Assignee's Notice.
NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed assignee for the benefit of creditors, of John F. Smith of Bloomington, Indiana, and having fully accepted said trust and qualified as such assignee, is now discharging the duties of said trust.

FROM all the surrounding counties the people flock to Bloomington to examine John F. Smith's wonderful display of beautiful goods. His store is a sort of museum, in which every article ever heard of is kept. He is a skillful watchmaker, and turns out some splendid work. The famous five cent counter attracts great crowds when the weather is warm enough to spread the goods out doors. No Store in Indiana carries a better stock of fine jewelry, silverware, watches and clocks.

Now the Ice Cream season has opened and if you want the choicest Ice Cream, made of the richest cream and purest sugar, you should go to Beckert's.

NEATEST Ice Cream Parlor in town, at Beckert's. Entrance on the street—neatly furnished, cleanly and convenient. Just the place for young men to take young ladies.

BREAD the great staff of life is all the better for being extra good. That is the kind Beckert's, the baker, bakes. Everybody that has eaten this bread will eat it again. It is superb.

BUILDERS, farmers and mechanics, will find it greatly to their interest and profit to call at our hardware store before making purchases. We can give them some inside figures on these specialties. McPHEETERS & SHOEMAKER.

C. Van Zandt & Son, UNDERTAKERS and DEALERS in Metallic Burial Cases, Caskets and Coffins. Hearse and Carriages furnished to order. Orders by telegraph will receive prompt attention. Shop on College Avenue, north end of W. O. Fee's Building, Bloomington, Indiana.

Anybody can secure an organ to piano now, on terms that can easily be complied with. Will E. Adkins, the enterprising agent, (at McPheeters & Shoemaker's hardware store) will supply you with a first-class organ for $10 each, and $5 per month till paid for; or a first-class piano at $25 each, and $10 per month until paid for. Call on him and examine specimens. Instruments, and learn further particulars about terms. He is agent only for first-class instruments.

TRY G. W. Browning & Co's. Saus. They guarantee full weight in every sack. Sold by J. M. Hunter. WANTED Agents to canvass for the lives of Elaine and Logan. Rapid sales and large profits. Strike quick. Brandt & Bruce, 43 Thirp St., Indianapolis, Ind.

A FAVORITE HOTEL is the Orchard House, situated opposite the depot. The house is large, conveniently arranged, and the rooms are comfortably furnished. Good beds, a well supplied table—all that any one might desire, and to be found here. Well arranged sample rooms are situated in the Orchard House, and Commercial travelers will find the Orchard a good house at which to stop. Meals supplied to persons at reasonable figures. Orchard & Son are the proprietors.

Always Get the Best. J. W. DICKSON, in the Meat Shop just South of Hemp Wilson's grocery store, keeps the choicest beef, and other succulent meats. He also has a variety of smoked meats, such as sugar-cured hams, shoulders, and breakfast bacon. On your way home stop and get a piece of good meat. J. W. DICKSON.

Republican Speaking.

MAJOR W. H. CALKINS, Republican Candidate for Governor of Indiana, will address the People of Monroe county, in Bloomington, on Wednesday, Sept. 17th, at 1 o'clock P.M.

HON. JOHN L. GRIFFITH, Of Indianapolis, will speak at Ellettsville, Tues. night, Sept. 2d; Hindostan, Wed. night, Sept. 3d; Smithville, Thurs. night, Sept. 4th.

HON. JIM WOOD, THE IRISH MINER, and MORRIS L. DUNLAP, Friday Night, Sept. 5th, at 7:30 o'clock. Irishmen should turn out, promptly, and hear their eloquent fellow countryman.

HON. J. F. DEZENDORF, Of Virginia, will speak in Bloomington, on Saturday Afternoon, Sept. 13th, at 1 o'clock.

HON. JOHN S. WISE, Congressman at Large for the State of Virginia, will speak in Bloomington, on Monday Night, Sept. 8th, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Wise is an eloquent and noted speaker.

Music by Drum Corps and Glee Club. Wm. F. Browning, Chairman, Joe G. McPherson, Jr., Secretary, Republican Central Committee.

Don't delay ordering your Fall suit till McGee is so crowded with other orders as to be unable to give you prompt attention. That is the way it is likely to be, if you put it off too long. He is receiving some of the hand-omest goods in his line it has ever been our fortune to examine. The new Fall piece goods are very tasty, and McGee knows just how to cut and make up these goods. He doesn't simply draw a tape line over you and cut the suit so many inches this way and so many the other, but he looks carefully to the building up or letting down of defective points. In short McGee is an "Artist Tailor," and the true Tailor is a real Artist. His cozy store is on the south side.

