

The Progress takes pleasure in directing the attention of its readers to the mammoth announcement of Dunn & Co., the grocers near the depot, whose reputation for complete stocks and reasonable prices, has made that firm so justly celebrated, and has carried its name and fame into every neighborhood and family in Monroe and adjoining counties. This house was established in 1851, by Samuel F. and Felix C. Dunn, and from the first day of its organization and opening, mounted the top wave of success, where it has ever since maintained its position. The present proprietors are Felix G. Dunn, known here for a half century as one of the most honorable and conscientious business men of the country, and Jos. N. Alexander, a young business man whose keen foresight and undaunted energy has much to do with the success which the firm has achieved in recent years.

After Mr. Alexander went into the firm he began to inquire into and figure on the advantages that might be gained by buying goods direct from Baltimore and New York in car-load lots, and putting his theory into practice, he began buying such leading staples as sugar, tea, coffee, rice, prunes, etc., from first hands, and was thus enabled to retail these goods at lower prices than was being paid to the wholesalers by other retail grocers. And that is just where Dunn & Co. excel to-day. The car-load lots of sugar they have recently purchased in the east have enabled them to sell at phenomenally low prices. Instead of selling their goods on credit and at a big profit, Dunn & Co. do a strictly cash business; but a little cash goes a long way at Dunn & Co.'s, in the purchase of table supplies and such staple articles as enter largely into the every day necessities of a family.

The past year has been a very satisfactory one with their customers, who have been given the benefits of close buying. Still Dunn & Co. aspire to do better, by enlarging and widening the sphere of their usefulness. To succeed in this they have made some surprisingly favorable contracts with leading importers, and during the next three months will give to such persons as may favor them with patronage, an opportunity to secure a great many classes of goods at prices far below any heretofore quoted.

The store room of Dunn & Co. has recently undergone an entire change in appearance, having been painted and frescoed in an artistic and attractive manner, and the commodious salesmen of the house, among whom are Chas. Alexander, Ewing Batterson, Grundy Dunn and Jos. N. Alexander, will at all times take pleasure in showing persons through the stock, assuring them that both goods and prices shall suit them.

Greenacres has achieved a great victory. On Friday a week Miss H. Eliza Hart, of Greenacres, came forward and subscribed the $3,000 necessary to complete the guaranty fund and secure the De Pauw endowment for the University at that place. It is known that Mr. De Pauw has given a written instrument giving the University 45 per cent. of his entire estate, exclusive of the glass works, which makes an additional donation of $1,500,000. The college without these gifts is now worth, in buildings, grounds, investments and outside bequests, $500,000. Robert McKim, of Madison, has given $10,000 for an observatory, to be built next spring. Anthony Swisher died recently in Tippecanoe county, leaving $25,000 to go to the University on the death of his wife. A concert and general jubilee was held at Meharry hall, winding up with the firing of artillery and the ringing of bells.

Hon. Jno. C. New, Senator Sabin and Mr. Martin are committee on arrangements for the national convention. They have decided that no such numbers shall be admitted as spectators as at the last Chicago convention. They intend to divide the Exposition hall in such a way as to give the floor room to the delegates; the platform room to the officers and press, and gallery room for not over 3,000 visitors, instead of 15,000 as at the last convention. The delegates and alternates will number 1,556.

—We sold the following in the Courier of last Saturday. Mr. Jno. W. Buskirk is no superior as a lawyer, and his fitness for the Bench has been demonstrated by the acceptable manner in which he has occupied that honorable position when called upon, during the past four or five years:

John W. Buskirk will be a candidate for Circuit Judge, before the next Democratic Judicial Convention, for this circuit, composed of the counties of Monroe, Lawrence, Orange, Martin. It is unnecessary to speak of Mr. Buskirk's qualifications for the office to those of the Legal Fraternity who have met him in court, as his ability is fully recognized and admitted by them; and to the Democracy of the Circuit, generally, the estimate in which his legal ability is held by the Bar of the Circuit is sufficient. It is no disparagement to the claims of others who may seek the same position, to say, that as a judge of law, Mr. Buskirk is regarded by those best qualified to decide as having no superior in the Circuit; nor, indeed in the State, his age being considered. Although, comparatively a young man, he was prominently spoken of as a candidate for Supreme Judge, at the last Democratic State Convention, and could undoubtedly have been nominated and elected, had he not been deferred to the claims of Judge Ribick, present incumbent. He could carry this county against any candidate that could be nominated against him, and would we think carry the Circuit by a handsome majority. His popularity in this county arises not only from his success in the practice, but also from the fact that while he is always zealous and true to the interests of his clients, he is ever ready to suggest or meet a compromise to avoid or settle litigation.

