C. P. TURNER.

THE ADVICE given from week to week by the Progress is being heeded, as the crowds of customers that throng Hemp Wilson's Provision Store would indicate. The store is conveniently located in "Progress Block," corner of 6th street and College Avenue, and special efforts are directed toward keeping the choicest coffees, teas, gins, and other like supplies. The stock of Glassware and Queensware is well selected and is sold at a small profit. The best butter can always be procured at Wilson's, as some of the best butter makers in the county trade with him. Try his "Webster" cigar.

"IT CANNOT be excelled," is the verdict of every one who goes to McGehee's fashionable emporium for clothing. Ben McGehee has been in Bloomington a life-time and he never cut or made a suit or garment for a man who did not patronize him again. He is one of the most artistic and painstaking cutters in the State, and understanding all the details, he sees that suits are made up properly. Leave your measure.

MORLEY has again brought a choice supply of fancy and staple goods from the cities, in anticipation of a lively spring trade. This he will doubtless secure, as he is familiarly known all over Monroe county, and many of his old customers will tell him that his new goods before they buy. Charley has some specialties, among which are lace, gloves, hosiery and pajamas. These the ladies declare can be bought more cheaply at Morley's than at any other store.

FROM all the surrounding counties the people flock to Bloomington to examine Tobe Smith's wonderful display of beautiful goods. His store is a sort of museum, in which every article ever heard of is kept. He is a skillful workman, and turns out some splendid work. The famous five cent counter attracts great crowds when the weather is warm enough to spend the goods out doors. No store in Indiana carries a better stock of fine jewelry, silverware, watches and clocks.

NOW the Ice Cream season has opened and if you want the choicest Ice Cream, made of the richest cream and purest sugar, you should go to Beckhart.

NEAREST Ice Cream Parlor in town, at Beckhart's. Entrance on the street—neatly furnished, clean and convenient. Just the place for young men to take young ladies.

BREAD the great staff of life is all the better for health for being extra good. That is the kind Beckhart, the baker, bakes. Everybody that has eaten this bread will eat it again. It is superb.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS. ALL persons are hereby warned against hunting, shooting, passing through fields, half-playing or any other games, or in any way trespassing on the farm, owned by Bloomington, Ind. Persons disregarding this notice will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

REAPERS and Mowers of the McCormack and Champion patents are made a specialty by McPheters & Shoemaker. Call and see them.

BUILDERS, farmers and mechanics, will find it greatly to their interest and profit to call at our hardware store before making purchases. We can give them some inside figures on these specialties. McPHEETERS & SHOEMAKER.

C. VAN ZANDT & SON, UNDERTAKERS, AND DEALERS IN Metallic Bural Cases and Coffins. Hearse and Carriages furnished to order. Orders by telephone will receive prompt attention. Shop on College Avenue, north end of W. O. Fox's Building, Bloomington, Indiana.

THE BEST MEAT.—J. W. Dickson begs to inform his friends, and the public generally, that he has bought out James M. Hunter's Butcher Shop, in the "Progress Block," where he intends to keep everything usually found in a first class shop. Give him a call and see for yourself.

A FAVORITE HOTEL is the Orchard House, situated opposite the depot. The house is large, conveniently arranged, and the rooms are comfortably furnished. Good beds, a well supplied table—all that any one might desire, to be found here. Well arranged sample rooms are situated in the Orchard House, and Commercial travelers will find the Orchard a good house at which to stop. Meals supplied to persons at reasonable figures. Orchard & Son are the proprietors.

Anybody can secure an organ or piano now, on terms that can easily be complied with. Will E. Adkins, the enterprising agent, (at McPheters & Shoemaker's hardware store) will supply you with a first-class organ for $10 cash, and 60 per cent cash on a first-class piano at $25 cash, and $10 per month until paid for. Call on him and examine guarantee, instrument, and earn further particulars about terms. He is agent only for first-class instruments.

—Decoration Day was all that could be desired, in the matter of weather, and while the air was somewhat crisp, the sun shone with a warm glow that invited all our citizens out doors. At 9 o'clock the procession, consisting of members of the G. A. R. of Bloomington and of Unionville, formed south of the court house, and followed by a large number of citizens on foot and in vehicles, marched to the cemetery west of town. Arriving at the city cemetery, the following order of exercises was observed:

Song, My Country 'Tis of Thee, by G. A. R. Prayer by Chaplain W. R. Jones. Song, Cover Them Over With Flowers. Reading the Roll of Honor, H. J. Felts. Address to G. A. R. by Post Com. Mulky. Song, Tenting on the Night, by G. A. R. Oration by Rev. J. A. Bower. Song, Steep, Comrades, Sleep, by G. A. R. Reading the Roll of Honor, by G. A. R. Decoration of the Soldiers' Graves.