DULL though it may be with the average dealer at this season of the year, Charley Mobley does a good business all the year round. He has served a lifetime apprenticeship at the business, and is not a "Spring and Fall" Merchant only. He understands the requirements of all seasons of the year, and so has a generous and satisfactory trade at the season of the year when some men are doing comparatively nothing. If you want to see a well assorted stock of goods, suited to both sexes, and to town and country trade, go to the "Golden Rule."

THE ADVICE given from week to week by the Progress is being heeded, as the crowds of customers that through Hemp Wilson's Provision Store would indicate. The store is conveniently located in "Progress Block," corner of 6th street and College Avenue, and special efforts are directed toward keeping the choicest coffees, teas, sugars, and other like supplies. The stock of Glassware and Queensware is well selected and is sold at a small profit. The best butter can always be procured at Wilson's, as some of the best butter makers in the county trade with him. Try his "Webster" cigar.

The Orchard House improves with age. There is no quieter hotel in the town. The dining-room is kept scrupulously clean, the table is well served, and the appointments equal to those of any hotel in Southern Indiana.

Entertainers for Ladies. Employment for ladies to find employment that is both suitable and remunerative are limited; their pay is usually poor as compared with the salaries paid to men in some lines of occupation. But there are some very good exceptions. Journalism, the drama, music and platform offer equal advantages to men and women, and there is one occupation in which women are more successful than men, and that is in the management of agencies. In this line The Queen City Suspender Company, of Cincinnati, O., are offering inducements to ladies that we think ought to attract attention. They are now manufacturing and introducing their new Stocking Supporters for Ladies and Children, and their unequalled Skirt Suspenders for Ladies. None should be without them; our leading physicians recommend them, and are loud in their praise. These goods are manufactured by ladies who have made the wants of ladies and children a study, and they ask us to refer them to some reliable and energetic young lady to introduce them in this county, and we certainly think that an earnest solicitation in every household would meet with a ready response, and that a determined woman could make a handsome salary, and have an exclusive agency. We advise some young lady who is in need of employment to send the company her name and address, and mention this paper. Address: Queen City Suspender Company, Nos. 171 and 179 Main Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Cleveland is pretty sure, if he lives, to serve out his term as Governor.

Cleveland had better freeze on to that Long Branch cottage. It is a surer thing than the Presidency.

The true independent in politics is the one who takes drinks from the candidates of both parties.

Gen. Butler is not expected to contribute greenbacks to the Cleveland canvass, but he may give it a check.

It is not the procession that takes part in a street parade, but the procession on election day that tells for a political party.

A campaign poet has discovered that appendix rhymes with Hendricks. The appendix is supposed to be Cleveland.

Mr. Cleveland being a bachelor, no woman by his defeat will be disappointed in her ambition to be lady of the White House. And that ought to count for something.

The Kingston poet entitles an epic, "Cleveland our Cincinnati." This looks a good deal like an attempt to pass the Democratic candidate off for an Ohio man.

Senator Bayard's opponents looked up his rebellion record in time to run him off the Presidential track, but candidate Hendricks' record, which is a great deal worse, seems to have been overlooked.

Ohio has a curiosity in a man who can be flattened out like a pancake and rolled up like a carpet. After the first week in November it will be found that just such a man lives in New York, and his name is Cleveland.

"Will John Kelly harmonize?" asks an anxious anti-Blaine organ. That depends upon circumstances. There will undoubtedly be some vociferousness in the New York atmosphere, but that it will be harmony is not so sure. The manager of a church fair was asked if there would be music each evening. He replied cautiously: "I think not; but there will be singing."

Harper's Weekly never was a Republican paper. It cartooned in repulsive manner Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, and others. And now it is going for Blaine. The cartoonists of both Harper's Weekly and Puck are foreigners, and we are not surprised at their cartoons. The young man on the Judge is a Buckeye, and the Judge is for Blaine.

The current issue of the Indiana School Journal has the following:

Indiana had not less than a hundred representatives at "the great convention" at Madison, Wis. An Indiana man, President Smart, of Purdue, organized the "exhibit," which surpassed that at the centennial, in extent and quality. The Indiana part of the exhibit, under the control of State Superintendent Holcombe, was one of the best, if not the best, and conceded by disinterested parties.

The Supreme Court of the State of Indiana knocks all the stuffing out of the idea that guessing at the number of beans in glass globes is not gambling or taking chances in a lottery, but a matter of calculation. The court avers that a ticket holder can not ascertain, in order to make his calculation, the thickness of the glass of the sealed globe, or the size of the beans, and must therefore, in a measure, depend on pure guesswork.

