

Printed each Tuesday Morning, by WILLIAM A. GARR, Editor and Publisher.

The cackling geese saved Rome. A few glasses of wine and brandy lost the American colonies to Great Britain. A lamp kept by a cow nearly destroyed the city of Chicago. A boophirt in one battle of the rebellion saved the Federal army from a disastrous defeat. Three words by a trial elected Grover Cleveland president of the United States.

—Sunday theatricals are tolerated by law in five of the principal cities of the United States. There are the San Francisco, Cincinnati, St. Louis, New Orleans, and Chicago. There are eleven regular theaters in Chicago, to say nothing of museums, panoramas, concert halls, and other resorts. If there is any difference to be found in them on Sunday nights it is that the lights are brighter and the fun more uproarious. It is the custom to give during the week eight performances, and with Sunday it runs up to nine. In some theaters a matinee is given on Sunday afternoon.

Statements of indebtedness have been sent to several persons who do not respond. We will publish a list of these delinquents soon, in the Progress, and will send each of these parties a marked copy.

rel support for the spine and a covering for the open spine, which, by its elasticity, protects the spine from cold and giving the smoothness of fit to the back of the corset, making it a valuable and most necessary corset for general use. It has already received the highest commendations from the leading modistes, the fashionable dressmakers, and the most eminent physicians of the United States and Europe.

The Old Established Corset House of Messrs. Schiele & Co., 393 Broadway, New York, have been engaged to manufacture work, which is a guarantee that they will use the best material and work in the most reliable manner, with the introduction of these goods in this country.

For particulars see advertisement in another column.

Fine Jewelry.
 Notice.—By virtue of an order of the Monroe Circuit Court, the undersigned will offer for sale a large stock of JEWELRY, CLOCKS and WATCHES, and everything usually kept in a first-class jewelry store. Said sale will commence at 10 o'clock A.M. on Saturday, Nov. 16, 1884 and will be continued from day to day, and time to time, until the whole is disposed of. On and after said 15th day of November, 1884, he will sell any or all said property at private sale.
 J. F. PITTMAN.
 Assignment of John P. Sm., ch.

HENRY P. TOURNER.

Cincinnati, Ohio, 1914.

the time open to the
the morning

100

