JUST PUBLISHED

And for sale at this Office.

A complete reviſion of the Laws of the INDIANA TERRITORY. And alſo, the Acts passed at the Seſſion of 1807.

☞ Price 3 Dollars and 50 Cents in Boards, or 3 Dollars ſtitched.

JOHN WOODCOCK.

SADDLER, &c.

HAS commenced buſineſs in the houſe on Main Street, formerly occupied by George Wallace, eſq. as a ſtore, and from his experience in Europe and America, his aſſiduity to buſineſs, the excellence of his materials, and the moderation of his prices, he flatters himſelf, he will meet with a liberal ſhare of public patronage.

N. B. He is alſo about erecting a ſlaughter houſe, and intends killing twice a week. Farmers will pleaſe have their beaves well fed, as he will only kill the beſt of beef.

Public Notice is hereby given,

THAT I ſhall apply to the court of Common Pleas of the county of Knox at their term of November next for an order to eſtabliſh a ferry on the eaſt bank or fork of White River, on the weſt fraction of ſection 32 townſhip 3 N. range 4 W. owned by me—purſuant to a law of the territory upon the ſubject of ferries.

GEN. W. JOHNSTON.

June 24th 1808.

Horſes brought in by the Delaware Indians, and delivered to the Governor ſuppoſed to have been ſtolen.

One ſorrel mare, ſuppoſed to be five years old, has a bald face, both hind legs white, no brand perceivable, about fourteen hands high.

One bay mare four years old, ball face, no brand perceivable, fourteen hands high.

The owner or owners of the above are requeſted to come forward prove property, pay charges and take them away.

JOSEPH BARRON.

FOR SALE,

THE plantation on which I now live, it is as well or better improved than any other in the county—there is eighty acres of cleared land under good fence, and in a high ſtate of cultivation, two hundred young bearing apple trees, and a never failing ſpring of excellent water—for terms apply to the ſubſcriber on the premiſes.
