

Republican Progress

Printed each Wednesday Morning, by WILLIAM A. GALE, Editor and Publisher.
IN ADVANCE, $1.00 a Year

—Take up the 6 per cent. county orders by the issue of 4 per cent. bonds which can be readily sold at par, and save ten or fifteen hundred dollars per year. Why not?

—Citizens of Indiana are proud of the capital city—it is without question as fine as any in the land—with its new State house, the new union depot in course of construction, its broad avenues and numberless fine buildings, both public and private. Now she is known to be within the natural gas belt, and her manufacturing will soon be doubled in number, and in addition to being the greatest railroad center in the country she will also be the manufacturing center of the great West. The Progress is proud of our capital city.

—People may thank God and take courage over the fact that there is no political campaign this year, and that they will be permitted to make a respectable living for their families. Come to think of it 'tis a little singular that the business interests of an entire State are permitted to suffer every two years because a half dozen men in each county are fighting over offices that profit nobody but themselves! Did you ever take this view of it?

—Sixty-eight years ago Tuesday, April 26th, the order of Odd Fellows was instituted in this country. It is true that prior to 1819 there had been a Lodge in New York, but it soon ceased to work. The movement of Thomas Wilkey and John Welch, in Baltimore, April 26th, 1819, can be traced back with certainty, and therefore the Sovereign Grand Lodge has formally fixed that date as the starting point of the order in this country. Throughout this country and Canada the Lodges will commemorate the event. The character of the order and the men that compose it is very much different in 1887 from what it was in 1819. Then it was looked upon as nothing more than a convivial club, and this was nearly true. The men who entered its lodges were illiterate, but honest and determined. Thomas Wilkey, their leader, was not a learned man, but he possessed all the characteristics of a successful leader of men. But the practices which obtained in the lodges in the early days of the order have been corrected and the order now is regarded by all unprejudiced persons as one of the greatest moral and benevolent institutions in the land. It is practically a workingman's order, and at least three-fourths of its members are wage-workers, who conduct its business and perform all the benevolent duties enjoined.

—The death of Major Jonathan W. Gordon occurred at the Grand Hotel, Indianapolis, at 5:30 o'clock last Wednesday morning, from congestion of the brain, after an illness of ten days' duration. Its fatal termination was not unexpected. For nearly a week he had been unconscious, except for short intervals of semi-lucidity. On Saturday he became somewhat better, and there was a slight hope of his recovery, but on Monday night he suffered a relapse, from which he did not revive. The end of a busy and eventful life came almost imperceptibly, for he had not rallied from his unconsciousness for more than twenty-four hours, and had made no demonstrations of any kind. He was born in Washington Co., Pa., Aug. 13, 1820, and so was in his 67th year. He was of Scotch-Irish descent. Maj. Gordon was a brilliant orator, though somewhat eccentric. He made many speeches in Bloomington, and was always listened to with pleasure by men of all parties.

Ind. News: The real estate craze is spreading all over the country, and in the multitude of booms with slight foundation many thousands will be ruined. Gold mining was never half so entrancing and seductive as dealing in real estate, where speculation is driving headlong. The air is full of stories of fortunes made in a few days. But, as in lotteries, where we always hear who draw the large prizes while nothing is said of the thousands who have lost, so the wrecks of fortunes and crushed lives will never be heard of. The wise man will beware of the booms, and if he buys real estate, either pays cash or has the means provided to pay it out. But the foolish man buys mainly on credit, and sometimes makes a hit, but more often gets caught and loses what he has.

RECOLLECTIONS

OF Early Days.

Our old friend, Jno. W. Throop, when here this winter, promised to jot down some recollections of old times for the Progress, and gives us the first installment this week. Mr. Throop is now in his 77th year and in the enjoyment of good health. He resided 65 years in Bloomington, coming to the town before it was a town, and remembers many incidents that are of general interest to the older citizens, at least:

My father moved to Bloomington in the summer of 1822. When we arrived there the first college was just commenced and I worked there, carrying brick at 25c. per day until the brick work was finished. My father took pay in corn meal. The court house was not then finished; court was held in an old log house down the alley on the back of the lot on which is the present jail. There was not a church in the town. There was a log school house back of where the National Hotel now is, where all the preaching was heard and had, and once in a while there was school there.

