LOCAL NOTICES TEN CENTS PER LINE, FOR EACH INSERTION.

Persons from neighboring towns are astonished when they come to Bloomington, and find an establishment stocked and decorated as is that of Smith & Cochran. It is as fine, if not finer in its appointments, than any house in Indianapolis. Of this fact any one may judge who has ever visited the capital city. Smith is all the time buying some good bargain, and instead of profiting by it himself, giving it to his customers. You will find this house on the south side of the square.

John P. Smith informs us that he has been paying silver in change for more than a year past, and never thought it a matter of sufficient importance to make a blow about, but other parties have seen fit to go about resuming specie payment, and he wishes it distinctly understood that gold is paid by him, in change!

IT RAINS VERY EASY NOW, but that does not prevent Shoemaker & Co. from selling a great quantity of goods. They have been receiving a fresh stock of White Lead, more Wall Paper, a new supply of stationery, and are selling them rapidly, as usual. Shoemaker & Co. keep a good cigar at all times, as well as all the favorite brands of tobacco. O yes! we forgot to mention that seven chests of Tea, direct from China, arrived at this store last week.

1 dozen boxes of standard blacking, at Clark & Orchard's.

A few more, &c., &c., at Clark & Orchard's.

Young Men should endeavor to secure a Business Education, before starting out in life, and Mercantile Colleges furnish the best opportunities to attain the desired end. The Bryant & Stratton Commercial College, of Indianapolis, is the best Institution of the character in the west. Practical Teachers demonstrate the various operations of business, in a plain, common sense manner, and the students who graduate at this Institution, seldom fail to secure good situations. We have $30.00 worth of Scrip on this College, which we will dispose of on reasonable terms to any young man who desires to avail himself of the opportunity. Money saved is money made. Call soon.

JOHN F. SMITH, the popular Jeweler and Repairer of Watches, finding that the room he had been occupying for several years past, was too small to meet the requirements of his rapidly increasing business, leased the room on the west side of the square, adjoining the auction store, and fitting it up in a manner both elegant and neat, removed to his present location early this Spring. With a commendable determination to excel, Mr. SMITH procured a large, choice and attractive stock of Goods, including fine Jewelry, Musical Instruments, Clocks, and an assortment of American and Foreign Watches, in silver and gold cases, seldom equalled in this portion of the State. He also secured the latest and most approved machinery and tools, for the successful prosecution of the business of Watch Repairing, and now bids defiance to competition. Persons having anything in the line of Watch repairing to do, or desiring to supply themselves with the latest styles of Jewelry, or perfect, time-keeping Watches, will consult their best interests by giving JOHN F. SMITH, the West side Jeweler, a call.

Tribute of Respect.

Bloomington, March 24th, 1870.
To the Officers and members of Cecilia Lodge No. 166, I. O. O. F.; we the committee to whom was referred the drafting of resolutions expressive of our beloved member and brother, Upton Gaul, beg leave to submit the following.

WHEREAS, The hand of death has again taken from our midst one of our members, thus renewing the old lesson that neither youth in its summer time, life in its meridian, nor the winter of old age, are exempt us from the common destiny of man, and teaching us whatever is mortal shall put on immortality; and

WHEREAS, In the pleasure of Almighty God, the safe guard of the world and the disposer of life, our beloved brother and friend, Upton Gaul, was removed from us and his place in our midst, by that fall and electric consumption, on the 20th day of March, 1870, at the age of twenty-three, having been a member of our beloved order just two years and one month, he being initiated on the 20th day of February 1868. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the removal of our brother, we reverently hear the voice of our Heavenly Father admonishing us, that when a few years are come, we too shall go the way whence we shall not return; to be also ready for in such time as we think not the son of man cometh.

Resolved, That as the order and the church, of which he was a member has lost a brother who in his intercourse with them always showed by his urbanity and sociality that he had learned the true principles of our Fraternity and the Religion of Christ, and that he was ready and willing at all times to carry them into practice.

Resolved, That the Lodge will strive to bear in remembrance the many virtues of the deceased, the good that he has done, his worth as an Odd Fellow and his honesty as a man.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the parents upon whom this sad bereavement has fallen most heavily.

