REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

41 Houses for Sale

Unusual Business and Home
This unusual property consists of a large frame structure on Capitol Avenue, south of 16th Street, the ground floor of which is suitable as doctor's offices, club rooms or general offices. The upper floor was remodeled a few years ago into an exceptionally attractive five-room apartment with every modern convenience, including built-ins in kitchen. It has an excellent hot-air heating plant with a stoker and a coal-fired water heater. On the rear of the lot is an 8-apartment building. We estimate that this property will produce approximately $2000 per year net income, but there is no way of establishing its value for someone who wants to live comfortably and have excellent office facilities in this neighborhood. For such an individual the rear property pays taxes and operating costs on the front. For further details, call:

FOR LILLIPUTIANS
THIS IS NOT DESIGNED FOR BIG PEOPLE
This cement block bungalow has small room, it's true; but it is snug, warm and comfortable. You'll have trouble finding the furnace, because there isn't one, but the oil stove keeps the whole house well heated. Drive your car up the side drive and —SURPRISE— there's no garage. Do you like the "goldfish" feeling? If you do, you'll be pleased to hear that this house has a picture window.
3315 Nicholas can be had for $5750. $750 dn.
