Words of Commendation.

By those who have personally examined White's File, and are competent to judge of the importance of preserving our valuable literature, and the best method of doing it:

"Having examined the Patent Newspaper File, invented by Rev. Mr. White, we find it a most convenient article for holding all kinds of papers, finally, in a book form. It is not liable to get out of repair, and occupies the smallest amount of space possible for the required purpose. As our leading papers, religious and secular, are of great and permanent interest, some simple and cheap device for holding and preserving them, would not only be a convenience, but also a benefit to the community, by affording the same matter to a vastly greater number of readers. We therefore most heartily recommend it to all who would blend cheapness and efficiency in the preservation of papers, etc."

Rev. M. Simpson, D.D., Bishop of the M. E. Church; Samuel S. Jackson, State Librarian of Massachusetts; E. Thompson, Bishop of the M. E. Church; J. W. Olmsted, Editor of the Watchman and Recorder; GEORGE BANCROFT.

For Sheet Music, call at the Post Office. McPheeters receives all the popular sheet music, as soon as it is published.

THERE has been an unprecedented demand for Watches and Jewelry, at the Great Emporium of Smith & Cochran, during the past week. It is not because people are just finding out that they keep such goods—they advertise too much for that—but because S. & C. are selling their goods so cheap. You can buy a watch, fine breast-pin, ear-rings, and a set of silver spoons, for the same amount of money that was asked for a watch alone, one year ago. Try it.

You can get one of those News Paper Files for FIFTY CENTS.

ARE YOU getting ready to paper your rooms? If so, go to Shoemaker & Co's and examine those new styles of Wall Paper. They have a larger stock than was ever before brought to this town. TEAS, they have the best grades of, such as are recommended by all the old ladies in the county. Try them. Pretty soon, housekeepers will want the wood-work of their houses repainted, and as it is not often that you can find a pure article of White Lead, we will do our readers the favor of telling them that Shoemaker & Co. keep the best in the market.

JOHN P. SMITH, the popular Jeweler and Repairer of Watches finding that the room he had been occupying for several years past, was too small to meet the requirements of his rapidly increasing business, leased the room on the west side of the square, adjoining the auction store, and fitting it up in a manner both elegant and neat, moved to his present location early this Spring. With a commendable determination to excel, Mr. SMITH procured a large, choice and attractive stock of Goods, including fine Jewelry, Musical Instruments, Clocks, and an assortment of American and Foreign Watches, in silver and gold cases, seldom equalled in this portion of the State. He also secured the latest and most approved machinery and tools for the successful prosecution of the business of Watch Repairing, and now bids defiance to competition. Persons having anything in the line of Watch repairing to do, or desiring to supply themselves with the latest styles of Jewelry, or perfect, time-keeping Watches, will consult their best interests by giving JOHN P. SMITH, the West side Jeweler, a call. feb9

TOM SMITH has the finest store room in Indiana, as well as the largest stock of Watches and Jewelry. He will sell a genuine American watch, in coin silver case, for $15, and he sells other "bricks" of watches for $5 and upward. Tom has also added new machinery to that with which his work shop was already supplied, which enables him to do all kinds of watch repairing for about half the prices that others charge, and in a much better manner. He don't patch up your watch so that it will run for a few days, but he supplies new works, instead of the old, so that when it leaves his hands, your time-keeper is as good as new. If you call upon him, he will give you his price list. Dec22f

WANTED—Fifty Young Men, at the Telegraph Institute, Indianapolis, Indiana, to become Operators. There are situations for all who qualify. Send for circular. 4w $20 worth of scrip, for sale at this office.

It is not a little singular that young men are eager to procure situations as clerks and salesmen, at a salary of three or five dollars per week, putting in time from 8 A. M. till 9 or 10 o'clock P. M. each day, when the same amount of time devoted to any respectable trade would yield double the amount of money. The young men of the day seem to look upon labor as undignified and degrading, and carefully shun it. This dislike of work is not confined to the town alone. We are told by farmers that it is impossible to get white men to do farm work; that they have been unable to get wood cut, or rails split, for several years, and that they have only succeeded in this, since the colored men have begun to come among us.

