THE MYSTERY SOLVED.

THERE has been much inquiry and legislation as to the manner in which the interest of the State debt is to be paid without making our condition worse than at present, but I have found the practicable way in which it can be done—use my new Coffee Pot, which saves fully one-third of the coffee, lost in the form of vapor by evaporation, and as a number of persons can testify, gives a rich flavored beverage far superior to any method ever invented. I claim it as a new article, and have all the models and improvements. I will fill all orders, say not more than the prices of a common boiler.—To all lovers of good coffee Come and Economize!
