Miss Ella Schooley Manages National Finances of Y. W. C. A

Financier, optimist and idealist, Miss Ella Schooley is the woman who was responsible for raising the first Y. W. C. A. war budget of $5,000,000; who did her part in raising the Y. W. C. A.'s portion of the United War Work Budget last year, and who had charge of the spending of these millions for war work among women.

Her job is to sell the idea of world service to women as the mission of the Y. W. C. A. during these reconstruction days. In order that this work can be done, Miss Schooley is now directing an army of workers in an educational campaign to tell the people of the United States what the Y. W. C. A. has to offer to the women of the world and how, as an organization, it can stabilize conditions through offering a consistent program of world service to women. It is necessary, she says, to raise $3,000,000 if this 1920 World Service Program for the United States, Europe, China, Japan, South America, India, Egypt, Liberia, Mexico and the Near East is carried out.

TELL OF THRILLING ESCAPE FROM MEXICO

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., April 23—Misses Laura and Isabel Viosca, on their arrival here today from Mazatlan, Mexico, told a thrilling tale of their escape from Mexican band, clad only in bathing suits. The Misses Viosca were members of a house party of eighteen at the Los Mochis ranch of Ben Johnston in Sinaloa. The entire party had gone bathing when a servant gave warning that a raiding party of Yaqui Indians was looting the house. The guests in their bathing suits scrambled aboard a car and escaped.

Or Even Worse.