Resolved, That the members of the Lodge, out of respect to his memory, wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days, and that a copy be sent to the parents of the deceased brother; also that they be spread upon the minutes and a copy sent to the Bloomington Progress and Bloomington Democrat, with a request that they publish the same.

Gone Home.

Earth is not man's permanent abiding place.

Jesus has prepared many mansions in heaven for the righteous. As God knows what is best for his children, he is taking them to his bosom of rest. In Bloomington, Ind., March 24th, 1870, our friend and comrade, Upton Gaul, departed this life. He was born in Ky., and was 23 years, 3 mo. and 11 days old at death.

His parents came to this country when he was 11 years old. He has been connected with the Sabbath School ever since; made a profession of religion and was baptized into the fellowship of the Baptist Church in this place in his 16th year. He was a respected member of the band in this place and took a prominent part in the social relations of life. Our loss is his gain.

When his sister's death, which occurred a few weeks before we were married to him, he said "I must soon follow." The grief of the parents produced by the death of this dear child, so soon after the death of his sister, is inexpressible. No one can know but by experience, what sorrow and sadness to parents is produced by the death of the only young son, and the gentleman of the family, Anna's son. Upton is gone. Their bodies lie in the cemetery to await the general resurrection. The parents, relatives, and a large circle of friends, mourn the death of this young man, but he has left good evidences that he has "Gone Home" to rest. S. BURTON.

Two Barrels sugar, brown and refined, for sale at Clark & Orchard's.

This is the season of the year when that disgusting and annoying disease, Catarrh, is most common. It is a disease that is difficult to relieve, and until the discovery of Seelye's Liquid Catarrh Remedy was thought impossible to cure. There is but little excuse now for people to suffer with this ailment since a remedy like Seelye's can be had. R. H. Campbell sells it.

A MERCHANT who buys a variety of goods, such as Hats, Boots, Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., it is very evident to any one who gives the matter a moment's thought, cannot secure the advantages that are offered a dealer who buys one line of goods exclusively. During the past eight or nine years Chase & Co. have been buying Boots and Shoes; they have tried all of the principal markets; they have bought all kinds and qualities of work; they have experienced as to the best season of the year in which to buy; and this long experience, added to a determination to build up such a business as was never before done in a country town, has placed them where they now are: With a reputation for business sagacity second to none, and with a stock of goods in their house that has been bought at better figures than is sometimes secured by city wholesale men. Chase & Co. have reason to feel proud of their ability to buy goods at such figures as will allow them to undersell all competitors, and of a trade that is not confined to Monroe county—for they sell goods to residents of Brown, Owen, Greene, and in the northern edge of Lawrence, they have numerous customers. You cannot meet a man in the county, anywhere, who has not heard of Chase & Co. They sell a Calf Boot that is identified with the name of their house—it gives satisfaction—and their Plover Shoes are made in their own Shop. Persons who buy at this house can have all rips mended free of charge. See two column advertisement, in this paper.

Chips and Spillings.

DID ANY ONE EVER EXPERIENCE weather as disgustingly and infernally mean as that of the past five weeks? Mud deep enough to mire a giraffe and business at a stand-still. Speaking of mud, reminds us that Noah and his family must have had a sloppy time, when disembarking from their long-tried craft, and once more putting foot on what was called "dry land," but which we imagine must have been made up of such stuff as the Monroe county people are endeavoring to wade through at present. Fancy the old gentleman deliberately drawing on his boots, after a protracted use of slippers, in his cabin, and with a resolute air, sinking the first step knee-deep into moist ground. Old Mrs. Noah, with many a "phew," drawing up her outer skirt over her baldrac, and following dubiously the splashing course of her determined "old man."

