Practical Teachers demonstrate the various operations of business, in a plain, common sense manner, and the students who graduate at this Institution, seldom fail to secure good situations. We have $30.00 worth of Scrip on this College, which we will dispose of on reasonable terms to any young man who desires to avail himself of the opportunity. Money saved is money made. Call soon. 6w

IT REMINDS one of old times, to see John Smith, the Jeweler, throw out a handful of silver, in change, when goods are bought at his store.

SHOT.—A man from near Unionville, got shot, at Trueblood & Co's Grocery and Provision Store, on Tuesday afternoon, about 4 o'clock. The unfortunate man spoke but two words afterward. They were "charge 'em!" So you see it hurt T. & Co. more than it did the buyer. They keep about 50,000 other articles besides shot, such as prime Coffees, Sugars, Teas, Tobaccos, Cigars, and a full line of Groceries. When you need anything in the Grocery line, call on Trueblood & Co.

SILVER CHANGE is given by Jno. P. Smith. John is the first to resume specie payments, among the business men of Bloomington.

EUGENE I. HOLDEN, of Terre Haute, while hunting, last Wednesday, accidentally discharged his gun, the entire charge of shot passed through his left arm, just below the shoulder, shattering the bone, and lacerating the flesh in a terrible manner. Amputation was performed. Mr. H. will be recollecting by many as a traveling companion of D. W. Voorhees, in his last canvass, and State Adjutant of the White Boys in Blue.

MILTON HIGHT, Treasurer of the Board of School Trustees of the Town of Bloomington, presents his annual report, in to-day's paper.

GET SOME SILVER TO JINGLE.—John Smith, the Jeweler, gives to his customers, silver change, when any is due them. Remember that his place of business is on the west side of the public square.

Godey's Lady's Book for April, is received. This number closes the 40th year of the old favorite, and an examination reveals the fact that Godey is one of those good things that improve with age. The fashion plates of Godey differ from those of other Magazines, in that they are fine steel plates, tastefully and carefully colored—not common wood-cut daubs, as is the case with many pretended fashion magazines. The reading matter in Godey is of a superior tone—not of the trashy dime-novel order, but everyday life stories, written by well known and popular authors. Address L. Godey, Philadelphia, Pa.

PUTNAM'S MAGAZINE, for April, comes laden with interesting and instructive articles, and it numbers among its contributors some of the most accomplished writers and authors. The present number contains: American Dress; A Queen of Society; Concerning Charlotte, concluded; A Night on the Mississippi, in war-time; Insect Life in Winter; Meddled from Noon till Midnight; The Eastern Portal to the Pole; In Extremis; A Woman's Right, IV; The New South, what it is doing and what it wants; Predicatoriana, Old Sensation Preachers; Mary Russell Mitford; A Pompeian Enigma; The American Doctrine of Neutrality; Editorial Notes; Literature at Home, and Literature and Art Abroad.

EVERY Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, Williams and James receive from this Lake, a barrel of Fresh White Fish, Pickel, Salmon, etc. They are cheaper than beef, and vastly better than any other kind of meat—for a change at least. Williams will always be glad to meet his old friends on Mullikin's corner, where he gives good weight and receives the money.

SMITH & COCHRAN are the south side Jewelers, and many are the Watches, Clocks, and pieces of fine Jewelry they sell every week. This is principally because they have a very large stock, they sell at reduced prices, and keep only the best goods. Repairing carefully and promptly attended to.

BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The Phenological Journal and Packard's Monthly consolidated! See the April number of our old favorite for reading the most instructive and agreeable to minds young and old. From its rich contents we select the following: Mental Requisites of the Artist; Philosophy of Faith; Henry Bergh, the philanthropist, with portrait; The Double Adoption—a domestic sketch; Life in China, with illustrations; The Dust in the Air; Phreno-Magnetism; The Art of Engraving; Capital vs. Labor; S. S. Packard, with portrait; The Swordfish, illustrated; Prayer and Phenology, etc. Price 80 cts., or $3 a year. S. R. WELLS, Publisher, 389 Broadway, New York.

