CARTER PERKINS, Agent, Bloomington.

IT IS TO THE INTEREST OF EVERY YOUNG MAN who is about to buy a fine ready made suit, or who desires to have a suit made in the highest style of the art, to call at Blair's McGee's establishment on the south side of the square, before giving an order. No tailor can excel McGee in the matter of style or fit, and that is all there is in it. Better have your work well done, by a competent artist, a painstaking mechanic, a conscientious tailor of garments. Just such a man is McGee, as his well pleased customers cheerfully certify. You can get all manner of furnishing goods, hats, etc., at his store. Better call before you buy.

C. Van Zandt & Son, UNDERTAKERS

DEALERS IN Metallic Burial Caskets, Cases and Coffins. Hearse and Carriages furnished to order. Orders by telegraph will receive prompt attention. Shop on College Avenue, north end of W. O. Fee's Building, Bloomington, Indiana.

FURNITURE.

We have a large and carefully selected stock of Furniture, and invite our friends to call before making purchases.

The "Golden Rule" store, on the south side, has been crowded with goods this season. Mobley appears to be carrying a larger and more diversified stock each year, and his trade is increasing so steadily and so satisfactorily that he is sometimes unable to wait upon all who call with the promptness he would like. Still they wait, good naturedly, feeling that they can afford to be disappointed because of the bargains they secure at the "Golden Rule." You will find many articles at this store this season that have not been handled heretofore, and the prices are so low that anybody's purse can be fitted.

For pain in back use Nash Kidney and Liver Cure. No cure, no pay.

JOE M. SMITH is successor to TONE SMITH in the great jewelry and fancy goods house on the south side of the square. This establishment is one of the attractions of Bloomington, and attracts many visitors from neighboring towns. Here you can see any article kept in the largest fancy bazars of the cities, beside many that are not usually in stock there. Joe is a hustler from huckleberry, and with the assistance of TONE (who works at the bench) he turns out as many satisfactorily repaired watches as any man in Southern Indiana. Call and see Joe when you come to town, and if you get a chance, talk to TONE when Joe's back is turned and you'll find him the jolliest fellow in the business.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Man, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—Asthma Sufferers, use Nash Asthma Cure. It will relieve you in two minutes. Sample package free. Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail. Nash Medical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

A Card of Thanks.

The Festival given by the "Suffrage Club" was a success in every particular. The ladies took in money to the amount of $35. The organization is growing in valuable members, and its influence is being felt. The Club desires, through the columns of your paper, to thank the public for its patronage, and especially to extend its obligations to the City Brass Band for its generosity to them on Thursday night. The music was highly complimented.

Mrs. Ed. Seward, Secretary.

THE NEW NOVEL, "MARA," by E. P. Roe—On June 1st, 1887, The Cincinnati Weekly Gazette will begin the publication of a new novel, entitled "MARA," by E. P. Roe, the greatest living American novelist. Every person should read this interesting story. The publishers of the Commercial Gazette have decided to make a special offer to furnish this weekly edition of that paper from June 1st to December 1, 1887, for fifty cents.

Our specialty, Boots and Shoes to please our customers; and to save money for our patrons; Our intention, to do much better by you than anyone else.

Decorations Day

was observed in fitting manner by the citizens of Bloomington. The several organizations and societies formed in procession on the public square at 2 p.m. and marched to the south front of the court house, where the following program was carried out:

- 1—Music by the Martial and Brass Bands.
- 2—Music by the Choir.
- 3—Prayer by Chaplain, Rev. J. B. Hamilton.
- 4—Music by the Choir.
- 5—Reading Roll of Honor by W. J. Allen.
- 6—Music by the Choir.
- 7—Oration by Rev. S. R. Lyons.
- 8—Music by the Choir.
- 9—Adjournment to the Public Cemetery.

ORDER OF PROCESSION TO THE CEMETERY.

- Marshal of the Day—MAJ. H. F. PERRY.
- 1—Martial and Bloomington Brass Bands.
 - 2—Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias.
 - 3—Ununiformed Knights of Pythias.
 - 4—Independent Order of Red Men.
 - 5—Independent Order of Odd Fellows.
 - 6—Children and Teachers of the Public Schools.
 - 7—Members of the G. A. R. and Soldiers generally.
 - 8—Wagons containing Wreaths and Flowers.
 - 9—Carriage containing Orator, Chaplain and Reader.
 - 10—Citizens and Carriages.

