

Republican Progress

Printed each Wednesday Morning, by WILLIAM A. GALE, Editor and Publisher. IN ADVANCE, $1.50 a Year FOR PRESIDENT, Gen. Ben. Harrison of Indiana. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, Chansey H. DePew of N. York. FOR GOVERNOR, ALBERT G. PORTER.

CANDIDATES' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Ed. Thomas: You will please announce that Thomas Parr, of Washington township, will be a candidate for Sheriff of Monroe county, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

Albert G. Porter Can Do It. The Democratic State Convention nominated C. C. Matson for Governor, or more properly, he was nominated through his sick methods of manipulating conventions.

The pension appropriation bill has passed the House. An amendment was adopted providing that in all cases of pensions to widows the payments shall be made from the date of the death of their husbands.

The fisheries treaty is as good as dead. The Senate Committee on foreign relations reported adversely upon it. The Canadian parliament has already rejected it.

The president is having a renewal of his former attacks of rheumatism and is vetoing more pension bills. Every time he sees an empty blue sleeve or pantaloons leg he has a spasm.

In a speech on the Dakota admission bill, Senator Sherman, in reply to Mr. Vest's allusion to the unfair methods in the election of President Hayes, claimed that every suspicion ever cast upon the integrity of that proceeding had been repelled, and that it stood in history as a matter in which the Republican position could not be impeached.

In a recent interview in the New York Herald a Chicago politician gave it as his opinion that "if Conkling dies and Blaine is well enough to run, Sherman, Alger, Allison, Gresham, Harrison, Hawley and all the other Republicans spoken of as presidential possibilities will be swept aside like chaff, and Blaine will be nominated with an enthusiasm that will carry everything before it."

With General Black, as pension agent, claiming that Democracy is doing so much for the union veterans on the one hand, and Cleveland knocking this declaration all to pieces by veto acts and rebel flag orders on the other hand, the party is in a quandary as to the best manner of hoodwinking the old soldiers. However, it is safe to say that Black will never figure as a candidate for the vice presidency as long as Cleveland bosses the job.

There is music in the air! More Democratic harmony with a big "H." Ex-Senator McDonald is out in an open letter to the Democratic party, in opposition to Isaac P. Gray for the vice-presidency. He puts Isaac on the spot and whirls him around a few times for the assembled brethren at Indianapolis to look at. Here is an excerpt from the ex-senator's card:

I have spoken to many Democrats and find none who do not agree with me, but none who are so ready to see me, as you are. I have no objection to your speaking out, but I do not wish to see you do so in a way that will have an injurious effect upon the harmony of the party. I do not wish to see you do so in a way that will have an injurious effect upon the harmony of the party.

There is a "new hand at the bellows" of the Osawatimie (Kas.) Graphic, and he lunges out for news in the following vigorous statement: "Don't forget the poor editor when you have a news item. If your wife licks you let us know of it and we'll set it right before the public. If you have company tell us, if you are not ashamed of the visitors. If a youngster arrives in your home begging for raiment, buy a quarter's worth of cigars and come around, and if you are a cash subscriber we will furnish a suitable name for him or her, as the circumstances will permit; and if you have a social gathering of a few of your friends, bring around a big cake, seven or eight pies and half a ham, not necessarily to eat, but as a guarantee of good faith. You need not bother about inviting us, for it's a little too cool for our wardrobe. We mention these little things for we want the news, and will have it if there is a God in Heaven."

A Central Kansas Packing House. Special to Globe-Democrat. HUTCHINSON, KAN., April 2.—Tobey & Booth, the Chicago packers, completed their packing house at this place to-day and will open on Monday. This is the only packing house located in Kansas west of the Missouri river, and situated in the very heart of the hog and corn producing section that is now tributary to Kansas City, will undoubtedly affect the supply at that point.

Within a radius of seventy-five miles of this city there were 650,000 hogs last year. With a stimulus of a near market this product will be easily doubled this season. There are two other packing houses that are arranging to locate in South Hutchinson next month, making this the packing center of the southwest.

PREP. DEPARTMENT. Nesbitt is a Phi Gam. Bally will teach next year. Craven is a member of the Union Athenian Literary Society.