There were very few houses in the town and most of them log cabins. There was three or four brick houses. Wm. McCollough had one where W. J. Allen's hardware store now stands. The house still standing below the Bollinger's and the old jail that stood north of the court house, and Jas. Slocumb's small brick house which they still own. The entire lot was given to the public square. The first house my father lived in was on the lot Mrs. Lundman now lives on—a two-story log house with puncheon floors, and Squire Kilo lived in a log house on the lot just above it. One evening father had some money, some silver, and dropped a half dollar that went through the floor to the ground; he raised a puncheon and felt down for his money and felt something cold and not right; he told my mother he would get his money in the morning when he could see, but forgot it in the morning and during the day a large rattlesnake came from under the house, it had its rattles and a button. Squire Kilo saw it and killed it—it was making across the street.

There was the heaviest timber I ever saw in town, in fact the timber in the college was heavy timber. I felt very much disappointed, as a boy, at Bloomington, for you could hear wolves every night, howling. I have seen deer running through the streets of town many a time. I recollect one day I was riding around town and saw the largest kind of a buck on the lot of the Widow Dunn. I got a buck home as quick as I could and went to old man Strong, an old deer hunter, and told him to lead his gun carefully, as I wanted to kill a deer. He did so and I went back. The deer was still there, ready to be shot. I got in and went between me and it, and got within thirty feet of it. Shot and missed it; and with the same gun I could have knocked the head off a squirrel.

The open woods were very rich; the open bushes were as high as a man's head on horse back, and pine vines two or three feet high all through the woods. Cattle kept fat on it. The timber was all green. I saw a large snake, and it was a great place for wild animals and snakes. I went to camp meeting two miles west of town, on the place of Alexander Murphy, and recollect I had a palmetto tree, but it was not a palmetto tree, and I intended to stay all night and stayed until 10 or 11 o'clock when Alexander Roseberry and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Patterson, wanted me to go to town with them. I refused to go, and they went on their way. It was a clear night but very dark in the woods. I walked before. At all once I saw something before me. My palmetto tree, to the top of my hair, Roseberry commenced barking like a dog, and the old lady made a very curious noise. The palmetto followed us to town. My father had at one time thirty head of sheep, but he lost them all. One day he and myself took one of the sheep and hung it up and concealed ourselves but no wolf came that night. My father one morning sent me south of town, on some horse to wait some time on the line, on a little rise of ground, and happening to look up I saw the largest wolf I think I ever did see. It was not more than thirty feet from me. We both stopped. I had nothing on me but a pocket watch. We looked at each other, I thought a half hour, but it was a very short time. The wolf got tired and stroled off and I went on my way.

I never passed a snake that I didn't kill, except one. I was out at Joseph Wampler's, one Sunday, and going home late in the evening was riding in a small path across a field, and I saw a snake, and I was an awful racket. I looked and saw the prettiest snake I ever saw. It was coiled with both head and rattles up, and its eyes looked like gold. I don't think it could have been put in a barrel measure. I looked around for something to kill it with, but could not find anything to suit me, so I put whip to my horse and left it. That was the largest rattlesnake I ever saw.

I was going out southwest of town one day and I saw in the road a black snake; it looked to me to be ten feet long. I got down, picked up my horse and got it, and I thought would do, and gave the snake a whack and the stick broke; then the snake came at me, and I ran up the road to find something to kill it with. I found a stick and ran the snake back to the place of starting and killed it. In the next settling up I had a hard time of getting grinding done. My father would send me to the horse mill with a couple of bushels of corn and two horses, and I would have to wait sometimes two days and a night before my turn would come. It was the hardest kind of a way to get bread, and if we had a little wheat would grind it, and have to bolt it by hand, so that we never had good flour.

—Millard: The opposition press delights in setting forth the working of the woman suffrage amendment in Kansas. We are told that the women did very much for the men do. In a certain city one class was offended by remarks of another and took revenge by getting out all their friends to vote against the nominee of the party offending. Does any one imagine that the mere extension of the ballot is to dissipate every evil? Of course women will say silly things. They have been too long familiar with the doings of men to escape the contamination. In their conduct an argument against the exercise of the right of suffrage? Why not apply it to males? Let the women be judged by the same standard as men.

