"It cannot be exceeded," is the verdict of every one who goes to McGee's fashionable emporium for clothing. Ben McGee has been in Bloomington a life-time and he never out or made a suit of garment for a man who did not patronize him again. He is one of the most artistic and painstaking cutters in the State, and understanding all the details, the suits are made up properly. Leave your measure.

SUMMER goods must go. Call at Blair's.

WANTED: Every body in need of low shoes and toe slippers to call at Blair's.

FOR Cultivators, Sulky Rakes, Revolving Rakes, and all kinds of Farming Implements, call on W. J. ALLEN.

CALL at the Hardware store of W. J. Allen, and examine the celebrated Buckeye Reaper and Mower, the best machines in the market. For light draught, ease of management, and durability they can not be excelled, and the Walter A. Wood Mower in store and for sale by W. J. Allen.

FARMER supplier of groceries are received each week by WILSON, the corner grocer. Among the latest is the "Magic Yeast Cakes," and the "Empire Baking Powder." All the novelties in groceries can be found in this house. All goods delivered free of charge.

Washed-Out Hair.
There is a new and palatable, chalky compound which the novelties call a "washed-out compound." It is a healthy compound, and no mistake. Washed-out, faded, discolored, or partially-colored hair is almost as repulsive and unbecoming as a man's hair. It will restore your hair to its original color whatever it was; brown, auburn or black. Why wear more on your head, when you may easily have lively, shining hair.

If you want to borrow money at lowest rates, or if you want to insure your property, call on EAST & EAST.

We have a full line of Oliver Chilled Plows and Repairs. McPheeters Hardware Co.
Rakes, Hoes, Shovels, Spades of all varieties. McPheeters Hardware Co.

Walrus Sashes, and Itch, cured in 30 minutes, by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Sold by H. Lindley, Druggist. nov12-y

FROM all the surrounding counties the people flock to Bloomington to examine Tobe Smith's wonderful display of beautiful goods. His store is a sort of museum, in which every article ever heard of is kept. He is a skillful watchmaker, and turns out good money with me till you settle that little balance. W. T. BLAIR.

BETTER spend that good money with me till you settle that little balance. W. T. BLAIR.

GO TO SUMMERS' new Gallery for pictures of all kinds. Cheap! Gallery in town—come and learn prices. Allison's old room, in Progress Block.

THE best ice cream, cakes and other delicacies will be found at Geo. Benckert's. If you intend to give a party go to him for figures on anything in his line. The best is the cheapest.

Chas. Yockey who published papers in Bedford and Mitchell, died in Bedford last week with congestion of the lungs.

It is to be all the fashion this summer for young ladies to look as if a great sorrow were growing in their hearts. In order to accomplish this all that is necessary is for the young ladies to meet some other young lady wearing a newer style bonnet. This rule always works.

Morgan Co. Teacher: Quite a number of our teachers have spent the spring at Normal schools and at the State University. Morgan county students' names are seen in nearly all the leading schools of this State. We have more representatives in the State University than any other county in the State, except Monroe.

Visitor (to convict in a southern Indiana penitentiary)—Do they treat you kindly, my poor fellow? Convict (cautiously)—Well, I don't want to make any complaints, sir, but it's hardly right to make a man listen to a Methodist minister every Sunday morning when he was born and brought up an Episcopalian.

The O. & M. railway company have taken off two of their trains: The Vincennes accommodation which arrived in Cincinnati at 10:55 a. m., and the St. Louis express that left Cincinnati at 9:15. There are rumors of trains being discontinued on the L. N. & C. at no distant date.

Capt. Ford hands the Progress the following item:

Bishop Campbell coming to Bloomington on the 21st of August, 1885, issued a statement to ministers in charges to read no notices concerning Odd Fellows or any other Lodges of the United States. He cannot see the beginning of the work of the wicked crown of the king that had ruled in time past, when ministers starved in many places.

After the Big Show.

The Proof of the Pudding is in the Eating. As our readers are no doubt aware, the Sells Brothers' Enormous Railroad Shows, now all united, are on our amusement territory, the largest show in the world, will exhibit, without fail, at Bloomington, on Thursday, August 27.

While it is true that all the praise we might bestow upon the big show would be to some extent, at least, merely this, the only defect of the show. Upon the whole the Sells Brothers may well congratulate themselves upon presenting to the public one of the very best circuses now on the road, and the public may be assured that they will never be defrauded of a cent or ever regret having patronized this meritorious entertainment.

SELLS' CIRCUS.

