

Republican Progress Printed each Wednesday Morning, by J. H. GASTON, Editor and Publisher.
IN ADVANCE, $2.00 A YEAR.
Monday, Nov. 5th.

—The Courier says of the "big and dumb" banner, that a commissioner did come in with something of the kind, but was promptly rebuffed, and the banner destroyed not allowed to have a place in the line. The truth of the matter is that the banner would ruin them if it appeared in the parade, and they burned it away after a short time.

—The Democratic blow out last Thursday was a success only in the number of persons who came to town to see it, the weather being perfect. The crowd was principally from Owen and Boone counties, and as usual comprised many poor, backward people, who seemed to feel to much out of place as a big to his first out of Sunday clothes.

—There is one consolation about the result of the election this Fall to Republicans who are "well heated," as the saying is. A man who has a good farm, and employs two or three hands during every portion of the season, is perhaps compelled to pay those men from $1.25 to $1.50 per day during harvest, etc. After Christmas is passed, (if he is) and from trade goes into effect, wages will drop to the point for the best workmen, so that the moment the employer will save by the reduction of wages will go far toward compensating them for the defeat of the Republican party.

—The most desperate set of people we have ever heard of are the Monroe county Democrats. They are frightened, and now resort to anything with the hope of success.
No lie is too base, no report is too baseless for their use.
You need not be surprised if they charge Dr. Gaston of murdering his father, or charge Tom Farr with being in Europe while the war was being fought.

—You know Dr. Gaston to be an honest man, and a good officer.
You know that he is a married soldier and a thorough gentleman.
Vote to retain him in office.

—Hundreds of men in Monroe county would be happy to know that this month when they come to the Auditor's office they will find Will. Blair behind the desk. He is a general favorite, and a popular young man. He deserves all this, too, because he is a competent business man, and he is obliging to all.
Vote for him.

—Every soldier should vote for the man who will attend to his best interests in Congress—H. C. Duncan. What does George Cooper know or care about the soldier?
Nothing. Vote for Duncan and further your own interests.

—Come to the polls prepared to work. Use your best judgment.
Be cautious, careful, but firm. It will not do now to let the victory slip away from almost within our grasp. Be vigilant and see that no illegal or underhand plans are attempted to by the opposition to accomplish their ends.

—See to it that every man is thought of and secured, as soon as possible Tuesday morning, Republicans. A full vote carefully handled, will save the ticket. Don't be too sanguine. It will take work —good work, too, to succeed.

—By sweeping there is a desperate effort being made to defeat Tom Farr for Sheriff. The Democrats desire to retain control of the courts and will elect Gilmore if they can.
They must not be permitted to do so.
We can elect Tom Farr, but it will take work, with the fight the enemy are making against him.

—A full day's work Tuesday, and Gaston will continue to collect your taxes. Tom Farr will call witness at the court house door, and Billy Blair will attend to making the duplicates. Be sure to be.

—Listen to the misrepresentations of the enemies of truth and fairness as they talk with venomous tongues about the candidates on the Republican ticket for county offices. According to their stories there is nothing too bad for these men to do, nor anything they have not done. It is disgusting to hear some of the Democrats criticizing our men's temperance records, when it is known that some of the Democratic candidates are not temperance men and have never even made professions that way.

—Be vigilant, Republicans! Be at the polls before the hour for opening. The polls will be open at 8 o'clock; endeavor to be there at 7 o'clock, or even sooner, and see that no unfair advantage is taken in the organization of the election boards. This is going to be a bitter fight—no child's play about it —and men must be prepared to demand all that is due them.

—Vote for Gaston for Treasurer, vote for Blair for Auditor, vote for Farr for Sheriff. Just take a Republican ticket, fold it and place it in the ballot box without ceremony, and you will be all right—you can't go wrong.

—Give H. C. Duncan a full support, and let us see if the 5th district cannot be redeemed. It would be a glorious thing next week to say: "Duncan of Monroe has defeated Cooper of Bartholomew!"

—Dr. Gaston is the Republican nominee for Treasurer. He is a clever, moral man. He was a gallant soldier. He has served the people long enough now for them to know what he is, and they will doubtless recognize in him the man to serve them further still.

—The Democrats were never better organized—they have the general government at their back, and a large fund for the purpose of corrupting voters. That they will hesitate to use this money no one believes—they will report to anything to secure success. If each county of the State will give especial attention to the ticket, the State of Indiana will go Republican by a good big majority. Let every Republican do his best and all will be well.

—Stephen Lave has made a popular and satisfactory prosecu-torial attorney. He will be elected by a tremendous majority on the 6th of November. See that your ticket includes his name.

