JAMES R. BRYANT, AGENT.

THE YOUNG MEN OF MONROE
County are hereby notified that John P. Smith has just received, direct from the manufacturers one of the best assortments of American Watches and fine coin silver cases, ever seen in this "neck of woods." One of the most surprising things to us is, that he can sell them so low. Whether in the corn-field, the work-shop or school room, the young man should have a reliable time piece.

Carpeting.—If you want a Carpet, go the Bloomington Woolen Factory, where you will find a variety to select from, of a better quality, and at lower figures than any that has ever been offered in this part of the State.

A. HOLTZMAN & SON,
Bloomington, Ind., mar20-tf

TOBE SMITH has the finest store room in Indiana, as well as the largest stock of Watches and Jewelry. He will sell a genuine American watch, in a silver case for $15, and he sells other makes of watches for $5 and upward. To be has also added new machinery to that with which his work was always supplied, which enables him to do all kinds of watch repairing for about half the price that others charge, and in a much better manner. He does not patch up your watch so that it will run for a few days, but he supplies new works, instead of the old, so that when it leaves his hands, your time-keeper is as good as new. If you call upon him, he will give you his price list.

SHOEMAKER HAS THE RIGHT for Monroe county, to sell Ward's Portable Gas Light. Each burner generates its own gas at a cost of about one-third of a cent per hour, and burns a beautiful white flame without wick or chimney, avoiding the intolerable nuisance of trimming lamps, saving the cost of chimneys, and furnishes a light equal to three coal oil lamps at one-third the cost. The lamps are made entirely of metal, consequently can not break, and comprise all styles and prices, from the plain Wall Lamp, for work-shop or kitchen, to the elegant Portable Stand or Chandelier for the parlor, public hall or church. Go to the Union Drug Store, and examine this new light.

JOHN P. SMITH, the popular Jeweler and Repairer of Watches, finding that the room he had been occupying for several years past, was too small to meet the requirements of his rapidly increasing business, leased the room on the west side of 4th square, adjoining the auction store, and fitting it up in a manner both elegant and neat, removed to his present location early this Spring. With a commendable determination to excel, Mr. SMITH procured a large, choice and attractive stock of Goods, including fine Jewelry, Musical Instruments, Clocks, and an assortment of American and Foreign Watches in silver and gold cases, seldom equaled in this portion of the State. He also secured the latest, and most approved machinery and tools, for the successful prosecution of the business of Watch Repairing, and now bids defiance to competition. Persons having anything in the line of Watch repairing, do, or desiring to supply themselves with the latest styles of Jewelry, or perfect time-keeping Watches, will consult their best interests by giving JOHN P. SMITH, the West side Jeweler, a call.

COUNTY ORDERS.—Two or three hundred dollars in County Orders were issued for tax paying purposes, by parties who have left the money at this office, with instructions to pay as little as possible for them. If the terms suit, come and get the money.

COLD IN THE HEAD RELIEVED in a few minutes; bad breath caused by offensive secretions; weak eyes, caused by catarrhal affections; nose of small, when loosened or destroyed; deafness, all permanently cured by Seeley's Liquid Catarrh Remedy. Sold in Indiana only by E. H. CAMPBELL. Price, 25¢ per bottle. Some may object to this medicine because the price is higher than that asked for compounds said to give relief, but no one who seriously wishes to be cured, will care to pay a living price—$2.00. ANOTHER NICE "PROFESSOR."—An individual arrived in town several weeks ago, accompanied by a lady, and a child aged about two years, and at the Orchard House, registered himself as "Professor Beall." On Monday evening, April 25th, he opened a "Commercial College" in Dunn's Hall, where for six nights he taught Penmanship. He advertised to give twenty lessons for $2.00, and collected a considerable sum from pupils, many of them having paid the full amount of tuition. On Tuesday afternoon, May 3d, in company with his traveling companions, he took the train for the north, giving Indianapolis as his destination, and stating that he would return in several days. Before leaving, he requested Mr. Orchard to take particular care of a valise, left by him at the hotel, which has since been found to contain old boots, empty boxes, and wads of paper. The "Professor" is of a sandy complexion, wears chin whiskers, is about 5 ft. 6 inches in height, and is a voluble talker. During the day he usually amuses himself by calling at private houses and soliciting the ladies to buy address cards, which he writes for a trifling consideration. In addition to a bill for printing, at this office, he got sixty or eighty dollars, for which he gave no "valuable consideration." The newspaper fraternity will preserve themselves and their patrons from loss, by giving the "Professor" the benefit of this notice.

KILLED ON A FREIGHT TRAIN.

