

Give, SHUCKART'S NEW FORM is the best for fine Baltimore oysters. He receives them daily by express, and consequently they are always fresh. Call and get a cup, at a quart.

MAPLE SYRUP—Vermont and home made—just received by C. L. ALEXANDER, the west side grocer.

Geo. SHUCKART HAS OPENED HIS NEW CONFECTIONERY

on the site of the burned building, and he asks his friends to come and see his supply.

CANDIES, FIC, GRAPES, BAKING, BAKING, BAKING.

It is something that is in first-class establishment of this kind. Remember to call on Shuckart before you buy.

IN THE LINES of Groceries, Shuckart's new store, south side of the square, stands alone. No one has kept such a stock, in quality, since this class of goods was made a specialty. The hats, suspenders, cravats, ties, handkerchiefs, collars and fine shirts, are very superior, and the most fashionable in cut and material. Don't forget to call at McGee's or you will fail to see something nice.

Nearest Coffees, Teas, Tobacco and Cigars, at Hemp, Wilson's grocery store. Try one of the new brands of cigars at this store.

IT WILL DO YOU GOOD to go in to "Charley McGee's" dry goods store, on the south side of the square, and examine some of the reasonable goods placed on sale by him. He has a way of securing goods at lower figures than a majority of the buyers, and he sells them correspondingly low. He has an extensive trade among the ladies, and makes it a point to secure the little groceries most frequently called for by them. He has been a reputation in this and adjoining counties, and in gloves, mittens, scarves, breakfast shawls, and all manner of hosiery, his stock is difficult to excel. He now has, in addition to the goods formerly carried, a complete line of boots, shoes and rubbers, and will fit you out for a very reasonable sum of money. He has also lately made his store the headquarters for umbrellas. The better and heavier grades of dress goods are also kept by him, and he can send home Charles Mayberry's store unvisited. If you don't see what you want ask for it, and he will be glad to call on you at your home.

You will find the best goods, in the grocery line at Hemp, Wilson's. He receives fresh goods every week, so that nothing in his house is stale. Call on him to "Progress Block."

CHASING OUT the stock of Overcoat and at McGee's clothing store, south side of the square. You cannot get a better idea of how long it is till you hear his figures and examine the goods. The suits that are kept in stock there are unexcelled in make, and the material superior to any usually supplied. The prices are far below those of any former season. Ed. McGee has worked a revolution in the clothing trade.

We want some more reliable men to sell our nursery stock; guaranteed first-class, true to name or ordered, and delivered in good, healthy condition. Salary and expenses, (or commission if preferred). Apply (stating age) to The C. L. Van Dusen Nursery Co., Chicago, N. Y.

ANNOUNCEMENT. C. VANZANDT

He will benefit from his entire attention to these special lines, and will guarantee work the best and prices the lowest. Remember the place, Suburb Block, North Side Square.

J. W. TURNER Furniture Dealer

is in the location of the Suburb Block with a complete line of UNDERTAKERS' AND UPHOLSTERERS' Supplies. He will benefit from his entire attention to these special lines, and will guarantee work the best and prices the lowest. Remember the place, Suburb Block, North Side Square.

AND FURNITURE DEALER

I carry in stock the best line of FURNITURE AND UNDERTAKERS' SUPPLIES. I am in the location of the Suburb Block with a complete line of UNDERTAKERS' AND UPHOLSTERERS' Supplies. He will benefit from his entire attention to these special lines, and will guarantee work the best and prices the lowest. Remember the place, Suburb Block, North Side Square.

A LIVE CITY.

Bloomington is the best town in Southern Indiana; in 1880 it had a population of 2,400—it now has 4,000. The city is growing steadily and rapidly. Indiana University is located here; also a hotel and business house with an output of 1,000 per week; a large and beautiful city; a chair factory; extensive apple and nut factory; two planing mills; two roller mills, etc., etc. Has turnpike electric plant, and preparations are being made for water works and for a new open house; has large, handsomely furnished and immensely stocked dry goods house; this handsome and heavily stocked clothing store; two as fine hardware stores as any town anywhere; several modern stores of furniture; grocery store (some nine or ten in number) that are excellent in no town of 10,000 population. The business men are without exception courteous, enterprising and liberal, and all newcomers are welcomed, as they should be in a growing city.

