BE CAREFUL FARMERS.—There are snide or bogus fertilizers, as well as other products, and you should not pay out your good money for a "no good" article. Now Miller Bros. are agents for the only reliable brand of fertilizer that has ever been sold in Monroe county, and knowing this to be so, don't be humbly in buying something "cheap," which amounts to nothing.

New goods for the Fall trade now arrive almost daily at Charley Mobby's dry goods store, on the south side. His selections this season are uncommonly fine and the stock large. Charley means to improve his stock with each succeeding season, and his business is increasing rapidly also because he is the only dry goods store on the south side of the square. If you are in need of any of the specialties carried by Mobby you should not delay your purchases, but call at once.

The Metropolitan Theater Co. is at the Opera House, and is giving some splendid plays in a very acceptable manner. The company comes well recommended, and will without doubt be well patronized.
Better go and see them during their engagement.

The "Superior" Broad Cast Seed and Cultivator, the most perfect machine made, is sold by Miller Bros. The gear is complete and accurate; the feed cups positive force feed. It excels all other ones. To sow wheat, grass and fertilizer, you want one of these machines.

The "Superior" is the most complete Drill in the market. It is well balanced, no weight on the horses' necks, and is easily turned at the ends. There is no clogging or piling of fertilizer with the "Superior." It is sold only by Miller Bros.

GET OYSTERS at George Benckart's bakery and restaurant. He keeps only the choicest.

ALL SEASONS seems to be favorable to the trade and enterprise of the Smith Bazar, on the south side of the square. It is true the stock is changed, increased and diminished to suit the conditions of trade, still there is a steady demand for the novelties kept in that marvelously supplied establishment. Joe Smith is the controller in spirit of the business at present, and as he has been raised in the store he knows all about the business from A to Z.
The best work is warranted in watch repairing, as Joe still retains the services of old Tobe, the expert mechanic. For reliable makes in watches, silverware, fine clocks, and genuine gold jewelry, the Smith Bazar is the place you are looking for.

FARMERS and others who desire a good satisfactory lunch, go to Benckart's bakery. Benckart makes splendid coffee, his bread is light and wholesome, and he keeps everything else you are likely to call for in the way of eatables. Benckart's bread is always the best.

as it always does after the season opens. Also examine the first-class

Rev. Aaron Turner, well known here in former years, is now making a canvass in Indiana for the Republican ticket.

H. J. Felts, our efficient postmaster, has been granted an increase of pension. Better to be lucky than rich, H. J.

Cron & Roseberry have sold their meat business to Wilbur Cron and Jsa. Campbell. Mr.
Roseberry will go to New Mexico for his health, and Joe Cron will trade in stock.

Among the persons from Bloomington who attended the Spencer Fair last week were: Bedford Sudbury, John Worrall, John Cole, Joe Allen, N. B. Rogers, John Worrall and family, Isaac Claman and wife, Doll Pauley, Dell Smith, Dr. McGee and Ben. C. Smith.

The Republicans had a lively meeting at Clear Creek, one night last week, the Bloomington Glee Club being in attendance. A pole 120 feet high was planted in the ground, and a live coon was placed in the forks of the brush at the extreme top. His coonship held on tightly, and was there at last advice. He will not come down till Nov. 6th, when the Republican ticket will be triumphantly elected.

A goat that is owned near the railroad, on 6th st., has been making life a burden to some of the people of that thoroughfare during the past week. On Friday afternoon it attacked a young girl, and Mr. Jas. Hooper came to her rescue, when the brute began assaulting him, and he had his hands full in endeavoring to hold it till he secured assistance about a square further east. It would be an easy task for this beast to kill a child with one blow delivered by its bony head. Whose duty is it to see to this matter?

I. N. Corr, now of Pueblo, Colorado, is visiting relations in Bloomington and vicinity in company with his wife, who was formerly Miss Robinson. He has a paying position as an assayer for one of the Pueblo smelters. Mr.
Corr left Bloomington six years ago.

In view of the increased business on the "Moon" and the great risk to life and limb incurred by persons who are compelled to cross 6th street with teams, would it not be wise for the railroad company to locate a switchman at that point where duty it shall be to flag trains and teams? An accident is liable to occur there, or on 5th street, that may cost the company fifty times as much as the wages of the flagman.

Better call on some member of the Bloomington real estate association, and learn something about the property that organization has for sale. There is a great and growing demand for dwelling houses at present, and it is impossible to rent the kind of a house you desire, but for a little more than ordinary rent you can buy a desirable house of this association.
Their property is new and just the kind you will prefer. Call on them, see property, get terms, etc.

The infant of Rev. Telfer and with brain fever.

—Jos. Dismore and Wm. H.
Neeld are attending the State Fair.
They have taken a horticultural exhibit for Monroe county.

