

Delay is Dangerous!

You will miss some of the Best Bargains I am now offering, if you neglect to call at the Best clothing store before I remove. I want to dispose of the present stock before occupying the new room, and am selling very—VERY many articles at COST. They are going off rapidly, and I would like to have as many of my friends as possible enjoy the benefit. Come soon.

MOSE KAHN.

FOR SALE.—Mrs. A. J. Cherry desires to sell her residence in the northern part of town, or exchange it for a smaller house. She also has for sale, near by, several very desirable building lots. Terms and prices very reasonable.

—It is handy to stop in Hemp Wilson's cozy Grocery and Provision Store, on your way home, and get whatever you may need in his line. Wilson is buying many of his groceries direct from New York, and so gets the best grades of goods at first hands at figures that justify him in selling very close. The best butter makers in the county bring their products to Wilson. His stock of queensware at a very low price.

A QUESTION ANSWERED.—Where do so many well-dressed men come from? asked a friend the other day. The Progress hears this query often of late, and the reason for it is so obvious, that it is a matter of surprise that it is not more generally understood. They buy their clothing of Benj. McGee, on the north side of the square, of course, and hence look genteel and dandy; even if their outfits do not cost as much as those worn by some others. McGee has a superb stock of goods now, among which is an invoice of Hats, Shirts, Ties, and Gents' furnishing articles that cannot be excelled in the county. He has been in business so long in Bloomington that he knows just the style and quality of goods most suitable for his trade, and it is seldom a man leaves McGee's store without the article sought for.

CHARLEY Mobley's "Golden Rule" store is well supplied with seasonable summer goods, which are sold at low prices. Mobley keeps a special stock for each season, and manages to work off each stock in good time. Thus he always has new goods of the latest styles, and so makes his store a popular resort for bargain buyers. Call and see his novelties.

FARMERS, mechanics and builders will find it to their interest to call at Stuart & McPhetters' hardware store before purchasing, as an immense quantity in this line is kept by the house. Special advantages offered to persons about to build, in sash, doors, blinds, hardware and paints.

PEOPLE FROM other towns express their great surprise when they see the wonderful display of rich wares exhibited in Tobe Smith's Bazaar. It is equal to the so-called Expositions, now running in this country. His display of silverware is in itself marvellous. His trade has so expanded during the past three years that quite recently he built an extension to his room, and it is now a show in itself. It is so uncommon thing for Smith to sell five or six watches and eight or ten clocks in one day, besides wagon loads of cheaper goods that he keeps in stock for those who desire them.

ON THE southeast corner of Walnut and 5th streets you will find the well-appointed Grocery house of J. K. Anderson & Co. James Robinson is the Junior partner, and he is a thorough groceryman. Anderson is favorably known all over the county as a straightforward business man. The experience this firm has had in this business insures them uncommon facilities in buying, and they buy frequently, thus always having a fresh and desirable stock. They buy all manner of produce. Call on them.

FARMERS should go to W. J. Allen's hardware store and examine the South Bend Plowed Plow, also the Weir Steel Chilled.

RE'S Automobiles.—WHAT crowds go to J. W. Barnes' new Gallery west of the court house.

BLUE LICK water just received by George Beckert. This famous water will be kept all season and will be sold in large or small quantities. Store in Orchard Block.

"TWO BREAD" is one of Beckert's specialties; it is carefully prepared and is uniformly light and sweet. Such bread is certainly the most beautiful and all prefer it.

ICE CREAM, the best made in Bloomington, can always be found at Geo. Beckert's Confectionery. He has a nicely furnished Ice Cream Parlor attached to his establishment.

BUILDERS' hardware at the best figures at Allen's hardware store. Don't buy till you hear from Geo. N. Nible bought by the ear-load and sold at small profits. W. J. ALLEN.

A public spirited citizen offers to donate twenty acres of ground west of the "cut" for University buildings. Now, what do you say.

—County Clerk, D. W. Brown, and family, were visiting relations in Illinois, last week.

—Sells Bros. Show will double on its track, returning to Bedford from Salem, on the 9th.