CHIPS AND SPLINTERS.

—One of the eight driver engines, No. 67, was at the depot one day last week. The machine looked as large as a small house—Anxious candidates for the office of County Superintendent are coming to the surface. Among those mentioned we remember the names of the present incumbent, Mr. Hazel, Frank Tournier and John D. Morgan. The Township Trustees will elect the County Superintendent in June—There was but a light attendance upon circuit court last week. There are no cases of unusual importance on the docket this term—A base ball nine from De Pauw college expect to come to Bloomington soon and whitewash our boys—Ben Kirby went to Decatur, Alabama, week before last, to close up a trade he had made for a lot in that booming city—Clint Turner and his brother Charles have concluded to work on a farm in Missouri this summer—George Bodie has gone to Kansas in response to a message stating that his brother is dangerously ill—Geo. Stevenson and Alex. Hawkins have each been remembered by the Pension Department—A letter from Decatur, Ala., states that Ben Kirby's lot had advanced $500 before he made the first payment—Two persons have committed suicide in Lawrence county within the past three weeks. A man named Williams shot himself and Elijah Fox drowned himself in Salt Creek—Rev. F. A. Eller came to Bloomington on Thursday last on a brief visit to relations and friends—Washington, Davison co., has thirty saloons, the O. & M. shops, coal mines, and will soon have street cars and gas wells—Mr. Matt. James, a former well known citizen, is back in Bloomington renewing old friendships—John E. Lamb, one of the most prominent of Terre Haute attorneys, was in town last week—Wm. Woods, Elllettsville, has been granted a pension—Cynthia Hanna gets a pension—Get out your lawn mower and rush it up and down the yard. Have all the fun you can while summer lasts—Miss Bertie Roseberry has been visiting Gosport friends—Bart. Acuff of Richland tp. was the first Mexican soldier in Monroe county to get a pension—Col. Taylor of Lafayette was attending court last week—Prof. Geo. Welch, the phenologist, has been granted a pension—Services were held in the Episcopal church on Sunday—Rev. J. M. Stalker preached for the Baptist people last Sunday—Ed. Hall is out of business in the dry goods line at present, but is assisting the boom. He may go into business for himself soon—The W. C. T. U. met in Walnut St. Presbyterian church on Monday night—S. B. Herrah is visiting relations in Northern Indiana—Rev. Mac. Philpott of New York is expected here on a visit to relations soon—Dr. Jordan left Bloomington on Thursday for a lecturing tour in the Southern portion of the State—Hon. Geo. W. Cooper of Columbus, Ind., lectured in the College Chapel Sunday afternoon. His subject was "Charity," and he treated it in a masterly manner—Cornie Dodds will go to Chattanooga at the close of Prep. in June—Henry L. McCalla has returned from Tennessee—Geo. Brock of Bedford was in town one day last week—A number of the members of the Bedford Bar were in this city last week, viewing the Big 4 extension, the electric lights, and the "boom"—By the Bedford papers we learn that that "foundry firm" is writing letters to their citizens "for inducements."

—The Progress went to press on Tuesday evening before the vote was counted out, but every indication pointed to the election of the Republican ticket as usual, with a reduced majority in a few cases. A "Citizens" ticket, run by the Democrats, got up a little stir, but no one but Democrats seemed to be voting it.

—She had just returned from Vassar, and papa was stroking her hair fondly. "I hope, my dear," said the old man, "that you haven't acquired any of the vulgar slang phrases which so many of the Vassar young ladies are said to use." "You bet I haven't," she replied brightly, "when anybody catches me talking slang, he is especially invited to slug me in the 7th rib." That's right, my daughter, never indulge in slang. It gives a young lady dead away."

—New York Sun: An old-time Washington barkeeper gives some interesting facts. He says Stanton could stand more liquor without showing the effects of it than anyone he ever saw. Lincoln liked a mild whisky punch with plenty of sugar. Seward drank claret. Johnson was fond of Tennessee whisky. Hayes likes whisky but drank little when in the White House. In Columbus "Rutherford" used to be one of the boys. Garfield could stand almost as much stimulant as Stanton. Arthur's drink was brandy and soda. There is only one tetter in the present cabinet, and that is Garfield.