In the equitation ring every act was of the best. The fearless barbed riding of Don Jerranimo Bell was admired and applauded; no more, however, than the superb, the intrepid, the barbed rider, M'Le Cordona, who carried the audience by storm. Her barbed jumping act certainly stamps her as a leader and at the head of the barbed rider. M'Le Cordona, on the aerial rings, displayed both nerve and skill, and the applause she received was well merited. The brother acts were well executed, and the bicycling act was of the best. The only other act of the show, the tumbling, was far above the ordinary. The only untimely feature to what might otherwise have been a splendid exhibition was that of giving all the best acts in the ring to the left of the dressing room entrance. There being 14,000 persons present, 7,000 of them were at the wrong end all the time and a large number of the audience manifested their dissatisfaction by retiring before the conclusion of the performance. It is to be hoped that Messrs. Sells will, to some extent, at least, remedy this, the only defect of the show. Upon the whole the Sells Brothers may well congratulate themselves upon presenting to the public one of the very best circuses now on the road, and the public may be assured that they will never be defrauded of a cent or ever regret having patronized this meritorious entertainment.

GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE.

W. P. McNary of St. Louis, is in town.

Dan. Bonnell, and all his family except his two eldest daughters, are now in Texas, where Bonnell has been offered a position with a railroad company.

Miss Nancy Batterton has been called to Indianapolis by a telegram stating that her sister, Harriet, is not expected to live. P. S. Since the foregoing was put in type a telegram was received stating that Harriet was better, but she is still dangerously sick.

Mr. H. J. Feltus of the Courier has at last been appointed Postmaster of Bloomington, and will have all the preliminaries completed, ready for taking the office, in about a week. Political rewards should seek out newspaper men who have been doing everything in their power for their party for years, and hence we regard the appointment of Mr. Feltus as eminently just and proper.

On Monday morning, in Benton township, Boyd Gallion went out to cut a tree, and had felled a large oak which lodged by one of its limbs on a tree adjacent. He began to cut the butt of the tree in order to swing it off the stump, and had made but two or three strokes when the limb by which it was hung broke, and fell a distance of eighty feet, striking the back of Gallion's head, crushing it into a pulp. Two of Gallion's little boys, 7 and 12 years of age, were with him, and Andrew Wycoff was plowing in a field near by and hurried to his side. The injured man died in a few minutes after Wycoff reached him. Deceased was 55 years of age, and leaves a wife and six children in destitute circumstances.

In the Cole-May trade John Cole compromised the matter by giving his notes with five per cent. interest, and is now sole proprietor of the northside livery stable. An impending law suit is thus averted.

Mitchell item: A wedding took place last Sunday a week in the Mitchell A. M. E. church in which Robert Pierce, a former leader of the bon ton in Bloomington, and Miss Frank Constant were the parties, in the presence of about two hundred people.

Marriage licenses have been issued since last report as follows: Thos. Lewis and Mary Gill; A. D. Caze and Mary Jane Eads; A. S. Carrier and A. C. Dennis; J. T. Oliphant and Malinda Sare; Isaac H. Grubb and Tracy Benhearth; A. D. Vanderman and Emma Kent; Lafayette H. Constable and Ella Slow.

Ollie Small took a severe cold last month, and has been so much indisposed since that he found it necessary to quit work in Cole's book store on the first of July. He has some fever all the time and an unpleasant cough. He intends going to Chatham, Canada, this week, where he has relations. Chatham is but a short distance from Detroit, on the Canada side.

On Wednesday morning of last week, at 9 o'clock, in the Walnut st. Presbyterian church, Rev. A. C. Carrier and Miss Anna Dennis were united in marriage by the groom's father, Rev. W. H. Carrier of Indianapolis. The ushers were Prof. J. A. Woodburn, Mr. Ed. Seward, Mr. Foster Hight, and Mr. Wm. Fec. The bridegroom, and Dr. J. D. Maxwell, jr., led the bridal party up the south aisle to the music of the wedding march. Mrs. R. W. Miers presiding at the organ. Rev. W. H. Carrier and Mrs. Trimble (the bride's mother) then came up the middle aisle, followed by Rev. E. Ballentine, the bride leaning upon his arm. The bride's attendants were little Mary Boisen and Theodore Wyllie. The bride was given away by Rev. E. Ballentine, and the ceremony of the Episcopal church was used. The audience room had been handsomely and tastefully decorated by Miss Dennis' Sunday School class and instead of the customary floral wedding bell, a beautiful lantern constructed of daisies, was swung over the spot upon which the bride and groom stood. The bride was handsomely and richly dressed in a white satin suit, the trimming of oriental lace, sleeves short, and skirt en train; the customary wedding veil fell gracefully over her dress and was attached by natural flowers to her hair. Her only jewelry was a rich silver necklace of daisies. The wedding breakfast that followed was given at the residence of Rev. E. Ballentine, and at eleven o'clock the young couple took train for Erie, N. Y. Mr. Carrier and bride will accompany his parents on their trip to Europe in August, where they expect to remain a year or two. Many valuable presents were made, among them a solid silver tea service by the groom's father and mother; the bride's mother, Mrs. Trimble, pays the expenses of the trip to Europe, besides making other valuable presents; Prof. Ballentine gave a large family bible, handsome and expensive; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ballentine, of Oberlin, O., a beautiful Persian rug; Miss Anna Ballentine, a valuable breast-pin to the bride; Mr. and Mrs. McCalla an elegant work box; a set of unique teaspoons from Indianapolis friends of the groom; a picture of Mrs. Boisen's children elegantly framed. The congregation presented Mr. Carrier with $40 in gold, with a request that the money be expended for books. The credit of securing this amount belongs to Mrs. Miers and Miss McDermott. There were many other valuable presents in addition to those enumerated.