—W. H. Neeld found his horse at Hindostan. It is conjectured that some one rode the animal to that point and abandoned him.

Tobe East has purchased two lots from W. B. Baker on west 6th st. paying $775 cash, and will at once proceed to erect a neat 5-room cottage.

The new hardware firm on the south side of the square is known as Baker, Neeld & Co. The members of the firm are W. B. Baker, Simp. Neeld and Eli Sparks.

At Rice's school house last Wednesday night, the Republicans had a splendid meeting and speeches were made by Nat. U. Hill, Jas. F.
Morgan and W. T. Blair. Dr.
Gaetan was also present to greet his old friends.

Ed. Gould, the fellow whose vulgarity and profanity held his Democratic hearers spellbound, in the court house, several weeks ago, is still making a disgusting show of himself. Gould has established an unenviable reputation as a distorter of the truth.

Polk township, as returned by male dog is assessed $2 cut any figure in these statistics?

The ladies of the Catholic church will give an ice cream festival in the Court House Park, tonight (Tuesday). Miss Emma Hazel of Harrodsburg, died with typhoid fever, Tuesday of last week, aged 29 years.—The funeral of Miss Mary Hunter, which occurred here on Tuesday of last week was conducted by Dr. T. A. Wylie. She died at Connersville, where the family now reside, and was sick but ten days.—People are trading off their Kansas land for land and houses in Indiana, and are coming to Bloomington to reside.
—John D. Morgan has purchased a lot in South Park, and will build a neat cottage.—The band boys took money in their new uniforms.—Ervin Grimes will move to town to spend the winter.
—Ed. McGee was in Cincinnati last week getting a full supply of clothing and taking in the exposition and Fall of Babylon.— A vote taken in the postoffice lobby one day last week showed 68 for Harrison, 3 for Clark and none for Cleveland.—Mrs. Bowman's millinery store is now upstairs over Buzard & Tourne's dry goods store.—New students are still arriving by every train.—Tobe East has sold his house southeast of the old college building to Sarah Phipps of Washington county.— The Wichita man who traded with the bank for 800 acres in Salt Creek tp., has moved to this place, and will cut off the timber.

—The city council last week made a contract with the electric light company for five years. A light was ordered on the old college building and one on the east end of 3d street, and one of the lights on west Kirkwood Avenue was ordered removed to west 6th street, near Enoch Fuller's residence.

On Saturday the members of the Mechanics Band appeared in their new uniforms. They were ordered through the "Corner," and were manufactured by Lilly & Co. of Columbus, O. The uniform of the drum major is not so stunning as that usually worn, but it is appropriate and handsome.

—Mr. Chas. Dunham has taken Johnny East back into his glee club, John having made all manner of promises of good behavior for the future. Mr. Dunham is of a forgiving nature, and it is certainly very clever in him to give this boisterous chap another "show for his white alley." Dunham was practicing John on the songs all last week. His specialty is a song and dance, in which he is said to be immense.

—There was a meeting last evening of the Tau Epsilon Pi Fraternity, which organization was founded at Indiana University in March, 1885, by A. S. Warthon, T. Benham, F. B. Foster, R. F. Hight, B. T. Matthews, L. V. Buskirk and J. S. Shannon. The membership, which is limited to seven in each chapter, is restricted to the Greek fraternities, and to the senior classes. At the session last evening charters were granted to Alleghany College and Ann Arbor.
The organization is perpetuated by the election of seven members each year from the junior class.—Indi-

DASHES HERE AND THERE.

—The State Fair is now in full blast, many persons being in attendance from this locality.— Bedford and Spencer each held their County Fairs last week. Both had fine weather and were a success.—H. C. Duncan is canvassing Owen county this week.— The Spencer papers declare that at their county fair "a man jumped from a balloon 6,000 feet high." Tall balloon.—Wm.
Weimer was one of the G. A. R. excursionists.—The shops of the Monon are to be removed to some important point on the route, Bloomington perhaps.—The town is full of people who have come here for the benefit of the schools and college.—A 100-foot pole, dedicated to Harrison and Morton, has been raised by the gallant Republicans of Clear Creek. Hip hip burrhah!—This country is getting quite a reputation for raising and shipping mules to the south.— Eld. Griffin, his many Monroe county friends will be sorry to learn, has been confined to his bed with typhoid fever, at Sellersburg, Ind., about four weeks.—Mrs.
Alexander of Indianapolis, Iowa, (a sister of Wm. J. Allen) is the guest of her brother's family.—On Friday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Gorden, a veteran missionary worker, late of India, addressed the ladies' missionary societies of this city in the U. P. church.—Rufus Conatney was lucky in disposing of 250 acres of land in Benton tp. recently at about $12 per acre.— On Sunday last Rev. J. M. Foster preached for the congregation of the U. P. church, and in the afternoon lectured in college chapel.— The mail contract of the Monon route it is stated pays the road $98,000 per annum.—According to the "Mail" of that town, Bedford has become a ratty place.
That paper says: "Rats scamper down the sidewalk in broad day light, in the most reckless manner."

