The wedding which took place at T. E. Rice's residence, near Clear Creek Sunday evening, July 25th, of his daughter Lizzie A. to Mr. Jacob Vandert of Rantoul, Ills., was a very pleasant affair. A number of relatives and friends were present, and an excellent supper was prepared, of which all the guests partook. By the way, Mrs. Vandert, her daughter, has had to exert in an enterprise of her own. The following presents were made to the bride and groom: Showers Bro. bedsheet; T. E. Rice, washstand; A. Rice, sugar bowl and pair of towels; M. E. Rice, pair of towels; Cox Rice, set of glassware; A. E. Cooper, and wife, dessert dishes; Dunn & Co., of Bloomington, cake basket; Mrs. Maxwell, set napkin rings. Everything went off nicely, and the bride and groom are on the train next morning for Rantoul, Ills., their future home.

Quite a serious accident happened to a young man by the name of Goldsmith, who lives near Leeville, last Monday. He was acting as driver of a horse-power threshing machine, and at the time of the accident was climbing to his place in the machinery started, when his foot was caught by one of the sweeps, injuring it so badly that the attending physician, Dr. Chas. Richardson, found it necessary to amputate two toes.—Bedford Mail.

Ward's Woes.

Mazey, Ga., January, 1886. For twelve or fourteen years I have been a great sufferer from a terrible form of the poison which ran into the secondary, and finally it was pronounced tertiary form. My head, face and shoulders became almost a mass of corruption and finally the disease commenced eating away my skull bones. I became so horribly repulsive that for three years I absolutely refused to let people see me, and used large quantities of oil, liniments and applied to nearly all physicians and apothecaries to no avail, and my condition continued to grow worse, and all said that I must surely die. My bones became the seat of excruciating aches and pains; my nights were passed in misery; I was reduced to a mere skeleton, and life became a burden to me.

I chanced to see an advertisement of B. B. Moore & Co., merchants of our place, who proffered one bottle for me. It was used with decided benefit, and when eight or ten bottles had been used I was pronounced sound and well.

Hundreds of scars can now be seen in my body, and then restored. My case is well known in this county, and I am sure others who may be similarly affected will find it my duty to give facts to the public, and to extend my heart felt thanks for so valuable a remedy. I have been well over twelve months, no return of the disease has occurred.

ROBERT WARD.

Mazey, Ga., January, 1886.—We, undersigned, know Mr. Robert Ward, take great pleasure in saying that the above stated by him are true, and that was one of the worst cases of blood poisoning we ever heard of, and that it has been cured by the use of B. B. Moore & Co.

—The Baldridge & Gourley grist mill is running till eleven o'clock at night to meet the requirements of customers, and is doing "a land-fit business." When the other two mills begin to run, however, the trade will be divided up so much that there will be no big money in it. The old saw about "competition being the life of trade" sounds well, but it don't work out in practice—it comes nearer being "the death of trade." Ask a grocer or a dry goods dealer if the establishment of three more stores will infuse "life" into his trade.

—It is said that Marion Hinkle signed the artisan well petition.

Wonder if this is so?—Pedigo was up at Stinesville last week, stirring up the boys. He acts as if he had an idea he could be elected. Don't believe yourself on that score, Simeon. "That little thing can't be did!"—One reason why Felts has not been confirmed by the U. S. Senate as postmaster is, it is stated, because he signed the artisan well petition.

Your name is there, Henry J.—A dispatch from Salt Lake to J. G. McPheeter, said the Bloomington excursionists were well, and had spent

Friday pleasantly at Denver.

Everybody that eats Benkart's bread is healthy—Craig Worley and Joe Mc. went to Indian Springs

this (Wednesday) to take part in the debate on immersion.

Mrs. Wicks has returned from a visit to friends in Missouri.—Wm. A.

Jackson, of Ellettsville, owned the grist mill that burned a couple of years ago, and that was a total loss....Van Buskirk, looking sun-browned and healthy, has returned from his vacation in the north.

A well-known old colored man,

John W. Shumaker, is now on his wining way to blizzard-land....From twelve acres of ground John Stapp threshed an average of 26 bush. per acre. He used fertilizers....The Imperial State convention on the 2d of September will recognize the following delegates from Monroe county: G. R. Perry, Dr. Whittet,

J. E. Givler, Mrs. Doherty, P. K.

Buskirk and N. U. Hill....Chas. L. S.

Sponcer, of Spencerville, was brought to Bloomington and placed in jail for safe keeping.

He is charged with stabbin g one Dixon, a railroad man.....Ira J.

Chase, the Republican candidate for Congresswoman in the 19th Ills. Infantry, and was engaged in 27 battles. He is a fluent speaker, and a man of great personal popularity.

A track on which to train horses has been made on the farza of Perry

Bros. north of town. Capt.

Perry and Wm. Munson have a number of fast horses under training done promptly.

JAMES RYAN has for sale at his shop some fine two horse wagons, only sixty dollars each, spring wagons, buggies, phaetons, &c., all ready to hitch to. He proposes to sell them as cheap as they can be bought anywhere, and he warrants them put up in a durable style.

Call and inspect these vehicles, opposite the county jail, before you buy.

Job work and horse shoeing done promptly.