HOW TO MAKE THE FARM PAY.

We believe the book with the above title to be just the book the farmers need. They do not want long scientific discussions, but plain practical information such as: How to make the farm pay; what the farmers want to know; if any one by long experience and careful experiments has really any information to offer, the farmer wants it. One of the authors of the above book has been Secretary of the Massachusetts State Board of Agriculture, for nearly twenty years, and every improvement upon old methods has been made the subject of careful inquiry. The other names were in the preface are those of the best practical agriculturists of the country. The result is that we have a work with the latest and most reliable information upon every subject connected with farming. The different chapters treat of: Drainage, Fencing, Manures, Implements, Grains, Grasses, Root Crops, Special Crops, Rotation of Crops, Horses, Cattle, Dairy Stock, Sheep, Swine, and other Domestic Animals; Poultry, Bees, Fruit Culture, and Wine making; Small Fruits, Diseases and Insects; Farm Buildings, Market Gardening, and many other items. It is also a fine collection of Recipes for cooking, etc., and a chapter on the ordinary diseases of the family, with plain and simple remedies. It is on the whole a most complete work and should be in every Farmer's house. The book is handsome enough for the parlor table and durable enough for a generation. There are one hundred and forty-one illustrations, not mere pictures only, but instructive and useful in the highest degree. We warrant that the agents who are canvassing in other sections are meeting with great success, and we trust that the farmers in our own county will soon have a chance to secure this invaluable work.

"How to make the Farm Pay," or the Farmer's book of Practical and simple remedies, by C. W. Dickerman, C. L. F. and others. Ziegler, McCurdy & Co., Publishers, Philadelphia, Pa., Cincinnati, C. O., Chicago, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo. Sold only by subscription, J. Orchard, Agent.

ROADS.—The experience our people are having with impassable roads at present, it would seem must tend to convert them to the belief that roads (turnpikes) are needed in Monroe county, more than any other class of improvements. Farmers have been unable to haul produce to town for many weeks, and at a time, too, when there was but little to do on the farm, and at a season of the year when the prices for farm products rule highest. Many of our oldest citizens came from Kentucky and Tennessee, where turnpikes are built in every direction from the county towns, and one would naturally suppose that these men must necessarily be advocates of road building; but apply the test, (a subscription paper) and the belief is quickly dispelled. We have wasted a great many columns of space upon this subject, and would willingly do as much more had we the faintest assurance that good would result; but we have lost faith in the possibility of awakening a progressive spirit in the present generation, and shall make but limited efforts in that direction hereafter. The arguments adduced by the anti-improvement men are so original and unanswerable that there is but little hope of breaking their force, or converting their originators. An old farmer objected to turnpikes because the road bed being hard, would wear off the tires of his wagon. And an anti-railroad man says that the use of so much iron to lay a track, would have a tendency to advance the price of nails!

Agricultural Meeting.

The Directors of the Monroe County Agricultural Society will meet on Saturday, April 9th, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the Secretary's Office, to make out a Premium List for the ensuing Fair, and to attend to other business of importance. A full attendance is desired.

M. L. SNODGRASS, Sec'y M.C.A.S. March 30th, 1870, 2t.

Marriage Licenses

Have been issued to the following persons since our last report:

David Perry and Harriet Gaither; John Connet and Mary Bowen; Shadwick Chandler and Lydia Taylor; Jacob G. Chambers and Martha E. Walker; Robert Richardson and Esther A. Gardiner; Jesse I. Garrison and Josey Minks; Thomas P. Ottwell and Louie Moore; Wylie G. Burton and Mary Koons.

