The Democratic revolution at Indianapolis is still going on. David Turpie has been nominated for U. S. Senator by the Democratic caucus, while Ben. Harrison has been unanimously chosen by the Republicans. The Republicans have nominated Meagher of Vigo county, in the House, giving the place to his opponent, a representative of the Labor Party. The Democratic majority in the Senate threaten to expel the nineteen Republican Senators who went into Joint Convention to canvass the election of Lt. Governor. It is not at all certain that Turpie, although the Democratic caucus nominee, will be elected. The McDonald men are not satisfied. But it makes but little difference who the Democrats elect, Harrison will be recognized by the U. S. Senate when the question is tested, and will take his seat.

General Grant died at the age of 63. General Logan died at the age of 61. General Hancock died at the age of 61. General McClellan died at the age of 60. General Halleck died at the age of 59. General Geo. B. Meade died at the age of 57. Gen. Geo. H. Thomas died at 54. General W. T. Sherman is the only one of the few great generals of the war which has passed beyond the fatal 63, and Farragut, the greatest naval hero, died at 60.

Wall. Hight says the time will come when the artesian well will be the most profitable investment this county ever had, and while waiting for this to come about, he branches out on a new enterprise. He has made application for two million carp to stock Salt Creek and Bean Blossom. Here is the answer from U. S. Fish Commission:

U. S. Commission of Fish and Fisheries.
Washington, D. C. Jan. 6th, 1887.
Wallace Hight, Esq., Bloomington, Ind.
Dear Sir: In response to your letter of the 27th, I am directed by the Commissioner to say that your application for Carp for streams in your section has been placed on file for supply as soon as we have the fish for the purpose.

Very Truly Yours,
McDONALD, Chief Div. Dir.
The prominent men who have died during the past seventeen months are: Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. Geo. B. McClellan, Thos. A. Hendricks, B. C. Catron, Gen. W. S. Hancock, Horatio Seymour, David Davis, Samuel J. Tilden, Chester A. Arthur, Charles F. Adams and John A. Logan—eleven in all.

Four eclipses will take place during the year 1887, two of the sun and two of the moon. One, February 8, visible as a partial eclipse in the United States. The others, that occur as follows, are not visible in the United States: The annular eclipse of the sun February 23; August 19, of the sun. According to the almanac, New Year's day comes on Sunday, Washington's birthday on Tuesday, St. Valentine's day on Monday, April Fool day on Friday, Memorial day on Monday, Fourth of July on Monday, Christmas on Sunday; Easter Sunday will be on the 10th of April; Lent begins March 2.

The railroad mills of this country have already sold about 1,000,000 tons of rails for next year's delivery, while the total present capacity is estimated at only 1,600,000 tons. Foreign makers are advancing prices and an upward tendency is felt in all eastern and southern markets. Mills are overcrowded and blast furnaces are being built in all parts of the country to meet the steadily increasing demand.

The Badly Mixed Heavens.
Disheartened missionary, returning to his field after years of absence: "Oh, unhappy man, you have lapsed into error and darkness and paganism again!" Chief heathens, apologetically: "Well, you see, after you went away a Catholic missionary came along and told us the bad place was full of Methodists, and so he scared us into his communion; then he went away and a Presbyterian came along and asked us on regeneration, adoption and election and we joined his church; then an Episcopalian came and we burned our Westminsters and stood up on prayer-banks; then he left and a Baptist landed and walked us into the water and baptized us right, and we'd just about got settled when a new Congregationalist came over and told us that so long as we were heathens we had a dead sure thing of going to heaven, but if we became Christians we had to walk mighty straight or go to the everlasting bon-fire. So we ate him up, burned our Bibles and resumed business at the old stand. Boys put the parson in a cage and fat him up for Thanksgiving day."—Bob Burdette.

CHIPS AND SPLINTERS.

