I HAVE REMOVED
TO THE
Progress Block.

Northwest corner of the Public Square, one door north of Wilson's Grocery store.
I expect to sell everything in the Harness and Saddlery line, at low down prices.
My work is made by the best of workmen, and here in mind, don't forget it, that all saddles made in my shop, are made by Ed. Easterton, who cannot be excelled for good, honest, strong working men.
I will put Tom Collins against the world, on harness, and general work in the shop. Making and Repairing done to order. Also, remember, any one wanting FRUIT TREES or wishing me to attend to any real estate, or real estate, will find me at the Harness and Saddle Shop.
Give me a call and I will give you a bargain, or make some one else do it.

News Items Solicited.

The New York Sun has published a full page of stuff pretending to give the inside history of the nomination and election of President Garfield, and tries to make it appear like a sensation. There is nothing in the article that has not been published in almost every journal in the land, and if ex-Senator Dorsey furnished the material, as the Sun intimates, he has been consulting the files of some newspaper, and has revived a lot of old stories, some of which are true, and some are not. If Mr. Dorsey cannot throw any more light on the inside history of the events transpiring before and after the election of 1880 than is furnished by this article he has forgotten much that he knows, but the probability is that he never has any share in the pretended disclosures, and his name was used in connection with them purely to give the publication of old material new interest.

The New York Sun, right in the midst of the hot season, when the mercury is out of sight and the dog-star rageth with mouth wide open and tail erect, heaves a column article at mankind, out up into short verses, each one commencing with the strange device, "Turn out the rascals." We will—we will, when the election comes around, but don't get excited. Those tidal wave Governors, Ben Butler, Grover, Cleveland, and Pattison of Pennsylvania, are doomed to go, but it is a good thing to let 'em stay till the close of their terms, so that tidal waves may have ample opportunity for exhibition. Let the Sun be patient and they will go out in a few months. Then it will be time to commence the expulsion of the Democratic congressman elected by a few hot headed Republicans who felt mad and wanted to make the world odious. They have succeeded. They will be anxious to turn 'em out as is Dana or any other citizen of sensitive nose.
But it is a mistake to be too premature in a house cleaning enterprise.
Everything has its season.

[New Albany Daily Ledger.]
The Late Rev. Dr. C. Nutt.
A Proposition for a Monument to His Memory by the People of Indiana.

The Bloomington Progress has started a proposition for the erection, by the citizens of Indiana, of a monument over the grave of the late President of the State University, Rev. Dr. Cyrus Nutt, at Greencastle. The proposition is for the subscription of $1 for this purpose by each person. The Progress heads the subscription list. The ledger, most re-spectably second the proposition of the Progress, and commends it to the people of Southern Indiana.

Rev. Dr. Nutt was one of the pioneer Methodist preachers of Indiana, and in this field he was a great and efficient worker. He was noted as a preacher of great power and wide influence, and did as much as any one man to establish Methodism in the State, and advance the church to its present high and influential position.
Dr. Nutt was also a pioneer in the cause of education in the State. During his life he was at the head of several institutions. But his best work in the educational field was performed while he was in the presidency of the State University at Bloomington. Of this the Progress says: "Every man in Bloomington will remember how honestly and continuously he worked for Indiana University while its president, and that he not only gave all of his time, but every dollar of his salary to promote its best interests, as he understood them. The Progress believes that the mere suggestion will be sufficient to induce the man he has retained and befriended in the past to step forward and make a success of a monument fund."

The friends of education and the members of the M. E. Church, in particular, should take hold of this monument proposition with vigor and push it to a speedy success. Rev. J. E. Brant of Bloomington, who acts as treasurer of the fund and acknowledges all subscriptions.
The matter is to be a popular movement, and, therefore, but it is asked from such enthusiasm and liberality. New Albany will liberally to the fund, as the late Rev. Dr.
Nutt had a host of friends in this city.

Cincinnati Times: There never was a time when there was less expense for the tramp. Even in the ordinary channels of labor there is a sufficient demand to give employment to all, and the season of harvest which is now at its height, would give every one of these vagabonds work if he wanted it. But he does not want it.
The tramp is a bad quantity. Two women were murdered by the scoundrels in Ohio within a week, and their presence demands herculean treatment at the hands of our rural friends. If the shotgun policy is justifiable on any occasion it is justifiable in its application to the tramp.

Jeffersonville News: Wm.
Durgin, who threshes his crop of wheat to-day, has lost nearly the whole of it through the raids of sparrows on his fields. He had about thirty acres west of town. Peter Mann, of Floyd, near Blackiston's mills, gets only 745 bushels off ninety-five acres, and it is claimed that at least half his crop was eaten by sparrows. These pestilential birds come out of the three cities every morning, raid the fields, and return to their nests with full craws.

