Indiana State University.

The University Trustees have created an additional Chair, in the Law Department, by which arrangement, law students can have tuition during the nine months of the college year. Judge Bicknell is chosen to fill one of the chairs—the other is yet to be filled.

For a Law Library, $2,000 was set aside; the sum of $500 was appropriated for the purchase of books for the University Library.

Rev. Stephen Bowers, of Vincennes, had the degree of A.M. conferred upon him; J. W. Gordon of Indianapolis, was made an L.L.D. The Degree of A.M. was also conferred upon the class of '66.

Two new Chairs—Modern Languages, and Civil Engineering and Mining, were also created, but, as yet, no choice of Professors has been made.

It was suggested by Barnabas C. Hobbs, Superintendent of Public Instruction, that the town and county ought to put up a Graded School Building, and in connection with it a building to contain Prof. Owen's Cabinet.

Heretofore, in the Law Department, Seniors were required to pay $30.00; Juniors $25.00, with a graduating fee of $5.00. The Law Department is now free to all. The amount thus saved, will be quite an item to such students as are dependent upon their individual exertions, to secure an education.

CHRONICLES.—In Bloomington, a prominent inland city of Indiana, dwelt a worker in fine gold, who was baptized as John P. Smith. And it came to pass that John had a vision—a progressive spirit appeared to him, crying "Arise, gird thy loins, select a house on the west side of the square, ornament it, place thy goods upon its shelves, and then shall the people, with one voice exclaim, 'O, great is John P. Smith, for his store exceeds in beauty the palaces foretold of by the prophets.' Then straightway did John accomplish the wonderful works required of him in the vision, and the people gazed as the work was being done, and marveled greatly. And it came to pass that in the sixth month of the year, when the doors of the new store first were thrown open, an immense multitude were gathered together, who implored him to give them of his rich goods for the greenbacks they wildly thrust into his face. Now John was a patient man and slow to anger, so he took the money and solemnly said, "Behold, my friends, I give thee these standard American Watches, this gold jewelry, and my fancy goods, and of thy greenbacks will I take a few, for the wholesale dealers delight in them greatly." And the multitude were exceedingly glad, and went away to sing the praises of Jeweler John P. Smith.

THE REDUCTION of the National Debt during the month of June, is shown by the official report of the Secretary of the Treasury to be $16,410,131 54; the reduction of the debt for the first four months of General Grant's administration is shown to be thirty-six million, four hundred and sixty thousand, seven hundred and seventy-nine dollars and forty-three cents. We have looked carefully through our Democratic exchanges, to see what would be said about this promising state of affairs, but they maintain a sullen silence on the subject. Why is it; are they not rejoiced at the brightening prospects of the country, or are they see no virtue in a Republican administration?

"Comical Ghosts," and "She was just about the Age," are the titles of two pieces of music received from John Church & Co. of Cincinnati, O.

AT THE Great New York Store of Chas. P. Tuley & Co. the interest on the part of customers, is as great as ever. This firm keep an immense stock of goods, and every line is largely represented. You can get a fine Hat, a full suit of clothes—shirt, drawers, pants, vest, neck-tie and coat—and a neat-fitting pair of Boots, at this store—they will dress a man "from top to toe," and at a very small expenditure of money. If you buy $20 worth, they deduct 5 per cent., and $19 pays the bill. The New York Store is on the south side of the public square. Mind that.

A Railroad Item.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—It is very affable, indeed it is, to see how our worthy friend of the Progress laughs at our efforts in striving to procure a Rail Road, East and West. He must be very mad about something, wonder what it is? wonder if he would not like a pass over it now? If he will have the kindness to call on me, I will give him one to Starvation Bottom or Fiddler's Green.

The above we find in the Bloomington Democrat of last Saturday. "R," it is generally understood, means Professor Raney. "Affable," according to Webster's Dictionary, means "civil, easy of manner or conversation," so that it is somewhat difficult to understand the Professor's meaning. The Professor accuses us of laughing at his (the Professor's) efforts to procure a railroad. Now the Professor was never more mistaken in his life. We want to see the Professor's railroad, and would willingly pay some taxes to procure it. How much will the Professor pay? We are in earnest about the railroad business, and would like to see some of the prominent railroad men who were to consult with the Professor, and many more of the business men of Bloomington would like to see them. The Professor exhibits a very unkind and unchristian spirit, the Professor does, in signifying his desire to give us "a pass to Starvation Bottom." If the Professor has so much of this world's goods, and the power that money gives, the Professor should entertain a feeling of charity toward us poor Bloomingtonites. We cannot all be Professors of Mineralogy, nor builders of railroads, and hence haven't the money nor the influence which is the exclusive property of the Professor. This is our misfortune, not our fault. Toward the Professor we entertain none but the kindest feelings, and humbly beg that the Professor will allow us, and many more of the people of Bloomington, to entertain our own views in the matter of railroads—that the Professor will permit us poor wretches, who unfortunately own property in Bloomington, to express our feelings occasionally, though our views should not entirely agree with the Professor's. Grant us this our Prayer, O, Professor, and thine shall be the power and glory, forever and ever.