—Tom Farr never forgets a favor. Right now is the chance for you to render him one. He is the Republican candidate for Sheriff.
The election occurs on Nov. 6th.
Vote for him, and see to it that those who are indifferent also cast their ballots right on that day, and by this means you can circumvent a deep laid scheme upon the part of the Democracy to defeat him.

—A strong effort is to be made by the Democracy to defeat Tom Farr, and not only will swapping or trading be resorted to, but the prigical use of money will be one of their strong points. The Democracy don't intend to give up the office of Sheriff without a desperate struggle, it is of special value to them, and the friends of honest Tom must be vigilant if they would thwart the shrewd workers who are straining every point to secure his defeat.

—In order to save your vote be sure that your ticket has the name of Thomas Farr for Sheriff. You don't want to vote for a man who is sure to suffer defeat, so be certain to vote for Farr. Many Democrats knowing Tom Farr's good points, will vote for him knowing that he will make a first-class Sheriff.

—A good citizen, a brave soldier, is what they say of Tom Farr, the Republican candidate for Sheriff.
The men who were in the army with him, the people who have been his neighbors, all join in cartilying to his fine points. Farr is everybody's friend—he is general, accommodating, and stands well with those with whom he is acquainted.

—Harrison and Hovey, remember, are the candidates for whom every Republican (and many Democrats) should vote. Let Indians for once have a President—don't go off to New York for an incumbent for that office. Why the mere fact that Harrison is an Indian man ought to be sufficient to induce every Indiana man to vote for him.

—Soldiers' claims will be promptly attended to when H. C. Duncan becomes a member of Congress.
His opponent, Mr. Cooper, was not a soldier nor is he in sympathy with the soldier element, while Duncan will do all in his power for them, as every one well knows.
Let Duncan go out of Monroe county with a rousing big majority, and all will be well.

—Some people become inflated over little office, but Tom Farr is not made of that kind of material; he is just what he seems: a sensible, quiet gentleman, who will go about his duties in an unobtrusive way.
He will be the Sheriff, and will give his personal attention to the office, because there is not much more than a living in it at present.

—The men are for Billy Blair; the women are for Blair, and the children all know him and greet him. He is a kind of "people's candidate," seconded by the Republican party. It was wise in them to choose him, because he is the strongest man they could have selected—not only strong, but popular and competent.
He is just as good as elected.

—Where is the man that can with reason say any fault with Dr.
Gaston or Tom Farr? They were both gallant soldiers, they are both first-class citizens, they are men who have no superiors as clever men and good neighbors. The soldiers of Monroe county, irrespective of party prejudices, should see to it that these two men are elected, and by good majorities.
Their opponents on the Democratic ticket were not soldiers—in fact there are no soldiers on that ticket at all. Vote for Gaston for Treasurer, and for Farr for Sheriff.

—No more eloquent speech could be made than that of our friend Dr. Gaston, when he presents that maimed hand and crippled arm—made so by rebel bullets. Personally Dr. Gaston is a nice gentleman and officially he has no superior. You should vote for him.

—The Republicans of the 5th district ought to be represented in Congress, and they will be if they give a little attention to the race now being made between Duncan and Cooper. Cooper hasn't acquired anything by any manner of means, and if the Republicans of Monroe county will do as well by Duncan as they will do by him in other counties of the district, he will be triumphantly elected.

—Blair, W. T., will be next Auditor of Monroe county. He will be elected Nov. 6th, and takes possession as soon as the legal formalities are complied with. Usually the Auditor goes in a year after his election, but as a vacancy existed, filled by appointment, he will go in the week following. He is Auditor right now, except the formalities.

—After you vote, on the morning of Nov. 6th, inquire after any one who may be sick or negligent, and see that they too come up or are brought up to vote. We will need every Republican vote for Harrison, Hovey and the rest.
Don't forget this, please.

—The business of the Auditor's office will be conducted hereafter with the same care that has been shown for many years—Blair will take pride in seeing that it is kept up to the standard. There is no better business man in the town than W. T. Blair, and he will spare no effort in the right direction.
The Auditor's books need close, careful attention, being a check up on those of the Treasurer, and are more important than many taxpayers know.

—People all through the county seem to feel a deep personal interest in the success of Tom Farr, the Republican nominee for Sheriff. There are several very substantial reasons for this, prominent among which are the facts that Tom Farr was a gallant soldier, he is a No. 1 citizen, and no better neighbor was ever known. Tom, too, is competent to fill the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to his numerous friends, and he will increase his list of friends all the time he is holding the position. Tom will have to come to town to live on the 15th of November.