PAPER Collars, the best brands, linen faced, for sale at the Post Office.

Black Alpaca—the prices reduced from $1.00 to 75c.; 75cets. to 50cets. per yard, and other dress goods in proportion, at C. P. Tuley & Co's New York Store.

"We have received a lengthy communication, over the signature of 'Junior,' in which the dwellers in Bloomington are given a merited chastisement for non-attendance upon the Lectures of Prof. Butler. Admitting that the writer's position is correct, the evil he complains of cannot be cured by scolding to the extent of a column or more. We print the closing paragraph, because there is an implied threat in it, that will cause many hearts to quake:

"We think we are safe in saying that two-thirds of the students would petition for the removal of the University to some place where they could have access to Lectures, but if the citizens of B. will do their duty, there will be no call for this."

Wouldn't the auctioneers have an interesting time, selling dining-tables and scrupulous bedsteads, if the removal should be determined upon. Don't do it, "Junior," at least don't do more than "threat."

But seriously, we doubt if Prof. Butler would draw larger audiences in any other town, than those that listened to him here. It is not the lecture itself, that attracts (for lectures, in the majority of cases, are boring). It is the Lecturer that draws. Beecher, Fred. Douglass, Gough or Anna Dickinson, invariably attract crowds. The people flock to see them, rather than to hear them, and herein lies the secret of making Lectures pay expenses.

The Ladies must not forget that J. Glass McPheeters keeps the latest Sheet Music. He will send for any piece you may wish.

Paper Collars at 10c. per box, at the New York Store.

From Rev. W. F. Warren, of Boston. ELB. WHITE—Dear Sir: Everybody has some favorite journal, which they would be glad to preserve in file, and would preserve it for two things, first, the care required to keep it in its original condition, and secondly, the expense of getting it out of the close of the year. Your little invention seems to me to remove both these difficulties, being both a perfect collection of the fugitive numbers, and a secure binding of them all at the end of each year, and it is much cheaper than the use of one or more. Yours truly, W. F. WARREN.

All goods marked down at gold figures, at C. P. Tuley & Co's New York Store.

The Adams Express Company took charge of the route on the L. N. A. & C. Railway, between Louisville and Greencastle, one day last week. The American Merchants' Union Express Company continue on the road above Greencastle. This arrangement necessitates no change of agent at Bloomington.

BOSTON, MASS. We have used for some time "White's Patent Paper File," and find it admirably adapted to its purpose. It is very simple in its adjustment, is of the paper firmly, without tearing, and is much cheaper than any other thing of the kind that we know of. F. RAND, of "Zion's Herald."

The "Stanley" is one of the best brands of Paper Collars sold by McPheeters. The "Stanley" suits almost every one, but should they not suit, he has several other brands that are No. 1.

BOSTON, ATHENS, MASS. REV. H. S. WHITE—Dear Sir: I have made trial of your very ingenious News Paper File, and find them to be very useful. I have seen no form of newspaper file so well adapted to family and office use. I have long sought for some easy, secure, and accessible mode of filing papers. Your apparatus meets my want precisely. I wish you much success in introducing your improvement. Yours, very truly, WILLIAM F. POOLE.

Horse and Jack Bills. With new type, and a number of fine cuts, the Progress Job Printing Office is prepared to print anything in the line of Horse and Jack Bills.

Prints at 10c. per yd., at C. P. Tuley & Co's New York Store.

PUBLIC LIBRARY, Boston. REV. HENRY S. WHITE—Dear Sir: I have examined the Newspaper File which you left with me, and have subjected it to some practical tests. It meets what I deem to be the principal requirements for such an article, far better than anything else I have seen. It is simple in its construction, and easy of adjustment; and if made of good materials, and with reasonable care, it will, I think, be found sufficiently durable, and quite reliable. It is so cheap and applicable to so many cases, hitherto inadequately provided for, in reading rooms and libraries, that it will receive, as it merits, a welcome from the public. Yours, very respectfully, C. C. JEWETT.