—Miss Emma Adams, eldest daughter of Wilson Adams, Esq., was married on Tuesday night of last week to Benj. R. Whisenand, of Richland tp., Rev. Brant officiating.

—The Orchard House is becoming quite popular with families and residents, who prefer a quiet house and a clean table. The traveling public are also renewing acquaintance with this reliable hotel.

—Reports from all parts of the country show that the crops will, on the whole, be more than usually abundant. It is true that the wheat yield will not be as large as last year, but of all other kinds of grain there will be a large increase. The surplus carried over from last year is much larger than usual.

—The family of Vance Leffler, accompanied by Robt. Leffler, left Bloomington last week for Burlington, Iowa, on their way to Stockton, California. They will visit relations in Burlington a short time, and then go to their future home on the Pacific slope.

—Louisville will be full and running over with people on the occasion of the President's visit, Aug. 1st. Tickets for the round trip are to be sold to Louisville from this point for $1.75—good for four days.

—Almost every day during the past week the northbound express has been delayed five or ten minutes by the loading into the express car of immense quantities of empty beer kegs and boxes. There are no licensed saloons in Bloomington. Perhaps this beer is consumed in the surrounding country.

—There is a city ordinance against the use of "bean-flippers" or "devil slings," yet they are now in common use, to the destruction of window glass, and the annoyance of property owners. Some one will have to walk up to the Mayor's office and settle, before long.

—President Arthur and Cabinet, and Gen. Sheridan will open the Louisville Exposition, August 1st. Excursion tickets will be sold on that date for train No. 4 to Louisville and return for $1.75. Also for special to leave Bloomington at 6 o'clock a. m. and arrive at 9:50 a. m. Special returning leaves Louisville at 10:30 p. m. Return tickets good till August 4th.

—On the 4th of August, (next Sunday) Rev. Mr. Clay of this place will begin a campmeeting in the Worthington Fair Grounds, the meeting to last till the 12th. Mr. Clay has made a success of these meetings in this vicinity for several seasons, and we can assure the people of Greene county that everything will be conducted in a decorous and creditable manner. Prof. Teister's Jubilee Singers will be one of the attractions of the Worthington Meeting.

—Two years ago, at least one hundred dwelling houses were offered for sale at one-third less than their actual cash value. Persons desiring to buy were unwilling to pay more than a $1,000 for a house costing $2,000, and many did purchase at such figures. Owners of property are holding more stiffly now, and they are gratified to see the men who have been undervaluing property making efforts to build houses cheaply. It can't be done. The kind of houses they are building at a cost of $2,000, would not, at their buying valuation, sell for $1,200.

CHOLERA PRECEDED BY FLUX.—A prominent physician of this city says that flux prevailed as an epidemic just prior to the appearance of Asiatic cholera. There are many cases of flux in this city now, and, if this theory prevails, we may expect cholera in the sea-board cities before the end of summer. Our latest dispatches from the old world say the disease is rapidly spreading.—Madison Courier.

—N. A. Ledger: The tendency of the times is undoubtedly toward more practical and less theoretical education, and Mr. Adams has struck a popular chord in urging the matter right in the face of old conservatives who traveled along the Greek and Latin road to knowledge because their ancestor, traveled in that path. Men are getting out of the rut; the colleges must get out also or be deserted by the live men of the day.

—Track laying was commenced Saturday on the Columbus, Hope & Greensburg railroad. The engineer and his corps will next week commence the work of permanently locating the line between Hope and Columbus. The work will be pushed as rapidly as laborers can be secured. The best news that could be published for Bloomington, would be a statement that the road had been located through Brown, Monroe and Greene counties, to connect with the Terre Haute & Southeastern railroad. Colleges, factories, and churches, alone, will not build up the town—its population. It is very certain that they are not doing it. Nothing but an east and west railroad will insure growth and prosperity for our town.

—Ches. Arthur and Phil. Sheridan will pass north over the railroad on Thursday forenoon. The fellows who are always running after celebrated men, or men with titles and office, will clamor over the car, when it reaches Bloomington and blow their bad breath in the President's face. All they make off Ches. they may count on their fingers, as he is not caught by toadyism. Fact is, Arthur is a sensible, independent man—does as he wishes, it matters not who may object.