The Memorial Address delivered on Sunday morning last by Rev. Givler, is said to have been one of the best efforts of that eloquent and versatile orator. His word-pictures of the privations and sacrifices of the citizen soldiery drew tears to many eyes, and renewed long buried recollections in the hearts of the members of the Grand Army, who were present as an organization.

The Orator on Decoration Day, by Mr. Lyons of the U. P. church, was an eloquent production. Mr. L. is a gentleman of superior ability as a pulpit orator, and is equal to any occasion that presents itself. His enunciation is clear and distinct, his voice and manner pleasing, and his words smooth and well chosen.

A glance at those who comprise the members of the Grand Army show them to be men who have passed the half way point in the century of life, and are now on the down grade. As a rule they are gray-bearded grizzled veterans upon whose faces are traced the lines and furrows produced by the exposure and diseases incident to camp life and forced marches. There was nothing easy about the position of a soldier in the '60's, and why any one should grudge these men the little pittance of a pension some of them receive it is hard to understand. The Progress has always maintained that every man who went into the union army is deserving of a pension, and should receive one.

The Uniform Rank, K. of P. made a handsome display on Monday. They marched with the step of veterans and wheeled and changed positions with a mathematical precision that was gratifying to see.

Lost, a reddish-brown Morino umbrella—wide stripe around lower edge. Umbrella considerably worn. Handle worn, with a right-angle piece fastened on the end. Leave information at Progress office.

WORK WANTED.—Mrs. J. S. McKinley is desirous of obtaining patronage in the line of Plain Sewing of all kinds. Plain and Light Dress Making will receive attention. Also Mens' Pantaloons or Boys' Suits a specialty. Residence on North Railroad Street.

FOR SALE.—I have several good spring wagons and second hand double sets of harness, which will be sold very cheap. Inquire of J. C. BOWYER, Manager Wrought Iron Range Co.

PLANTS FOR SALE.—Jake Hartman (at the west end of 5th st.) has choice Tomato, Sweet Potato and Cabbage Plants (three varieties) of each for sale. He also has for sale fresh vegetables of all kinds in their season. Remember this when you get ready to eat out your plants.

No gentlemen were present—The banquet of the Kappa Alpha Thetas will be held at the residence of R. W. Miers to-night—R. W. Miers delivered the Decoration Day address at Gosport, on Monday—Owing to the heavy rain Monday morning there was but a light attendance of people from the country at the Bloomington Decoration Day observance.

—Fred. Howe came up from Louisville on Monday on a business trip.

—Miss Cad. Pearson will be the guest this week of Mrs. Parker Pearson.

—A large number of former students (Alumni) both male and female, are arriving on each train.

—Dr. Felix Thornton and family of Brazil, Ind., were visiting relations Saturday and Sunday.

—The grocers "put on" their wagons yesterday, after a two weeks experiment with the new method of delivery by contract.

—The Apollonaris and LahLah Clubs will not favor us with another concert this summer.

—Another Democratic treasurer has gone wrong in Carroll county. All the defaulters are Democrats. Wonder what the reason?

—Miss Aime Meredith of Washington, Ind., is the guest of the Bollensbachers, on South Walnut street.

—Jack Denton is ready to put the second story on W. E. Woodburn's residence, but he is unable to get the brick.

—The bill for the iron pipe for the artesian well has arrived, and it is hoped that the pipe will be received to-day or to-morrow.

—Prof. Clark and wife entertained the Shakespeares and Milton Clubs, at their residence on east 5th street, on Monday night of this week.

—Supt. Hazel moved back to his farm in Van Buren tp. this week. Hazel has made a popular officer, and has discharged his duties conscientiously and ably.

—W. W. Wicks says the carpenters and contractors are so busy that they cannot bid on the new houses that are to be erected in Fairview. There is no excuse for idleness now—work is plentiful.

—Bloomington was crowded with people last Saturday, and the dry goods stores had a splendid trade. McCalla & Co. bought 2,700 lbs. of wool, while other establishments were also in the market.

—A basket made of paper has recently been invented to be used by fruit growers and dealers. It is light, easily packed for reshipment, and costs only four cents each. It is to be hoped that they have no false bottoms, or that they will not grow "beautifully less" as years roll by.