—Rosa B. Giltner has filed suit in the Bartholomew county circuit court for divorce from her husband, Harry C. Giltner. In the complaint Rosa charges Harry with being a worthless fellow, and that since their marriage in 1879, he has not worked scarcely any at all; that she has labored hard, by taking in washing and sewing to support him; that she furnished him a house in which to live, paid the rent for said house, furnished him with the necessities of life, and that recently she requested him to work enough to procure sufficient money to purchase the tobacco he chewed, (for she had at diverse times, purchased tobacco for him). When this request was made Harry became very cross and quarrelsome and whipped her, and she now asks that she be granted a divorce from him.

—STINEVILLE.—Jim. McHenry is cutting stone in Bloomington. Myron Hedrick has been visiting relatives in Spencer recently. The annual June meeting will be held on the second Sunday in June—Gum Taylor paid the Bloomington stores a visit Thursday last. Albert Bradley is cutting stone in Elllettsville. George Pugh, formerly of this place but now of Spencer, came down to see his many friends. Stineville, enjoying a boom, has been the scene of building during the summer besides other buildings—Miss Myrtle Pugh, who is going to the Bloomington schools, is at home for a few days. George Bodie of this place has been visiting to Canton, Ind., and is keeping station Success to you George—Mrs. Sallie Williams of this place, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Pizel, in Sallie, Ind.—John Williams and Mrs. Columbus McHenry are on the sick list. Mrs. Ouis Baskirk, formerly of this place, after a two week's visit among friends and relatives, returned to her home in Caldwell, Ky.—Mrs. Belle Pugh, who has been very poorly for some time, is again able to attend to her duty—John Williams has his house almost completed, and will soon move to his farm west of Stineville. A number of business men from Bloomington came down Thursday to take a look at our stone quarries. They soon recognized the fact that Stineville was the place to invest. They all returned home well satisfied, and we understand they will commence to get things ready at once. This will give employment to hundreds of men, if business is carried on in the proper manner. W. L. B.

—Notwithstanding the recent great discoveries of natural gas, Findley O., holds its own against all rivals. There are now twenty wells in that place, all penetrating, at a depth of from 1,100 to 1,600 feet, the Trenton limestone, which seems to be nature's gas receiver. From one of these wells the gas issues with a roar that can be heard nine miles, and its light casts a shadow ten miles distant. This well has been discharging for two years and is as strong to-day as ever.

—Seated in a street car once with his little son, Mr. Travers edged gradually up as seat after seat was taken by incoming passengers. Finally he lifted the lad on his knee and so sat for a while. The car grew more and more crowded, and a good-looking young woman, seeing no vacant seat, stared rather impatiently at Travers as though expecting him to rise. His eyes twinkled in characteristic fashion as he turned his face to his boy and said audibly: "G-g-get up, my son, and g-g-give the l-l-lady your seat." The young woman looked another way.

—Ladies Wanted.—A lady agent is wanted in every city and village; also ladies to travel and solicit orders for Madam's Wood's Corns and Corded Corns. Agents are making from Twenty to Fifty Dollars per month. Send for circulars and price-list to B. Wood, 64 South Salina Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

—ALEXANDER & MILLER keep a full line of the MODEL Roller Mill Flour. Try it once and then tell us what you think of it.

—New York Sun: An old-time Washington barkeeper gives some interesting facts. He says Stanton could stand more liquor without showing the effects of it than anyone he ever saw. Lincoln liked a mild whisky punch with plenty of sugar. Seward drank claret. Johnson was fond of Tennessee whisky. Hayes likes whisky but drank little when in the White House. In Columbus "Rutherford" used to be one of the boys. Garfield could stand almost as much stimulant as Stanton. Arthur's drink was brandy and soda. There is only one tetter in the present cabinet, and that is Garfield.

