Commencement

A T
INDIANA UNIVERS-ITY.

GOOD RESULTS FROM EAR-NEST WORK.

THE SENIOR RECEPTION.

Properly the beginning of Commencement was given Tuesday evening, May 31, by the President, at the residence of Prof. and Mrs.
Atwater. The Faculty with their wives, and the senior class, were present. After an announcement from Dr. Jordan that things were not as he supposed, but "some other way," Mr. Stewart, the class president, stated that some literary exercises originally intended for class-day would be given. Mr.
Hooper then gave a class history.
Miss Ida Manley sang two solos and Messrs. Warthin, Golden and Owen rendered very acceptably three trios. Mr. D. K. Goss stated that after some communication with the Trustees relative to a new chair in the University, he had ascertained the chair could be filled by a Professor of Base Ball. He then recommended Mr. Rabb for the new position with Mr. Stewart as Associate. In token of the interest of these two gentlemen in Athletic sports, each was presented with a handsome silk badge as the gift of the class. Refreshments were served at about 10 o'clock.
The evening passed very pleasantly and the thanks of the class are due Dr. Jordan and Prof. and Mrs. Atwater for their kindness towards the class.

THE SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY

held its annual meeting Thursday evening, June 2d. Dr. Thos.
C. Mcendenhall, President of Rose Polytechnic Institute was the speaker of the evening. The Doctor took the "Weather Prediction" as his topic.
He not only gave some idea of what is meant by the weather, but he also explained how it is possible to make predictions. The signal service has reached such efficiency that it is possible to foretell the weather in a given locality about eight times out of ten, and an extra good predictor can foretell it nine times out of ten, a remarkable degree of accuracy considering the moon has nothing to do with it. The influence of the weather upon men and animals was also suggested by such sayings as—"Do business with men when the wind is in the northwest"—true for England, if not for U.S.—"Everything is lovely and the goose hanks (hocks) high." "When cats meow there will be fair weather."

Taking the lecture altogether, it was the most valuable and practicable which has yet characterized the proceedings of the Scientific Association.

THE HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT took place Friday afternoon, June 3.
Following is the program:

Soloists, Anna H. Kelly, Bloomington.
"Now and Then," Belle Hopewell, Bloomington.
"No Life without its Shadow," See Kilpatrick, Bloomington.
"The Girl of the Future," Anna H. Kelly, Bloomington.
True and False Sentiments, Kate Hopewell, Bloomington.
Valadictio, "A plea for Napoleon," Carlotta G. Spencer, Bloomington.

All concerned acquitted themselves very creditably and they showed that their work of the last three years had not been in vain.
Success to the High School in the future.

A SENIOR PREPARATORY RECEPTION was given Friday evening, June 3, by Prof. and Mrs. J. K. Beck at their home. This is a new feature of commencement. The class had a very enjoyable time socially. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Carrier. The young people went home feeling that there are bright places in the lives of preparatory students and that their host and hostess knew how to make them have a good time. Now that Prep. is a settled feature of the institution, may the social growth of its students be encouraged.

THE KAPPA ALPHA THEA RE- CEPTION

at the home of Hon. Robt. W. Miers was a most pleasurable occasion, and could not be otherwise. The characteristic hospitality of the host and his wife sustained the fullest anticipations of pleasure and enjoyment. The fair ladies were at their best and brightest. Even those who were on committees of decorations forgot their weariness in the tide of pleasure which marked the evening. Dress, music, refreshments, were each peculiarly suitable to the occasion. The affair was a magnificent success from every standpoint and it is the hope of all who were present that it may not be the last of its nature.

THE REUNION OF THE CLASS OF 1882

was held at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. J. K. Beck Saturday evening, June 4. Much of the success of the reunion was due the resident members Misses Beatrice Sanders and Ella Turner and Mr. Will.

Adams. There were nine members of the class present. Geo. W. Crommer, Muncie; John L. Stephenson, Campbellburg; S. E. Smith, Gosport; Wm. J. Davis, Paragon; Carrie Short, Vincennes; Frank L. Mulky, Jeffersonville; Will H.
Adams, Beatrice Sanders, Ella Turner, Bloomington. The class started in college with 69 members and graduated 19. Two are dead—Luther Frame who died at Bloomfield about a year ago, and Fred R.
Albertson whose death took place about four weeks since. Four are married—J. L. Stephenson, H. A.
Beert, A. C. Huff and Frank L.
Mulky.