On Saturday a week, the city of Anoka, Minnesota, was almost entirely wiped out with fire, for the fourth time within a few years. The loss is estimated at one million dollars. The scene was one of wild confusion and excitement.

Columbus Republican: The general opinion of Col. Matson among the soldiers of this district may be summarized about as follows: No man ever made louder professions of love than he; no one ever made more promises, as chairman of the pension committee, no one ever had a better opportunity to do something for them, and with such an opportunity no man ever did less. Matson is a demagogue and a fraud, and we want the scheme a success.

EVERYBODY ought to use "Cream Flour," sold by James B. Clark. If you use it once you will wonder why you didn't use it before. Remember that it is the "Bee Hive" grocery, next to the postoffice, that keeps this "Cream Flour."

The hickory nut crop promises to be uncommonly large.

The cantelope crop is enormous this year, and the quality excellent.

A Presidential campaign year is proverbially bad for business. Elections ought to occur once in ten years.

Mississippi has brought forward a white alligator by way of proving the wonderful things it can show. Possibly some day it will proudly hold up a free vote and an honest count.

Capt. J. W. Shoemaker was up in the vicinity of Laporte, Ind., ten or twelve days, called home by the death of his step-father, who was 82 years of age. Mr. Shoemaker's mother is now visiting his family.

Col. James Kegwin has been nominated by the Republicans of the 3d District as their candidate for Congress.

The wife of J. D. Urney, an estimable and highly respected lady, died at her residence in Harrodsburg, on the night of August 13th.

Samuel Wallingford returned last week from a trip through several adjoining counties, and reports "mules off." He has, thus far, purchased about two hundred milk cows, the highest figure paid being $50. Last year they ran as high as $75.

Harry Witherby, agent of the L. N. & C. railway, at Greencastle, was in town last week. Harry is an enthusiastic Republican, and says that the Irishmen of Greencastle are organizing a Blaine & Logan Club.

From White Hall we learn that Walter Coffey and Will Livingston have accepted an engagement with F. G. White of dramatic fame, and will leave next Monday for Frankfort, where they will meet the company. They will be gone eight months.

A colored man from Texas (Dr. Porter) spoke in the court house yard, last Thursday night, to a large audience, composed mainly of his own people, though many white Republicans were scattered through the audience. Porter was a surprise to the members of the local committee, and to his hearers generally, in that his speech far surpassed anything they had expected from him. His remarks were connected, pointed, and at times eloquent. So well pleased were the people that another appointment was made for him on Saturday afternoon, at which time an enthusiastic audience of men and women greeted him.

Soddy Carmichael has traded his residence on west 6th street to a man at Frankfort, Ind., for a stock of boots and shoes which invoiced $1,800.

Maj. Grubbs' meetings in this county, during the past week, have been largely attended. The Harrodsburg meeting, Friday night, was the largest indoors meeting ever held in the town. The Bloomington Glee Club sang for the meeting.

We have often wondered why business men, and the clerks especially, did not rebel against being housed up in their places of business so many hours of the day, a custom, in favor of which not one idea can be advanced. All places of business, including saloons, should not be open later than eight o'clock, and in winter the hour should be earlier. As it is, no business house makes any money after that hour, and the practice results in nothing except in inflicting injury on the proprietor and his help, while if the saloons were closed earlier the major part of the carousals would stop and cause dozens of persons to be at home with their families where they belong. Of course a general compliance with this rule would be necessary in order to make it successful, but a general agitation of the subject would make the scheme a success.

Read the resolution passed by the Democratic convention, Saturday a week—we don't have to go to Indianapolis to find a Democratic resolution that meant nothing—the Democratic town ring gives us home evidence.—Progress.

Yes, read the resolution and the proceedings of the convention, and you will find that the resolution was fully complied with. The resolution did mean something. It meant that the convention would do the right thing by "worthy and capable" soldiers. The name of no soldier was before the convention for Sheriff when the nomination was made—except that of Lampkins.—Courier.

Well, what was the matter with Lampkins? Isn't he a worthy and capable soldier?

The Artesian well is down to "Potdam Sandstone." This profane rock is said to be the water-bearing article that the drillers have been hunting. So mote it be.