C. C. TURNER.

—All manner of tin and sheet iron work done by Baker, Need & Co., whose establishment is on the south side of the square. If you need any article kept in a hardware store go into this house before you buy. It is the old McPherson Hardware Co. store.

BREAD, cakes, crackers, pies and everything usually kept in a confectionery or restaurant, at George Benckart's.

IT IS THE WONDER OF THE AGE, the stock of goods on the shelves, counters, and in the drawers, at the Smith Jewelry Store and Bazar, south side. This house receives car-load after car-load of goods, and yet they are sold with such rapidity that there is always a demand for more. The stock is not all of a light or fragile character either, as some might suppose, for there are gold and silver watches of the best brands, clocks of the most reliable manufacture, silverware that is known to be standard, even tinware is included in this mammoth stock. Many household articles that are very useful and ornamental are also sold here for a trifling sum.

JIMMY ROBINSON is the well known west side grocer, and has a handsome, fresh stock of goods, which, by reason of good patronage is always kept fresh. A very handsome and tasteful display of queensware and glassware is one of his specialties that has attracted much attention of late—in fact he has sold more of this class of goods than some of the larger or more pretentious stores because he exhibited uncommon taste in selection. He does a thriving business in choice country produce and in teas, coffees, sugars, etc., carrying a stock that is far above the ordinary. Don't forget to look at and price his chamber sets.

The best tinware and sheet iron ware in town can be secured at Baker, Need & Co.'s hardware store, second door east of the National Bank. You ought not to make a purchase till you see the hardware display at this house.

NEW DATES AND ONLY 100 PER FOUND AT C. L. ALEXANDER'S.

NICEST CANDIES you EVER saw at H. T. Swindler's. (This house has stocked up specially for the Holiday trade, and they ask you to call and see them.)

For any kind of general hardware, such as nails, hinges, locks, or cutlery, or fine razors, butcher knives, pocket knives, fine shears, etc., you should call at Baker, Need & Co.'s hardware store, two doors east of the bank.

If you want the nearest fitting garments you ever wore, go to Benj. McGee and get him to cut and make you a suit. He is superior to all.

A LOAN OF BREAD made by Swindler's French Baker, ought to be on your table Christmas for dinner.

STUDEBAKER WAGONS AT ALLEN'S.

CRAIG WORLEY has a lot of first-class Buggies, Carriages, Phaetons and Spring Wagons, at his livery stable, which he will sell for cash or will trade for mules or horses. Call on Craig before you sell your stock.

NICEST STOCK of winter clothing and stylish Overcoats ever seen in Bloomington, are now on exhibition in McGee's well established and reliable tailoring establishment, south side of the square. Never was such a stock of Hats seen in Bloomington as are now exhibited by this firm. How it is possible for McGee to sell these tailor made suits for $9 it is hard to understand, unless he steals them, and it doesn't make any difference to the purchaser so he gets a bargain.

A countryman being asked in whom he put his trust, and when he had a cold he put it in Dr. Penner's Cough Honey, hence the butter, cheese, apple butter, etc., he sells is always choice.

—On to Washington! A position for everyone! We want several good men in your section to sell Nursery stock. We guarantee it true to name, delivered in good condition, and first-class in every particular. Salary and expenses. Expense money advanced if necessary. Apply at once (stating age) to W. L. McKAY, Geneva, N. Y.

—The local base ball clubs might have played the greater part of the present winter.

—Joe M. Winsteadley and Miss Carrie Crim, of Bedford, are to be married on Wednesday morning of the present week.

—A. Bloom has received notice of an original pension, with about five years back pay.

—Jan. Elliott of Ellettsville has secured an increase of pension which will pay him $34 per month.

—You will have to write a "99" in the dating of your letters for 11 years.

—Treasurer Gaston went to St. Louis last Friday, on a visit to relations and friends.

—John Riley has been given a day run on the Monon, between Louisville and Chicago, with a salary of $900.

—V. J. Turner took in payment for his stock of furniture some property in Arkansas City, Kas.