Call at the Hardware Store of W. J. Allen, and examine his large stock of Hardware, Building Material, Stoves, Tinware and Agricultural Implements, including everything from a Reaper to a Garden Rake. He keeps all the leading Stoves of Cincinnati, you will find the Continental of Mears & Co; Burton & Co's. Buck's Express; Resor's Fashion, with tin lined oven doors. Also a host of others with prices from sixteen dollars up. Call and see for yourselves, and if you don't see everything you want, ask for it.

REY.—This is the season of the year when that disgusting and annoying disease, Catarrh, is most common. It is a disease that is difficult to relieve, and until the discovery of Sully's Liquid Catarrh Remedy was thought impossible to cure. There is but little excuse now for people to suffer with this ailment since a remedy like Sully's can be had. R. H. Campbell sells it.

A LIBERAL OFFER!

A new proposition is made by the proprietor of the P. O. News Stand: To every purchaser of a "Patent Newspaper File" he will present a copy of the "Chronicle Year Book of Important Information," price 20 cts., the most valuable work ever published. It gives all the election returns of Indiana, by counties and townships, beside ten thousand other matters of general interest.

A. W. REEVES, of Richland township, is announced as a candidate for Representative. Mr. R. is the only man announced, as yet, although it is rumored that there are four or five others who ought to invest three dollars.

TULEY & Co. are selling their large and choice stock of Goods, at reduced figures, for cash. There is a rush at the New Store just now, by persons who want cheap goods, and they are selling every article in the Store being sold at gold prices. This stock must be closed out at once. Go and learn prices.

Chips and Splinters.

H. L. Edmondson, the Early Rose Potato man, took a car-load of Goodrich, Cuzco, Garnet Chili, and other popular varieties, south, last week, finding a good demand for them.—Our hereculean County Treasurer, D. V. Buskirk, went out on White River, duck shooting, one day last week. He killed one duck, and lost his pocket-book containing two hundred dollars. Rather dear duck meat.—The Lafayette Trade Gazette has "gone where the woodbine," &c. There were a number of subscribers in Bloomington, and in surrounding towns. Solicitors for cheap city papers are regarded with no small degree of distrust, at present.—Jos. Koshinsky left Bloomington for Henderson, Ky., on Friday last, where he will again engage in the sale of cheap "gloding." Kosh. is a first-rate fellow, but he has "no appetite."

M. Short has sold his property, on the north-east corner of the square, to Aquilla Rogers, for forty-five hundred dollars, and will remove to Kansas.—In answer to the numerous inquiries of "many voters," we find it necessary to say, "No, we are not a candidate for Representative, unless Old Butler will agree to bribe the next Legislature. In that event, we would like to be there, just to ascertain how much the old fellow is willing to give for a vote in favor of paying the Canal Bonds." We'd like to be Coroners, though, that we might "sit" on the fellow that owes us five dollars.—Any one getting three dollars' worth of job printing done at this office, will receive silver in change, upon the presentation of a four dollar greenback.—The L. N. A. & C. Railway Co. have thirteen trains on their road.—McPhetters received an order, on Monday, from Marysville, Tenn., for four of the "Patent Newspaper Files." They were ordered by the Assessor of the 2d Revenue District of Tennessee, that gentleman having seen them advertised in the Progress.

A PIG, OR PIGS WANTED.

If any of the gentlemen who raise fine Pigs in Monroe county, desire to advertise the particular breed for which they feel a partiality, the present is a favorable opportunity to do so, and pay for the same with a Pig, (as some have proposed). Our pig-pen is now waiting the arrival of a young Poland breed, and let us hear from you.

Specie Payments

Are immensely popular, but these

Patent Newspaper Files

At the Post Office

Sold by McPhetters, are more popular still. Do you take the American Presbyterian, the Christian Herald, the Standard, the Banner of the Covenant, or the Christian Statesman? If so, you ought to have them filed. You cannot preserve them in book form unless you have one of White's Patent Newspaper Files, which will cost you but 50 cents.