The largest shipment of cattle made from Crawfordsville for a number of years left on Friday afternoon for Liverpool. The train was composed of fifteen double-deck cars of sheep and five cars of cattle. They reached Boston on Monday evening.

SELLS BROTHERS' SHOW.

This celebrated Exposition, Circus Menagerie and Museum will be with us on Tuesday Aug. 7 and all who are anxious to see one of the very best traveling exhibitions in the country must be on hand.
It really is the largest show now traveling, and its menagerie has a larger and more choice collection of animals than have been seen in one collection. A herd of elephants, African and Asiatic, and more in number than have been seen at once in any other zoological collection, is one of the features. In the herd there are two strange specimens of a woolly species from Malay, the only pair ever brought to this country. The circus is represented by the foremost members of the equestrian and gymnastic corps, and among the arena there is a troop of bicyclists whose performances are said to be of the most extraordinary character. Altogether it is the most comprehensive show that has ever visited this place.

Thought He'd Try.

An Ohio merchant who kept three clerks, each of whom made his own change and had free access to the money drawer, was the other day asked by a commercial traveler why he did not keep a cashier to receive all monies.

"Cost too much," was the reply.
"But are your clerks honest?"
"Perfectly honest."
"Have you any objection to my trying them?"

"Certainly not, go ahead in any way you wish."
The traveler went away, but in about three hours he returned and said in a loud voice so that all might hear:

"When I was here this forenoon I paid you a bogus quarter by mistake. In case you find it in counting up to-night, lay it aside and I'll redeem it."
Then the traveler, accompanied by the merchant, took a position where the back door and alley could be kept in view, and in less than ten minutes out came the head clerk and emptied a handful of silver on the head of a barrel and paved it over. The bogus quarter was not there. He returned to the store and out came the second clerk and went through the same programme. He was followed by the third, and after he disappeared the merchant calmly observed:

The Farewell to Miss Holiday.

The First Presbyterian church was tastefully decorated last night, the occasion being a farewell reception to Miss Grettie Holliday, prior to her departure for Persian missionary fields. Rev. Myron W.
Reed, in opening the exercises, made some very appropriate remarks relative to the great missionary work accomplished by Miss Holiday at home, and her peculiar fitness for the work in foreign missions. He said that the prayers and good wishes of the good people of the city would go with her.
Mrs. A. H. Edson read a letter from Miss Mary Clark, now in Persia, detailing the experiences that Miss Holiday might expect to encounter. Miss Daisy Burgess presented Miss Holliday with a missionary contribution of a good filled purse, the gift of her Sunday school class. Miss Holliday, at the conclusion of these expressions of good will, made a most appropriate response. She leaves full of hope and courage to engage in the great work chosen by her. An hour was spent in personal expression of good will and farewells, refreshments being served in the meantime. Miss Holliday first goes to her brother, at Belvidere, New Jersey, next Thursday. She sails from New York September 15.

and benefit of Leroy Edmondson, Arsignee, is plaintiff and John A. Bower, Drusilla D. Bower, Wallace Hight and Emily Hight, are defendants, requiring me to make the sum of twelve hundred and fifty-seven dollars and nineteen cents, $1,257.19 with interest on said decree and costs, I will expose at public sale to the highest bidder, on SATURDAY, August 25th, 1883, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. of said day, at the door of the court house of said Monroe county, Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, of the following described Real Estate, situate in the county of Monroe and State of Indiana, to-wit:

A part of the west half of the northwest quarter of section thirty-three (33) town (3) nine, north range one (1) west. Beginning at the southeast corner of a lot of (5) five acres, more or less, heretofore sold and conveyed by Asher Labretow and Elizabeth Labretow, his wife, to Dr. Thomas P.
Lucas, and running thence north, magnetic, 5 d. 35. min. west with said Lucas' line, thirty-one poles and five links, thence north 86 deg. east, fifteen poles and sixteen and one-half links, thence south five degrees, thirty-five minutes, east thirty-one poles and five links, thence south 85 degrees west, fifteen poles and sixteen and one-half links, to the place of beginning, containing three acres and eight square poles, more or less, situated in Monroe county and State of Indiana.

If such rents and profits will not sell for a sufficient sum to satisfy said decree interest and costs, I will at the Elizabeth Labretow and Elizabeth Labretow, his wife, the simple of said real estate, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge said decree, interest and costs.

Said sale will be made without any relief whatever, from valuation or appraisement laws.