—Clear Creek township is to have a handsome brick school house, at a cost of $1,400, and the interested parties could not agree upon a location. The matter was referred to Supt. McGee, and on last Thursday he gave his decision, locating the house northwest of Smithville, on a corner of Maj. Grimes' land. H. J. Nichols has the contract for building the house.

—Tobe Smith and family, and H. H. Friedley and wife, went to Cedar Lake on Tuesday last week. Friedley had, among his baggage, a three gallon can of alcohol. Some one at the depot remarked that if Friedley could not make a haul of fish he would still have alcohol. This was supposed to be a joke, he said.

—Marriage licenses have been issued to the following named parties since last report: Albert M. Lifford and Katie Kelley, Jas. R. Moody and Catharine Miller, Scott A. Hacker and Nannie Richardson, John E. Jackson and Lizzie Kirgin, Chas. W. McDowell and Ola Dearman, Benj. R. Whisenand and Emma S. Adams.

—Remember that Arthur, Sheridan, and other distinguished gentlemen, will pass through Bloomington on the regular northbound train, next Thursday. There will be plenty of time for the President to make a speech while the Express company is loading empty beer kegs and boxes. People have to make speeches or be "speeched" at, when they get inside this corporation.

—It is sad to see that no fraternal feeling exists between the Spencer editors. One of them accuses another of having been drunk! Wrong to "give away" the profession in that manner.

—Wheat, though thin on the ground was well filled. The grain is sound, plump, and, it is predicted will make good flour. The weather, during the past two weeks, has been favorable for all farming operations.

—It is said the grated horse-radish sold by grocers who do not advertise, is made wholly and solely of turnips. Quite likely, as it has little or no "bite."

—Corn raisers are doing their "lay by" plowing, and business will brighten up when they have finished the hay cutting and corn cultivating.

—Will Adams, of McCalla & Co's dry goods house, has been testing the virtues of the water at Baden Springs, Orange county.

—The wife of Sid. Hatfield, well known in former days as Miss Flora Helton, is visiting relations and friends in Bloomington.

—Miss Mattie Cherry, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Gregory, and Mrs. Leroy Sanders, have gone to Trinity Springs.

—Maj. Mulky, after an absence of two months in Iowa and Kansas, is at home.

—The father of Mrs. Hows Ryora (Mr. Brown) died in Covington, Ky., Saturday a week.

—Ben Dunn has gone to Trinity Springs.

—Mart Alexander and wife have gone to Trinity Springs.

—Mrs. Sue McGillis and family, of Chicago, are visiting the family of Wm. Shaw, East Spring Street, New Albany.

—Miss Nannie Woodward, of Bloomington, is visiting Miss Blanche Wolfe, the handsome lady clerk in the postoffice, at Mitchell.

—Miss Pink Emery, of Bloomington, is visiting Miss Ada McCurdy, East 4th street, New Albany.

—Misses Dora and Julia Moffet, who have been visiting Dr. Weir, returned to Paxton, Ills., one day last week.

—New wheat was bought at the Bloomington Mills, last week, from John Waldron. It is worth 90 and 95 cents, according to quality.

—The spoke factories have "shut down," and the bedstead factory has been taking matters easy during the past two or three weeks, owing to a scarcity of orders.

—Rev. John Kiger, presiding Elder of New Albany District, was married last week to Mrs. Amelia Alfriend, of Charlestown, W. Va. He is 71 years old, but is quite vigorous.

—W. P. McNary arrived at home on Saturday morning, after a trip through Colorado. He is impressed with the belief that Colorado will be one of the leading states of the Union, and that before many years.

—Showers Bros. will exhibit their bedsteads in the Louisville Exposition, having secured space for that purpose. W. N. Showers was at the Falls city, last week, arranging the wares.

—Joseph Norman and wife, who went to Los Angeles, Cal., for health returned to Bloomington last week, after an absence of several years. Mrs. Norman, nee Shields, was greatly improved in health, but Mr. Norman is not as well as before he arrived in California.