—All the county schools begun on Monday of this week.
—Samuel Dismore attended the Gibson county Fair, at Princeton, Ind., last week.
—Wils. Adams goes to Columbus, Ind., this week to attend a reunion of his regiment, the 10th Indiana Cavalry.

—When you see an individual walking the streets with his coat buttoned up to the chin you will know that he lost his shirt in the laundry fire.

—Rev. Mr. Brant and wife were in Bloomington last Sunday visiting old friends. Mr. Brant is now located at Parsons, Kansas, and was on his return from the G. A. R. reunion at Columbus, O.

—One loss at the fire Saturday night was that of Capt. Cal.
Vorrall and Charley Hall, whose uniforms were hanging near a window in the hall of the Uniform Rank, and were burned.

—Dillon Talbot, the clever Democratic County Recorder, has gone to Illinois to remain a week, on a visit to relations. In his absence Miss Lizzie Payne will do the honors of the office.

—J. S. Dean, an uncle of Mrs.
Robert Marshall, is here on a visit.
Mr. D. has resided in Auburn, Cal., for twenty years, and is on his return from Columbus, O., where he has been attending the G. A. R. reunion. He belonged to Co. G, 24th Ind. Vols.

—Last Saturday was Yom Kipur (the day of atonement) and all orthodox Jews observed it. Moses Kahn and family went to Cincinnati Friday night, and so were in a position to worship in the temples of their faith.

—Nat. Roseberry has returned to New Mexico after a pleasant visit among friends here. He was compelled to go to Columbus, O., to start on his ticket. Mr. and Mrs. Bart. Roseberry will meet him at Greencastle Junction tomorrow (Wednesday).

—A fire alarm was sounded between the hours of 12 and 1 Saturday night, and it was found that the steam laundry in John May's building, north Walnut st., was burning.—The engine house, being but one square distant the steamer was gotten out in good time, and soon had the building well saturated with water. The hall over the laundry was occupied by the Mechanics Band, but as the flames were confined to the laundry, the band boys lost nothing. The laundry machinery, valued at about $1,000, and about $500 worth of clothes belonging to patrons of the laundry were entirely destroyed.
The proprietor of the laundry had $500 insurance on his machinery and fixtures, and John May's building was protected by insurance.
No one knows how the fire originated.

—On Sunday evening at about 7 o'clock the Holtzman woolen factory was found to be on fire in the engine room. The building, which was quite large, was soon a mass of flames, and before the engine reached the ground it was evident that it could not be saved.
The building had been used for the purpose many years, and as a consequence everything was saturated with oil. The heat was so intense that the firemen found it difficult to work, but they succeeded in saving the dwelling house just east of the factory, by the most persistent and daring exposure. No set of men ever worked harder or took greater risks, and they deserve value more credit than they are likely to receive. There was but little stock in the factory but considerably custom wool, some of which was saved. The loss to Holtzman Bros. is about $10,000, on which they had an insurance of $4,000 in non-board companies. The factory had been running during the day, but the Holtzmans have no idea how the fire occurred.

—No town of its pretensions can lay claim to braver or more daring firemen than those of Bloomington.
Their vigorous and determined fight to save the Holtzman dwelling last Monday night, and their success against such great odds, challenges the admiration of all who have any knowledge of it.

—The "Boaspi" Companies, so the insurance agents of this place state, would not accept the woolen factory risk, as it was regarded as extra-hazardous, so the proprietors were compelled to go outside to seek insurance.

—John C. Dolan is still ill with fever, but has never been dangerously sick. The fever is of a lu-garing character and has not yet been entirely broken.

—Corporal Turner has a wide reputation as a fine speaker, and should be heard.

—Mrs. Lathrop had a fine audience on Monday night. She is a pleasant speaker but her voice is not so strong as Mrs. Gougar's.

—Simpson Neeld has been granted an increase of pension.

—Irvin Perring, a former well known citizen of Bloomington, has been visiting relations in Bloomington and vicinity during the past week. Mr. Perring resides in Cowley co., Kansas, near Arkansas City. He is farming, and is well satisfied. He returns to Kansas this week.

—The rain Saturday evening was very acceptable, as the dust had become almost unbearable.
The present has been a pleasant all-around season—rain has fallen when 'twas needed, the rain ceased when we'd had enough, and in November we will doubtless have just enough Republican votes to bring peace and prosperity to the entire country. So mote it be.

ing a philosophical convention, in Dresden,
