IN THE LINES of Gen's' furnishings, goods the McGee store, south side of the square, stands alone. No one has kept such a stock, in quality, since this class of goods was made a specialty. The hats, suspenders, cravats, ties, handkerchiefs, cuffs, collars and fine shirts, are very superior, and the most fashionable in-out and material. Don't forget to call at McGee's or you will fail to see something nice.

Choicest Coffees, Teas, Tobacco and Cigars, at HEMP, Wilson's grocery store. Try one of the new brands of cigars at this store.

IT WILL DO YOU GOOD to go in to Charley McPheters' dry goods store, on the south side of the square, and examine some of the reasonable goods placed on sale by him. He has a very interesting stock of goods, and he sells them correspondingly low. He has an extensive trade among the ladies, and makes it a point to secure the little articles most frequently called for by them. His prices have a reputation in this and adjoining counties, and in gloves, mittens, scarfs, breakfast shawls, and all manner of hosiery, his stock is difficult to excel. He now has, in addition to the goods formerly carried, a complete line of boots, shoes and rubbers, and will fit you out for a very reasonable sum of money. He has also lately made his store the headquarters for umbrellas. The better and heavier grades of cheap goods are also kept by him, and one need leave Charley McPheters' store unsatisfied. If you don't see what you want ask for it, and he will be almost certain to produce the article.

You will find the best goods, in the grocery line at HEMP, Wilson's. He receives from McGee every week, so that nothing in his house is stale. Call on him in "Progress Block."

Closing out the stock of Overcoats at McGee's clothing store, south side of the square. You cannot form an idea of how low that is till you hear his figures and examine the goods. The suits that are kept in stock there are generally well made, and the materials superior to any usually supplied. The prices are far below those of any former season. Ed. McGee has worked a revolution in the clothing trade.

We want some more reliable men to sell our nursery stock; guaranteed first-class, true to name as ordered, and delivered in good, healthy condition. Salary and expenses (or commission if preferred). Apply (stating age) to The C. I. Van Dusen Nursery Co., Geneva, N. Y.

JAS. HUNTER is the leading FURNITURE and UNDERTAKING DEALER. I CAREY IN STOCK THE BEST LINE OF FURNITURE AND UNDERTAKING GOODS. EVER KEPT IN BLOOMINGTON, AND WILL SELL YOU GOODS CHEAPER THAN ANY OTHER PLACE IN THE CITY. 107 SOUTH SIDE SQUARE, WEST OF CLARK'S GROCERY.

A LIVE CITY. Bloomington is the best town in Southern Indiana; in 1880 it had a population of 2,700-it now has 4,000. The city is growing steadily and rapidly. Indiana University is located here; also a bedstead and bureau factory with an output of 1,600 per week; a stove and heating factory; a chair factory; extensive spoke and hub factory; two planing mills; two roller mills, etc., etc. Has turnpikes, electric plant, and preparations are being made for water works and for a new opera house; has large, handsomely furnished and immensely stocked dry goods houses; three hardware and heavily stocked clothing houses; two as fine hardware stores as are seen anywhere; several corner-ware stores of furniture; grocery stores (some fine or tin in number) that are excelled in no town of 10,000 population. The business men are without exception courteous, enterprising and liberal, and all newcomers are welcomed, as they should be in growing cities.

Will, Turner, traded for Buzzard & Turner's stock of dry goods, not to go into the business, but to get the money out of it. Now he will sell every article in the stock at your own figures.

BARGAINS.—I have four (4) Organs I will sell at wholesale price, for cash. Call and see them. C. C. TURNER.

All manner of tin and sheet iron work done by Baker, Neill & Co., whose establishment is on the south side of the square. If you need any article kept in a hardware store go into this house before you buy. It is the old McPheters Hardware Co. store.

BREAD, cakes, crackers, pies and everything usually kept in a confectionery or restaurant, at George Benckart's.

IT IS THE WONDER OF THE AGE, the stock of goods on the shelves, counters and in the drawers, at the Smith Jewelry Store and Bazar, south side. This house receives carload after carload of goods, and they are sold with such rapidity that there is always a demand for more. The stock is not all of a light or fragile character, either, as some might suppose, for there are gold and silver watches of the best brands, clocks of the most reliable manufacture, silverware that is known to be standard, even tinware is included in this mammoth stock. Many household articles that are very useful and ornamental are also sold here for a trifling sum.