—Eph Hughes will circulate a petition soon for signatures, asking Turk Moore to return and give one of his unique performances.—Prof. Philip of I. S. U., preached for a Christian congregation of Terre Haute on Sunday a week.—Mrs. Brown Wylie left Bloomington last week for Philadelphia, Pa.—Mrs. Sarah Brown (colored) widow, has been allowed $19 per month pension, and $200 back pay.—Monroe county men have been left out in the cold by the present Legislature. No offices for them.—Senator Duncan has been assigned a position on the Committee on Education.—As was predicted at the close of the recent strike of railroad conductors on the Monon, the participants have been discharged.—The mother of Mrs. Henry Henley, Mrs. Fannie Patton of Orange county, died on the 6th inst.—Mr. Hubbard has closed the contract for the building of his new residence on east 6th street with Alex. Robinson, for the sum of $1,345. This does not include the foundation.—It is rumored that John F. May has not entirely abandoned the idea of building a modern opera house or theater on his lots on North Walnut street. The location is a desirable one.—The mother of John Cory, who died Monday morning a week, was in her 73d year.—Wilbur Cron has returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas, very much improved in health. He says he believes rheumatism can be cured there if one has patience to treat it.—Persons who are able to indulge in the luxury of sleigh riding had an opportunity to gratify their tastes in this line last week.—Mrs. J. B. Mulky has been entertaining her brother, Eld. Jasper Coffey of Missouri. The reverend gentleman preached for the Christian brethren Sunday a week.—The remains of David Hays' wife were taken to Polk tp. for burial. She had resided many years in Polk, and had been an invalid for a long time.—The three-year old daughter of Jas. Borland jr., died Sunday night a week after a brief illness with pneumonia. Little Nellie was a general favorite, and the parents are heart-broken over their great loss.—Harry Guy, a former employe of the Chair Factory, and who has been sick since early last summer, has been removed to the home of his wife's father in the northern portion of the county.—Rev. Mr. Givler has begun a series of meetings in the M. E. church.—The lecture association pay Justice McCarthy $200 for his lecture on the 29th.—The officers of the Clear Creek Stone and Marble Co. are C. E. Rodenberg, Bellevue, O., President; J. B. Chizim, Indianapolis, Treasurer and Secretary; Peter McDonald, J. Q. Justice and John Crafton, Directors. The stone is said to be of a finer quality even than that taken out of the Dunn quarry.—The lecture association disposed of 330 tickets, and this enterprise is growing all the time.—The "cold snap" played havoc with wood piles and coal supplies in this congressional district. Such weather is both expensive and uncomfortable.—The saw-mill men were hauling logs last week on the snow, and "made hay while the snow staid".—A wild boar that had escaped from some of the forests, in Germany, it is presumed, has been the bully of a portion of Indian Creek tp. for some time, and had taken up quarters on Sol. Green's farm. This ambitious animal made a dash at Laben Green recently when he had gone out like a good Samaritan to feed his hog and associate hogs, and tore a gash in one of Laben's legs. An effort to capture and confine the hog was futile, and they dogged and chased him ten or twelve miles, when it was finally decided to kill him. He was shot, and died a martyr to ambition.—Rev. William F. Reed has been sick for a week or more with "shingles".—Cal. Worrall is on the House Committee of Education, and Mr. Scott of Morgan is Chairman of that committee; Senator Duncan is on the committee on Education in the Senate. All this is clearly to the advantage of Indiana University, as these gentlemen are counted among its most constant and its warmest friends.—A father in Decatur county presented each of his nine children with a gold watch on New Year's day. It is not stated that he has agreed to pay for the frequent and necessary repairs required by the modern time [Concluded on 3d page.]

—There seems to be a pretty general opinion that the winters in this part of the county are growing colder every year. It used to be the rarest thing for the thermometer to get below the zero point, but of late years that is considered a common occurrence.

—A farmer sells his hogs at $3.75 to $4.00 gross, and not to exceed $5.00 a hundred net. The hogs are shipped to Cincinnati, and in two or three weeks they come back in the way of cured meats, and if the same farmer wants to buy back the hams of his hogs, he must pay fourteen cents a pound.

—One of the biggest tunneling enterprises proposed in recent times is the tunnel under Gray's Peak of the Rocky mountains. It will be five miles long, one mile below the summit of the mountain, and will save three hundred miles distance between the oceans.

The Electrical Railway in Minneapolis.

The Electrical Review contains an interesting account of the successful operation of the electrical railway in Minneapolis, in which it says: "The trains consist of three or four passenger cars, each weighing 11 tons empty. The number of passengers carried is often as high as 600 at one time, so that the weight of the train is as follows: Four cars, each 11 tons, 44 tons; 600 passengers, at 130 pounds, 39 tons; motor, 8 tons; total 91 tons. The steam dummy now brings the train to a stop as the steam is allowed, and the electric motor relieves it and takes the train down town with its passengers. The distance over which the electric motor travels is at present somewhat near a mile, the speed being about seven miles an hour, this being the regulation speed within the city limits. Considering the constant stopping and starting at each block, the grades in the road, and the heavy trains, the electric motor must be given the credit of doing at least as good work as could be expected or obtained from any steam engine. During the seventeen or eighteen hours of service, not a single minute of stoppage is made except to let off and take on passengers. This electric road has been in operation for several weeks without a hitch or breakage. The motor, which is about forty horse-power, works as perfectly under a heavy as under a light load. From the permanency and the character of the work done by this electric railway, it will be seen that electric railways on elevated as well as on ordinary roads must become facts in the immediate future. They are indeed now with us, and there is no more trouble to build 200 or 300 horse-power generators than to build machines of fifty horse-power. The public is losing its skepticism, and what was proclaimed as impossibility yesterday has become a fact to-day."

—Aye, had there are lands as fair as this, but you can't pick up gold on their streets in larger quantities than you do here. The breeze that is wafted from the sea is refreshing but you will have to work to make a living, and the simple, sunny climate, and the healthful atmosphere will not make the dollars jingles in your pocket or put butter on your bread. "A rolling stone gathers no moss" and the sooner you realize this, the better. The one object for you to look to is, to settle down and actually live. Elegant residences and large business houses are not usually built or maintained by men who are constantly drifting from place to place. They are the property of men who settled down with a purpose in view, laid aside a little at a time until they counted their gains by the thousands.

A man from Brown county who wants to go west applied the other day to a ticket agent here for a rate on his log cabin, which he wants to take with him. He was informed it would cost him $200. The cabin is worth about $2 for stove wood—Columbus Republican.
