Look Out for a Thief!

ON Sunday, the 2d inst., a man calling himself JOHN DOHERTY, ran away from the house of the undersigned, in the Lower Prairie 3 1-2 miles below Vincennes, taking with him a rifle. He took the gun under the pretence of going on a hunting excursion, but has not since been heard of. Any person catching said Doherty, and delivering him with the property which he stole to the subscriber, shall be liberally rewarded. Said Doherty is about six feet high—had on when he left a jeans coat, a pair of hard-times pantaloons, and a white fur hat.

BRONCHITIS! BRONCHITIS!!

Beware of that dread destroyer,

The Bronchitis!

Which spares neither the Young, the Good, or the Beautiful, but is annually carrying thousands upon thousands to a premature grave under the mistaken name of Consumption.—The usual symptoms of this disease are, Cough, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hectic Fever, a Spitting up of Phlegm or Matter, and sometimes Blood. It is an inflamation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the small wind tubes or air vessels running through every part of the lungs. The great and effectual remedy for this alarming and wide-spreading disease is the

Rev. I. Covert's Balm of Life.

This new and valuable Medicine is universally prominent, by the multitudes who have used it and tested its healing virtues, to be the most wonderful and admirable remedy in the world for the cure of BRONCHITIS, CHRONIC SEVERE COUGH, ASTHMA, WHOOPING COUGH, and all diseases of the LUNGS and WINDPIPE, which, if neglected soon lead to REAL Consumption.

The BALM OF LIFE stands entirely aloof from the various Quack Nostrums of the day, having invariably won the confidence of Physicians, Clergymen, and the intelligent of all classes, wherever it has been introduced. Philanthropists and all who truly sympathize with human suffering, every where hail its appearance with heart-felt joy, and looking upon the BALM OF LIFE as one of those great and uncommon blessings which a kind Providence occasionally bestows on man, but which, like angel's visits, are few and far between.

Rev. I. Covert's Balm of Life.

From the Rev. D. Moore.—In 1825 my lungs became seriously diseased, and continued so for nearly fourteen years, and about six years since I was attacked with a chronic bronchitis which occasioned me much pain and distress, attended by difficult breathing and pains in various parts of the chest. In March last I purchased a bottle of Rev. I. Covert's Balm of Life and the effect has been that my breathing is about as free as before I was taken, my chronic bronchitis nearly if not altogether cured, and the pains of the chest have subsided. I have great confidence in the Balm of Life, and think it a good and safe medicine.

DAVID MOORE.

Aurelius, N. Y. Aug. 21, 1839.

---

The nature of the composition of the Rev. I. Covert's Balm of Life having been carefully explained to the following medical gentlemen they have pronounced that they may be referred to as authority for its utility as an expectorant in those hard cases of pulmonary disease, in which that class of remedies is indicated.

D. M. Reese, M. D. Professor of the Theory and Practice of Medicine in the Albany Medical College.

J. McNaughton, M. D. Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, in the Fairfield Medical College.

Mark Stephenson, M. D. New York city.
D. M. McKnight, M. D. do do
J. Mitchell, M. D. Philadelphia.

From the Rev. B. Bourne, A. B., Teacher of Languages to the Cazenovia Seminary.—This certifies that I have successfully used the Rev. I. Covert's Balm of Life. In the case of an obstinate cold which resulted in a settled inflamation of the lungs, the Balm of Life, after the trial of several other medicines for several weeks, effected a gradual but permanent cure.

The following from the Rev. L. Halsey, D. D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History, &c. in the Auburn Theological Seminary, has just been received.

Rev. I. Covert—My dear Sir—In reference to your medicine I deem it my duty to state, that for a long time I have been afflicted with a Chronic Bronchitis and its usual accompaniments, and was induced to try your preparation on the assurance from medical men that it contained no deleterious ingredients. The result has been the alleviation of the painful sensations and the gradual restoration of healthy function to the throat, so that I am enabled to return to the labors of the desk. I think the medicine is entitled to the attention of all persons similarly affected.

Yours truly, LUTHER HALSEY.

Auburn Theological Seminary, March 9, 1840.

This certifies that having examined the Rev. I. Covert's Balm of Life in all its component parts, we do believe it to be one of the best compounds for coughs consumptions, chronic inflammations, &c. of which we have any knowledge and do most cordially recommend its use to all afflicted with the above named diseases.

American Ladies' National MAGAZINE.

Godey's Lady's Book for 1842 the most splendid and valuable monthly periodical ever published. The only Magazine devoted to ladies, and conducted by members of their own sex. Composed entirely of original articles, by the most eminent writers of the age; and embellished with a larger number and greater variety of costly, elegant, and attractive pictorial illustrations, than any similar publication. Edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, Morton M'Michael, L. A. Godey. Contributors to each number, Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. E. C. Embury, Theodore S. Fay, N. P. Willis, Mrs. C. Lee Bentz, T. S. Arthur, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, N. C. Willis, Esq.