Newton F. Malott and John Baker, are candidates for Circuit Judge, in the Vincennes Circuit. Mr. Malott is well known in Monroe county, and his acquaintances, without regard to party, concede to him legal ability of a high order. We hope to hear of his nomination, as his election would then be assured.

FARMERS, Mechanics and Builders, should remember that Wm. J. Allen has the largest and most carefully selected stock of Hardware ever brought to town. He keeps bar Iron, Stoves, Tinware, Cutlery, and the best Washing Machines and Wringers in the United States.

This is the season of the year when that disgusting and annoying disease, Catarrh, is most common. It is a disease that is difficult to relieve, and until the discovery of Seelye's Liquid Catarrh Remedy was thought impossible to cure. There is but little excuse now for people to suffer with this ailment since a remedy like Seelye's can be had. R. H. Campbell sells it.

Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps—the prices reduced down to gold prices. A large stock on hand, at Tuley & Co's New York Store.

"GIVE ME A BITE."—Two youths from the sunny South, belonging to the race which the Democrats are now endeavoring to vote, were passing along the west side of the square last Saturday, the elder of the two, who had apparently seen but twelve short summers, tossing a nice apple in his hands, his companion all the time coaxing him to "give me a bite!" An arrangement was finally consummated, and the owner of the apple held it up for "the bite." Opening a month that would have excited the envy of a two hundred pound Mississippi catfish, the youngster shut down on the fruit, carrying away fully three-fourths of it. The proprietor of the apple held up the remnant, and while the tears started to his eyes, he yelled, "Good God, Jim, jiss you take de apple and give me de bite!"

Chips and Splinters. There is poetry in the snow flakes which furnished the muses, both in ancient and modern times, with many apt and truthful illustrations. Burns says of pleasures, among other comparisons, "Oh like the snow flakes on the river, A moment white, then lost forever."

Pierpont likens the bullet to "A weapon that comes down as still As snow flakes fall upon the sod; But evinces a freeman's will As lightning does the will of God!"

But there is more poetry in sunshine at present, to us, than in a score of snow storms such as the one to which we were treated on Sunday last—Wm. O. Bold was, last week, refused license to retail liquor, by Commissioners' Court. He appeals to Judge Eckels. Kruger was granted license. A petition was presented to the Commissioners, on Monday, asking for an election, to decide whether the people are in favor of giving $50,000 by taxation, (1 per cent.) toward the building of an East and West Railroad.

The Terre Haute Journal says the Democrats of Monroe county want the Congressional Convention held in Bloomington—One of the oldest residents of the county, Benj. Rogers, died on Friday night last aged 74 years. The citizens of Harrodsburg, Smithville, and Stanford, are soon to be given a great musical treat, by their respective singing classes, conducted by Prof. W. J. Anderson—Tilghman H. Gentry, a candidate on the Democratic ticket for Auditor, three years ago, in this county, has removed from Spencer to Brazil, Ind.—The "Temperance Column" having created an excitement last week, now rests upon its laurels—Roads have been in a terrible condition during the past eight weeks. Farmers are unable to bring to town, butter, eggs, wheat, corn, or wood, and there is no scarcity of these articles in the country. We believe that a large vote would be given for turnpikes now—provided somebody would build them without cost to the people—The croakers are very busy killing peaches, about grass—turnips next—Nat. D. Cox, of this county, is located at Spencer, where he will practice medicine. Mr. C. we believe, was a Democratic candidate for Sheriff two years ago—Thunder and lightning, Saturday night; also a warm rain, followed by a two inch snow. Singular to relate, there was no hail—Another lovely snow, on Tuesday morning. We don't hear anything about the ground hog now. Where are his backers?

You can get more General Information from the "Year Book," which is offered for sale by Shoemaker & Co., than from any work extant. The Year Book contains 144 pages, giving all kinds of statistics and political information; the election returns of every township in Indiana, for 1869; Laws of Indiana; Bonds, Coin, Presidents, Public Debt, Tariff Duties of the U. S., and much that it is impossible to enumerate in a short notice. This book is handsomely printed, and is for sale at the low price of 20 cents.