JIMMY ROBINSON is the well known west side grocer, and has a handsome, fresh stock of goods which, by reason of good patronage is always kept fresh. A very handsome and tasteful display of groceries and glassware is one of his specialties that has attracted much attention of late—in fact he has sold more of this class of goods than some of the larger or more pretentious stores because he exhibited uncommon taste in selection. He does a thriving business in choice country produce and in tea, coffee, sugars, etc., carrying a stock that is far above the ordinary. Don't forget to look at and price his chamber sets.

HEMP, WILSON gets the choicest as well as the freshest country produce, as his country customers are of the best class of people; hence the butter, cheese, apple butter, etc., he sells is always choice.

STUDEBAKER WAGONS AT ALLEN'S. The best figure and sheet iron wagons can be secured at Baker, Neill & Co.'s hardware store, second door east of the National Bank. You ought not to make a purchase till you see the hardware display at this house.

For any kind of general hardware, such as nails, hammers, locks, or cutlery, or fine razors, butcher knives, pocket knives, fine shears, etc., you should call at Baker, Neill & Co.'s hardware store, two doors east of the bank.

IF YOU WANT the neatest fitting garments you ever wore, go to Benj. McGee and get him to cut and make you a suit. He is superior to all.

STUDEBAKER WAGONS AT ALLEN'S. CRAIG WORLEY has a lot of first-class Buggies, Carriages, Phaetons and Spring Wagons, at his lively stable, which he will sell for cash or will trade for mules or horses. Call on Craig before you sell your stock.

NICEST STOCK of winter clothing and stylish Overcoats ever seen in Bloomington, are now on exhibition in McGee's well established and reliable tailoring establishment, south side of the square. Never was such a stock of Hats seen in Bloomington as are now exhibited by McGee to sell these tailor made suits for $9 it is hard to understand, unless he steals them, and it doesn't make a difference to the purchaser so he gets a bargain.

The popular Greaves corner grocery is now owned by Charley McPheters. Give him a call.

Charley Mc. wants to see you at his corner grocery, the old Greaves stand.

I don't intend to stay in the dry goods trade. All I want is to get the money for the stock I traded some Kansas property for. Now come to my store on the west side and get these goods at about half price. J. W. TURNER.

GAY KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS CELEBRATE THEIR SILVER ANNIVERSARY.

Literary, Supper, Exhibition Drill, and Dance, ALL IN ONE NIGHT.

THE LARGEST CROWD EVER IN ATTENDANCE AT A SIMILAR MEETING.

The Knights of Pythias had an interesting and profitable reunion in their lodge room in this city on Tuesday night of last week. While this is one of the youngest orders here, it is also the strongest, and its membership comprises some of the most energetic of our young business men. "The order" had its origin on the evening of February 19, 1864, when its founder, Justus H. Rathbone, gathered about him, in the city of Washington, a number of gentlemen, and proposed a new order, whose objects should be the promotion of friendship, benevolence and charity, and whose autotype of friendship and natural confidence should be the historic friendship of Damon and Pythias, in which Pythias pledged his life that Damon would not forfeit his honor, and gave himself up for execution at the time appointed by the king. The proposal met with the approbation of those present, and five of those present subscribed to an obligation of secrecy, and proceeded to name the society, elect officers and adopt a ritual. Mr. Rathbone, who is still living, and is at this time the grand lecturer of the order, has seen it grow from these five members to upwards of 200,000, the reports of the subordinate lodges to the Supreme Lodge of the world, on the 31st of December, 1887, showing a membership of 203,000, intelligent estimates at this time giving it a membership of 250,000. The lodges of the order now extend throughout every State and Territory in the Union, and are found in Canada, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island, Manitoba, British Columbia, the Republic of Mexico and the Sandwich Islands.

The lodge at this place was established July 24th, 1872, and from that day to this it has been its almost universal custom to celebrate with becoming exercises the return of its anniversary. The first lodge was established in Washington, D. C., twenty-five years ago last Tuesday night. The Order has had a wonderful growth, and to-day it numbers near two hundred lodges in this State alone. The Uniform Rank is a new feature, and it is of vast value to the Order. The following named persons are among the charter members of the Bloomington Lodge and also active members at present: C. P. Tuley, J. W. Shemaker, R. M. Gamble, J. C. Allen, Wilson Adams, B. A. McGee, A. W. Rose and H. P. Tourner. The first presiding officer was Geo. A. Buskirk. The anniversary exercises recall the memories of the departed brothers, who are George A. Buskirk, Thomas Howard, C. W. Henderson, S. P. Holtzman, A. Holtzman, Louis Fiedler, Austin Slocomb and C. H. Showers.