—Let's see; didn't we vote some money—prospective tax, we mean—to an east and west rail-road, last August a year?

—On Wednesday last Bob Marshall sold his interest in the Marshall and Martin grocery to his partner.

—Many of the brakemen engaged in the recent strike, and the engineers and others who sympathized with them, have been dropped from the pay rolls of the Monon.

—All the country schools of Bloomington, that have lost no time since their session began, will close this week, owing to the fact that the money is about expended.

—The snow storm of Wednesday, (by the way the first of the season) blew down Showers, Bros. smoke stack, and knocked it into three pieces. It was erected again on Thursday, and business resumed.

—The Smith firm did not last as long as the Progress predicted, for Alex. Robinson traded Ren. out of his interest on Wednesday of last week, and on Friday morning Robinson traded back to Ren.; so the firm now is as before, Smith & Son.

—The report of the board of health of Indianapolis for the year shows that three diseases with the highest death rates were: diphtheria, 63; typhoid fever, 71; pneumonia, 94; consumption, 215. This death rate from consumption almost reaches epidemic figures. At least one-half the deaths that occur in Monroe county are from consumption.

—What has become of "the Democracy of our fathers?" Time was when a peach and honey, oratory and mirth, fun and fights garnished the celebration of the 8th of January in Bloomington by the Democratic brethren. Now a quiet little party with oyster soup and crackers, has taken the place of all the old time observances. Ah, the good old party is degenerating, and in time the whole flock may be induced to join the Prohibitionists.

—The "dime craze" is one of the latest fads. The object is to keep all the dimes you get in change, and never spend one. A young man in Greencastle was a free spender has saved nearly $100 in six months by this method, and says it was the only method he ever found whereby he could lay up a little for a rainy day. Some of the young men about town could profit by such a habit. Whenever you get a dime take it home and put it away, and you will soon be surprised to see the snug little sum that will have accumulated.

—I. N. Glover, agent of the L. N. A. & C. road at Frankfort, has been appointed agent of this road at New Albany, vice M. J. Edgeworth resigned, who goes to California to engage in mercantile business.

—Ran Smith & Son are now the owners of Miller Brothers grocery, Dunn's old stand. These gentlemen have a nice stock of goods, and will take pleasure in seeing the old friends of the firm and a number of new ones. They propose to buy all the good produce that may be brought to them and will pay as liberal prices as any other house.

—Quails are no longer killed, because the time for doing so has expired, but meadow larks are good on toast.

—Andrew Reeves formerly of Ellettsville has been promoted to the position of agent of the Fargo, Wells & Co.'s Ex. Co., at Wichita, Kas.

—Martinsville Republican: Mrs. W. B. F. Treat was the recipient on Christmas, from the members of the Christian church, of a crazy quilt, bought from the Young Ladies Art Society. Mrs. Treat is quite proud of her handsome present.

—The work on the iron bridge over White River south of Bedford, and at Gosport, is being pushed through. The "Monon" is making none but the most substantial improvements.

—The three entertainments of the lecture association will cost you but $1.50. They include the "Mendelssohn Concert Co.," "Edward Everett Hale," and "S. S. Cox," the orator and humorist.

—"Tuck" Adams is now a citizen of Point Commerce, Ind.

—The article in the Progress setting forth the origin, aims and success of the Improved Order of Red Men has brought that fine organization into notice more fully, so some of the gentlemanly members state, and three new candidates were initiated last week.

—In '87, by reference to the paper published then, winter began on the 11th of November with a cold rain followed by snow and sleet, and did not let up till late in the spring.

—Cross Roads Church Sunday School has elected new officers as follows: Jas. Pauley, Superintendent; Mrs. Sarah Getzendanner, Assistant; Alva Eller, Secretary; Jennie Pauley, Treasurer; Missionary Treasurer, Miss Hattie Need.

—Miss Sabina Whismund, of west of town, has been suffering for some time with a felon, and as a result has been compelled to have a thumb amputated.

—Some farmers in this section of the State who have been shipping produce to a Chicago commission house are not receiving the remittances promised. There are no greater swindlers in the world than some of the Chicago commission men who sell on a rising market and report on a flat one.