The School Trustees.

Held an election, on Tuesday, July 6th, 1869, for Teachers of the Graded School, and the following named ladies were chosen: Julia Ross, Mattie J. Small, Annie L. Rice, Mrs. Lou Evans, Mattie L. Mercer, Miss S. J. McCord and Gertrude Hayes. E. P. Cole was re-elected Superintendent.

Chips and Splinters.

James S. Rawlins, of Columbia, Missouri, was elected to address the Alumni of Indiana State University, in 1870.—Wallace Hight tells us that the farmers out on Rocky Branch, north of town, (including himself) are building a gravel road. Gravel can be procured from the bed of the stream, and with but little labor, a good road may be constructed.—Wm. McPhetridge has the contract for moving G. W. Batterson's house, and his job is rapidly nearing completion. Mac is full of energy and activity, and will succeed in anything he undertakes.—A. J. Mitchell, we learn, has secured a position on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and has abandoned his Ice Cream Saloon enterprise. Jack is a No. 1 railroad man, and deserves a good situation.

The Auditor advertises for proposals to build two stone abutments for a bridge across Clear Creek, near Harrodsburg. Contractors will please make a note of this.—Bloomington has the neatest and most commodious Postoffice in the State (excepting only Indianapolis) as well as the most accommodating and competent Postmaster.—The drawings, for the Jail and Sheriff's residence, can be seen at the Auditor's Office. The building will present a handsome appearance, and will be an ornament to the city, when built.—One mile from Worthington, is a sycamore tree, which, at a height of six feet from the ground, measures 39 feet and 11 inches in circumference, so says Col. Wines, of Bloomfield.—Next Saturday, July 10th, is fixed upon as the "Last Day," by the Millerites, or Second Adventists. It is doubtful whether the earth will burn with any degree of readiness, after being so thoroughly soaked with rain. It may be, however, that the smoky condition of the atmosphere is attributable to the impending conflagration—the fire may have already begun, at the outer edges, and Monroe county being the center of the earth of course, several days may intervene before it reaches us.—Marriage Licenses were granted to R. C. Robinson and Sarah Chamberlain, Theodore Buskirk and Jennie Hill, Thomas Scolland and Annie Deegan, James Lincicomb and Mary S. Lincicomb, Robert Stout and Ellen Knight.—Some of the "west side" fellows found time, last Monday afternoon, to tie a box to the caudal appendage of an immense black dog, that has, for a week or more, been dozing in front of Nolan's. Mr. Dog didn't care a cent for the noisy addition to his tail, and the artists who attempted the sensation, lost their box and twine, without value received in the way of fun.—One of the most lamentable features connected with Fourth of July on Sunday, is the fact that many of the first colored citizens of Bloomington, were wending their way to afternoon Prayer Meeting, when the brass band came past the Methodist Church. Their minds were prepared for worship—their eyes turned inward, reviewing the acts of the past week, and with becoming humility they were about to pour forth their souls in hymns of praise; but alas, suddenly they were brought to a realizing sense of the wickedness of the human heart—even the heart of the white man—by the rattle and crash of a brass band. All else we might forgive; this, never! Go to, thou workers of iniquity.—The hogs have two very fine bathing places, on the public square, and are making the most of their opportunities, this wet summer.—A correspondent writes to us, asking what difference there is between a violation of "aesthetic taste," and a violation of auricular taste—wants to know, you know, if the constant braying of an incipient brass band, is not more annoying than an occasional glimpse of a brush pile?—We are grieved to learn that a pious friend who owes us $2.50, had his feelings lacerated by those patriotic fellows last Sunday. We trust his grief will not cause him to ignore that little account.—Business is quite brisk—in the harvest field.

Shelburne Falls, Vermont, has a citizen who claims to be the "champion horse swapper." He is now forty years of age, and has traded horses over 600 times.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence, JOHN B. OUDEN, No. 42 Cedar street, N. Y. May 28—1y.

IMPORTANT FACT.—We see that persons of strong constitutions, and young, suffer for days with pain of the limbs, loss of appetite and fever, who suddenly get well after a cholera followed by slimy, bilious stools. The relief produced by these evacuations were the original guide to the idea and practice of purgation, and which, when enforced by Brandreth's Pills, always benefits, usually cures, and often prevents disease, especially Scoury Fever and diseases of similar character.

I. L. Cook, publisher of the "State Banner," Bennington, Vt. says Brandreth's Pills cured him of Dyspepsia, after being afflicted with it over five years. His friends and doctors considered his recovery impossible; but six boxes of Brandreth's Pills restored his health perfectly.