Maj. Henry F. Perry of Bloomington was the delegate from this district to the National Encampment G. A. R. which met recently in Portland, Maine. Maj. Perry returned to his home in this place on Thursday morning after an absence of four weeks, looking rugged, healthy and sunburnt. He reports an enjoyable time—doubtless to him, as he revisited the scenes of his boyhood, on the coast.

On Wednesday night of last week, Milton Cole, brother of Moses Cole died at his home west of town, in his 61st year. Several years ago Mr. Cole was kicked in the left side by a horse, and to that his death was attributed, blood-poisoning having set up recently at the wound, from which he never quite recovered. He was a bachelor and leaves an estate worth several thousand dollars, of which his brother, Moses Cole, has been appointed administrator.

L. C. Duncan, wife and little daughter, had a somewhat unpleasant experience last Thursday evening. They were in a buggy and driving through a lane northeast of town, near the Mullikin farm, when a loose horse came toward them, pursued by several boys. The light of day had begun to fade, and the horse, in full gallop, mane and tail erect, and snorting with fear, frightened the usually staid and quiet family horse driven by Mr. Duncan; turning suddenly in the lane it upset the buggy, throwing Mrs. Duncan ten or fifteen feet away and bruising her seriously, the horse in his struggles stepped on the fingers of one of her hands. Mr. D. and his little daughter Antoinette escaped with a few bruises, and all were fortunate in not being badly injured or killed.

Public opinion positively expressed says that Henry Holtzman, Ike Walker and Frank Woolley ought to settle the thing at once.—Courier.

Public rumor says that so far as Holtzman and Woolley are concerned the affair is almost arranged.

Prof. Van Nuy is at Waupaca, Wisconsin, breathing ozone, and recuperating for the Fall term of the University. His many friends will be gratified to learn that the climate is doing wonders for him.

Ventura (Cal.) Free Press: J. A. Walker, wife and child, expect to start for Indiana Tuesday, July 14. They will spend two or three months in visiting old friends. At the end of that time Brother Walker says he is coming back if the walking keeps good, and his cross tie ticket holds out. We wish you bon voyage, good friends.

Hugh Sample, a well-known farmer west of town, died suddenly on Thursday last. He said another man had been at work on the place, came to dinner, and then went out into the yard, as was his custom, to take a smoke after the noon meal. Mr. Sample filled his pipe, struck a match and was in the act of lighting his pipe when he fell over dead. Paralysis is supposed to be the cause. Deceased was about 60 years old, and was a soldier in the war of the rebellion.

Several horses have been stolen in Lawrence, Martin and Monroe counties, and the stealing, it is claimed, has been traced to a man named Hummer, who served a term in the Southern Prison for horse-stealing, and was discharged this spring. The Levi Wright horse, that disappeared in May last, was taken by Hummer and swapped to a citizen of Loogootee for another horse which Hummer then sold, and some six or eight horses in all have been traced to Hummer. The most surprising thing is, that so many persons knowing the thief, he has never been arrested. He slips away as easily as he spirits away the horses of the farmers in the southern portion of this county. A Martin county man went to a house in the vicinity of Harrodsburg in search of Hummer and had a warrant for the thief in his pocket. The owner of the house said he knew nothing of Hummer, and the searcher for information left. Not many hundred yards from the farm under a tree and fast asleep, he saw Hummer. He felt a delicacy about tackling the lover of horse-flesh in Monroe county with a Martin county warrant, so he hurried off to a "Squire" to get the necessary papers, but the thief did not wait for his return, and

When he got there the ground was bare. For the humming Hummer had flown. He came to town some ten days ago and inquired of Postmaster McPheeters for a letter, showing that he is either a dare-devil or a fool. But wait till the Bloomington detectives get on his trail. There are three brothers, and the one charged with a love for horse-flesh is Ed. It is believed by many that Ed. is making his headquarters in Conn Hollow, Van Buren township, and the Horse Thief Detective Association of that locality have an opportunity to make the capture.