—Rosa B. Giltner has filed suit in the Bartholomew county circuit court for divorce from her husband, Harry C. Giltner. In the complaint Rosa charges Harry with being a worthless fellow, and that since their marriage in 1879, he has not worked scarcely any at all; that she has labored hard, by taking in washing and sewing to support him; that she furnished him a house in which to live, paid the rent for said house, furnished him with the necessities of life, and that recently she requested him to work enough to procure sufficient money to purchase the tobacco he chewed, (for she had at diverse times, purchased tobacco for him). When this request was made Harry became very cross and quarrelsome and whipped her, and she now asks that she be granted a divorce from him.

—STINEVILLE.—Jim. McHenry is cutting stone in Bloomington. Myron Hedrick has been visiting relatives in Spencer recently. The annual June meeting will be held on the second Sunday in June—Gum Taylor paid the Bloomington stores a visit Thursday last. Albert Bradley is cutting stone in Elllettsville. George Pugh, formerly of this place but now of Spencer, came down to see his many friends. Stineville, enjoying a boom, has been the scene of building during the summer besides other buildings—Miss Myrtle Pugh, who is going to the Bloomington schools, is at home for a few days. George Bodie of this place has been visiting to Canton, Ind., and is keeping station Success to you George—Mrs. Sallie Williams of this place, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Pizel, in Sallie, Ind.—John Williams and Mrs. Columbus McHenry are on the sick list. Mrs. Ouis Baskirk, formerly of this place, after a two week's visit among friends and relatives, returned to her home in Caldwell, Ky.—Mrs. Belle Pugh, who has been very poorly for some time, is again able to attend to her duty—John Williams has his house almost completed, and will soon move to his farm west of Stineville. A number of business men from Bloomington came down Thursday to take a look at our stone quarries. They soon recognized the fact that Stineville was the place to invest. They all returned home well satisfied, and we understand they will commence to get things ready at once. This will give employment to hundreds of men, if business is carried on in the proper manner. W. L. B.

—Notwithstanding the recent great discoveries of natural gas, Findley O., holds its own against all rivals. There are now twenty wells in that place, all penetrating, at a depth of from 1,100 to 1,600 feet, the Trenton limestone, which seems to be nature's gas receiver. From one of these wells the gas issues with a roar that can be heard nine miles, and its light casts a shadow ten miles distant. This well has been discharging for two years and is as strong to-day as ever.

—Seated in a street car once with his little son, Mr. Travers edged gradually up as seat after seat was taken by incoming passengers. Finally he lifted the lad on his knee and so sat for a while. The car grew more and more crowded, and a good-looking young woman, seeing no vacant seat, stared rather impatiently at Travers as though expecting him to rise. His eyes twinkled in characteristic fashion as he turned his face to his boy and said audibly: "G-g-get up, my son, and g-g-give the l-l-lady your seat." The young woman looked another way.

—Ladies Wanted.—A lady agent is wanted in every city and village; also ladies to travel and solicit orders for Madam's Wood's Corns and Corded Corns. Agents are making from Twenty to Fifty Dollars per month. Send for circulars and price-list to B. Wood, 64 South Salina Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

—ALEXANDER & MILLER keep a full line of the MODEL Roller Mill Flour. Try it once and then tell us what you think of it.

—The Progress went to press on Tuesday evening before the vote was counted out, but every indication pointed to the election of the Republican ticket as usual, with a reduced majority in a few cases. A "Citizens" ticket, run by the Democrats, got up a little stir, but no one but Democrats seemed to be voting it.

—She had just returned from Vassar, and papa was stroking her hair fondly. "I hope, my dear," said the old man, "that you haven't acquired any of the vulgar slang phrases which so many of the Vassar young ladies are said to use." "You bet I haven't," she replied brightly, "when anybody catches me talking slang, he is especially invited to slug me in the 7th rib." That's right, my daughter, never indulge in slang. It gives a young lady dead away."

—New York Sun: An old-time Washington barkeeper gives some interesting facts. He says Stanton could stand more liquor without showing the effects of it than anyone he ever saw. Lincoln liked a mild whisky punch with plenty of sugar. Seward drank claret. Johnson was fond of Tennessee whisky. Hayes likes whisky but drank little when in the White House. In Columbus "Rutherford" used to be one of the boys. Garfield could stand almost as much stimulant as Stanton. Arthur's drink was brandy and soda. There is only one tetter in the present cabinet, and that is Garfield.