—According to the census recently taken, Bedford now has the population that Bloomington had in 1880—a little over 2,700. Bloomington has been growing rapidly and steadily since '80, till now her population is about 4,000.

—The grist mills here have been resting for several weeks as they have a large supply of flour on hand and no hungry demand for it. The mild weather has had some effect on this commodity, in that people do not consume so much as when the zero point is reached.

—Mrs. Pittman has gone to Indianapolis to remain a month or two looking after some legislative matters.

—R. W. Miers and John W. Buskirk are candidates for positions on the much talked of supreme court commission. Either gentleman or both would honor the bar of the State and county if selected.

—The company with which the contract was made is now placing the iron bridge over Clear Creek. It will be both handsome and durable.

—Five cents a bolt for Wall Paper, and 10 cents for Gilt, until March 1st. See JOHN WYLLIE.

CUTLERY of the best brands, and only the best brands, sold by W. J. Allen.

—The Progress is under obligations to Dr. Kirkwood for copies of the Riverside Press, a handsomely printed paper of that young city.

—The Progress is gratified to learn that Levi B. Hughes, formerly of this place, but for a number of years a resident of Santa Fe, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for the position of Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of New Mexico. Mr. Hughes has had some three years experience in this office in the past, and always stood well in official circles.

—Levi, as he is best known by his many friends in this portion of Indiana, is a careful and competent business man, a young man of good habits, and is untiring in any line of labor in which he may be engaged. He is a prime favorite among his old Indiana acquaintances, and he can depend upon any assistance they may be able to extend in order to make his efforts in this direction a success. Draw on the right, young man.

—Mrs. Carrie, wife of Henry Simmons, is sick with malarial fever.

—While out driving near West Union, Max Maienthal and Edward Lapping were thrown out in a runaway, and the former had one leg broken, while the other was badly injured about the head.

—Chas. Small, Teller of the National Bank of Bloomington, is confined to his room with malarial fever.

—On Tuesday of last week, at the residence of the bride's mother, in Cincinnati, O., Miss Cora Hirsch, (a sister of Mrs. Mose Kahn), well known and very popular in Bloomington, was married to Samuel Mayer Jr., of the firm of Isaac Falter & Co. The wedding dinner was partaken of by over eighty persons and was an elegant affair.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rabbi Weiss. The young people left for Omaha, Nebraska, and Chicago, and on their way home are expected to stop in Bloomington for a short visit. They will probably arrive in this city to-day (Tuesday).

—The latest novelty in Cape, the "Lord Chumley," genuine English Corduroy silk lined, at the Eagle Clothing House.

—Last winter the grocers were doing a big business in canned goods, vegetables of all kinds, together with corn and bacon, as the season had been a disastrous one. Now farmers have a supply in their cellars that will carry them through the season easily, and in consequence the grocery trade is uncommonly dull. This in part accounts for the fact that nearly every man in the trade is willing to sell out.

—800 pairs of all wool cassimere pants at $2.00, 2.50 and 3.00. Other houses sell at $3.00, 3.50 and $4.00. Eagle Clothing House.

—Mrs. Madison is very sick with an attack of catarrhal fever.

—Bertie Cole is quite sick with typho-malarial fever.

—Wall Gentry arrived in town Saturday with a portion of the dog show. Henry Gentry, with the principal part of the troupe, is now working his way toward Bloomington, and is expected to reach this city on Thursday. The show has done a good business since it took the road.

—Mose Kahn and family attended the Mayer-Hirsch wedding, at Cincinnati, O., last week.

—Communion services were held in Walnut St. Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. The following named persons united with the church: Mattie and Carrie Dodge, Bertie and Addie Perry, Stella Crain, Mrs. Barth, and Albert Cates.

—The following named young people of Bloomington are teaching school at distant points: Ella Rawles, Maude Vanzandt, Ella Wilson, Lizzie Hughes, Belle Maxwell, Foster Hight, Sherman Davis, Jesse Hubbard, Idelle Bicknell, Ida Faris, Minnie Faris, Attie Sanders, Edie Ewing, Will Rawles, Henry Corr, Lora Wilson, Ray Holtzman, Kate Pearson, Maggie Porch, Nannie Woodward.

