

ESTATE OF PETER BOLLENBACH, DECEASED.
In the matter of the estate of Peter Bollenbacher, deceased.
In the Monroe Circuit Court, February Term, 1917.
Notice is hereby given that Rebecca Bollenbacher, as Administratrix of the estate of Peter Bollenbacher, deceased, has presented and filed her account and vouchers in final settlement of said estate, and that the same will come up for examination and action of said circuit court on the 11th day of February, 1917, at which time all heirs, creditors or legatees of said estate are required to appear in said court and show cause, if any there be, why said account and vouchers should not be approved.
Witness, the Clerk and seal of said Monroe Circuit Court, at Bloomington, Indiana, this 12th day of January, 1917.
[Seal] KNOCH FULLER, Clerk.
Jan. 12, 1917.

C. Van Zandt & Son, UNDERTAKERS
Metallic Burial Cases, Caskets and Coffins. Hearse and Carriages furnished to order. Orders by telephone will receive prompt attention. Shop on College Avenue, north end of W. O. Fee's Building, Bloomington, Indiana.
We have added a large and carefully selected stock of Furniture, and invite our friends to call before making purchases.

JAMES ROBINSON, the west side Grocer, is well supplied with all the goods in his line, and keeps a fresh stock, because he sells so much that he is compelled to replenish, and so his goods never get stale. If you want something really choice, go to Robinson's Grocery for it, and you will not be disappointed. He delivers all goods promptly. His is the only grocery store on the west side of the square.

ITCH and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes, by Wolford's Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Sold by H. Lindsey, Druggist, Jan. 27. Bloomington, Ind.

SEASONABLE GOODS, the choicest that money will buy, are being constantly received by Charles Mobley, the south side dry goods dealer. Since the New York Store closed, Mr. Charles Mobley's is the only dry goods store worthy the name south of the court house. It is situated across the alley from McGee's, and Mobley, always attentive to business, may be found there constantly during business hours. His stock is a varied one, but he gives special and particular attention to the grade of goods usually called for by the ladies.

Why not treat yourself to one of McGee's finely fashioned suits? The nobby suits that Benj. McGee so well knows how to fashion. He is all the time receiving new piece goods from which to fashion these suits, and he takes such pains in their cutting, trimming, and afterwards in their making, that the wearer finds them a constant source of pride and pleasure. McGee don't have to chop off a piece from this seam or add to that, in order to make a garment take shape—on the contrary he cuts your coat, vest and pants according to a carefully considered draft, and when they are sewed together you know they were made for you, which is not the case with the work of all tailors.

EVERYBODY that comes to Bloomington makes it a point to visit Tube Smith's Fancy Bazar on the south side of the public square, and those who go to that temple of magic invariably wonder, and often ask how he (Tube) can collect such an immense aggregation of curiosities in the space, and how he can possibly secure them in a life-time. It is not alone curiosities that he keeps in stock, however; he has an immense supply of clocks and watches, silverware, and valuable fancy articles that would cost you in the city double the amount that Tube Smith asks for them.

ENGLISH Spavin Liniment removes all hard, hot or calloused lumps and swellings from horses, blood spavins, curbs, splints, ribbons, stifles, sprains, swellings, etc. Sells $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted. Sold by H. Lindsey, Druggist, Bloomington, Ind.

Millinery at Cost.

In order to close out my stock of goods I will sell all hats and trimmings at cost. Call early and get first selection. Extra fine lot of trimmings.

Pay or Take Consequences.

The old hardware firm of Stuart & McPheters, and McPheters & Shoemaker have placed the notes and accounts due them in the hands of an attorney with positive instructions to FULFILL their collection. So if you are indebted to them you had better settle at once and save greater costs. They say they have waited just as long as they can, and now propose to see if some people are execution proof.

—Roseberry & Cron recently bought twenty head of cattle from Hugh Campbell, his own feeding, that averaged 1300 lbs. in weight. Mr. Campbell was paid $1,005 for the lot.

—Dillman, Roseberry & Cron recently bought a horse 4½ years old that weighed 1,420 lbs. They had a lot of seven good horses that were shipped to Cincinnati.

Cyrus Reed has made a contract this year with the Munk & Roberts Furniture Company, of Connersville, Ind., and is now traveling for that firm in Kentucky. This is said to be the most extensive manufacture of furniture in Indiana.

COUGH CANDY made by Benckert contains borshood and borsheit, and is efficacious and pleasant. Better try it, and you will be pleased. Made fresh each week.