In announcing to his numerous patrons and the public at large his arrangements for the year 1842, the proprietor of Godey's Lady's Book takes occasion to acknowledge the unparalleled and triumphant success of his Magazine, which has now reached the extraordinary number of 30,000 copies monthly, being a larger edition than has ever been printed of any other work of any description in America. This success he is aware has been attained by the vast superiority which the Lady's Book has always maintained over the various contemporary magazines which have attempted to rival its merits, a superiority which he is still determined to preserve, by keeping it in all its departments, literary, intellectual and moral, as well as pictorial, ornamental, artistic, and mechanical. That this is no idle boast, he appeals to experience of the past twelve years, in which time he has more no promise to the public which he has not fully performed, nor undertaken any thing which his means did not enable him to accomplish to the utermost.

Entering as he is about to do, on the 24th volume of the Lady's Book, with increased energy and accumulated resources, with an ample stock of the business in which he is engaged, acquired by long years of unremitted application, with a subscription list unparalleled in the annals of literature, with numerous facilities not possessed by any other publisher, with well-designed and effectively extended arrangements, and above all with a steadfast purpose of maintaining the lofty elevation his work has reached, the proprietor feel justified in more expensive, which under other circumstances might well prove startling, but by means of which he will be enabled to make the Lady's Book the richest, the purest, the most attractive, and the most valuable periodical intrinsically and extrinsically, ever offered to the American public.

Literary Department.

It has ever been the aim of the proprietor to render the Lady's Book a high literary and moral work, and for this purpose he has, without regard to cost, procured the aid of the most eminent writers, and, for several years past, has received literary contributions from Mrs. S. J. Hale, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, and Miss E. Leslie, ladies of whom not only their own sex, but the whole country, have reason to be proud.—In this respect the Lady's Book has a decided advantage over all other publications, as it is the only work devoted to ladies, which has in view—an advantage which must be obvious to every parent, husband, brother, and friend, as well as to every lady who properly appreciates the dignity and importance of her sex. To add to its superiority in this particular, the proprietor has secured, in addition to the ladies already mentioned, the invaluable services of Miss C. M. Sedgwick, author of Redwood, Clarence, Letters from England, &c. &c. a writer, whose efforts in raising our intellectual standard of her sex, and vindicating the true rights of woman, not less than her richly-gifted intellect and varied information have gained her a reputation as wide as it will be enduring. He has also made arrangements by which he receives regular contributions from Mrs. E. C. Embury, Mrs. F. S. Osgood, Mrs. D. H. Parsons, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. V. E. Howard, Miss E. Anna, Mrs. S. B. Farley, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. H. B. Stowe, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. L. Thayer, Mrs. C. L. Bentz, Mrs. E. C. Stedman, Miss M. M. Duncan, Mrs. M. S. Lane Lenoir, Mrs. C. H. W. Ewing, Miss M. B. Shaw, Kate Franklin.—He will be enabled to furnish numerous articles from Maria Edgeworth, Mary R. Mitford, Mrs. L. B. Walford, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Mrs. H. Bland, Mary Howitt, and other English lady writers of Reputation, some of whom have already published in the Lady's Book the only original contributions they have ever made to American literature. Nor has he neglected to procure the assistance of eminent writers of the opposite sex. A note of the universal and well-deserved popularity of N. P. Willis, Esq. and confident that the productions of his graceful and elegant pen will be mainly acceptable to the readers of the Lady's Book, the proprietor has entered into an arrangement by which he will be enabled to give in each number of his work an exclusive article from the gentleman, and he also retained all the contributors whose writings have heretofore given such an peculiar attraction, including W. G. Simms, Esq. professor Longstreet, Professor Dimitry, Professor Frost, Professor Walter, P. Benjamin, Esq. R. S. Mackenzie, Ll. D., T. S. Arthur, Esq. H. W. Hebert, J. C. Neal, Hon. R. T. Conrad, Dr. J. F. Mitchell, E. Sargent, Geo. P. Morris, J. R. Chandler, R. Morris, P. Fare, M. D., N. C. Brooks, A. M., E. Holden, A. M'Makin, L. F. Tasistro, R. Dawes, E. C. Squier, J. M'Clellan, Jr., J. Aldrich.

With such aid, it is not to much to say that the Literary Department of the Lady's Book will surpass any thing that has ever been or can be attempted.

Business Department.—The price of this publication is three dollars per annum—two copies one year in advance $5.

Those of our friends wanting to subscribe to the best Two Dollar Family Newspaper published in this city, can be accommodated as follows:

Two copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, and Godey's Lady's Book, 1 year, will be sent for $5.