—Harvey Dodd, a brakeman on the L. N. A. & C. Railway, while attending to his duties on freight train No. 4, D. Walsh conductor, on the morning of May 3d, was struck by the timbers of a bridge which spans the road near the Junction, fracturing his skull in a fearful manner, from the effects of which he expired at 11 o'clock Tuesday night. For a number of years, Mr. Dodd kept a meat shop, on Mullikin's corner, in this place, but removed to Butler's building, on 6th street, and sold out to Fee & McCune. He had been on the L.N.A. & Chicago Railway but two or three months. The bridge is quite low, more than ordinary care being required to pass under it without injury to freight train-men; in addition to this, the morning was very dark, and deceased received the fatal blow before he was aware that the bridge had been reached. The burial took place at Harrodsburg.

BOY RUN OVER BY A CART, AND KILLED.

—On Tuesday evening of last week, about 5 o'clock, Roscoe Conkling, a six year old son of Dr. T. P. Lucas, was run over by one of the wheels of a cart, and sustained internal injuries from which he died at 10 o'clock on the same night. Several of Mr. Pressel's hands, with a horse and cart, were grading the street, near the residence of Prof. Kirkwood, and as the horse was started up, the boy attempted to get upon the cart by climbing over one of the wheels, but fell under it, and was crushed in the region of the kidneys. Dr. Lucas is peculiarly unfortunate with his children, having lost four within the past three years.

TOBE SMITH HAS RECEIVED

a large stock of Fane, plain and fancy, which he is selling at reduced rates. In fact, there never has been a time in the history of the country, when so many fine goods could be bought for so small an amount of money at his store. Everybody ought to examine To be's stock of American Watches, heavy gold rings, breast-pins, &c. He has precious stones, and will sell them cheaper than they can be bought in New York.

ALMOST CRUSHED TO DEATH.

On Saturday afternoon last, a man six ft. 3 inches in height, muscular and brawny, was seen to fall in the middle of the street, on the west side of the public square, underneath an immense pile of packages, which were afterwards found to contain choice Groceries. Two or three gentlemen went to his assistance, and after working about five minutes, to throw off the accumulation of provisions, came to the man, who had given up all hope of rescue. Singular to relate he did not abuse the men who heaped this dangerous load upon him, but remarked: "I tell you, Travellers & Co. are bully boys. They sold me that pile for four dollars and a half!"

J. GLASS MCPHETERS has now a very large stock of Books and Stationery, his fancy envelopes and note paper are "all the rage" with the young folks. Last week Mr. McPheters sold to one firm in Bloomington, a bill of Law Books amounting to over one hundred dollars. Give him an order.

He has a large stock of Sheet Music and receives new music as soon as it is issued.

—Potatoes are now offered at 25 cents per bushel.

—The reduction of the public debt for the month of April, was $11,697,700.

—E. T. Taylor is pushing forward the work on his new Grocery Store building. The flintstone front is now up.

—No peach blooms in Bloomington, though an average crop is reported in the orchards within a mile or two of town.

—It is said that Prof. Beall is at Crawfordsville, cutting pen-flourishes. Cutting on bill s, is his best hold, as the Crawfordsvillians may yet find out.

—The work of McAdamizing College Avenue, from 5th street to the University, is going on with a rapidity that is somewhat surprising. It will be a handsome street, when finished.

—A little daughter of Benj. Smith was accidentally struck by a spade, in the hands of her brother, on last Monday, and an artery in the right temple cut. A deviation of one inch, would have made the blow prove fatal.

—Capt. Dave Buskirk was fortunate enough to find his pocket book last week, lost a month or more ago. Its contents, over two hundred dollars in money, was found to be safe. "Now," says John P. Smith, "Serog will take dinner with me next Saturday."

—Our new correspondent, "Free Thinker," slashes into the lawyers with a great degree of recklessness. He might live to realize that lawyers are very convenient gentlemen to have around—if he should be indicted for horse-stealing.

—The 3d Annual Reunion 13th A. C. Association, will be held in Springfield, Ill., May 17th, 1870. Special train leaves Indianapolis on Monday, 16th, for Springfield via Terre Haute and Pana. Fare reduced to $8.00 round trip.

—By reference to ordinance No. 30, it will be seen that the Board of Trustees have reduced Auctioneers' license from five to one dollar per day. When business gets dull, each merchant should "string out" his goods upon the side-walk and make it lively "by auction."

—Prof. Beall's pupils inform us that their copy books, containing from one to three quires of white paper each, disappeared with the "Professor." Perhaps that gentleman will have paper to sell, at Crawfordsville.

—Persons having Wool to sell or card, should remember that Mr. Schofield, a practical workman, has leased the Ellettsville Woolen Mill, and will endeavor to give satisfaction. Give him a call.