—The demonstration of the people, last Friday, in Bloomington, and all over the land, shows that after twenty-one years the soldier spirit which sent men to the front and saved the Union has not died out. The survivors of the war are proud of their military career, and they will never forget it nor will they let the Nation forget, even if it wanted to. The living shall be remembered as well as the dead. Throughout the country this day memorial day was marked by more impressive ceremonies than any previous one. The next time will be more impressive still.

—The Convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for Representative was held in Unionville, on Wednesday last, and although the black horse, Miers, was not nominated, as the Progress predicted, a "black horse" was nominated all the same, and his name is W. W. Browning, of Nashville, Brown county. The Progress has been told by Democrats who were on the ground, that Brown county men openly declared that Worrall could not receive the nomination at their hands. They had been warm friends of Cooper, in the congressional convention, Mr. Browning having seconded Cooper's nomination in a ringing speech, and they charged that Worrall had made himself "too numerous" in Mason's interest. However this may be, certain it is that Worrall was defeated, after forty-fourth ballots had indicated his strength, and a majority of the Monroe county delegates had voted for him each time. The delegates at times voting for Fulk, Miers and Walden. Finally, proceeding the 44th ballot, R. W. Miers, in a happy speech nominated John Graham. The vote then being called, Aquilla W. Rogers cast the 14 votes of Perry for Browning, and seventeen being necessary to a choice, Brown county, as usual cast her 16 votes for Browning, and he was nominated. As it now stands, Brown county has both Senator and Representative. So much for seeking Brown on Monroe when the Democrats re-districted the State.

—Grand Lodge Officers. The Grand Lodge, F. and A. Masons, elected the following officers:

—Judge Eli K. Millen has been presiding over the Lawrence circuit court during the past week. Mr. Millen is an excellent lawyer, and there is no more dignified or gentlemanly attorney in the county of Monroe.

—Commencement is approaching, and the people who are going to need nice sweet bread, cakes of the purest materials, and the best ice cream made, will go to Geo. Beckhart, the confectioner, and make their contracts at once. He will have a rush, but he is competent to get away with a good deal of work.

—Hereafter the L. N. A. & C. R. will sell 1,000 Mile Book Tickets at $25, good between all stations. These mileage tickets when issued to a head of a family may be used by any member of the family, either separately or together, and when issued to a business firm, by any member or representative thereof traveling at its expense. Tickets on sale and good for one year.

—If you have a pet bunion that needs looking after, it will be to your advantage to have Henry Hewson take your measure for a pair of boots—he can construct boots in such a manner as to avoid pressure on tender spots, and every one knows how miserable a bad fitting pair of boots make the wearer feel. See his advertisement.

Better than Leaning Money. I have three Building Lots, desirably situated, well set with forest trees, apple, pear and chestnut, which will be sold low to a cash customer. Call soon.

in all Departments. Fresh Silks and Satins in all the latest Spring shades. Positively the largest line of SLIPPERS in Town. WICKS' Bee Hive.

—At the Court House, next Saturday night, June 7th, 1894, Republicans will hold a public meeting to hear a report from the great Chicago Convention, now in session, and take necessary steps to organize a Republican Club. Good speakers will address the meeting. All are invited, especially the young men of the city and vicinity.

—Recorder Hall is seriously sick with erysipelas in the face.

—On Monday of last week, Jno. G. Robinson, whose farm lies 1 1/2 miles southeast of town, lost a valuable cow by lightning. She was lying under a tree, and during the prevalence of a brief rain storm the tree was struck by lightning, killing the animal instantly.

—The Alumni have decided to have the Alumni Supper on Tuesday evening, June 10, instead of on the evening of Commencement Day, as before. Since they will not have the Museum this year for promenade and waiting, both the Alumni Address and Supper have been set for the same evening. The address will be delivered in the M. E. Church, by Hon. J. E. Mellette, of Newcastle, after which there will be a banquet, and a good social time in college chapel.

