White Men or Mongrels.

We suppose that a certain class of democrats will never get it into their heads that Abolition is a mere incident in American politics, until it is beaten out of their brains by another and still more horrible civil war than that of the past seven years. The party that elected Lincoln was simply and wholly an abolition party, that is, was pledged to abolish the condition of the negro and amalgamate him in our political system. It did not propose to directly do this in the states, but to so wield the patronage and power of the federal government that in time all would be worked out, the distinction of race would be obliterated, and whites and negroes equalized and harmonized together, the country would be at peace. Therefore, no matter what a man was on anything else, bank or anti-bank, tariff or anti-tariff, democrat or know nothing, if he was sound on abolition, that was all that was needed. And when secession followed Lincoln's election he knew, and the leaders of the party knew, that he had only one word to say to stop it, but he would not say that word, for it gave up the "idea" that made the party. They had no desire to overthrow the rights of the states, but they were forced to do so to carry out their "idea." Nor did they wish to contract an enormous debt, or to sacrifice half a million of lives, but they must do so or abandon their "idea," of course. But democrats will not face that "idea;" for twenty years they got up dodges and shams to avoid it, and the southern democracy seceded, ran away, to escape from it. And even now, after all the devilment of the past six years, some democrats try to avoid it, and insist on other issues—state rights, paying the debt in greenbacks, etc.

It is very wonderful to us how men can be so stupid. Whenever they have the courage and sense to meet the main question, they will find they were frightened by the roar and big pretentions of the meanest, most revolting and utterly feeble monster that ever scared babies or idiots. The sole question is amalgamation with niggers—no more, no less—abolition of the negro's condition and his amalgamation in ours, and for this, to mate and marry their children with the sooty-kinned, flat-nosed, and long-heeled nigger, half a million of Americans have given their lives, and, each of us, pay taxes every day of our lives God help us! We have given our blood and wasted our treasure to mongrelize ourselves and degrade our posterity into mulattoes and quadroons, and yet stupid fellows propose to set up other issues, and keep the people in blindness of this awful crime. But it must not be. Every earnest democrat must walk straight up to the criminals and take them by the throat at once. We must restore the country to its normal condition, the negro must be left where God placed him, and every man and woman, too, who wants to amalgamate, must be thrust among the negroes or from the country they would destroy in their impious and revolting madness. A democrat should no more permit a Beecher or a Cheever to sit at table with him, than he would the real negro, and brought down to this test we should soon bring the country to its senses.—N. Y. Day-Book.

Poverty in the South.

If there is business prostration in the north, there is through a considerable part of the south utter destitution, giving rise to anxiety on the part of many as to the prospects of subsistence through the coming winter. Apprehension appears to be more general than at any time before, since the close of the war. The Wilmington, North Carolina, Journal, says:

From every portion of the south the most alarming reports come of the utter poverty and helplessness of the people. In a few or no portions of this section have the labors of the year, now drawing to a close, been remunerative, and the employer and employee find themselves without means and without profitable business or engagement for the future. Even the stock of provisions in many portions of the south is inadequate to support the population, and with failure of crops, demoralization of labor, and government tax, our people will begin the new year under circumstances most unfavorable. Long before another season can return us the profits of industry, we fear the want and suffering in the southern states will be far beyond that which has been known during the past two years.

The Norfolk, Virginia Journal of the 50th inst., remarks:

The rigors of winter are upon us, and the pinchings of want, heretofore so generally unfelt throughout our land, are more or less experienced by every class.

There are very few families whose worldly condition has not undergone sad and unaccustomed change. From comparative affluence and ease many have been reduced to the necessity of struggling against the physical forces opposed to them, and are learning that dire lesson of accommodating themselves to circumstances and the altered condition of things, the transitions from comparative plenty to a state bordering on the confines of what is a severe ordeal. Distress may be said to be universal.

Referring to the engagements of labor for the coming year among agriculturists, the Richmond Whig says:

The political agitation now going on among the negro masses is almost destructive of that regularity and system so necessary in those great operations upon which productions depend, and the still cherished hallucinations as to the acquisition of free farms and all those necessary to carrying them on, interfere sadly with the formation of labor contracts.

The continued derangement of the labor system of the south, and the lack of money, added to the business depression common to almost every section, combine to render the situation as one of peculiar trial.

Senator Grimes said in the senate that the foundation of the west front, north of the senate chamber, had sunk some four inches. Senator Hendricks said when he was in the house some years ago a committee had reported that the foundations of the capitol were insecure, but he was now satisfied that the idea was groundless, and believes the capitol would stand a thousand years.

THERE are in Massachusetts 30,000 more women than men.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

Hoofland's German Tonic.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the

LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of South Croix Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which to his investigations possesses merit, is truly compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

Hoofland's German Bitters,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are self-confessed in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. These, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' to be a good tonic, useful in dyspepsia, diseases of the digestive organs, and of great nervous debility, and in cases of want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 8, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D.D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but generally, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.