Bloomington Post G. A. R. or a number of men went down to Harrodsburg, Wednesday night of last week, to organize a Post in that town. They were: Major Mulky, Capt. W. J. Allen, Capt. J. W. Shoemaker, A. T. Massey, James M. Rice, M. D. Griffy, Capt. Henry Henley, W. H. Jones, Capt. W. B. Hughes, J. McKee, Newt Mathers, W. W. Wicks, and H. J. Feltus. The ceremonies of instituting the Post were held at Knight's of Pythias hall, and were conducted by Commander Mulky, assisted by the rest of the Bloomington detail. Twenty-four old soldiers were duly instructed in the work of the G. A. R., after which officers were elected as follows: Dr. L. T. Lowder, Post commander. James Lowder, Junior Vice. Geo. M. Strain, Quartermaster. John Brown, Surgeon. Rev. E. P. F. Wells, Chaplain. John Clay, Officer of the Day. Pink Moore, Officer of the Guard. David Chambers, Quartermaster. George Smith, Sergeant Major. The new Post is named after two deceased private soldiers, Taylor and Guy, and is No. 376.

Don't forget that W. P. McGee's sale of personal property will take place on next Saturday, at his residence. There are a number of fine sheep, stock hogs, fat steers, milk cows, alderney heifers and fine young cattle to be sold. If you are in need of stock, don't neglect to attend this sale.

Leo Hirsch has been making a tour of some of the principal cities, and returned to the best one last Saturday—Bloomington.

It looks as though the aggressive campaign was tightening up its suspenders preparatory to getting down to work.

Peter Rautier, an Indianapolis builder, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the three new college buildings for DePauw University, Greencastle, to cost $50,000. Two buildings for Indiana University, at Bloomington, will cost over $60,000. The Greencastle buildings must be ordinary structures.

Not very many months ago the Courier used to contain exhaustive articles on the subject of grave-yard insurance. According to the Courier, the persons who speculated in this class of insurance were ghouls—bad men generally—and no language was too severe to be used in whiting of them. Give us some more of that "fine writin'." Bro. Feltus—your readers feel lonely without it.

No one would believe that such crowds attend Republican meetings in Bloomington, this early in the canvass, if he did not see for himself. Maj. Grubbs' meeting Saturday night, was a magnificent one, and the people listened to him over two hours. At the close, Hon. W. F. Browning threw open the doors of the Church, and Geo. W. Lampkins, a life-long Democrat and a gallant Union soldier, stepped to the front and renounced his allegiance to the Democracy. This is the beginning, in Monroe county.

Mose Kahn left Bloomington on Wednesday of last week, for a trip East.

Miss Margaret McCalla and Miss Kate Hight, have returned from a two weeks trip to the North-west, taking in Petoskey, Mackinaw, etc.

Will Bro. Feltus of the Courier read extracts from his paper (in the meetings this Fall), giving his views on graveyard insurance, and its probable effect upon a candidate for office on the Democratic ticket.

The Republican Central Committee will meet at 10 o'clock A.M., on Saturday, September 13th, 1884, in the Grand Jury Room.

Mr. Burford, who recently returned from Wight, Kansas, says that Craig Worley and Wade Galway have one of the best livery stable locations in Wichita, and are making money rapidly.

NEW Room, West Side Square. M'CALLA & CO.

The Photograph Gallery room occupied for so many years by J. B. Allison, is now for rent. A first-class photographer can find plenty of business here—a batch need not apply. For further particulars call on or address editor of this paper.

Statements of indebtedness have been sent to several persons who do not respond. We will publish a list of these delinquents, soon, in the Progress, and will send each of these parties a marked copy.

M. D. Griffy & Co. have secured the contract for Showers Bros. Bedstead Factory Buildings. They will be 100 feet apart, three in number, and each 50 by 132 feet. 102,000 brick and about 70,000 feet of lumber will be used in the construction. The building for the machinery will be on the north end of the grounds; the next building south will be the finishing and varnishing departments; the third building will be the ware room and shipping department. The firm have enough seasoned lumber on hands to supply their factory during the next twelve months.

Bro. Feltus seems to have lost all interest in graveyard insurance. Give us some of those old-time articles, in which you skinned the fellows who insure their dying papas and rakes in the crisp greenbacks. Don't weary of well-doing, Bro. Feltus—whooop 'em up, as you used to.

Ed. McGee will soon take the road for a Baltimore clothing house. Ed. has had some experience as a solicitor, and aside from his modesty, makes a good salesman.

Charley Mobley was in Louisville, last week, getting a car-load of good for the "Golden Rule." He says Louisville looked like Sunday in Bloomington.

Indiana Conference of the M. E. Church returned J. E. Brant to Bloomington; B. Carter goes to Ellettsville; J. D. Crane to Gosport; E. P. Wells to Harrodsburg.

The grand jury, as drawn, comprises David Miller, George Strain; Hask. Mercer, Milton Myer, J. G. Hacker, Roger Kerr.

Many of the leading papers of New York State say the Republicans will carry that state this fall beyond all reasonable doubt. The bolters are already disgusted with their meagre following.