One Lived, The Other Died.
A woman formerly of this place is now our cook. About eighteen months ago she became sickly and had a cough and was confined to bed, and it was thought that she had consumption. The treatment by physicians failed to give relief. In the summer, 1915, a nurse or knot the size of a goose egg formed just above the pit of her stomach, which when touched discharged matter for 8 or 9 months. One of these discharges was her son, and three on her back, which discharged matter for a considerable time. For six months of this time she was confined to the house, and most of the time in bed. The stomach often refused food by rejection what she had eaten. She used a great deal of medicine, but failed to be cured. I bought one bottle of W. B. B. (made in Atlanta, Ga.) and gave it to her and she commenced to improve. I then bought and gave her three bottles more, and she continued to improve and in two months' time her cough had ceased, her constitution strengthened, appetite and digestion good, all discharges ceased, nodes or knots disappeared and she went to work apparently healthy and fattened up greatly.

This woman had a married sister of near same age who was afflicted in precisely the same way and about the same time. She had nodes or knots on pit of stomach, back, etc. She did not take any W. B. B. and the nodes on her stomach ate through to the cavity. She continued on the medicine and wasted away, and finally died.

These were two terrible cases of blood poisoning, one used W. B. B. and was speedily cured; the other did not use it and died. It is most assuredly a wonderful blood purifier. I refer to merchants of this town. Yours truly, W. T. ROBINSON.
Tishabaw, Ala., May 1, 1916.

A SHERIFF RELEASED.
For a period of sixteen years I have been afflicted with catarrh of the head which baffled the use of all medicines used. Seeing the advertisement of W. B. B. I purchased and used six or seven bottles, and although used irregularly have received great relief, and recommend it as a good blood purifier.

keeper. For it is a fact that the windows of the watch-makers are crowded with watches at all times, and that about half the existence of a watch is passed in the watch-repairer's shop—Bring in those quilts—meadow larks, should say—

—Winter begun on the 11th of November this year, with a cold rain that night, and we have had winter weather of various kinds ever since—Mrs. Riley's dramatic company will be in Spencer, on the 31st. She has the splendid band of Coffey & Livingston, than which there is no better traveling

—Frank Woolley is now Secretary of the Electric Light Company—The south side had a close call last Thursday night. At about 9 o'clock Dill Faris and Chas. Stone were passing McFord's store east of the bank, when they noticed a blaze inside. Faris kicked a glass out of the front and entered the room to find a broom, back of the counter in the rear end, a mass of fire, and a can of coal oil within a few inches of it. The coal oil can was so hot that it could not be touched with the naked hands. If this had occurred an hour later the entire south side would doubtless have now been a blackened mass of ruins—The postoffice lobby reminds the traveled individual, at 12 m. and 4 p. m., of a round-up of wild cattle on the plains, except that at a round-up the unruly members can be corrected with a blacksnake whip. No doubt the persecuted postoffice employees feel like administering some such discipline to ill-bred, noisy boys. Their conduct is a source of annoyance to patrons of the office as well as to the postoffice officials—

W. Simmons of the Eagle Clothing Store, accompanied by his little daughters, has gone on a visit to relations and friends in Lincoln, Ills.—The boys had any amount of fun last week, coasting—Fifth, Sixth and Seventh streets were in fine condition for this sport from College Avenue to the railroad, and boys and young men seemed never to tire of pulling heavy sleds up hill in order that they might get a chance to slide down—It is rumored that Clear Creek or Smithville will be made telegraph stations on the Monon. This is one of the certainties if the new east and west railroad should cross at Smithville—

—Miss Sallie Cherry is visiting her friend, Miss Ida Franklin, in Spencer—S. K. Rhorer is going on a prospecting tour in Alabama and Georgia, and especially among the new towns in the Birmingham district. Mr. Rhorer has an idea that there are more desirable towns in which to do business than Bloomington, and doubtless Mr. R. is right—Elmer Smith is teaching school near Freeport, Ills., and Mrs. Smith has joined him recently

—Miss E. J. Strader is a member of the Executive Committee of the State Teachers' Association—The Democracy of to-day are not the Democracy of their fathers. The fathers would meet each 8th of January, fill up on peach and honey, swear allegiance to Gen. Jackson, get uproariously drunk and go quietly to sleep under the table. But now they introduce cold roast turkey, bread, and even water their whisky! And they call this Democracy. Out upon such pretensions. The true followers of the great statesman-general cannot countenance such innovations—Miss Clara McCord, after visiting friends here went to Bedford and visited Mrs. Teller, formerly Miss Adams