—Moss & Phillips, of Ellettsville, have a nice stock of goods in their store, and will be found clever gentlemen to transact business with. They are also engaged in the purchase of Wool. Call and see them.

—James M. Rogers, a farmer who lives just north of town, is a candidate for Township Trustee for Bloomington Township? Wonder who will be the candidate in Perry township? A good many persons would like to know who to vote for.

—Circuses and Menageries are going all around our village—following the east and west railroads. They usually visit Bloomington when on the way to winter quarters, after their best performers have gone home, and their horses worn to mere skeletons.

—Fee & McCune have changed base, and they now have a meat shop in Mullikin's corner building. It is said to be worth a dollar and seventy-five cents to see Frank Fee catch a bullock by its tail and with a swing in the air dash its brains out against the poll of an axe. For further particulars, buy a beef-steak.

—Henry C. Meredith, well known here as a graduate of State University, Class of '67, and at present editor of the Cambridge City Tribune, was married on the 28th ult., to Miss Virginia Chappell, of Connersville, Ind. The bridal presents, consisting principally of silverware, were valued at over $3,000. Like a sensible fellow, Henry had an eye to the matter of money, when he entered the state of matrimony.

—Eld. W. F. Black, pastor of the Christian Chapel, has resumed the Chair of Professor of Hebrew in the Northwestern Christian University, Indianapolis.

—Dan. Hook, was convicted and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, on Monday, for grand larceny. Hook was convicted and sentenced for the same term, but upon another charge, a year or more ago, and was reprieved.

—On Thursday last, a steam saw and grist mill, the property of Green Conder, and located between Stanford and the Old Iron Works, was burned to the ground. Loss about $2,000.

LAUNCH OF THE STEAMER D. V. BUSKIRK.—The first steamboat built in Monroe County, was launched from the yard of her enterprising builders, near the railroad bridge on Bean Blossom, last week. She is now at Gosport receiving her machinery, and will be ready for her trial trip in June. Her draught when launched was four inches. With her machinery and the Captain on board, it is thought she will draw eight inches.

Success to the D. V. BUSKIRK. May she never run against a snag, stick on a sand-bar, nor "bust her biler."

Good Tidings for the Hungry.

Mr. Editor:—Please announce to Bro. Jones, and all others when it may concern them, that if the people are willing, I am willing, and more than willing—yes! even anxious to dispose of my remaining stock of Early Rose Potatoes gratuitously to all those who are in need of food, and have no means with which to buy. The distribution will commence on next Saturday, and continue a half bushel to each applicant, until the stock is exhausted. To be procured at Pearson's Store. "My name is" M. BLAIR.

AN ENGINEER SHOT.

Robert Black, a freight engineer on the O. & M. Railway, was shot at Jeffersonville, on Saturday night, April 30th. Mr. Black, as we learn from pretty good authority, left his engine, and started to town on the evening in question, but stopped near a pile of stave lumber belonging to an extensive cooper shop. While in a sitting posture, the watchman of the premises, who observed Black pass behind the stave pile, started toward him, preceded by a small dog, the animal lying furiously at Black, who picked up a chip and threw it at the dog to keep him away. The watchman by this time arrived within hailing distance and began to curse Black for throwing at his dog, and finally drew his revolver and fired two shots, the second one passing through Black's body just above the hips. As the watchman neared his victim, he took aim to fire again, when Black sprang upon and disarmed him. A policeman who had been attracted by the noise, now appeared upon the field, and arrested the would-be murderer. The wounded man's condition is said by his physicians to be very favorable, and hopes are entertained for his recovery. Black has a wife and four children living in Bloomington, and until within three or four months was employed on the L. N. A. & C. Railway.

FREE LECTURE BY A LADY.

On the evening of the 12th inst., Thursday next, Mrs. Rev. J. B. Duncan will give a Free Lecture in the College Chapel, on Female Suffrage. Lecture will commence at 7 1/2 P. M. All are invited to attend.

We are creditably informed that Mrs. Kutch is a lady of excellent character, known to many of our best citizens, and that, in her laudable avocation, she brings to her support, not only machine and needles, but skill and experience. Give her, as she eminently deserves, a liberal patronage.

The old, reliable Drug House of J. O. & M. L. McCollough, is in receipt of an immense stock of new goods, including Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, etc. They have received a large supply of Books and Stationery, and a stock of Wall Paper that exceeds in beauty and quality any lot they have ever purchased before, and which, in addition to low prices, is trimmed without charge, for customers. This House was established in 1847, and its proprietors look back with pride to the record they have made for 69 Mrs. Lucinda H. Howe, died on Monday night last, aged 72 years. Funeral this afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

—By reference to new advertisements, it will be seen that G. W. Batterton offers for sale his frame building, on the public square.