—One of the hopeful signs of the times is the progressive young man who lifts his hat gracefully when recognized on the street by a lady acquaintance. Not long ago he was in the habit of allowing the lady to get about sixteen feet behind him before lifting his hat at all, and then instead of doing it gracefully, he would grook his elbow out, snatch the rim with his hand and slide the hat down over his nose and chin to his lowest vest button. By the time he got his hat placed back on his head the lady was two rods away, entirely unconscious of the painful performance.

—About noon last Thursday a dozen of our citizens might have been observed wending their way toward Stockwells. As many of them were known to be strictly temperate men, a Progress reporter proceeded to investigate the cause of their visit. Upon inquiry he learned that Mr. Stockwell had opened a restaurant and that Lon D. Rogers was paying off an election bet made with W. Jay King some two years ago. Oysters were served in a variety of styles, besides other delicacies of the season. The inimitable County Recorder, Dillon Talbott, acted as toastmaster and kept the tables in an uproar by his witticisms and amusing jokes. Toasts were responded to in their usual happy vein, by his honor, Mayor Dunlap, County Clerk Enoch Fuller, Ira Bateman, S. E. Carmichael and others. Mayor Dunlap responded to the toast: "Who got the Flosters," and made the matter so plain that a wayfaring man, though a Democrat, could see it; Recorder Talbott came to the front with a response to the toast: "Are second terms popular in Monroe county," and left room for his hearers to infer that he would not refuse to warm his present seat in the Recorder's office another four years. S. E. Carmichael made the most eloquent speech of the day, after some one had whispered in his ear something about real estate to trade. County Clerk Fuller, who seems to have no aspiration above making others happy, spoke to the topic: "Do marriage licences pay?" He emphatically declared they did—pay him $2 each. L. D. Rogers, whose ability as an orator is well known, rose upon the pinpoints of the American eagle in terse but poetic sentences after the subject of insurance had been broached, and pledged himself then and there to put a clause into his policies hereafter that would indemnify his assembled friends against fire, though it should occur in the district in which is located the territory of Hades. All voted it a most pleasant occasion and hoped that Bro. King would live long enough to collect many such debts.

—The Courier tells of the celebration of St. Jackson's day at the residence of C. R. Worrall as follows:

"More than a hundred invitations had been issued to leading Democrats of the county and nearly all of them were answered in person. Five of the college professors were present and took a prominent part in the proceedings of the evening. Hon. C. R. Worrall acted as master of ceremonies and Hon. R. W. Miers acted as toastmaster. The following program was given amidst enthusiasm and a general love feast of Democracy: Benj. Hall, "The Mossbacks"; J. V. Cravens, "The Kids"; Dr. R. H. Dabney, "Corruption in Politics"; Dr. J. E. Harris, "G. D. Prentiss"; Richard Butcher, "Van Buren Democracy"; Peter Bowman, "Ohio Democracy"; Dr. H. C. G. Van Jagennan, "German Democracy"; J. B. Brill, "Grover or Hickory the Second"; Dr. Gustaf Karsten, "The French Republic"; Dillon Talbott, "Democratic Holdovers"; Dr. T. C. VanNuy, "Education and Democracy"; James S. Williams, "Green Smith"; Fred Matthews, "Rich and Democracy"; and Jno. K. Anderson, "Andrew Jackson." Letters of regret were read from Dr. D. S. Jordan, of the University; H. J. Feltus, of the Courier; M. M. Wingfield, of Ellettsville; Jno. Brogan, of Harrodsburg, and several others. After these exercises the "Tariff Reform and Anti-Monopoly Club" was organized by Hon. R. W. Miers, President; Dr. R. H. Dabney, Vice President; Hon. C. R. Worrall, Secretary; Dr. T. C. VanNuy, John W. Cravens, L. D. Rogers and Peter Bowman executive committee.

—Mose Kahn, of the Eagle clothing store, has been in Cincinnati several days purchasing a new supply of clothing, hats, underwear, etc. He has secured an uncommonly nice display of gentlemen's furnishing goods. Call and see them.