—W. B. Baker and family, S.E. Carmichael and family, and Mrs. Lillie Boggs left Bloomington yesterday morning for Pratt, Kansas, where they intend to locate. Mr. Carmichael and Mr. Baker each intend to go into the real estate business. Bloomington loses two of her best and most enterprising citizens by the removal of these gentlemen, and the people of Pratt will find them a desirable acquisition.

—On Tuesday Wesley Durand left Bloomington for Jeffersonville, where he will join Willis' Oriental Pavilion Show, with which organization he has accepted an engagement. Durand has few equals as a gymnast and contortionist, and no superiors. He will undoubtedly, in time, if he should meet with no such mishaps as broken limbs, be a bright star in the saw-dust firmament, and, we trust, will earn both fame and fortune.

—Capt. Shoemaker is still suffering with rheumatism.

—Mr. Wiggins has arranged for two earthquakes to appear on Aug. 17 and September 16, respectively. There will be no postponement on account of bad weather, and both earthquakes can be witnessed without additional charge.

—The ladies of the Baptist church made $30 by their ice cream and strawberry supper, Tuesday night a week.

—John Waldron went to Indianapolis on Monday to purchase an engine for the electric light company.

—Beech Grove tp., Greene co., voted for the railroad appropriation by a majority of 84. The election occurred last Wednesday. Greene county has done her duty; what will Monroe do?

—Ed. Corr has been appointed Deputy State Prosecutor, in place of R. A. Fulk who resigned. The new Prosecutor, Simp. Lowe, will go into office in November, so that the new deputy will have but one term of court.

—The regular annual alumni supper will be held on Tuesday night next in the new college buildings and the addresses will be delivered in the Christian church. An effort will be made to improve on former entertainments in this line, and a satisfactory time may be expected by those who attend.

—The regular annual tour through Scotland, England, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, France and Belgium, by the Indiana University party, will be had this year. The party will leave New York on June 11th expecting to land in this country again September 7th.

—The wool trade is the leading feature of business at present, and the sharp advance in the past ten days has given a marked impetus to the traffic. Some very good lots are being marketed. One of the most notable of these was the wool brought to McCalla & Co. by Geo. W. Thornton; there were fourteen fleeces which averaged ten pounds each, and three pounds over, or 143 lbs. in all. The fleeces were from suckling ewes (Half Merino) and Mr. Thornton was paid 26c. per lb.

—Poor men who pay but little taxes, and who find it difficult to secure work at any figure, would do well to remember that the building of another railroad through Monroe county would give them all the employment they might desire, and at good prices—certainly better prices than are being paid at present. Your taxes would amount to almost nothing, while the benefit in the way of increased opportunities to secure work at greatly increased wages would be a sure and a big thing.

—Bedford Mail: Dr. Ben. Newland reports that all the parties, injured in the late wreck at Horse Shoe, are getting along finely, including Mrs. Corther whose injuries were of such a character that her recovery was deemed an impossibility. The Dr. visited engineer Green, this week, and says he will most likely die. Mr. G. was badly scalded in the wreck of the passenger train some three weeks ago near Greencastle, and resides in New Albany.

—The Pythian Knight, a journal devoted to the interests of the K. of P. contains a list of eight Divisions, Uniform Rank, recently instituted, and comments are made upon but one. The item as it appears in the "Pythian Knight" is as follows:

Bloomington Division, No. 33, of Bloomington, Ind., was instituted on the 18th day of April, with thirty charter members by Gen. J. B. Carnahan. The officers are as follows:

Sir Knight Captain—Wm. M. Alexander; " " Lieutenant—John W. Crain; " " Herald—Will E. Adams; " " Recorder—Will H. Seward; " " Treasurer—Moore Kahn; " " Guard—John W. Craven; " " Sentinel—John J. Batey.

Gen. Carnahan says: "This is a magnificent body of men; the best business and professional men in the town."

ANOTHER LOT

OF THOSE CHOICE

SATEENS

AT THE BEE HIVE.

WE HAVE THE BEST LINE OF BOTH BOOTS AND SHOES EVER SEEN IN TOWN.

McCalla & Co.