A young lady of Mount Pleasant was sorely troubled with Tape-worm. All advice and medicine failed to help her. She had no rest. Thin, carrowen and unhappy, she looked the picture of misery. At last she concluded to try Brandreth's Pills. In one year she took seventy-two boxes. They brought away, according to her computation, over two hundred yards of tape-worm. At length all her bad symptoms left her; she slept and ate naturally, and her health became fully restored.

"A WORD TO HORSEMEN."—DR. TOBIAS' Celebrated Venetian Horse Liniment has been tested by the first Horsemen in this country, and proved to be superior to any other. The late Hiram Woodruff, of "rotting fame," was never without a bottle in his stable. It is also used by Col. Bush, of the Jerome Park Course, at Fox-dam, N. Y., who has over twenty running horses under his care, among which rank some of the finest stock in America. It is warranted to cure Lameness, Sprains, Scratches, Bruises, Galls, Cuts, Wind Galls, Colic, Sore Throat, Nod in the Foot, and Over Heating, when used according to the directions.

All who own or employ Horses are assured that this Liniment will do all, if not more, in curing the above named complaints. No horse need die of Colic, if when first taken, the Liniment is used according to the directions. Always have a bottle in your stable.

Price, in Pint bottles, One Dollar. The genuine is signed S. I. Tobias, on the outside wrapper. For sale by the Druggists, Saddlers, and Storekeepers throughout the United States. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

A GREAT POLITICAL REVOLUTION was accompanied by the election of Grant, and resulted in a new social insurance has been effected by the general substitution of that pure and harmless preparation, Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye, for the deadly compound of lead and brimstone, of which, according to the Journal of Chemistry and the Medical Gazette, more than thirty varieties have been foisted upon the public! Cristadoro's Dye is the only one that

HAS BEEN ANALYZED: and Professor Chilton, with his own signature, declares that it is perfectly wholesome. Cristadoro's Hair Preservation, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. Try it. Sold by all Druggists.

If you do not feel well, you send for a doctor, he calls upon you, looks inside your head, and says, "some hieroglyphics upon a piece of paper which you take to a drug store, and there pay out to $1.00 for the doctor's fee, for a remedy nine times out of ten not half as good as Judson's Mountain Herb Pills, which is only 25cts. per box. Do you think the former the best because you pay the most for it, if you do, we advise you to use just for an experiment the Judson's Mountain Herb Pills and see for yourself, that they are one of the best family medicines that you can have for your children, Indigestion, Biliousness, Jaundice, and all Female Irregularities. Give the Mountain Herb Pills a trial. Sold by all dealers.

De Soto Mutual Life Ins. Co.,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

CASH CAPITAL, $150,000 00

Stockholders' Responsibility Assured, $200,000 00

THE DE SOTO MUTUAL

Takes the position that money being worth more in the West than in the East enables a well managed Western company to declare a better dividend than any Eastern one can.

Then why should our citizens send their money East to be loaned at 7 per cent. to build up rival interests, when our own people want the money at 10 per cent. interest, and will furnish just as good security? To concentrate capital at home, to develop the resources of OUR OWN COUNTRY, is a matter in which every Western citizen has an interest.

THE DE SOTO MUTUAL

In maturing its plan, and in giving up the Policy the company issues, secured the aid of the highest mathematical ability that could obtain, and the experience and wisdom of those who have for years made Life Insurance a business and a study. No Life Insurance Company now before the public stands on a more solid and substantial basis, than the De Soto Mutual. The company stands pledged to its policy holders for $300,000—a sum double its cash capital. The stringent law under which it was organized makes each stockholder liable for double the amount of his stock. Every company organized under the new and rigid laws of Missouri have to make a deposit with the Treasurer of State of $100,000, subject to the inspection and under the supervision of the Superintendent of Insurance, whose duty it is to make an annual report to the Legislature, showing the condition of all companies organized or doing business in said State.

The De Soto Mutual

We believe issues a BETTER POLICY than any company in the United States. It is a plain, simple, short, yet comprehensive contract, not liable to the doubtful construction which characterizes many Life Policies, and does not make the usual restrictions on travel.

THE DE SOTO MUTUAL makes all policies non-forfeitable; divides surplus among policy holders; takes only first class risks. Rates as low as leading cash companies. No extra charge for insuring the lives of females.

The French Coffee Pot.

The Newest Novelty.

Persons who desire good, clear coffee, should procure one of the famous manufactured in Bloomington, at the store of James Small. With this Coffee Pot, all the flavor of the coffee bean is retained, with all the balsamic and stimulating powers of its essence; and the coffee is clarified without the use of eggs, limings, or any of the substances usually necessary.

FRENCH COFFEE POTS,