—The Bloomington Normal School, now in session, is one of unusual interest, and with a larger attendance than usual. Prof. Woodburn and Deck are hard workers, and it will be no fault of theirs if the students do not receive benefit from the Normal.

—At a meeting of the Trustees of Indiana University, last week, it was determined to rebuild immediately. Plans were ordered from a competent architect, and another meeting of the Trustees will be had next week to examine the plans and take further steps.

—Dr. B. A. McGee and wife returned to Bloomington last Friday, after an absence of six weeks in Wisconsin. Two weeks were spent in Ashland, and four in Wau-paca. Mrs. McGee's health is very much improved. The Doctor is enthusiastic over the town of Wau-paca and its summer climate.

—Peter Bowman, the druggist, is rebuilding the room on the corner of the alley, at one time occupied by Lindley. The foundation is being laid and the work will be hurried on. Bowman will have a neat room, constructed specially for his business, with dwelling rooms above. Steve McPhetridge has secured the contract.

—It is a mistake about the "Old Folks' insurance companies" being wiped out by the late legislature. They were just reorganized under the new law, and are going right on. Several persons in this county have recently received comfortable sums of money on a very small investment. Mr. Tate has secured this insurance for all these lucky persons.

—The University buildings were not destroyed, as is published in some of the newspapers. The main building, worth about $70,000 is standing—the museum building costing about $33,000 was destroyed. Only this and nothing more. College will open promptly, Sept. 6th, fully equipped, and prepared to do as good work as usual.

—Dob Wilson has been in jail several weeks on a charge of trespass—taking a horse and riding it in the direction of Martinsville, where it was turned loose. On Wednesday afternoon Wilson's wife went to the jail about 5 o'clock to visit him, and when she came out at about 7 o'clock, there was no one present but Mrs. Grimes, who unlocked the door, as she had frequently done before. Wilson was hidden behind his wife as she came out and dashing past her threw Mrs. Grimes back against the door and made his escape. The Sheriff has been searching for him in the vicinity of Gosport, which is one of his haunts, but without success.

—Mrs. Atwater and son are visiting relations in and near Mentor, Ohio.

—Vinson Carter and family of Indianapolis, have been visiting Mrs. Carter's father (Dr. Maxwell).

—"Boys and women," says an experienced observer, "always want to be where they ain't."

—President Moss left Bloomington for Chautauque, N.Y., on Saturday morning.

—Joe Alexander went to Crawfordsville last week for "needed rest," and to sell watermelons.

—A Basket Meeting will be held at Cross Roads Church, next Sunday, beginning at 10 a. m. All are invited.

—Ed. Seward and wife left Bloomington on Thursday last, for some of the health resorts in the northwest.

—After a pleasant visit to W. J. Allen, H. C. Allen and family of Indianapolis have returned to their home.

—O. E. Foster and wife of Whitehall, are entertaining their daughter and husband (C. C. Barnett) of Charleston, Ind.

—Walter Lindley is making preparations to attend a school of pharmacy, in Cincinnati, O., this fall and winter. Walter is determined to stand at the head of his profession.

—A colored employee of Showers' factory, McAfee by name, died one day last week. The funeral was attended by a number of colored women wearing regalia, but no one seemed to know what order they represented, if any.

—It is in exceeding bad taste for some people to charge indifference upon our citizens, with reference to college matters, when the fact is recalled that they ran their hands in their pockets, last winter, and paid out $3,500 in cool cash, to secure "aid and assistance."

—Death is galloping his Pale Horse over desert, sea and city—we trace his march through Egypt, until his advance, when last heard from, was unannounced in England. Whether he will have time to cross the Atlantic or not before the frosts come, we cannot say, but London is not many days distant from New York Harbor, and Death travels with the swiftness of morning. When we know that cholera is a controllable disease, and that the most prudent person on the part of citizen or State would stay its progress, it seems almost madness to hesitate. Every man in his own sphere can do much toward preventing this pestilence. All plagues, cholera and yellow fever especially, assail the intemperate and unwary first. If a man lives a life of dissipation and recklessness, drinks vile liquors, allows his system to become vitiated and debilitated by disease, he will pass away before the contagion like a breath. We invite disease when we violate the laws of nature, and become easy victims to pestilence when we allow the liver to become deranged, and the lungs to lose power, and the brain to become heated and oppressed by long continued hours of sloth and intemperance. Every man, therefore, should mount guard over himself and his home, to resent the progress of the invader.

