ROGER SULLIVAN MADE WILSON PRESIDENT

Picturesque Democrat in Illinois is Dead at Home In Chicago.

WASHINGTON, April 15—Keen regret was expressed at the White House today over the death of Roger Sullivan.

"We owe a lot to Roger Sullivan," Secretary Tumulty said. "I doubt whether Woodrow Wilson would ever have been president if it had not been for Roger Sullivan."

President Wilson will send a message of condolence later in the day, it is expected.

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)

CHICAGO, April 15—Illinois democrats are left without a leader as the result of the death late Wednesday of Roger C. Sullivan for twenty-five years the dominant figure of democratic politics of the state and a national power in the party's affairs.

Until his successor is chosen, the management of the party in Illinois will be in the hands of three of his lieutenants, John F. O'Mally, Dennis J. Egan and George E. Brennan. Democratic National Chairman Homer S. Cummings and the members of the democratic national committee, are to meet in Chicago on Monday to make plans for the national convention and it is expected that their advice will be asked in the naming of Mr. Sullivan's successor.

While the retirement of Mr. Sullivan from active participation in politics was announced several weeks ago, due to the pneumonia which brought on his death, he had planned on going to the San Francisco convention as a sort of honorary director and the influence he would have wielded in the naming of the democratic presidential candidate would have been considerable. It will be recalled that it was his action at the Baltimore convention in throwing the Illinois delegation to President Wilson that broke a dead lock and resulted in the latter's election. This making of a president was the crowning incident in Mr. Sullivan's long and interesting political career.

Plans for the funeral have not been announced. It is conservatively estimated that the fortune left by Mr. Sullivan will amount to $10,000,000.

AUTO TOURISTS WERE INDIGNANT

As one of the two men arrested yesterday for speeding paid his fine in the city court snarled, "I hope we get you in our country some time."

The men were Alex Anderson and Bob Hoye, both of Detroit. They were driving two Dodge cars to Chicago for delivery. The former was fined $10 for disorderly conduct and the latter $25 for speeding.

According to Anderson the railway strike has completely tied up Detroit. He says the only way to get a car out of the city for delivery is to drive it to its destination. Men are driving ordered cars to points 2,000 miles and further.

AT POLICE STATION

At one o'clock this morning little John Lukotich who said his home is somewhere in East Chicago, was picked up by a police officer at Sibley and Oakley. The boy is held at the Hammond Central police station as a runaway awaiting word from the East Chicago police who have been asked to locate his parents.

A mean thief yesterday stole the coaster wagon of Johnny Strickley of 40 Doty street. On the back of the wagon is painted the words, "J. J. Ruff."

LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jasper who have been visiting East Chicago relatives for the past few weeks have departe don a further tour to parts in Kentucky and Pennsylvania. They arrived in this city from Pueblo, Col., where they have been making their home for several years after their departure from here.

The C. C. Smith property at 4112 Magoun ave. has been disposed of to L. R. James, who for many years occupied a cottage at 4420 Magoun ave., the latter undergoing sale to Charles Haight. The N. L.