—The Junior Contest in oratory, a new feature of the college year, occurred last Friday night, May 31. Two prizes, $50 and $25 had been advertised, and the reputation of the class orators, and the interest of their friends attracted a considerable audience. The contestants were Messrs. Dunlap, Wiley, Rucker, Carr, Hoffman, Fitch, Ewing, Griffith and Mason. Some of the speeches, the audience distinctly remembers, were 20 minutes long, and with nine of them to hear; the eloquence lasted till nearly midnight, and in some parts was a little tedious. The judges were Messrs. Karsell, Jno. W. Buskirk, D. C. Stewart, A. B. Philpott, and Dr. J. D. Maxwell, Jr. The first prize was awarded to Mr. E. E. Fitch, the 2d to Mr. M. M. Dunlap. These prize men got the net door money in the proportion of two to one. The contest also awarded the position of class orator at the class day exercise of their commencement a year from now to the successful man, Mr. Fitch. The decision, as far as we can hear is as satisfactory as any would have been.

—John B. Carson, vice president and ex-general manager of the Hannibal & St. Joe road, was on Saturday appointed general manager of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago road, including of course the Indianapolis Air Line Division. Mr. Carson assumed his new duties on Monday. July 1st President Roosevelt, of the L. N. A. & C. railroad, to be succeeded by Mr. Carson.

—D. W. Browning, Nat. U. Hill, Jos. E. Henley, J. G. McPheters, Jr., Dr. McLanahan and Major Mulky went to the Chicago Convention.

—D. L. Demaree and Samuel Wallingford, held up the Monroe county end of the Greenback Party, at the State Convention.

We have more corsets, better corsets, and cheaper corsets, than any store in town, and we want to sell them. Ladies are invited to examine these goods.

FRANK R. WOOLLEY, Chairman.

—The High School graduating exercises next Monday will occupy most of the day. There will be two distinct classes graduated, the two-year Prep. students who will be given a certificate of admission to the Freshman Class, and the regular High School Class, who have taken a three years course, and to whom will be given the first regular diplomas ever given to high school pupils in Bloomington. This Senior class of six will occupy the first part of the morning, beginning at half past eight, and their separate exercises promises to add unusual interest to this occasion. The class salutatory will be delivered by Mr. Henry Nuckles, the Valedictory by Miss Minnie Paris. This performance deserves from the citizens as large an audience as the chapel ever held. The 2d year Preparatory class as well as the other, is regarded as an unusually good class; on account of the good school work done since the Christmas holidays, both classes have been excused from their final examinations. After the Seniors have finished, the 2d year class will begin their exercises, which will correspond to the usual Preparatory Commencement, and will be as interesting as ever, which is saying considerable. Both classes number thirty-nine, the largest number graduated since 1878. Misses Maud Vanzandt and Maggie Porch will give the Salutatory and Valedictory of their class. Since the morning exercise does not begin till 8:30 it is fair to expect that the audience will be seated at that time.

—The receipts of the G. A. R. entertainment, Thursday night last, were $80 90. Monroe county has 275 soldiers on the roll of honor, and there is no good reason why we should not erect a monument to them, in the court house park of Bloomington. It is unfair to expect our people to raise large sums of money to be invested in a monument at Indianapolis, so that when one of the donors desires to see it he must pay out five or ten dollars in railroad fare and hotel bills. Let charity demonstrate itself at home, in this instance, at least.

—Miss Birdie Baker has returned to Noblesville with Miss Harris, and will spend the summer in that town and in Indianapolis.

—Showers Bros. own a farm near Guthrie, and as much of it is in grass, they are giving considerable attention to cattle. One day last week they sold eleven 3-year olds for $715.

—Next season the bedstead factory firm of Showers Bros. intend to organize a track base ball club and a brass band—all colored men. Stand back Bedford and Greencastle.

—The wife of Solly Carmichael, accompanied by her children, is visiting relations in Bloomington and Cincinnati, Greene county.

SCHOOL suits for Boys, in all sizes, just brought on, in all colors, and weights, by Chas. P. Tournier, at the Queen City Clothing House. You can get a neatly-fitting suit for your boy at one-third less money at our store, than you would have to pay for the goods and making.

Stock Farm for Rent. Rev. W. P. McNary will rent his stock farm, containing 325 acres, 1 1/2 miles north of Bloomington, Ind., to a good tenant, for a term of three years, for money rent, payable quarterly. The farm is well watered, and has fine blue grass; and plenty of meadow, and is in a good state of repair. For particulars inquire at the residence of Mr. McNary, or at the law office of Loudon & Miers, Bloomington, Ind.

Notice to the Public. This is to certify that J. B. Richardson bought of C. R. Fetcho in 1889 on three weeks' credit 2 pair of boots, amounting to $7 00. That said Fetcho being unable to get remittance for same took judgment before Geo. Brock, J. P., Dec. 17th, 1893, and to have the payment of said judgment, said Richardson made a sub-judgment and property on 30th 1894. Merchants and citizens of Monroe county will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly. C. R. FETCHO, Bloomington, Ind. June 24, 1894.