Mr. A. is the O & M. agent here and can make it interesting for you—The Courier, in writing of the recent burning of a school house in Marion tp., says that in the same locality a spoke buyer named Armstrong disappeared three years ago and that a skeleton has since been found under a log, presumed to be that of the missing spoke-buyer; also that a negro had been hired several years previous to kill a man named Sox, and he made the effort but did not finish his victim. Not far from there, in Benton tp., an unoccupied house on a farm belonging to Bloomington parties was robbed of doors, windows, and last summer the dressed stone chimney was thrown down, hauled away and rebuilt not more than two miles from the farm from which it was stolen. It would seem that law-abiding men in the neighborhood where these acts are charged would endeavor to right them, for the good name of the community—

But we don't believe John has any intention of going to that sandy village—S. S. Cox is dangerously ill with pneumonia, at Washington City—Gen. Hazen of the Weather Bureau, died on Sunday with diabetes—The train that left Chicago Monday morning did not reach here till Tuesday afternoon. It was stuck in a snow bank near Cedar Lake.

—W. J. Alexander, the well known blacksmith, was 54 years of age last Friday, and a number of his friends went to his residence, some five miles east of Bloomington, and there were some forty persons there when Jim, who was hard at work pounding iron in his shop, was sent for. As he had not regarded the occasion as one of any moment he was in reality surprised, but he enjoyed it fully, for he is fond of company. Alexander is comfortably fixed on his farm, and has a neat shop where he gets all the work he can do. Hope he may enjoy as fully his 54th birthday dinner, is the wish of Progress.

—Freight conductor Baker, of the Indiana, Illinois & Iowa road, who was burned up in his caboose last Thursday night, was formerly conductor on the L. N. & C. road. The caboose in which he was riding flew the track, and turned over. The unfortunate man was caught in the car in such a way as to be unable to extricate himself. The car took fire and before he could obtain relief was burned so badly that he lived only a short time. This is the first accident of the kind that has been recorded. When it has become unsafe to ride in a freight caboose there is nothing left to do but walk, to insure safety.

—A slight change was made in the local time table on Sunday. Accommodation arrives going south forty minutes later—8:20. The other changes are immaterial. They can be seen by reference to the corrected time-card of the Monon.

—The wife of Maj. Jno. D. Simpson, of Paoli, is visiting he husband. They are guests of the Orchard House.

—Miss Eloise Ream of Bedford was the guest of Miss Mollie Waldron this week.

A. J. AXTELL,
Sec. Monroe Co. Board of Health.

—There is some talk of calling out Capt. Felts' Monroe Guards to quell the Democratic revolution at Indianapolis.

—Miss Sallie Cherry has returned from a visit to Spencer and Gopport friends and will remain in Bloomington about a month, when she contemplates returning to Abilene, Kansas.

—Probably no event of the late war gave rise to so much controversy as the battle of Shiloh, or Pittsburg Landing. Some men who were there think they know all about the disposition of the forces at the beginning of the fight, and have a complete understanding of the ebb and flow of the tide of battle from the beginning to the end, but when they put their knowledge and ideas in print a thousand men rise up and swear that from their standpoint the thing did not look that way at all. A few men who misunderstood their orders, and sought shelter under the banks of the Tennessee river, "sniffed the battle afar off," and looked longingly toward the North Star. Some of these men can give vivid descriptions of the battle and are as tenacious of their opinions with regard to it as are those who faced the music all the way through. There is one point upon which all seem to agree, and that is that Gen. Prentiss, who with what was left of his command was captured near the close of the first day's fight, gives a splendid account of the battle as he saw it. In conversation with rebel officers, while a prisoner in their hands, he also learned much of their plan of attack and the position of the various commands on the line of the battle. Gen. Prentiss will be here to lecture before Paul E. Sloomb Post, G. A. R., on the Battle of Shiloh, about the 8th of February and no one should fail to hear him.

—On next Wednesday R. F. Adams, administrator of the estate of Dr. J. F. Dodds, will sell at the late residence of deceased, horses, cows, farm implements, and a stock of drugs. Read the advertisement in another column and post up, so you will know what to buy.

—Mrs. Deborah Chase, mother of Bloomfield, Leroy and George Chase, fell on Thursday last and broke one of her hip bones. She is with her son "Bloom," and her age is 84 years.