W.O.O.L.

We will pay the best prices for in cash, goods, or take it on OLD DEBTS.
Bring your Wool to our Store anyhow, and learn what we can do for you.
WE ARE IN THE MARKET.
McCALLA & Co.

Guillibility.
The wild phantoms and shrieking cries of a worthless humbug can make money by imposing upon the credulity and ignorance of a honest public, and the supply of this species of work seems more than an adequate demand. The enunciation of facts—facts that have stood cruel tests—facts proven by brain force and tangible evidence, should satisfy all audacious enterprises; but the execrable practice of teaching false ideas and doctrines for self-aggrandizement is truly reprehensible and should be scorned by all classes. When one house tells you that iodine of Potash is a poison simply because their opponents use it, and because they are pandering to your ignorance, as they suppose, you should look upon all such as errant frauds and their remedies as unworthy public confidence, and if those who make such assertions do not know better, they are a set of unenviable ignoramus.

DOCTORS AND HOT SPRINGS.
Hot Springs failed entirely to cure me of several terrible indolent running ulcers on my legs, which I have been troubled for several years. Several doctors also attempted to cure me but failed. I have used only a few bottles of B. B. B. (made at Atlanta, Ga.) and the effect has been truly magical, as they have all healed and I am cured. It is worth all medicines made for purifying the blood. This wonderful quick cure has been effected after everything else had failed. Your medicine is a daily and has done the business for me. I have lived here twenty-five years. My general health is also improving, appetite and digestion good. I sleep soundly, and never feel better. Doctors told me I could not be cured, but B. B. B. has cured me.

It is decidedly the quickest, best and cheapest blood purifier I ever used. It is ahead of all others. As to my case and its cure I refer to every business or professional man. I refer to Postmaster Hentree, of Atlanta.
G. T. KELLAM.
Wrightsville, Ga., May 3, 1888.

LETTING OF
OF Poor Asylum Building.
NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned County Commissioners of Monroe county, Indiana, will receive, at the Auditor's Office of said county, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887,
at 10 o'clock A. M., sealed proposals for the rebuilding of the Poor Asylum, recently destroyed by fire.
Plans and specifications will be on file and ready for examination on and after the 20th day of April, 1887, at the Auditor's office of said county.
Seal bids must be accompanied by a bond, with two good freehold sureties, and the successful bidder shall give bond as required by law.
Payments for the work will be made in cash as the work progresses.
At the same time, place, and on the same terms, bids will be received for furnishing the Heating Apparatus needed in said Asylum Building.
W. M. A. KIRBY,
J. M. H. FULFORD,
HENRY L. McCALLA,
County Commissioners.
W. M. ALEXANDER,
April 20-87-6w Auditor.

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE.
BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.
This Magazine portrays American life and life from ocean to ocean, is filled with pure high-class literature, and can be safely welcomed to every family circle.
PRICE 25c. IN $3 A YEAR BY MAIL.
Sample Copy of current number mailed upon receipt of 25 cts.; back numbers, 15 cts.
Premium List with others.
Address:
R. T. BUSH & SON, Publishers,
130 & 132 Pearl St., N. Y.

GET UP CLUBS
C. C. TURNER. W. J. TURNER.
Turner Bros.,
THE LEADING
Undertakers
and Furniture Dealers.
They have the largest and most complete stock of Furniture ever brought to Mill to Bloomington, and can sell goods cheaper than ever before. They have a large assortment of Wood, Cloth and Metallic Caskets, and pay special attention to orders by telegraph. Carriages furnished with drivers. Finances and Organs kept in stock, and sold on monthly payments. North Side Public Square, Bloomington, Ind. sep22-88

Warner Bros.
CELEBRATED
CORSETS
FLEXIBLE AND HEALTHY
The superiority of Corsette over any other corset has been demonstrated by over six years experience. It is more durable, more comfortable, and NEVER BREAKS.
The immense sale of these Corsettes is now over 7000 daily.
Beware of worthless imitations based with various kinds of cord.
None are genuine unless "Dr. Warner's Corsette" is printed on inside of the steel cover.
FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING MERCHANTS.
Warner Bros., 327 & 259 State Street, CHICAGO, ILL.