The supply of candidates for positions as "errand boys," dry goods clerks, and kindred occupations is not nearly overstocked, while, on the other hand, the demand for really skilled mechanics, of every description, is as notoriously beyond the supply. The experienced men of this country (and is for skilled labor) and that father who neglects to provide his son with a useful trade, and to see that he thoroughly masters it, does him a grievous wrong, and runs the risk of helping, by so much, to increase the stock of idle and dependent, if not vicious, members of society.

It is stated in the report of the Prison Association, lately issued, that of fourteen thousand five hundred and ninety-six prisoners confined in the penitentiaries of thirty States, in 1867, seventy seven per cent., or over ten thousand of the number, had never learned a trade. The fact conveys a lesson of profound interest to those who have in charge the training of boys, and girls too, for the active duties of life.

Edward Woolerton, a printer, and a native of Evansville, died there on Thursday morning. He went to Evansville during the late strike, and commenced work in the Courier office. He was assaulted upon the street by a gang of the strikers, and knocked down with a sun shot, from the effects of which he never recovered.

The Greencastle Press says that George Cassel, aged about fifty years, and who has been living in the vicinity of Bainbridge, was found murdered near that town on Thursday morning. He was last seen at the post office there, Wednesday night about 7 o'clock, when it is supposed he started home and was killed on the way.

The meaneast fellow in Indiana, is a young man living temperately at Monroe, Ind. His mother recently wrote him from Pennsylvania, informing him of the death of his father, and inclosing fifty dollars to take him home. He squandered the money, and then succeeded in getting forty dollars which a young girl had saved up, and spent it.

DRUMMERS.—On Thursday last, it is said that there were just 77½ Drummers, for wholesale houses, circulating among the business men of Bloomington. The fraction represents one who was too drunk to do his employers justice. Taking into consideration the small amount of business being done at present, this is a very favorable showing.

The finest Italian Guitar and Violin Strings, (full sets) in the city, are for sale at the Post Office.

JOHN WYLLIE, a highly respected citizen of this county, died at his residence, four miles west of Bloomington, on Tuesday morning, of congestion of the bowels. Mr. WYLLIE was 48 years of age.

TEMPERANCE is a good thing, but it don't compare in importance, with the stock of Groceries now for sale by Trueblood & Co. They have added largely to their stock since they first opened, and are receiving goods every week. They keep Dried Beef, Hams, Flour, Wood-ware, Foreign Fruits, and a full line of Staple and Fancy Groceries. Call and see them—west side of square, just north of Stuart & Co's.

MUD.—The distance from Bloomington to Ellettsville, by the mud road, is said to be twenty-two miles. The road is not so long as it is deep.

Thread, 5c. a spool, or six for 25c., at the New York Store.

JOHN R. EAST, who pleads guilty to the charge of being the "quillbot" of the Democrat, is indulging in hot paragraphs about the colored citizens. He says in his last issue that "a man living in Richland township compelled his sister-in-law, she being a widow, and sick with the consumption at the time, to vacate one of his tenement houses to make room for three big buck negroes just from Kentucky. Comment is unnecessary." His name, if you've "been told," We'll bet let's a Democrat.

OLD.—The oldest man in Indiana, and perhaps in America, is old Ross, now living near Smithville, Monroe county. He is one hundred and twelve years old, and in a remarkably good state of preservation. Last summer, this relic of a bygone age, with the assistance of a representative of the present generation, ninety-eight years younger than himself, cut and put up ten acres of meadow. He is still vigorous and active, and the stoutest man in the neighborhood—of his age.—Bedford News.

Mrs. Rachel Snell, of Ohio county, detected her husband the other day in the awful act of bestowing a kiss upon the maid-of-all-work; whereupon the dorsal vertebrae of Madame Rachel became greatly elevated. In fact immensely abridged—and she took dire revenge by dashing a pail of boiling water upon the unhappy pair. They were seriously injured by the bath, but will recover.

A Lafayette Justice of the Peace the other evening married a couple, the first husband of the bride having committed suicide, the second sent to the penitentiary, and the present old enough to be her father.

Silverthorn, of the Evansville Journal, has purchased a farm out in Posey county, and sent a boat down to Tennessee for a load of corn-cobs to stop up the craw-fish holes.