—Newt. Mathers has gone to Cincinnati with 18 head of fine horses. Hope he may strike a good market.

—Nat. Brayning will leave Glidden, Iowa, in February for Los Angeles, Cal., to reside.

—Rev. Mr. Zahm, of South Bend, while in Bloomington Sunday, dined with the family of John Waldron and took tea with John C. Dolan's family. Mr. Z. and Mr. Dolan were schoolmates.

—The old warrior, Maj. Gen. Prentiss, the hero of Shiloh, will deliver his lecture on the battle of Shiloh at the M. E. church on the evening of Feb. 8th. This will be his last lecture tour. Come one and all and hear him.

By order of Committee G.

—Rev. Mr. Zahm, of South Bend, lectured in College Chapel last Sunday afternoon to an unusually large audience, and at night he delivered a lecture in the Catholic church.

—Soddy Carmichael has returned from Wichita, Kansas. He bought six lots, paying $8,500. He reports Wichita wild with speculation in real estate, and there seems to be no limit to distance from town at which lots can be sold.

—Miss Mary Broadwell, of Danville, Ills., is visiting her brother-in-law, Hon. John W. Baskirk of this place.

—On Monday morning Judge Ayres decided that Col. Robertson's election was invalid, and that Green Smith is the Lt. Governor. This is a bad start.

—Miss Grettie Y. Holiday, of Indianapolis, who went to Tabriz, Persia, as a missionary, has been very ill with typhoid fever, at that place, but has according to a letter of Dec. 7, improved some, though her recovery is still a matter of doubt. Miss Holiday is well known to many Bloomington people.

—Cal. Young was in town last Thursday, the first time in four years. Cal. now lives on a farm southwest of Smithville, and from a heavy full faced man, has become thin and angular. The peculiar fact is that Cal. has stayed away from this bustling city so long while residing so near. Perhaps he became disgusted with our town politics.

—At a meeting of Nail manufacturers in Pittsburg last Wednesday, it was decided to advance the wholesale price on nails from $2.40 to $2.60 per keg. This will make nails cost thirty-five cents per keg more at retail. Bar iron has nearly doubled in price since last fall, and there is a general advance in all iron products as well as ore and pig iron. This is thought to be the foundation of the general revival in business predicted for the coming spring, and in which Bloomington is to take a prominent part.

—There are not many towns in Indiana of the pretensions of Bloomington that can boast two roller mills, but that is just what our people will soon be able to do. The work is being pushed as rapidly as the weather will permit, at the Baldrige & Gaurley Mill, and by March it is hoped to have the ponderous machinery in operation. It would seem that there ought then to be no necessity for our grocers to buy flour from Washington, Ladoga and Martinsville.

—It costs a farmer or shipper thirty-four dollars now to ship a car-load of stock to Cincinnati. Of this amount the Monon gets $14 for hauling it 36 miles, to Mitchell, and the O. & M. gets $20 for hauling the car from that point to Cincinnati, 126 miles. Every man should work, pray, and talk for a road direct to Cincinnati. Then a car-load of stock could be shipped for about $18, and shippers could afford to pay better prices for all kinds of stock. Wheat would also be worth about five cents more on the bushel at this point.

WHITE HALL AND VICINITY.
John Harrah and sister, Sarah Jane, of Bloomington, have been visiting relatives in and near White Hall. There was a grand peafowl dinner at Columbus Brown's Christmas. About forty guests partook of the bounteous repast—Granny Skinner, who was completely paralyzed a short time since, died and was buried in the A. M. Livingston graveyard—Mrs. Maggie Eller, widow of Joseph Eller deceased, has arrived from western Kansas, and is enjoying the hospitality of friends here—Eliza Brown, who went to Clinton, Ind., last fall, in hopes of improving her health, has returned home, and is very low with consumption—O. E. Foster, our worthy P. M., took a large dose of quinine one morning not long since which produced such a derangement of blood to the brain and affected his mind so badly that he was totally unable to do business for about twenty hours—Mrs. Hiram Harrah, of the Indian Territory, has been visiting relatives and friends in White Hall—H. G. Livingston and family of Monroe county, visited relatives Sunday a week—Some time entered Milly Kinard's house lately but was frightened away before doing any damage—Geo. Barry has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Low Patton and family near Bloomington—Dr. Gilbert of Farmers, has been at White Hall—James Groves, of White Hall, has sold his dry goods and groceries to Willie Stogsdill—T. J. Livingston's wife came near being killed by a cow hooking her down and trampling her under foot. The timely arrival of T. J., who beat the cow off with a huge club, saved her life.