Notice of Administration.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the undersigned has been appointed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Monroe County, State of Indiana, administrator of the estate of Matthew McConnell, late of Monroe county, deceased.
Said estate is supposed to be solvent.
MATTHEW McCONNELL,
April 20, 1887. Administrator.
R. A. Fulk, Att'y.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S SALE.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned Administratrix of the estate of Matthew McConnell, deceased, will offer for sale at public auction at the residence of said decedent, in Van Buren township, County of Monroe and State of Indiana, on WEDNESDAY, MAY 11th, 1887,
the personal property of said estate consisting of:
Horses, Cows, Hogs, Cattle, Wagons, Farming Implements, and Household and Kitchen Furniture, and various other articles.
Sale to begin at 10 o'clock A. M.
TERMS OF SALE.
Sums of five dollars and under, cash in hand; all sums over five dollars a credit of six months will be given, the purchaser giving note with approved security, waiting valuation laws, and bearing 6 per cent. interest after maturity.
MARGARET McCONNELL,
April 20, 1887. Administratrix.
R. A. Fulk, Att'y.

BENJ. M'GEE

HAS THE CHOICEST STOCK OF Piece Goods

THIS SPRING THAT HE HAS EVER EXHIBITED IN BLOOMINGTON.

NECKWEAR

OF NEWEST STYLES.

A Line of Hats that is Late Style, AND VERY CHEAP.

CALL AND SEE ME BEFORE YOU MAKE ANY PURCHASES IN THE CLOTHING LINE—I CAN SAVE MONEY FOR YOU.

CITY STORE.

WEST SIDE OF PUBLIC SQUARE, NORTH CORNER OF ALLEY.

LADIES' AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

All Kinds of Embroideries, the Largest Stock of Ladies' Kid Gloves in the County. Also, a complete stock of Fancy Notions of almost every description.

THE LADIES ARE ESPECIALLY INVITED TO CALL AND SEE OUR LINE OF NEW STYLE FANCY MILLINERY GOODS.

Millinery Made a Specialty.
Also Agent for the Celebrated New White Sewing Machine for Monroe County.

LETTING OF OF Poor Asylum Building.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned County Commissioners of Monroe county, Indiana, will receive, at the Auditor's Office of said county, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887,
at 10 o'clock A. M., sealed proposals for the rebuilding of the Poor Asylum, recently destroyed by fire.
Plans and specifications will be on file and ready for examination on and after the 20th day of April, 1887, at the Auditor's office of said county.
Seal bids must be accompanied by a bond, with two good freehold sureties, and the successful bidder shall give bond as required by law.
Payments for the work will be made in cash as the work progresses.
At the same time, place, and on the same terms, bids will be received for furnishing the Heating Apparatus needed in said Asylum Building.
W. M. A. KIRBY,
J. M. H. FULFORD,
HENRY L. McCALLA,
County Commissioners.
W. M. ALEXANDER,
April 20-87-6w Auditor.

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE.
BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.
This Magazine portrays American life and life from ocean to ocean, is filled with pure high-class literature, and can be safely welcomed to every family circle.
PRICE 25c. IN $3 A YEAR BY MAIL.
Sample Copy of current number mailed upon receipt of 25 cts.; back numbers, 15 cts.
Premium List with others.
Address:
R. T. BUSH & SON, Publishers,
130 & 132 Pearl St., N. Y.

Turner Bros.,
THE LEADING
Undertakers
and Furniture Dealers.
They have the largest and most complete stock of Furniture ever brought to Mill to Bloomington, and can sell goods cheaper than ever before. They have a large assortment of Wood, Cloth and Metallic Caskets, and pay special attention to orders by telegraph. Carriages furnished with drivers. Finances and Organs kept in stock, and sold on monthly payments. North Side Public Square, Bloomington, Ind. sep22-88