—There is a clergyman in Tennessee called the "satisfying preacher." If a congregation is discontented he is sent for, and so atrociously bad is he that after hearing him once or twice the congregation is entirely satisfied to keep the pastor it has. The Christian Advocate tells this story, and adds that when the great Robert Hall was recovering from mental aberration he took a whim that he would not preach. Several clergymen filled his pulpit. At last he heard one so poor that he said to him—so the tradition is: "Sir, you have preached a great effect by your sermon to-day. If the people must hear you or me, my duty is clear—I must resume preaching!"

—Fannie B. Ward writes from Saltillo that at whatever hour a person dies in Mexico, it is customary to appoint the funeral just 24 hours later, and that the mortality is greatest all over the world at night, so most of the funeral ceremonies in Mexico are performed at night, no women being permitted to attend. The poor hire the coffins in which their dead are borne to the grave.

A PEOPLE WITHOUT CONSUMPTION.—A paper was read recently before the Tennessee Medical Society with the title "A people without Consumption, and some Account of their country." The country in question is the Cumberland plateau. The writer, Dr. Wright, has practiced in the region throughout a generation, and in his assertion of fact touching the entire absence of consumption he is supported by the testimony of about twenty other physicians of standing. ### ASSIGNEE'S SALE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned, assignee of Joseph Y. Buskirk, Esq., will sell at public sale, at the residence of the said Buskirk, in Bean Blossom tp., Monroe county, Indiana, on THURSDAY, January 24th, 1884, the following real estate, to-wit: The West half of the Northeast quarter of section 3.

East half of the Northeast quarter of section 3, containing 38 acres of the west side of east half of northeast quarter of section 3.

A part of the south east quarter of the northeast quarter of section 3, beginning at the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of said section, thence west seventy-nine (79) poles, thence north ninety-three (93) poles to a marked line between the lands owned in 1880 by John Davis and Jonathan Kegley, thence southeast with said marked line to the line dividing the section, thence south 84 poles to the beginning.

Also a part of the southwest quarter of northeast quarter of section three, beginning fifty-six (56) rods north of the southwest corner of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of said section three, in the State Road, thence west with said road forty-eight (48) rods, thence north parallel with the Marion Davis line, to the Branch, thence up said Branch, with the marked line dividing the Davis and Kegley land, thence east to the corner of the lands sold to James Y. Buskirk, thence south to the place of beginning. Said two last tracts containing fifty-four acres, and all of the above being in township 10, north range 2 west, in Monroe county, Indiana.

Also the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 34, town eleven, north range, two west, in Morgan county, Indiana.

—The Union Medicale of Paris, gives the formula of Lasagne & Regnaud's valuable pomade as follows: Chloroform twenty parts, and vaseline sixty parts. It has been used externally with great success for rheumatic and neuralgic pains, and in the vague chest pains which accompany tuberculous.

—There is a cedar tree in the colored people's cemetery in Americus, Ga., that was planted in a pitcher at the head of a negro's grave ten years ago. It burst the bottom of the pitcher and took root in the earth. The pitcher still encircles the tree, which is about ten feet high.

—Hollow steel shafting, which has come very generally into use in Europe, even for such heavy work as steamship propeller shafts, is found to very much lessen the weight in proportion to the decreased strength. It appears, for example, that a ten-inch shaft with a hole four inches in diameter, has its weight reduced sixteen per cent., with a loss of only 2.56 per cent. of strength.

—The Albany Evening Journal says: "A large proportion of the molding sand consumed in the foundries of the United States is dug out of the hills of Albany county. It is said that everything in soluble metal, from a Krupp gun to a heel plate for a lady's shoe, is cast in Albany sand. Quantities of it have been exported as ballast. The annual shipment of sand obtained hereabouts from this city is estimated at from 75,000 to 100,000 tons, the price paid for it, delivered on board the cars or boats, being about $1.25 per ton."