—The manager of the Domestic sewing machine exhibit who was in Bloomington recently says that in no other town of Indiana had he found among the ladies as keen appreciation of art needlework as here. At Greencastle and at other points, he said the ladies would pass through and look wonderingly at the specimens, but they did not as a rule seem to have any knowledge of the work, or exhibit any desire to learn it.

—C. M. Houston and Jas. Henry of Gosport paid Bloomington a brief visit Monday. Houston seems to be renewing his youth, and is largely interested in sheep and wool this year. He contracted early this spring for some 8,000 lbs. of wool at 20 to 22c, and so is comfortably fixed in that particular.

—An informal reception will be given Thursday night at the home of Miss Clara Orchard, by Miss O. and Miss Brodix, to a large number of their young friends.

—Jos. N. Alexander recently visited Wichita and says that the stories of the growth and population of that city are not exaggerations. Building is phenomenal—hundreds of houses going up in all parts of the city—and that the population is nearer 40,000 than 25,000, according to his observations. He says you seldom turn a corner without running against a Monroe county man.

—Bent Jones, a life-time convict confined in the Southern prison has been granted a patent on a folding table. The invention is said to be very valuable, and is gotten up on an entire new principle from others heretofore made. The patent on the iron castings alone is supposed to be worth at least $100,000, if the inventor was out of confinement to properly dispose of them.

—Contracts have been let for the culverts and improvements on the track at the Fair grounds.

—Ind. News: Rev. A. L. Hobbs of the Central Christian church of Louisville, (father-in-law of Elder Peak) has accepted the professorship of the new Garfield College at Wichita, Kansas. Dr. Evans, formerly president of Butler University, is President of Garfield.

—On Thursday a train of fifteen cars went south loaded entirely with Deering reapers and mowers. This unusual sight attracted considerable attention. The Deering is not sold here.

—A leading commercial house sent out inquiries to all the counties of Indiana in relation to the condition of the growing wheat crop in the State. One hundred and ninety-eight answers were received, covering every county. Of these one hundred and forty report the crop first-class; eighty-eight fair; sixteen poor, and six very poor.

—Buffalo Bill and James Russell Lowell, both now in England, are the two extremes of American civilization. And the cockney likes Bill the best.

McCALLA & CO.

THRESHED OATS, AT ALLEN'S.

—No shoe store can exhibit a finer line of Ladies' Shoes than is carried by McCalla & Co., at their establishment on the west side. Not only in Ladies' Shoes, but in Mens' and Boys' boots and shoes, and at figures that will surprise you.

CULTIVATORS of all kinds, AT ALLEN'S.

To be "happy, healthy and wise," go to Benckart's and get a loaf of the splendid Twist Bread baked by him. It is light, sweet, wholesome—good enough for a king.

ITCH and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes, by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Sold by B. Lindley, Druggist, Jns-87 Bloomington, Ind.

—Use Allen's Condition Powders for Horses, Cattle, Hogs, and Poultry. For Hog and Chicken cholera, this has no equal. Sold by Lindley Bros.

—Some of the "brag" flour is said to make soggy, sticky bread—swells in your mouth, and leaves a taste like old army shoes. The "Model Mills Patent" rises like a vision, but is far more substantial. Try a sack, and be happy.

—Don't forget that McCalla & Co. are sole agents for Dr. Warner's celebrated Corsets. They fit perfectly, they are comfortable and they are durable.

—For choice, fresh groceries, and for the best country produce that is brought to town, go to Hemp. Wilson's "Progress Block" grocery. Goods promptly delivered, and quality guaranteed.

—Big stock of Queensware and Glassware, at Hemp. Wilson's grocery. Any article you may call for in the grocery line, kept in stock.

We wish to inform you that we are still engaged in the Hardware, Stove and Agricultural business, in Bloomington, and will sell as low as any one. A first-class Cook Stove for $20 to $25. Cast, Wrought Iron, or Steel Ranges, at from $40 to $45, trimmed out complete, with a wagon load of furniture. Patronize your home dealers who help you pay your taxes.

W. J. ALL N.

HEADQUARTERS for choice butter and all varieties of most desirable produce in the grocery store of Hemp. Wilson, "Progress Block."

FOR SALE.—10 beautiful building lots, and a small house with about 1 acre of ground. Will sell the above for one-third cash, the balance in one or two years, without interest.