Mr. Stem Noah lifting his better half down at one side of the gangway plank; Mr. Japhet Noah picking his spouse up, and bearing her, in a gingerly, disgusted manner, through an accumulation of rotten leaves and tree-tops; and Mr. Han Noah—whom we conceive to have been a sort of domestic tyrant, but a jolly fellow withal—roughly calling on Mrs. Han to "Come along there now, will you?" and ever and anon applying a bottle of the Dew of the Ararat to his lips, by way of warming up, after the long "spell of weather." The whole animal kingdom coming out in files of two: the dignified elephants; the megalochely camels; the regal-looking jackasses; the scowling tigers—some crowding on the heels of the others, and provoking a growl of remonstrance in front—some snapping at each others' tails, and being kicked at in return—the tripping ones falling off the plank, and taking their seat in the mud below; the lively ones throwing up their legs in excess of animal spirit and from joy at the out door exercise—the whole crowd splashing, howling, barking and growling, and keeping up such an ear-torturing din as must have made the head of the family feel the weight of his domestic responsibilities. In fact, this weather—Fried eggs and whooping-cough, are evidently the luxuries of the season. Eggs are offered at 15c. per dozen with many takers. The whooping cough is readily taken, although the demand is not great—Spencer, the whitish traveling Lecturer for the "Live Isac," is recapturing his exhausted energies while pursuing the avocation of house-painter—of which business "Dan" is a thorough master. Fears are expressed by many that the L. I. is dead—Anticipating the building of an East and West Railroad, and the consequent rush of transient passenger business, the National Hotel has, at vast expense, procured a Chinese Gong, and its diurnal "Wiang!" reminds one of the Seymour song, "H-a-r-d billed eggs and apple pie-a-lee!" To this may be added at last—The great demand for black walnut, in the Eastern States, has advanced the price of that wood materially, and no a little swindling is being done by parties who "go over the line" of their lands and cut a walnut or two. Several weeks ago, Hargre Phillips, one of our County Commissioners, discovered that several persons had been trespassing upon land he owns on Salt Creek, and that they had cut ten large walnut trees. He permitted the trespassers to go without prosecution, upon payment of the value of the trees—The first straw hat of the season, made its appearance on Monday. Enough to give a man the chills to look at the wearer—John Smith gives silver in change, when it is demanded, and last week a green chap from Salt Creek township, stepped into the store, and demanded a dime's worth of fish-hooks. John handed out the hooks, the customer threw down a ten dollar bill, and John began to count out the currency. "No you don't, old fellow," said greeney, "I want the silver you advertised to pay!" John's face grew scarlet, (modesty, you know) and he slowly counted out the amount in five cent pieces; his customer making about ninety cents, by the operation—Thomas Spicer announces himself as a candidate for Assessor of Bloomington Township. Why is it that nobody is anxious to fill the office of Coroner? True, the office has not paid five dollars to the Coroner, in five years, but all will admit that that should have nothing to do with the matter. Patriotism is the thing, gentlemen; and this is a good time to announce—and pay the money—The Proclamation of Ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, has been issued, and will be found on the second page.

Cartier Perring, the Express Agent at this point, has removed his office to the room one door north of R. H. Campbell's Drug Store—The Democrat of last week contained an article favoring a "white man's ticket" at the approaching election. How many colored men will vote the Democratic ticket, if they don't run a "white man's ticket?" Sour grapes; d'ye see what hurts?

One-half Keg of best English Soda, in store and for sale, at Clark & Orchard's.

100 Gun Caps, at Clark & Orchard's.

40 Sugar Barrels, for sale at Clark & Orchard's.

W. J. ALLEN is doing a "land office business" at his Hardware Store, on the south side of the square. Mr. A. deserves his success, for he is a careful buyer, a liberal dealer, and a thorough gentleman. He is taking special pains to keep a full stock of Builders' Hardware, so that customers may not be compelled to wait until an order is sent to the city. His supply of Farming Implements and Garden Tools, is very complete, and will be sold low.

WORTHY OF CONSIDERATION.

We do not know how many thousands of dollars go out of Monroe county, each year, as premiums on Fire Insurance, but the sum is very large. Why cannot County Fire Insurance Companies be organized—the county being responsible for losses, and the surplus of premium money be used as a Building Loan Fund? During the past six or eight years there was but $1,200 paid to citizens of Monroe county, as "losses," by Fire Insurance Companies. We believe that $20,000 would be a low estimate of the amount paid for Insurance, during that time. If this sum had been kept at home, it would have made a fund, to-day, of thirty or forty thousand dollars; which, properly used as a loan to men of small capital, desirous of building, would doubtless have been the direct cause of doubling the population and wealth of Bloomington. Is not this a matter worthy of serious consideration?