—In the absence of Mr. Philpott, Eld. J. M. Mathes of Bedford will preach in the Christian Church, next Sunday, Aug. 5th, both morning and evening.

McCALLA & CO.

In "Progress Block."

General Grant and Gen. Phil. Sheridan will pass over the road from Chicago to Louisville, in a special train, to-day (Tuesday), arriving at Bloomington station at 3:30 p. m. This is a shrewd stroke of advertising policy upon the part of the managers of the L. N. & C. railroad, and will bring the line into notice all over the country.

John McCalla is making preparations to go east after a stock of goods for his handsome new room, now being rapidly pushed to completion. In the meantime he desires those indebted to him to call and pay at once.

Rev. A. B. Philpott goes to Island Park, near Rome City, Ind., this week, to attend the Indiana Christian Sunday School Association, Aug. 3 to 7. He will also attend the State Missionary Society, Aug. 8 and 9. Prof. Atwater will also attend, and is on the program for the following: Paper and Discussion, "What Should the Sunday School do for the Home?" and "The Withdrawal of the Church from the Disorderly." Mr. Philpott will read a paper on "The Influence of the Sunday School on Society, Local and General."

A drummer, walking in front of the new west side block, fell into an uncovered cellar in front of Redick Wylie's building. Aside from cutting one of his ears, he did not seem to be very much injured. When a drummer falls on his cheek, however, something is sure to suffer.

Papers published in the towns in which the Sell show has given performances, state that an unusual number of sharpers and confidence men are following the show. Take warning, and never bet on another man's game.

Chas. Harris, who during the past two years has been attending Universities in Leipzig and in Paris, arrived in Bloomington last week. Mr. Harris' place of residence is Albion, Ills.

McCalla & Co. want you to pay that bill, and pay it promptly. They need the money, as Mr. McCalla is going east after the largest stock of goods ever seen here.

B. F. Adams and wife are in Martin county, imbibing the curative waters of the Sulphur springs.

Remember that the Grant St. M. E. Church, (colored) is holding a campmeeting at the Fair Grounds. Next Sunday will be the big day, and an immense crowd is expected.

The projected city building will cost between three and four thousand dollars. It will be 30x60, with a sixty foot tower. All to be constructed of stone, brick and iron. It will front on 6th and Walnut streets, and will be located on the northeast corner of the public square.

Two FULL-blooded Durham Calves, and a fine 3-year old iron-gray horse, broke to ride and work, will be sold on favorable terms, if application be made soon, to C. W. Houston, 6 miles northwest of Bloomington.

NEW SCALES.—Jesse W. Mayfield has, at his residence, two and a half miles west of Bloomington, on the Ellettsville and Whitehall road, a pair of first-class Fairbanks scales, upon which he is prepared to weigh stock and grain at reasonable rates. No use in going out of your way for scales. Prompt attention given to business, and accuracy assured in all cases.

PHOTOGRAPHS made by the instantaneous process at J. M. Barnes' new Gallery, west of the court house.

That "Fire" still burning. I have taken charge of the Perdue stock of boots and shoes in the Mendelssohn Hall, and will continue to sell at "Fire" prices. I want to dispose of the entire Perdue stock, before I move into the new corner room, and will sell at any price. Come and see me.

WM. BLAIR.

The leading Gallery in Bloomington is west of the court house.

The Brown and Weir Cultivator are both sold by W. J. Allen. Let every body come and see them.

State of Indiana, Monroe county, ss. In the Monroe Circuit Court, No. 379, Complaint by Robert W. Miers and Henry C. Duncan vs. Alexander Guthrie and Maria L. Rogers. Be it known that on the 13th day of March, 1883, the above named plaintiffs, by their attorneys, filed in the Circuit Court of Monroe county, in the State of Indiana,