What the "Graphic-News" of New York, Has to Say of the Booming City. Somewhat over a year ago Mr. Benjamin Blanchard planted this thriving suburb of Hutchinson, which is now growing with it by a substantial bridge which spans the Arkansas River.

South Hutchinson, Kansas. The Democratic State Convention nominated C. C. Matson for Governor, or more properly, he was nominated through his sick methods of manipulating conventions.

On next Saturday a Prep. club will play the "Mitchell Red," the club that was so unmercifully "done up" by the I. U. nine last week.

Dunn & Co.'s old stand is now occupied by Chas. and Robert Miller, who have bought that popular grocery, and they will always be found with a complete stock of every article comprised in a first-class store of that character.

Go and hear Ed. and Laurie at Louisville next week. Your railroad fare will cost but $3.15. Tickets good 10th and 11th.

Don't forget that Mr. Brown, the agent for the Martinis Artesian water, will deliver the sparkling liquid at your doors, for a very reasonable compensation. It is good water—the kind Bloomington ought to have in her artesian well.

W. A. Howe has sold his residence on Elm street to Thos. C. Phillips, who brings his children here to attend DePauw University. The price paid was $2,500. Mr. Phillips is a stone contractor and has a large quarry at Ellettsville.

Miss Cora Woolley is a Notary Public. The painters have established a bill of prices. Charley Axtell was in town Sunday.

Bona Rogers is in Indianapolis. The W. C. T. U. of Morgan, Owen and Monroe will convene in Gosport on the 27th.

The city schools will dismiss June 1st. Gregg Harshbarger has been in town several weeks. He now resides in Louisville.

Miss Lola Fulk was in Indianapolis last week. Miss Libbie Small has returned to her home in Bloomington. Mrs. T. E. Laws is in Charleston, Ills., her sister-in-law having died there. Her brother is also dangerously sick.

Ladies, Commencement is not far away. You need nice dresses, handsome parasols and sun umbrellas, kid gloves, laces and hosiery for this event. There is a place in Bloomington where the best grades in these goods are kept.

Spencer Journal: Jacob Woods, a citizen of Monroe county, near Ellettsville, aged 83 years, died Monday and was brought here on Tuesday for burial. His wife, who died some time ago, was also interred here in Riverside cemetery.

Papers for placing under carpets, for sale at the Progress office for 5 cents a dozen.

UNIVERSITY NEWS ITEMS. Miss Allen Baleson entertained her mother last week. Sherman Davis who has been in the west for the last year, is visiting his father.

A number of the boys voted at the Republican nominating convention last week. Mr. A. S. Warthin spent last week as the guest of Chas. Greenstreet of Indianapolis.

Shea was in Indianapolis several days last week, seeing that the Democratic State Convention was conducted properly. John R. Brill worked hard for Matson in Indianapolis last week, and Matson's nomination is largely due to his efforts.

The Phi Gamma Delta boys have a new brother in the person of Mr. Nesbitt. Charles Philpott, of '89, has gone New York, having secured a position as instructor in Greek.

Jenkins went home last week on account of sickness, but recovered sufficiently to be able to hear Booth and Barrett in Indianapolis. Haskins spent several days last week in Indianapolis.

Professor Woodford and Prof. Clark and wife were present at the Booth and Barrett performance. Wm. Spangler and wife were in Indianapolis Friday and Saturday last.

Mr. Chas. Hope was in the city the first part of the week. French has returned from Indianapolis where he worked hard in the Democratic convention.

Miss Emma Bain spent a few days at home last week. The Freshmen are wearing mourning for Mr. Frank Brown who was one of their members.

The question now is: are the Seniors going to have a vacation? Indianapolis News: It is proposed to organize an Indiana University Alumni Association in this city in the near future.

Frank E. Brown of Anderson, Ind., a student in the freshman class of I. U., died at his boarding house on 4th street last Sunday night, after an illness of eight days with pneumonia, in his 23d year. The remains were conveyed to his home in Anderson on Sunday night.

Mr. Hunter was the prosecuting witness. [Chicago Sunday Herald, April 29.] By a provoking error in the Criminal Court report, The Herald was misled into stating yesterday that Craig Hunter, a foreman of the Santa Fe Road—had been indicted for stealing $7,700 by means of false pay rolls.

