THE DEMOCRAT.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

We had a fine rain on Tuesday evening last, which was much needed.

Miss SMITH and Mrs. PIERCE have opened a Millinery and Mantaumaking Store one door west of T. A. Simons' grocery store.

We were saluted with quite a brisk snow squall last Sunday afternoon.

The Livery stock of Hess and Nessell was disposed of last Saturday at auction. Mr. Nessell is absent, and we have not learned whether or not Mr. Hess intends to continue the business.

The Edwards House, many of the stores, and a number of private residences were illuminated last Monday evening, in honor of the success of our armies in Virginia, and North Carolina.

We know of two or three professed christians—members of religious denominations in this place—who are so holy in their own estimation that they refuse to speak to those with whom they disagree in political sentiment. Nice christians are they! None need take the cap unless it fits.

We learn from the LaPorte Union, that quite an extensive revival has been going on in the various denominations at that place. Meetings are being held regularly by the Baptists, Christians, and Methodists, and much interest is manifested by their several congregations.

The trial of Jonathan Crow, one of the parties arrested some weeks ago on a charge of robbing in Elkhart County, was concluded last week at Goshen, the jury rendering a verdict of ten years imprisonment in the penitentiary, and five hundred dollars fine. The trial of the young man Francis, who was also arrested on the same charge, was on his application continued until the next term of the Elkhart Circuit Court.

The Hutchinson Vocalists are advertised to sing at Woodward Hall this evening. Having never heard them, we cannot recommend their singing, but refer our readers to small bills, and the following extract from the Boston traveler, for information:

"The sweetest music we ever heard in Boston comes from the Hutchinson Family. The entertainment they give is of the most pleasing character. We sat last evening in perfect delight as they sang their songs of "Friendship and Freedom." The little boy, Dennett, is a marvel, and it is worth three times the price of tickets to hear him. He brought down rounds of applause. All the Boston children should hear those sweet vocalists. All their songs are excellent in tone and elevating in character, and will be appreciated in these times of Freedom and War.—Those who have yet to hear them have a treat in store."

The Peru Republican says: "Our enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Bacon & Nicoles, are about opening out an agricultural Store in Plymouth. The people of that region will find them honorable dealers, and we wish them complete success." We will publish the advertisement of these gentlemen next week.

There was a terrible rush from the country last Monday to hear the news; persons flocked in to town all day, in large numbers, and the streets presented a very lively appearance; but all this is nothing compared with the great rush witnessed every day at the store of S. & M. Becker, the excitement continues to increase, and will become still greater when they move across the way into the new brick block.

J. E. Westervelt & Co.,

At the Regulator, and where they never have but "ONE PRICE," you will always find a good assortment of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, at the lowest prices for cash. They do not permit any to undersell them, and at this time they would be pleased to give prices to all persons who intend purchasing goods in this market.

The anvilading last Friday night drew quite a crowd of persons into the town on Saturday, all anxious to learn the news.—While here, many took occasion to make their purchases preparatory to commencing the usual spring work, thus making quite a busy day for our merchants and business men generally.

The Masonic Hall now being constructed in Brownlee's brick block, will when finished, be the most eligible and commodious of any occupied by the fraternity in the northern portion of the State. It will be dedicated perhaps about the 24th of June, at which time the Lodge will take possession.

We have received the May number of Peterson's Magazine. The Engraving entitled "Wild Flowers," is a happy conception of the artist and well executed.—The literary contents are inviting, while the Fashion plates and patterns will prove interesting to our lady readers.—Terms; $2 a year.

The president has issued a proclamation closing the ports of the southern states and declaring the blockade at an end. It is believed that the British government, upon the receipt of this document, will revoke its recognition of confederate beligerent rights.

Arthur's Home Magazine for May is received. It has a splendid engraving, and the wood cut entitled My Ain Fireside, is a good illustration of the comforts of home in a well regulated family. The literature of the number compares favorably with that of its predecessors. Address with $2 50, T. S. Arthur & Co., Philada.

The Recent Election.

It will be seen by the official returns, which we publish elsewhere, that the vote of this county at the recent election, was unusually light, but they show conclusively that Old Marshall is soundly democratic. Bourbon and Polk townships are justly entitled to wear the palm, and we can do no less than congratulate them on the healthy state of political sentiment within their borders. The majority in the county is much larger than we expected under the circumstances.

