GOLD BULL—I have a Short Horn, Yearling Bull for sale at a low price. Residence 1 mile west of town. ISAAC P. HOPKINSON.

—Before you buy anything in the way of clothing go to McGee's and see the new job lots recently purchased. They are sold at half their value.

CALL AND SEE the genial Tobe Smith at his immense curiosity store and great jewelry emporium.
No description that could be written would do justice to that stock—it is incomparable. There are so many articles too, that cost an immense sum ($5 and 10c.) so as to be brought within the reach of all that no one, however poor is excluded. You can get the finest gold watches manufactured, first-water diamonds, and standard silverware at Tobe Smith's. In fact you can buy articles there that are only occasionally seen in the largest cities, and the prices at which he sells them is marvellously low.
The store is on the south side of the square.

"THE WEST SIDE GROCERY" is presided over by James C. Robinson, formerly a salesman with Ra-ley & Co., and Robinson, in his room (next to Geo. Atkinson's shoe store) keeps one of the choicest stocks of groceries to be found in the town. One of his specialties is Fleischmann's Yeast, the only kind worth buying. In Coffees, sugars, cigars and tobaccos, Robinson acknowledges no superior. He makes it a point to secure the best goods that can be gotten, knowing that his customers will be satisfied when they try them. Call on Jimmy Robinson, when in town.

THE SUMMER is here, and Charley Mobley, the veteran south side dry goods and fancy goods dealer is in receipt of weekly installments of such goods as are most desirable for the trade at this season. Mobley has arrangements with wholesale houses by which he is kept constantly posted as to the latest articles manufactured and introduced to the trade, and they are bought and shipped to him at once. In this way he always has the latest styles in all goods, and at figures that are truly surprising.

Life and Fire Insurance Agency—The well known and respected popular fire and life insurance agency of this city, the young but vigorous Mutual Reserve Life Association of New York, is the coming life insurance company of the nineteenth century. It pays all its losses in full from $1,000 to $25,000. I can insure you for about one-half what is required in any other line, or I will company. This is a great advantage. This association has more money on deposit with the insurance commissioner of New York than any company doing business in the State. All that are interested in taking life insurance (and all ought to be) I invite them to call and see me, and examine my terms and association, and I will put you in an association where you can save one-half of your premium, and have just as good indemnity.
That's what I will do. Please call and see me in my office up stairs in Peck's building, corner of 6th and Chicago Avenue, Bloomington, Ind., and I will either secure your life or property, on the best terms. WM. M. TATE, Agent.

tion. Shop on College Avenue, north end of W. O. Peck's Building, Bloomington, Indiana.

We have added a large and carefully selected stock of Furniture, and invite our friends to call before making purchases.

WHITE HALL.

Will Neil and family of Monroe county, visited at A. K. Neil's last week.

Miss Annie and Edna Cooper, of White Hall, visited friends at Clear Creek
Monroe county, last week.

John Lee of White Hall, has repaired and fixed up his dwelling house until it looks nearly like a new one.

Misses Anna and Lou Augustus, of Paria, Ill., are at present visiting their grandparents, O. E. and Jane Foster, of White Hall.

Eliza Cooper, of White Hall, is staying with aunt "Dolly" Livingston at present, while her daughter, Eliza, is visiting her sister at Newberry.

Arnold Acuff had a fine steer to get hurt so badly that he had to kill it to relieve the suffering. The steer was rubbing its back against a log that was elevated when the log gave way and came down on its back.

Mrs. O. E. Foster, of White Hall, met with a severe accident while going to Bloomington last week. While driving too near a ditch the side of the road her buggy overturned, throwing her out and fracturing one of her ribs, besides bruising her up considerably otherwise.

There has been a big snake seen several times here of late, over in the edge of Monroe county, near White Hall. No one guesses the monster to be less than 14 feet in length, while some guess as high as 18 feet. His abiding place in the old stock mill near the Matt Morris farm.

There will be a grand reunion of the 50th Regt. Ind. Vols. at White Hall, on the 28th of August, 1886. A meeting has been had and several committees appointed to arrange for the reunion. We dare not guess how many will be in attendance, and the invitation will be extended to the 52d and other regiments, also.

STANFORD, IND.

Harvest is nearly over, and farmers are glad to see the great stacks of yellow grain, and immense racks of wheat, and good, and well they rejoice and give thanks for in the midst of the depression of a Democratic administration, Providence has come to the rescue with the most abundant harvest this section has had for a number of years.

People had begun to have fear that the dry weather would injure the corn crop, but the splendid showers of last week have saved their fears on that subject, and truly we have occasion to be gratified.

The blackberry industry has surely become a lucrative enterprise, judging from the number of men, women and children we see daily and hourly passing with their baskets full of berries. The well filled buckets. Among the visitors in our village, picking and preparing, we have noticed some of Bloomington's good citizens, Miss Eva Hall, Mrs. Wm. Broderick, Miss Ida Koon and others.