On Friday night two young men broke into the store of Ed. Jackson, near Gray's Mill, and stole cigars, tobacco, etc. They were captured and on Monday taken before Judge Pearson, pleaded guilty, and were each given a three years sentence. Quick work. They gave the names of John Lents and Al. Specht.

Col. and Mrs. Friedley give a large reception at their home in Lafayette, next Friday evening, to which a number of the young people of this place are invited.

Mrs. R. W. Miers and Mrs. Ewing Batterson went to Indianapolis last week to see Booth and Barrett in "Ouello."

Judge Ed. Buskirk, of Washington City, was visiting his brother and other relations in Bloomington last week.

There will be a convention at Indianapolis to-day to nominate four electors for the State at large. The Republican Clubs will also have a re-union.

Abdallah Bird, the thoroughbred Hambletonian, will stand this season at my place, Clear Creek farm, near Gray's Mill, at $25 to insure a mare with foal; payment to be made at time of service.

PEDIGREE AND DESCRIPTION: Abdallah Bird is a dark bay, black mane and tail, 16 hands high, and weighs 1,500 pounds.

Abdallah Bird was sired by Conpon; Conpon by Rhydika Hambletonian No. 10; he by Old Abdallah; Abdallah by Imported Messenger. Abdallah Bird's first dam by Simpson's Black Bird; second dam by Hale's Green Mountain Morgan.

Abdallah Bird was bred and sired by Col. G. M. Byam of Rochester, N. Y., and was sold by him to Mr. Pratt of Wisconsin, when he was one year and a half old for $2,500. Mr. Pratt traded Abdallah Bird to Mr. McDowell for his property in the State of Missouri.

Abdallah Bird was taken to Illinois where he was purchased by W. R. Woodward, now Supt. L. N. & C. Ry. and used on his farm with the exception of three years that he went to Joseph Orr's farm near Keokuk, Iowa, where he was trotted. It is asserted that Mr. Pratt bred Bird to 23 mares and 21 of the produce were handled for trotters.

Bird trotted a trial heat, double, when three years old, in 1875, and has shown at the State Fair, Keokuk, Iowa, when he won the premium in the light harness ring with over 13 of the best stallions in the country.

Hares sent from a distance will be properly cared for at owners risk of course, until there is reason to believe they are with foal.

I respectfully call the attention of horsemen and breeders to the good qualities and blood of this horse—his breeding, his kind and easy handling. The patronage of all lovers of fine horses is solicited. Call and see the horse for yourself.

I will not be responsible for accidents, but proper care will be taken to avoid them.

W. H. JONES, Secretary.

Public Speaking. Mr. E. E. Starbuck, of the State University, will speak at the court house on next Saturday night, May 5th, under the auspices of the Bloomington Prohibition Club.

1898 INDIAN SPRINGS, 1898 Famous Health and Pleasure Resort. Having decided to start a Spring Term for Medical Treatment of Invalids and giving those needing the benefits of the water the advantage of low prices by attending before the season is crowded with Pleasure Seekers and the spring being the time the system needs building up before the hot term comes on we have decided to make the price as follows:

Six and Seven Dollars per week according to the location of the rooms. In addition to this we donate free the Bath house for bathing and Ball alley for exercise. We donate these two institutions free for the resort that exercising in the ball alley and taking the warm sulphur baths are of the greatest importance to invalids, and knowing they are too often neglected on account of the expense it incurs.

Don't Get Caught. This spring with your blood full of impurities, your appetite poor, your digestion impaired, kidneys and liver torpid and your whole system liable to be prostrated, don't get your system in good condition and ready for the warm weather by spending a few days at our place, drinking and bathing in the waters that have no equal for purifying the blood, and restoring the liver and kidneys to their normal condition. It will effect a permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, sick headache, indigestion, disease of the Urinary Organs, Female troubles, Chronic Diseases of the Skin, Mercurial disease are all relieved by using these waters as they are a tonic and alterative in their general effects.

Notice of Administration. NOTICE is hereby given, that the undersigned has been appointed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Monroe County, State of Indiana, Administrator of the estate of Nicholas S. Mayfield, late of Monroe County, Indiana, deceased.