Administrator's Sale of Real Estate.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned Administrator of the estate, with the will annexed of James Duran, deceased, will offer for sale at public auction, at the court house door, in Bloomington, Indiana, on the following described real estate, in Monroe county and State of Indiana, to-wit:

SATURDAY, January 12th, 1884, at one o'clock P. M.,

The west half of the northeast quarter of section thirty-six, town nine, range one west.

Also, the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, section thirty-six, town nine, range one west, except five acres heretofore deeded to David Hunter.

Also, a part of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter, section thirty-five, town nine, range one west, containing four acres, and being situated in the extreme northeast corner of said section, in the form of a triangle, containing in all one hundred and eighteen acres.

This land is what is known as the "Dorman Farm," situate two miles east of Bloomington. Here is a chance to buy a very desirable farm at a bargain.

TERMS OF SALE. One-third cash, one-third in nine months, and one-third in twelve months, purchaser giving notes for deferred payments at six per cent. interest from date of sale with approved surety, waiving valuation and appraisal laws.

JOHN HUNTINGTON, Administrator.

—It is sometimes as dangerous to prove too little as too much in a law case. For instance, according to the Chicago Herald, a plaintiff in that city filed a bill for a divorce because his wife persisted in singing hymns in the house. The Court just laughed at him, and he was about to suffer nonsuit, when his lawyer summoned his wife to the witness stand and started her singing "Hail to the Brightness." At the end of the fifth verse the Court assented, and the divorce was granted for cruelty.

—If it be true that American dentists pack into people's teeth a ton of gold each year, in future centuries there will be a gold mine discovery sensation whenever an old grave-yard is dug into.

—Professor J. L. Campbell, of Wash College, who has been conducting the geodetic survey of the State, has published a table of altitudes giving the elevation above the sea level of one station in each county. The highest point given is at Winchester, Randolph county, 1,101 feet, and the lowest is Leavenworth, 303 feet.

—The Century is the model magazine of romance, and to-day stands at the head of the list of the splendid monthly publications that are largely patronized in the United States. The "Century" is not merely a reproducer of the matter contained in contemporary publications but contains the best thoughts of the lively writers. It is now considered standard authority upon any topic of which it treats, and should be included in your list of reading matter for the new year.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an execution to me directed, from the Clerk of the Monroe circuit court, I will expose at public sale, to the highest bidder, on SATURDAY, January 12th, 1884, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. of said day, at the door of the court house of said Monroe county, Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, of the following described Real Estate, situate in the county of Monroe and State of Indiana, to-wit:

The east half of the southwest quarter of section ten (10), township ten (10), range two (2) west, containing eighty (80) acres, more or less, situate in Monroe county and State of Indiana.

And on failure to realize the full amount of judgment, interest and costs, I will at the same time and place expose at public sale the fee-simple of said real estate.

Taken as the property of James A. Mitchell et al, at the suit of Jesse Runnels.

Sale will be made without any relief whatever, from valuation or appraisal laws.

Indian Creek,	12	2	16	50	15	10	15	20	1	40	2	00

For one male dog, $1.00. For each additional male dog, $2.00. For each female dog, $2.00.

Each tax-payer may pay the full amount of his or her taxes on or before the 3d Monday in April, 1884, or may at their option, pay one-half thereof on or before said 3d Monday in April, and the remaining half on or before the 1st Monday in November following.

In all cases where as much as one-half of the amount of taxes charged against a tax-payer shall not be paid on or before the 3d Monday in April, 1884, the whole amount shall become due and returned delinquent, with 10 per cent. damages and 6 per cent. interest, and collected as provided by law. If you are liable to pay taxes in more than one township, state the fact to the Treasurer, as a separate receipt is given for each township. Examine your receipts before leaving the office, and see if they include all of your property. No county orders will be endorsed or ordered paid when the person in whose name it is drawn owes delinquent tax. Tax-payers will find it greatly to their advantage not to put off tax paying until the last two or three days; and those who have their taxes complicated, such as undivided estate, &c., are especially solicited to call when we are at leisure, as it requires time to make the division and separate receipts.

ISAAC CLAMAN, Treas. Monroe County.

Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 21, 1883.