It may, we think, be fairly presumed that the relative value of gold and greenbacks will remain for some time to come very nearly as at present. A fluctuation of a few cents either way from present values may, and probably will take place from time to time, but two dollars in gold is worth about three dollars in greenbacks, and will so continue for some length of time to come.

Official Vote on Trustee.

The following is the official vote of Marshall County on Trustee at the recent township election:

PEACE OR WAR.—Paul having sold out his Boot and Shoe Store to G. S. Cleveland, desires to settle up the business immediately, and respectfully requests all persons indebted to him to call at once, at the old stand, where he may be found for a short time, and square their accounts.—He hopes all will see the necessity of complying with this request. n31tf

The prices of all kinds of goods, produce and labor are yet above the present value of gold in the market. As a general thing produce is the first to feel the downward tendency, merchandise next, and labor last. On the other hand, when prices are going up, merchandise takes the lead, produce follows next in order, and labor brings up the rear. Our readers will do well to look to these things, take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

There were several beautiful illuminations last Monday evening—business houses and private residences shed forth their lights in magnificent splendor, and we doubt if our city was ever before so brilliantly lit up. There was some difference of opinion as to who had the nicest lights, but we think the residence of Messrs. Buck & Toan far excelled them all, the taste displayed in the uniform arrangement of the lights, was the admiration of every observer.

MARRIED.

At La Porte, Ind., on the 6th inst., by Rev. J. E. Chapin, Mr. J. M. DALE and Miss BETTIE FULLER, all of Plymouth.

The printers were kindly remembered by the bride, and join most heartily in wishing the happy pair a long life of joy and prosperity.

On the 9th inst., by C. Grube, Esq., Mr. JOHN SNYDER to Miss MARY HAMMONT, all of this county.

On Tuesday evening, 28 ult., at the residence of Joseph K. Edgerton, in this city, by the Rev. J. S. Large, Lieut. HENRY B. RUMSEY, U. S. N., to Miss HELEN EDGERTON, second daughter of Joseph K. Edgerton.—Ft Wayne Sentinel.

The spring is not yet sufficiently advanced to pronounce positively on the condition of the out standing wheat crop. It was feared that the crop was to a great extent winter killed, but farmers from different portions of the county, inform us that so far the prospect is about as good as usual. Something less than the usual quantity was sown last fall. Very little oats has as yet been sown, the season being backward, and the weather very dry, and for the most part cold. Help is very scarce and in great demand, and wages will probably be high for the whole season, Those who desire help would do well to secure it at as early a day as possible, as it will be difficult in a few weeks we fear, to procure hands at any price. The crops must be looked after, no matter at what cost, as upon them all classes depend for subsistence. Other branches of business might be suspended, and still the masses of the people would do very well for a time, but their very existence depends upon the labor of the farmer, and their prosperity upon his success.

Now that the season for gardening has again arrived, we suggest that all who can procure at once a dozen or so of hens and go to raising chickens, its so very interesting to see them flocking together at the call of their maternal ancestor, to devour some unlucky worm that has just been unearthed by dint of laborious scratching from the middle of an onion or salad bed, or from the center of a hill of young cucumber vines. The trouble to neighbors is nothing compared with the delights occasioned by the study of ornithology as manifested in the maternal instincts of a hen with about ten or fifteen chickens, actively engaged in providing for their wants by the use of their pedal extremities in the gardens of the aforesaid neighbors.

These Bitters are prepared, in pure Bourbon Whisky, from a combination of over twenty different kinds of roots, barks and herbs, which act in perfect concert one with the other, prepared from the original formula given by the great chief, Red Jacket, to Dr. Chapin, who used them successfully in his practice for many years, and by their use gained so great a popularity in the treatment and cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sick and Nervous Headache, Fever and Ague, and all diseases arising from torpid liver or indigestion. Persons suffering from either of these loathsome diseases will find a sure cure by the use of these Bitters, which are perfectly pure and free from all those drugs and poisons usually put up in such preparations and palmed off on an unsuspecting public. A single trial will convince the most skeptical that in the RED JACKET there is virtue which no other Bitters possess.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