We notice the young folks of our village are already quite extensively preparing for the Missionary entertainment to take place under the superintendency of Mrs. R. M. Parks, of Bedford, on Saturday next, the 14th of August, at 8 o'clock and 8th. It will be free, and all are cordially invited to attend.

Business is more lively here this summer than usual as we have two mercantile houses now, the old firm of Sparks, Riddle & Co., still have well over twelve months, and the new firm of Woodward & Sparks doing a good business and making many friends.

Joe Green is still at his old stand making the farmers happy by doing them all kinds of kinds of wagon and blacksmith work.

And new again Luther Turner comes to town quite frequently. Wonder why?
Mrs. Jacob Riddle is visiting her father in Ill. and Jack is lonesome.

Rev. R. M. Parks is pastor of the Baptist church at this place, preaching the Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock. He has been the main stay of the church for the last thirty years.

It is hard to ascertain which Dr. Gaston takes the most interest in, his pond of German Carp or his chances for the office of Treasurer of the State. He attended his fish and the Republicans of Monroe county intend to carry him triumphantly through the election O. K.

Dr. Geo. Munson of Ellettsville has come to assist Dr. Gaston with his practice through the remainder of the summer and fall.

PERRY TOWNSHIP NO. 5.

When threshing has commenced in earnest, and we hope to be able to chronicle some marvelous yields of wheat per acre.

By the way this reminds your correspondent that John S. has bought a new machine, Tractor engine and Separator, all complete. Well, the worst thing that any man can say of John is that he is a Democrat, otherwise he is just as clever as his party, and would not be content with running a machine none can beat him, and if you want clean, new threshing, just call upon John and you'll get it.

Wm. Hall met with a painful accident last week. A horse stepped on his foot and sent him off limping the balance of the week.

Reports from Kansas and Nebraska are not very encouraging this fall, especially to emigrants headed in that direction.
Madison Kumor says a number of the old Monroe boys will be back soon. If any can possibly get the means to come out this does not speak very well for those two States.

Maj. Grimes, Capt. Mathers, J. G. Mo-phous and J. P. Dillman left this morning at 5 o'clock for Franklin, Ind., to attend the Congressional convention.
They drove through in a buggy. We became a good time for this crowd, as it contains the running gear of the old Blaine and Logan Glee Club of two years ago.

We are glad to note the fact that the soldiers of Monroe county are going to have a reunion at Bloomington this Fall.
It need not be a large gathering, but if conducted successfully, as the old comrades can hold but few more annual reunions on this side of the river, as many of us will not be called on to "order arms, parade and drill" in the coming year. The Pawnee are being read thousands of our comrades are on their way towards the setting sun, to hold another grand reunion, and with them a pleasant trip, a grand reunion, and a safe return home again.

Edgar Finley, and little Jimmy his brother, start to Nebraska this week.
Their father lives in northwestern Nebraska, and they are grand children of Uncle Tommy Mathers, he having taken Jimmy from a little child, his mother dying when Jimmy was but a few months old.

If any one doubts that Perry township has not provisions enough to keep the wolf from the door for the next twelve months let them go down the pike to the Salem road and follow that pike to its terminus. As he goes round let him count the stacks of wheat and hay, let him examine the corn fields, and let him count the corn. Ask each individual farmer in regard to his "waters" and "ditch," and you will find a most interesting thing. While you are making your examinations look at the fruit, and should it be about meat time, stop and get your dinner, and see how good the average farmer lives. Now try it if you are a doubting Thomas.

More next week. SAM JONES.

brother, start to Nebraska this week.
Their father lives in northwestern Nebraska,
and they are grand children of
Jimmy from a little child, his mother dy-
old.

Salem road and follow that pike to its
terminus. As he goes round let him count
the corn. Ask each individual farmer in

WHITE HALL.

Will Neil and family of Monroe county,
visited at A. K. Neil's last week.

White Hall, visited friends at Clear Creek
Monroe county, last week.

looks nearly like a new one.

ria, Ill., are at present visiting their grand-
Hall.

with aunt "Dolly" Livingston at present,
sister at Newberry.

so badly that he had to kill it to relieve
back.

Mrs. O. E. Foster, of White Hall, met
bruising her up considerably otherwise.

There has been a big snake seen several
times here of late, over in the edge of
stock mill near the Matt Morris farm.

50th Regt. Ind. Vols. at White Hall, on
the 28th of August, 1886. A meeting has
to the 52d and other regiments, also.

STANFORD, IND.

of a Democratic administration, Providence has come to the rescue with the

dry weather would injure the corn crop,
but the splendid showers of last week
have saved their fears on that subject,
and truly we have occasion to be gratified.

citizens, Miss Eva Hall, Mrs. Wm. Broderick,
Miss Ida Koon and others.

ing for the Missionary entertainment to
Mrs. R. M. Parks, of Bedford, on Saturday next, the 14th of August, at 8 o'clock
and 8th. It will be free, and all are cordially invited to attend.