The evening passed pleasantly in recounting college incidents and in enjoying the refreshments served at the proper hour. Imbibing the spirit of reunion manifested by the class of 1876, they not only resolved upon the usual class picture but also determined upon another reunion. May the spirit of class reunions never grow less.

THE SABBATH EXERCISES were a marked and interesting part of Commencement. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered at the usual lecture hour, 3:30 p. m., by Rev. M. L. Haines of Indianapolis.
The chapel was filled almost to its utmost. The Board of Trustees, Faculty and Senior Class were present in a body. A large number of strangers were present. The music was excellent and well rendered.
"The Purpose and Possibilities of Manhood" was the theme of the hour. Mr. Haines presented his subject in a masterly and practical way. If his teachings are followed, they will prove of great value and profit not only to the class but to all who heard them. Mr. Haines suggested that want of purpose and definiteness of aim in life is a fertile source of failure among all classes of people. He also strongly enforced a practical application of the teachings of christianity and high moral character in the affairs of every day life. All who heard praised the address.

A year ago at the instance of Rev. Mr. Givier a sermon was preached before the Faculty and Students on the Sunday evening of baccalaureate day. It has been decided to make this a fixed feature of the Commencement. This year the sermon was delivered by Rev. S. R. Lyons of the United Presbyterian church in the College Avenue M. E. church. His subject was "The Life." The audience was very large and Mr. Lyons was at his best. His sermon was full of good to all who heard it, and the effort not only sustained but added to the reputation of the speaker.

PREPARATORY COMMENCEMENT.

The Commencement Exercises of the Preparatory School occurred on Monday forenoon. Twenty-four young men and women received from their Principal, Prof. Beck, their well earned certificates of admission to the Freshman Class.
The reputation which the Preparatory School has made for itself in its public performances was fully maintained by these Commencement essays. The usual large audience was in attendance, and they were all pleased with the smoothness, interest, and uniform success with which the boys and girls performed their various parts. The work of the pupils suggests, too, the patient care and thought and skill and enterprise of the able and faithful head of the Department, Prof. J.
K. Beck, with the efficient co-operation of his capable assistant, Prof.
W. A. Rawles. These teachers have earned the gratitude of pupils and parents. The program of the day was as follows:

Uses of Electricity, John V. Manley, Bloomington.
Bugs-bodies, Anna M. Rogers, Bloomington.
Gunslinger as a Civilizer, William Louden, Bloomington.
Kansas, Ira C. Starr, Stanford.
Human Endurance, Laura A. Clipp, Clear Creek.
"I Will," Aaron E. Smooley, Springfield.
Ministry, Grace Wick, Bloomington.
The Reporter, Henry J. Zollman, Modora.
Farthest North, Stephen H. Voyles, Grandall.
Samaritans, James G. Stall, Hornbeak, Tenn.
Footprints in the Snow, Raddie J. Smith, Bloomington.
Railroads, Samuel W. Short, Vincennes.
"The Apple in the Bottle," Ida M. Harbison, Bloomington.
Berlin, Edward M. Schulte, Evansville.
Spain, Perry T. Grimes, Smithville.
Success, Rodney Smith, Dudley.
Public Charities, Charles Ahl, Tobinsport.
Drama and Realities, Nora Baker, Stanford.
Intolerance, Levi G. Batman, Bedford.
"The Man in the Moon," Mattie Orchard, Bloomington.
The Anarchist, Melville A. Farris, Bloomington.
"Hiss Fitt," Lois Porch, Bloomington.
The Ballot, Joseph P. Ward, Smithtown.
The Cavalier and the Partisan, John A. Bicknell, Bloomington.