Hon. Daniel Windy Voorhees made a speech, at Indianapolis, on Thursday night last, which fills nine long columns of the Indianapolis Sentinel. He did not tell his audience that the public debt has been reduced $5,766,319 43, in the month of March, and that the reduction of the debt since March, 1869, is $38,075,398; but such are the facts in the case.

TOM SMITH has the finest store room in Indiana, as well as the largest stock of Watches and Jewelry. He will sell a genuine American watch, in coin silver case, for $15, and he sells other "makes" of watches for $5 and upward. To be has also added new machinery to that with which his work was already supplied, which enables him to do all kinds of watch repairing for about half the prices that others charge, and in a much better manner. He don't patch up your watch so that it will run for a few days, but he supplies new works, instead of the old, so that when it leaves his hands, your time-keeper is as good as new. If you call upon him, he will give you his price list.

Geo. Bollenbacher has just returned from Cincinnati, with a large and carefully selected stock of Boots and Shoes, which he has opened in the room two doors south of Howe's corner. Mr. B. took advantage of the decline in gold, and paid cash for his goods, which gives him a neat margin. Read his advertisement, and then go and examine his stock of goods.

CARPETS! CARPETS! CARPETS!—Tuley & Co., of the New York Store, have received a full stock of Imported Ingrain, 3-ply and Bright's Brussels Carpets, and are selling them at green-back prices, with the usual discount of 5 per cent. Also a nice spring stock of Hats and Caps. Tuley & Co. have a well selected stock of Boots and Shoes, just received from Boston, which they are determined to give away—for a small amount of money.

RESOLUTIONS passed by the Republican Central Committee, at its last Meeting:

Resolved, That this Committee does not possess the power to regulate the manner or mode of holding the Republican Convention, but express its opinion, that each township may determine for itself, whether they will hold Primary Elections, and determine in that way for whom the vote of the township shall be cast, or meet and appoint Delegates to said Convention. And that each township thus represented, will, through its Delegates, be entitled to cast the number of votes fixed by said Convention.

Resolved, That in the appointing of the Township Delegates, we recommend that only so many as equals the number of votes fixed for each township, be appointed, with a corresponding number of contingents.

Resolved, That the several townships of this County be recommended to hold Township Meetings, on the last Saturday of May, and appoint Delegates to the County Convention, and to nominate Township Officers for their respective Townships.

Occupational Ailments.

Fresh, pure air is a vitalizing elixir. Whoever is debilitated by circumstances from unrestricted access to this inviolable, but powerful stimulant, needs a medicinal invigorant of some kind. The great object should be to close the best. Popularity is a pretty good guarantee of merit in this scrutinizing and intelligent age, and tried by this criterion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first; among the invigorating and regulating medicines of the present day. To the wants of persons engaged in indoor employments, especially in crowded factories where even with the best possible ventilation the atmosphere is always in some degree polluted, this salutary vegetable tonic is no mystery. It consists of an absolutely pure diffusive stimulant, tinged—or rather surcharged—with the fluid extracts of saponaceous roots and barks and herbs. The pharmacopoeia us its ingredients, but what are they? The use of only a single root or bark or plant is present in each. Not one of them combines the three properties of a tonic, an alterative and an aperient. All these elements are blended in the Bitters: nor are these the sum of medicinal recommendations. It is also a blood purifier and an anti-epileptic.

The beneficial effect which has been so perfectly exhausted of its oxygen by frequent breathing processes on the vital organization, is notorious, and when to this devitalized atmosphere is superadded the mephitic vapor of hot air furnaces, it becomes deleterious and depressing in the extreme. To enable the system to bear up, even for a few hours each day against the debilitating influence of a vitiated atmosphere, a wholesome tonic and alterative is urgently required. This grand desideratum is supplied in Hostetter's Bitters which as a strength-sustaining, health-protecting agent, has no rival either among official or advertised medicines.

Gold is down to $1.11, and at Trueblood & Co's Groceries and Provisions are rated still lower. T. & Co. have no stale stock on their shelves—they sell a great many goods, and receive orders every two or three days. They buy great quantities of country produce, every week, and can supply housekeepers with almost anything they want.