—Dr. Jas. D. Maxwell Jr. is the Republican candidate for the office of Coroner of Monroe county.
The Doctor is an affable gentleman, a thoroughly educated physician and surgeon, and gives to the position the importance it deserves.

—Never did a party have a candidate with a better record, or one against whom less could be said, than our candidate for Treasurer, Dr. Gaston. The Doctor is a tip-top man in every way—he is kind, accommodating, and yet attends strictly to the business of his office with a promptness that shows him to be a model official. Dr. Gaston is a man who never says aught against an opponent—he just pursues the even tenor of his way, and will be doing business at the old stand after the 6th of November.

—H. C. Duncan is the Republican candidate for Congress in the 5th district. Everything at present points to his election. He is a soldier and a soldier's friend—a man who will do all in his power if in Congress, to further the soldiers' interests. See that he is elected on the 6th of November, and our word for it the change from Mason to Duncan will be one of the most satisfactory ones ever made. Remember Duncan for Congress.

—Everybody will vote for Billy Blair—it is hard to estimate how much his majority will be, but it will be large enough for all practical purposes. Blair is by nature a good fellow, and so is a success in a race for office. The people who have been accommodated and assisted by him on so many occasions, can't help voting for him—they want to vote for him and will do so. He will be the next Auditor of Monroe county. Just write that on your states, children.

—Farr, Gaston, Peterson and Baskirk, on the Republican ticket, were soldiers. Not a single man on the Democratic county ticket was in the army. Everything else being equal, the soldiers ought to be recognized by a vote. Don't you think so? These men are certainly the equals in every way of the Democratic candidates.

—The office of county commissioner is one of the most important that is to be filled this fall. County commissioners get right down to the interests of the people far more closely than any other class of businessmen. They can conduct the business of the county carefully and economically, or they can ruin the finances by prodigality and foolish expenditures. No better men are to be found in Monroe county today than are offered by the Republican party for these positions.
Wm. Peterson and John C. Clay are the men—vote for them.

—We don't precisely understand the democratic organs can distinguish between a republican platform and a "thin platform," when it declares to demand inferior revenue tax on whiskey, in adference to the reduction of the American labor, especially in view of the fact that the prohibition party declares for the abolition of this tax, and in favor of good government, the Democratic platform of 1884 declares the same thing. We will do the best we can to say, however, that since 1884 declared, in its last platform, against abolition of the whiskey tax, and the of the reduction of wages. The probi-tion platform is a grave anomaly in democracy, because it is substantially that of the republican party, though a different reason. The Republicans claim in favor of good government, a working man, while the probi-tion is a favor free-whisky because they it improper to raise revenue from units of evil. Nevertheless all Christians accept contributions without quitting where they come from.

—Ulobe Democrat: Gen. Zimmerman made one of his best speeches on Friday to a large delegation of Grand Army veterans. "All could Cleveland may in vain should by some ironical accident required to address such an assurance of visitors?"

—The Republican Party in James Buchanan to take a because he truckled to South leaders. Twenty-eight years the same conditions obtain, and Cleveland must not be surprised he gets an invitation similar that Mr. Buchanan should mail one morning.

—Roger Q. Mills
his speech at East St. Louis Grover Cleveland and Congress should be year Democrats will bill that will put raw on the free list and intelligent, skillful and labor in this country on a equality with the laboring countries." This is Mr. language, and he means every of it. The workers of the now know what will come if put the Democracy again in power.

Harrison's Speech.
Gen. Harrison is always at best when talking to the old soldiers. His words are more quest and tender when referring them and the hardships they dured and the sacrifices they lies bore than any other uttered was in a recent some Indiana veterans who upon him. After recounting terrible scenes through which had passed and the trials and sufferings which their families had to endure, he uttered these expressive words: "My countrymen, it is no time now to use the carry's scales to weigh the of the men who saved the country." That was a forcible and well-deserved rebuke of the course which the democratic administration pursuing toward the old soldiers.
Mr. Cleveland is attempting to weigh on apothecary's scales the services of every disabled and dependent veteran. He spreads in searching for minute flaws in their petitions for pensions, in order that he may find some for vetoing a just claim of a Union soldier. Their struggles and hardships, their perils and sufferings, the sacrifices of dependent families at home—all seem so small in his eyes that he thinks he can weigh them in apothecary's scales. But the people of the country who gratefully appreciate the work and the worth of the Union soldier: will resent with all the power at their command Mr. Cleveland's attempt to minimize and belittle the services of the Union soldier.

—And now comes an end-telling how the handana is made, and owing to the peculiarity of make it is impossible to wash it clean. The more we get to know about it the more appropriate it seems as a Democratic emblem.