Every performance was a decided success. It is not easy to make distinctions, but it will be fair, perhaps, to compliment the three young men who by their two years of hard work have earned and have been awarded the honor scholarships which entitle them to free tuition in the University. They are Messrs. Joseph Ward, Charles Ahl and John Bicknell. We were also, especially pleased with Ira Carter's eulogy on "Kansas," and Mr. Short's eulogy on "The Reporter," and Mr.
Zollman's account of "The Reporter," and Mr. Smooley's plea for the greater exercise of "Will" in all noble endeavor; and Mr. Short's Lewis Bollman, who has strong convictions on all leading topics, has published a pamphlet in which he reviews the proceedings of the recent legislature in the matter of the Lt. Governorship, and is favorable toward Green Smith, the in-invested every dollar they had in loads (150 tons) of tan bark for the Waldron Tannery. The "goods" have been rolling in steadily for several days and is as fine a lot as has ever been seen here—The Brazil orchestra was very favorably mentioned by all who heard it.

The music was first-class throughout, and the cornet solos were uncommonly fine and were executed in the highest style of the art—During commencement week the number of handsome and attractive young ladies in Bloomington was a matter of general remark. In fact most of the older married men in view of the possibilities afforded.
But as circuit court had adjourned there was no way of securing a divorce—A number of persons —Mrs. Sallie F. Chapin, the well-known leader of the W.C.T.U.

Union in the south, writes to Miss Wallace as follows:
I sat behind two "rummies" who were discussing Prohibition on the train, yesterday, and the one informed the other that the most they had to fear was the weakening of the right wing of their army, the high license Christian men, for he said the Christians hold the balance of power, and if they withdraw their support the traffic is gone. Is it not a dreadful thought that this traffic in souls is unwittingly kept up by professing christians?
[State Sentinel, Decatur, Ill., June 4, '87]

A NEW FOURTH OF JULY.

Why do not the W.C.T.U. ladies of the city and community turn the National Holiday to account by using it in behalf of the cause they represent? It is a short time for a new Declaration of Independence, and who can better inaugurate it than the noble army of 5,500 American women who have dedicated themselves to temperance, purity and morality? The National Holiday should have a new and more patriotic significance put into it, for the benefit of the rising generation and for the stability of the Nation. The American boy of to-day thinks of the Fourth of July as a day given to drums, firecrackers, plug uglies and general customary without a single idea of its grand meaning to his country. Let the good mothers of the Nation take this in hand, and secure the day anew to patriotism and America.
PATRIOT.

EMBROIDERIES:

AND TRIMMINGS,
AT McCALLA & CO.'S.

Three years ago I contracted a blood poison. I applied to a physician at once and his treatment came near killing me.
I employed an old physician and then went to Ky. I then went to Hot Springs and remained two months, but nothing seemed to cure me permanently, although temporary relief was given me. My condition grew desperate and I applied to a noted quack, but I did not improve. I then used a preparation which was prescribed "gratis," but it contained too much alcohol and aggravated my sufferings. I then placed myself under the treatment of a noted Nashville physician and for a time was benefited, but by fall I returned home a ruined man physically and financially, with but little prospect of ever getting well. My money being exhausted I did not know what to do. In May 1885, my mother persuaded me to get a bottle of B. B. B. (made in Atlanta) and I did so to gratify her, but to my utter astonishment I had not finished the first bottle before every ulcer had been healed.

To the present time I have used five bottles and have received more benefit than I did from all the other doctors and hot springs. I am satisfied that B. B. B. is the most wonderful blood purifier ever before known, and I urge all afflicted young men to try one single bottle and be convinced. I can truly say I think it is the best medicine in the world.

Z. T. HALLERTON.
Macon, Ga., May 1, 1886.

VERY NERVOUS.

For many years I have been afflicted with rheumatism combined with some Kidney Troubles. Indigestion finally added to my misery and I soon became debile and very nervous, what to do I was at a loss. I then used a medicine system was prostrated. Several physicians were employed and numerous patent medicines resorted to without benefit.
After seeing so many testimonials extolling the wonderful merit of B. B. B. I commenced its use and the effect was like magic. Rheumatic pains ceased, my kidneys were relieved and my constitution improved at once and I cheerfully recommend it to others who may be similarly afflicted.

MISS S. TOLSONSON.
Atlanta, Ga., May 4, 1886.

TO THE PUBLIC.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 21, 1886.
After using B. B. B. I unhesitatingly state that it is more good for my Kidney complaint than all other remedies combined. Its action is speedy and I cheerfully recommend it for Kidney Disrangements.

T. B. CALLAHAN.