A new marshal every month or two would be a good investment. Each new one makes it a point to clean the streets.

The petit jury for the present circuit court is: W. T. Blair, Geo. P. Findley, John Wright, Wm. Butcher, Wm. Walner, B. R. Dunn, James Abel, Sexton Long, P. Fox, David Chambers, Jacob Carmichael, Paris Koons.

Dr. Moss attended the Owen county teachers' institute, at Spencer, last week.

The Republican papers are setting up a great howl because the Democrats didn't nominate George Lampkins for Sheriff, when the reason to them is obvious.—Courier.

What's the matter with Lampkins? Isn't he as good a man as you had before the Convention?

Kearney Buskirk arrived at home last Thursday, after a five weeks trip through Iowa and Illinois.

The circuit court and grand jury began their regular September sittings on Monday. The docket of circuit court is not very extensive.

College bell will ring on Thursday morning.

THE POPULAR "Queen City Clothing Store" was thrown open to the public again last week. C. P. Tourner is determined to get rid of his fine stock at any price, so that he can bring on Fall Goods. If there is anything you need, in that line, you can get it dirt cheap now at the old corner clothing store.

W. P. Rogers will address the Blaine & Logan Club, at Harmony, in Van Buren tp., next Saturday night, Sept. 6th, 1884. All are invited to hear him.

The county Institute will be held in December.

Mrs. Van Nuys has gone to Waukegan, Wis.

Rev. D. A. Graham of the African M. E. Church will take charge of the colored school in this place. He has been located in Washington, Davies co.

Mrs. Hattie Carnahan, a sister of Mrs. B. A. McGee, died at her home in Logansport, on Aug. 16th, with consumption.

J. C. Wooley's sister, of Middletown, O. Mrs. Elizabeth Wooley, is visiting his family.

The W. C. T. U. held their regular monthly meeting in the U. P. Church, Monday evening.

Miss Mollie Waldron is visiting Bedford friends.

D. W. Browning, Jas. Kelly, S. K. Rhorer, W. P. Rogers and several others visited the Louisville Exposition last week.

The Courier says: "Spot such men as pretend to be Democrats; and are giving information to the enemy."

Hal scolded-r-t-d, I have thee within me g-r-as-p!

Nat. U. Hill and J. E. Henley have held several interesting meetings in the country within the past week. They report a full attendance in each instance, and a patient hearing.

Frank Moore, now a clerk in a Chicago railroad office, was married on the 27th at Georgetown, Ky., to Miss Floyd N. Moore.

Dunn, Williams & Moore, proprietors of the marble quarry, just east of the new college buildings, have sent some handsomely prepared samples of their product to the Louisville Exposition. There is none better in the land; and experts will pronounce it superior to all.

Make an honest effort to elect Major Grubbs, and you will have a Representative in Congress of whom you may feel proud, and in whom your confidence will not be misplaced. You will have an opportunity to see and hear both men; and we do not fear but that you will decide that Grubbs is the most fitting man for the place.

Do You Want Them? More than a square west of, and overlooking the grounds of Showers' Bedstead Factory, and the Boston Hoop Factory, we have three very handsomely located Building Lots. They are thickly set with stately elms, fruitful apple, pear and chestnut trees, and are on the corner of two streets. The lots will be sold together. Apply soon to ROGERS & WOOLEY.

Married, last Sunday evening, at 4:15 p.m., at the residence of the bride's mother, in Albany, Texas, Rev. Mr. Fulton officiating, Mr. W. J. Wigley to Miss Grace McKinney. Mr. Wigley is our popular furniture dealer, and Miss Grace is one of our handsomest young ladies.—Albany News.

David S. Ervin, of Cedarville, O., is in town.

Mrs. Ella Wooley attended the Burton Family Reunion, at Mitchell, last week.

The Greenbackers held a Joint Representative convention in Unionville, on Friday. Samuel Wallingford and a Mr. Clark were candidates. Clark secured the nomination.

In the absence of the proprietor the Bee Hive salesmen are "cutting and slashing" prices. Go, while Wicks is away, if you want to take advantage of this state of affairs.

W. W. Wicks has gone east after a Fall stock of goods. He left orders with his salesmen to close out everything in the house at any price they could get. An arrangement has been made by which the salesmen get a premium on the largest amount of sales each one makes. As a result each one will try to sell the greatest quantity of goods, and if you want anything at the Bee Hive, you can get it at your own figures.

GET A Lawn Mower, for the Baby to play with. We keep two standard machines, the "Baby" and the "Clipper." They will do any work. McPHEETERS & SHOEMAKER.