Notice of Administration.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the undersigned has been appointed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Monroe County, State of Indiana, administrator of the estate of Matthew McConnell, late of Monroe county, deceased.
Said estate is supposed to be solvent.
MATTHEW McCONNELL,
April 20, 1887. Administrator.
R. A. Fulk, Att'y.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S SALE.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned Administratrix of the estate of Matthew McConnell, deceased, will offer for sale at public auction at the residence of said decedent, in Van Buren township, County of Monroe and State of Indiana, on WEDNESDAY, MAY 11th, 1887,
the personal property of said estate consisting of:
Horses, Cows, Hogs, Cattle, Wagons, Farming Implements, and Household and Kitchen Furniture, and various other articles.
Sale to begin at 10 o'clock A. M.
TERMS OF SALE.
Sums of five dollars and under, cash in hand; all sums over five dollars a credit of six months will be given, the purchaser giving note with approved security, waiting valuation laws, and bearing 6 per cent. interest after maturity.
MARGARET McCONNELL,
April 20, 1887. Administratrix.
R. A. Fulk, Att'y.

Warner Bros.
CELEBRATED
CORSETS
FLEXIBLE AND HEALTHY
The superiority of Corsette over any other corset has been demonstrated by over six years experience. It is more durable, more comfortable, and NEVER BREAKS.
The immense sale of these Corsettes is now over 7000 daily.
Beware of worthless imitations based with various kinds of cord.
None are genuine unless "Dr. Warner's Corsette" is printed on inside of the steel cover.
FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING MERCHANTS.
Warner Bros., 327 & 259 State Street, CHICAGO, ILL.

KIRK'S WHITE

THE ONLY BRAND OF LAUNDRY SOAP AWARDED A FIRST CLASS MEDAL AT THE NEW ORLEANS EXPOSITION. GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY PURE, AND FOR HOUSEHOLD PURPOSES IS THE VERY BEST.

RUSSIAN SOAP

WALL PAPER AND Window Shades

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE City Book Store

invites the attention of the public to his Large and Varied Assortment of WALL Paper and Window Shades now opening for the Spring Trade.

The Styles Are New and Beautiful, and the DESIGNS cannot fail to please the most fastidious.

Ladies desiring to paper, or otherwise fit up their rooms, are solicited to call and examine the splendid patterns, a mere inspection will convince them of the quality.

In the stock will be found some exquisite designs in CEILINGS, BORDERS and Ornaments.

The prices, too, cannot fail to please.
E. P. COLE.

ATTORNEYS' CARDS.

R. W. HERRICK, Attorney. Office up stairs, over Mr. McColl's Office. Will practice in all the courts of the State. Probate business, and the settlement of estates, will receive special attention.
BUSKIRK & DUNLAP, Attorneys. Office in First National Bank. All business will receive prompt and careful attention. Office room—4 and 7, over Corcoran's Clothing, Bloomington, Ind.
JAMES F. MORGAN, Attorney. Office in the City of Bloomington, Ind. (Buskirk & Dunlap's old room) south side of the square. Probate business, and settlements given special attention. Will also give special attention to business in the neighboring counties and in the State.
C. R. WORELL, Attorney. Office up stairs, over Mr. McColl's Office. Will practice in all the courts. Special attention given to the Probate business.
[CORR & DUNLAP, Att'ys.]

Notice to Non-Residents.
In the State of Indiana, Monroe county. In the Monroe circuit court, April Term, 1887.
Complaint No. 1374.
Thomas B. Corcoran, Matthew M. Campbell, Hugh M. Murdock.
Now comes the plaintiff by Cor & Dunlap, his attorneys, and files his complaint against the defendants, Matthew M. Campbell, is not a resident of the State of Indiana; that said action is for the collection of a debt by proceedings in attachment, and that said non-resident defendant is a necessary party thereto.
Notice is therefore hereby given said defendant, that unless he be and appear on the 17th day of the next term of the Monroe circuit court, to be held on the third Monday of April A. D. 1887, at the Court House, in Bloomington, Ind., said county and State, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and determined in his absence.
Witness my name and the seal of said court, at Bloomington, this 21st day of March, A. D. 1887.
[SEAL] ENOCH FULLER, Clerk.
March 23, 1887.

Notice to Non-Residents.
The State of Indiana, Monroe county. In the Monroe circuit court, April Term, 1