THE DEMOCRAT

Local and Miscellaneous.

We beg leave to inform our readers that notwithstanding the date line on the outside of this issue says this is the 1st of Dec. 1862, it is incorrect; by consulting our Almanac we learn that this is the first of January 1863. A mistake in making up doubtless.

While in Chicago last Christmas we called at the Rooms of Mr. John Carbutt, formerly of this place. Mr. Carbutt has established a reputation in Chicago as being the best Photograph Artist in the city, and his large patronage and the elegant manner in which he has fitted up his rooms are good evidence that his success is meritorious.

Mr. Carbutt has just returned from Europe and brings with him some rare specimens of art pertaining to his profession. His Gallery is a decided point of interest in the "Garden City."—Our Citizens visiting Chicago and desiring a Photograph should not fail to call on Mr. Carbutt at No. 143, Lake Street.

The "Soldier's Aid Society" will meet for a "social" at the residence of Mrs. Griffin on Friday evening next.

W. V. Reynolds has started a New Shoe Shop in Beckers' Tin Shop in the Couple building. Mr. Reynolds is a good workman.—A. No. 1, and his Shop will be found a good place to leave a measure, a fine boot, or a course boot, also for all kinds of repairing. See advertisement.

Died, Of Consumption, on the morning of the 29th inst., Miss Catharine Irwin wife of Michael Burn, of this Township. The deceased leaves one child and many friends to mourn her loss.

To Whom it may Concern:

John D. Dever is the only Attorney in Marshall County who is legally authorized to prosecute War Claims before the Departments at Washington for the Back Pay, Bounties, and Pensions of soldiers or their heirs.

Prospectus of the Brevier Legislative Reports.

VOLUME VI.

THE undersigned now publish their Prospectus for the Sixth volume The Brevier Legislative Reports of the Proceedings and Debates of the Indiana Legislature.

This work, as heretofore proposed and executed will embrace reliable short hand sketches of the Journals, Proceedings and Debates of both Houses of the Forty-second Regular Assembly of the State of Indiana, to be convened in Indianapolis in regular session on the 6th day of January, 1863.

It will contain all Motions, Messages, Resolutions and Committee Reports as they shall be made and submitted; it will admit liberal and verbatim sketches of the Debates to the extent of the space prescribed, postponing without partisan bias the publication of every speech on the floor, with the yeas and nays in every question of moment on which they shall be entered and taken.

The volume will contain about 500 pages, double section, if the session shall continue to the end of the constitutional term. The price is the Dollar for the session.

It is part of the design of this work to emulate the style of journalizing; to guarantee that the Journal Clerk of each House of the General Assembly shall be a Reporter, or shall be required to employ such reporting force as may enable him to sketch every proposition in its order and in the form, with the debate and action thereon; and that he be required to contract for his journal to be printed in some newspaper published in the city of Indianapolis, and distributed in both houses the day after the date thereof, conditioned that it shall not exceed a given reasonable amount of matter—the volume of the Journals of the two Houses to be but one book, made up from the columns of the newspaper. In this way thousands of dollars of the cost of printing those clumsy Journals would be saved; and without adding anything to the cost of clerkships, a readable and authentic Journal of the State Legislation would be secured to the public Archives and the newspapers throughout the country, instead of the awkward unreliable matter which now passes for that.

The coming session, without doubt will be unusually interesting, because the Debates will be in a great measure, upon the war policy of the president, and the ways and means of restoring the Union to what it was; and the Brevier Reports will be, as it has been for years past, the only source from which reliable reports of the Debates of the Legislature can be obtained.

ALFRED and W. H. DRAPER,
Reporters and Publishers.

South Bend, Indiana, October 25th 1862.

☞No attention will be paid to any order without money. Address the Publishers as above till New Years' Day; after that time, until the close of the session, at Indianapolis.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an Execution issued by the Clerk of the Marshall Court of Common Pleas and to me directed, in favor of Julius A. Baylor, et al, and against Peter Smith, I have levied upon and will offer at public sale to the highest lawful bidder, as the law directs, before the Court House Door in the town of Plymouth in the County of Marshall and State of Indiana, on between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. of said day; the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, of the following described Real Estate situate in Marshall County and State aforesaid, to-wit:

Lot number Thirty-Two (32) in Uniontown, in that part of said town surveyed by J B N Klinge; If the rents and profits of said real estate for seven years will not sell for a sum sufficient to satisfy said execution, interest, cost and accruing costs, I will at the same time and place offer for sale to the highest lawful bidder, all the right title and interest of the said defendant in and to the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said writ.