—Every person thinking of building will please call at the hardware store of W. J. Allen and examine his stock of doors, sash and material of all kinds, and will find prices and will endeavor to please.

W. J. ALLEN.

—Everybody can assist in booming business next spring if they will take hold with a hearty good will.

—The Mexican Veterans will hold their annual re-union in Indianapolis on Thursday of this week making the Grand Hotel their headquarters.

—Dr. Andrus, one of the most widely known preachers of the M. E. church, and for a time President of Asbury University, died at Indianapolis on Monday, in his 63rd year.

—By the report of the Secretary of the Board of Health it will be seen that consumption and pneumonia have claimed 36 victims of the 119 in the past 12 months, in Monroe county. These are cold weather diseases—resulting from the "cold, bracing atmosphere" of winter.

—John McGee has sold his residence to Cal. Worrall for $1,500, and McGee will remove to Washington City, where he has a position in the Pension Department, with a promise of rapid promotion. He begins with a salary of $1,800. John was also a member of the 95th New Jersey, and with Dr. Simpson and the undersigned took part in the grand parade at Washington at the close of the war.

—David S. Jordan, president of the State University, says that there are 165 varieties of fish to be found in the lakes and streams of Indiana.

HEADQUARTERS for choice butter and all varieties of most desirable produce is the grocery store of Hemp, Wilson, "Progress Block."

Card from C. R. Worrall.
To the Editor of the Progress.
I desire to say to all the citizens of Monroe and Brown counties, irrespective of party ties, that being your Representative in the lower House of the legislature, I am there having no lobby of my own, but to assist in enacting such laws or changes of present laws as a majority of you desire, especially those of this district, may desire I therefore ask of you that each of you who may desire any law enacted or changed or have any ideas on any measure of relief for the people, to write me giving me your thoughts in full, as it may often assist me in voting upon measures introduced or enable me to introduce some needed law that I might not otherwise think of. This request applies alike to all classes; farmers, mechanics, laborers, professional and business men.

Address may be at Indianapolis, care of House of Representatives.
Very Respectfully,
C. R. WORRALL.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.
It has been a mystery to us why strangers are generally charged so extravagantly by Hotels in large cities. Happening a short time since at the Galt House, corner of Sixth and Main Streets, Chicago, O., managed by W. E. Marsh, Jr., son of the proprietor who established the Galt House fifty years ago, the mystery was solved. The accommodations at the Galt House are equal in every respect to the best two dollar a day hotel, and yet the charges are only one dollar and fifty cents per day for meals and room; single meals thirty-five cents. The Galt is headquarters for the most complete meals, which together with free use of prior, office, check room, etc., constitute the greatest bargain obtainable in the city. The solution is easy when the facts are known. The Galt is run exclusively in the interest of strangers, the same rate being charged per day, at all times, to everyone. Whatever will produce a reasonable rent for the property is the extent of its charges, thus doing away with the usual parasite's profits. Its management is constantly under the immediate and personal control of the owner, W. E. Marsh, Jr. Its employees being paid according to the volume of business, are efficient and reasonable in cost. The above peculiarities, a low uniform price, a reasonable rent-charge only, a rigorous and practical supervision of its internal affairs, and co-operative sales payments, have secured for the Galt a fair transient trade, and the experiment is a success, producing rent for the real estate. To this beneficiary, who has made it possible to stay two days in the city at the usual expense of one, we heartily recommend our friends.

ALL PERSONS knowing themselves indebted to W. J. Allen either on note or account, will call and settle as I must have my business settled up, and don't you forget it.

Notice to Non-Residents.
The State of Indiana, Monroe County. In the Monroe Circuit Court, February Term, 1887.
Ida Griffler vs. Mary A. Bell, Amanda Waldrige.
Complaint No. 1128.

Now comes the Plaintiff, by R. W. Meyer, her attorney, and files her complaint herein, together with exhibit, and asks that said defendant, are not residents of the State of Indiana; that said action is for the purpose to try and determine the title to and quiet the title to certain real estate situated in Monroe county, State of Indiana, and that said non-resident defendants are necessary parties thereto.

Notice is therefore hereby given said defendants, that unless they file and appear on the 23d day of the next term of the Monroe circuit court, to be held on the 1st Monday of February, A. D. 1887, at the court house in Bloomington, in said county and State, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness my name and the Seal of said Court, affixed at Bloomington, this 10th day of February, A. D