The hall had been tastefully arranged for the occasion. It had been repaired and otherwise prepared for the large crowd that was soon to fill it to its utmost capacity. In the afternoon the Uniform Rank paraded the principal streets and gave a splendid exhibition in the difficult movements; both sword and marching. At half past seven o'clock the literary program began in Castle Hall. The following exercises were given:

- 1.—MUSIC, Overture. Band.
- 2.—ADDRESS, C. E. Remsburg.
- 3.—SOLO, J. G. Adkins.
- 4.—ADDRESS, C. P. Tuley.
- 5.—RECITATION, Josie Pittman.
- 6.—ADDRESS, J. E. Harris.
- 7.—FLUTE SOLO, H. Tourner.
- 8.—SELECTION, Orchestra.

The next part of the program was the one calculated to give joy, peace and comfort to the inner man. The wives, sisters and sweethearts of the Knights had prepared a supper that would have shed additional luster on the fame of Delmonico, and of this magnificent repast near three hundred persons partook freely and joyously. It was the intention to have an exhibition drill immediately after the supper but on account of the large number of persons in the hall it was postponed. The dance began about eleven o'clock and continued until three o'clock in the morning. There were many visitors present among whom were: E. E. Worley and wife of Ellettsville, P. M. Parks and wife, Mrs. Ida Landers and Harbison Spain of Mar-tinville, Howard Warder of Louisville, Miss Daisy Little of Orleans, G. G. Griffin of Indianapolis, M. F. Wampler and Miss Mary Collins, Wm. Brighton and Miss Mary Motely, A. H. Wampler and Miss Lillie Lukenhill of Gosport.

The entertainment was a grand success from beginning to end and it will result in much lasting good to the Order. The lodge was never in better condition and it is rapidly growing in numbers and public favor. Never was an entertainment attended by more people than this one and the names of the persons who were there are the best evidences as to the esteem in which the lodge is held.

There were many beautiful costumes worn by the ladies. Among others the PROGRESS representative noticed the following:

- Mrs. E. Showers, black surah satin, trimmed in dull jet, diamond ornaments.

It was decided that William Carmichael should be placed upon the block, and a divorce be granted to the lady and body. William advanced to the death-dealing instrument, and with remarkable calmness, told them "to go on with their rat killing." This bravery brought sympathetic friends to the front, and it was finally decided to lessen his punishment by changing the sentence to swallowing three fish hooks and a hay fork. The candidate did this gracefully, and received the hearty congratulations of the assembled multitude. John Nance was then brought before the Grand High Judges and was condemned to be shot. He at once made his will and told his friends a last adieu, hohoo, and the Master Gunner took a large brass cannon from "his inside pocket, don't you know," and pointed it right at the victim's watch fob. It was a moment of dread suspense, but the candidate was as cool as a cucumber, and the smile that played upon his face told plainly that he was willing to expire in a just cause. This show of courage took away the evil desires of the Grand High Judges, and they decided to lessen the punishment by requiring him to eat three Bedford sandwiches. The victim begged to be kicked, dragged, drowned—anything to "escape the terrors of a Bedford sandwich, when the Grand High Judges realizing the enormity of their sentence reduced it to requiring the candidate to eat a tub of "rough on rats." Lem. Harbaugh was brought forward and was required to jump on balls of fire. He bore the torture bravely and was voted tip-top. The boys were all pleased with their work, and the Bloomington representatives express themselves in glowing terms in regard to the royal treatment they received.

Every business man of Bloomington ought to have printed on his letter head the matter that appears in the Progress under the heading "A Live Town," or something similar. It might be well to have it printed on the back of the envelope, but the letter head is the best place for it. Hundreds of letters are sent out daily by our business men to all points of the compass, to merchants, traders, manufacturers, lawyers and wholesale dealers, and these reminders on the letter heads might induce inquiry and investigation, that would result in sales of land and the establishment of desirable business enterprises in our midst. The Real Estate Association, perhaps, might act on this suggestion, and make a contract with some firm for 100,000 of such letter heads at about the cost of white paper; but the work ought to be neatly and tastefully executed—in such a manner as to be a credit to the city and to the organization.
