picture after being flown to the game at Dyche Stadium, Evanston, Ill., by Harold Unger, Indianapolis pilot.

third period to put the game away.

Burson, star of the 1948 Wildcat eleven was in the first half then for only three plays.

But when he put his signal calling know-how to work, in the third period, the Wildcats rolled. Starting from the Purdue 42, Art Murakowski lost 1 yard on a line plunge, but Burson sent Ed Tunnicliff for 13 yards on a trap play and then Murakowski stepped the remaining 30 yards on a wide blast around left end.

Less than five minutes later, Sophomore Mike Maccioli of Purdue fumbled and Zuravleff recovered on the Boilermaker 35. Burson pitched a pass to Zuravleff who caught it on the goal line and fell over for a touchdown.

From there on it was a slugging match and the Wildcats were ahead. They drove 60 yards down the field, three and four yards a try, in the final five minutes, only to lose the ball on the 2 yard line to a determined Purdue stand.

Purdue scored in the second quarter when Ken Gorgal directed a 55-yard march, highlighted by Bob Hartman's pass to Maccioli for 24 yards. Gorgal sneaked over from the half-yard line for the tally, but Rudy Trobovich's try for point was blocked by Chuck Petter. Northwestern quickly retaliated as Dick Flowers quartered a drive and passed twice, once to Zuravleff for 14 yards and again to Johnny Miller for 20 yards to Purdue's five. Miller tallied from there.

Eddie Nemeth converted after two of Northwestern's touchdowns.

Badgers Out-man Marquette to Win

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 24 (UP)—Wisconsin got off to a slow start but began rolling in the second period to pile up an easy 41 to 0 victory over outmanned Marquette today and present Ivy Williamson with a sweet triumph in his opening game as Badger head coach.

Marquette managed to get in Wisconsin territory only twice, once on a first quarter Wisconsin fumble which the Hilltoppers recovered on the Badger 23. The Badgers quickly smothered this threat and that was the only time Marquette even came close to scoring.

The Badger scoring was evenly divided with three of their touchdowns coming on passes and three on the ground.

Iowa State Holds Illinois to a Tie

Comes Back Twice In Last Half

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 24 (UP)—An underdog Iowa State football team that refused to be beaten came from behind twice in the last half today to hold Illinois to a 20 to 20 tie.

NEXT OPPONENT
Wisconsin at Illinois.
Iowa State at Kansas.

A home crowd of 31,106 fans enjoyed the sunny weather but sat stunned as Iowa State played the favored home team off its feet.

After dropping a 7-0 half-time lead in the first five minutes of the second half, Iowa State twice made long marches to tie Illinois. Then, still not satisfied, Iowa State rolled down the field in the closing minutes and had the ball on Illinois' 9-yard line when the game ended.

Three inexperienced backs whom Illinois Coach Ray Eliot is counting on in the Western Conference race—John Karras, Ronnie Clark and Dick Raklovits—sparked Illinois to three second-half touchdowns. But the Illinois line couldn't stop the tricky offense Iowa State Coach Emmett Stuber had devised.

Wabash scored a marker in the second when Wabash fullback Joe Dooley went 44 yards on the first play of the period. The little Giants marked up two touchdowns and a conversion in the third.

Cornhuskers Scuttle South Dakota, 33-6

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 24 (UP) — Nebraska's Cornhuskers scuttled South Dakota today, 33 to 6, combining a rifle passing attack with bulldozing ground gains to win their opener easily before 27,000.

The 417 yards Nebraska piled up in rushes told the story. But passes by Fran Nagle and Del Wiegand in the last half helped pile up the advantage.

Halfback Don Bloom capped two Nebraska drives with touchdowns, his first putting the Cornhuskers into a lead they never relinquished.

New Pitt Regime Opens With Win

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24 (UP)—University of Pittsburgh's new football regime opened the season today with a promising 13 to 7 victory over William and Mary in a game that was touch and go throughout.

NEXT OPPONENT
Canterbury at Rose Poly.
Hanover at Earlham.

The Panthers played a rugged brand of ball which forced the Southerners to give up a touchdown right at the start. The big, veteran Pitt line was able to stop the running of William & Mary's highly rated Fullback Jack Cloud and that's what paid off in the end.

Paul Yewcic, a fancy Southern passer, constantly harassed Pitt with his tosses until he was removed from the game in the final quarter with an injury.

Panthers Smash Canterbury, 42-0

HANOVER, Ind., Sept. 24 (UP)—Hanover's Panthers, the top offensive "little college" team in the nation last year, today opened its 1949 football campaign with a smashing 42-to-0 victory over Canterbury in a Hoosier college conference game.

Coach Garland Frazier, in his first year at the helm here, lifted most of his regulars early in the third period.

Jim Peterson, Hanover's rubber-armed T-formation quarterback, fired two touchdown passes, the first to Halfback Hank Treesh in the initial period, the other to End Bill Klein in the second. That play was good for 66 yards.

Treesh also scored another tally. Other touchdowns were racked up by Bob Horn, Ivan Lee, and Guy Andress, who also booted four extra points. Tom Saunders got two more Hanover points in the second period on a safety.

Dee Monroe Forsakes W. Ky. for Hanover

Times State Service

HANOVER, Ind., Sept. 24—Dee Monroe, the former Madison High School high-scoring forward who enrolled at Western Kentucky State Teachers College only two weeks ago, withdrew from that school and enrolled at Hanover Friday.

"I'd rather play here and see a lot of action," he commented regarding his transfer. Monroe scored 36 points to set an individual scoring record in the championship game won by Jasper last March.

Monroe may team with Bill Litchfield, member of the Jasper team, and former Madison teammate, Andy Taff, now at Hanover.

Michigan Beats Spartans, 7 to 3

State Puts Up Scrappy Battle

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 24 (UP)—Michigan staved off a gallant fourth-quarter surge by undergdog Michigan State today and extended its win streak to 24 consecutive games with a bitterly-contested 7 to 3 victory.

NEXT OPPONENT
Michigan at Stanford.
Marquette at Michigan State.

A record crowd of 97,239 watched the stubborn Spartans come within 15 yards of a touchdown and a major upset with two minutes to play. Four straight pass plays failed, however, and the Wolverines took over.

Michigan's highly regarded passing attack was ragged as the fast-charging State line kept Chuck Ortman from getting more than a glimpse of his targets.

Quarterback George Smith brought State's followers to their feet as he booted for the only State score of the game.

Michigan could not drive to State's goal line in the first period, but began to roll at the start of the second and was able to turn a Spartan fumble into a game-winning touchdown.

Michigan recovered State Fullback Frank Waters' fumble on his 25 to set the lone touchdown of the traditional game. Substitute Michigan Signal Caller Bill Pucik caught State's line napping and threw a direct hit from the 11 to lanky Irv Wisniewski for the deciding score.
