ADAMS, HALL & COMPANY.

Famous you the choice country product it applies to regular case towers, in the old established green house of Hemp, Wilson, Program Block.

IT IS THE WONDER OF THE AGE, the stock of goods on the shelves, counters, and in the drawers, in the Smith Jewelry Store and Bazaar south side. This house receives car-load after car-load of goods, and yet they are sold with such rapidity that there is always a demand for more. The stock is not all of a light or fragile character either, as some might suppose, for there are gold and silver watches of the best brands, clocks of the most reliable manufacturer, silver ware that is known to be standard even tinware is included in this monumental stock. Many household articles that are very useful and ornamental are also sold here at trifling prices.

ADAMS, HALL & COMPANY.
People from the country try and get fresh bread, pies, cakes, etc., at this place at reasonable prices.

One, BEXKART, BLOOMING-TON'S BOSS-BEAD BAKER MAKES BREAD.

You should see the handsomely decorated room of Robert son Bexkart, on the northeast corner of the square. They keep a very choice stock of goods in their bins, especially Tea, Coffees, Tobacco and Cigars. Call and we will

THE SUMMER has come likewise with a handsome stock of goods for the ladies, at Charley McPheeter's dry goods store. He does not give business in some ways to do in mid-summer, but goes on getting fresh stock each week, and selling it, so that new goods can always be found there. Ask for Charley McPhee-ter if you don't know where his store is located. He has a very choice stock of boots and shoes, and in our metropolis and from the competition.

Chicopee, Coffee, Tea, Tabac-co and Cigars, at Hemp, Wilson's dry goods store. Try one of the new brands of cigars in this store.

PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO for Blossoms. Now, the studio is open one to three days by entering the name from the outside. It will not fill, 750 feet by 500 feet. DRUGGIST, BLOOMINGTON. May 20-1888.

SEE THE best goods at Dan-McGee & Co.'s mercantile tailoring establishment. They embrace everything that is new, choice and desirable. Dan McGee, the famous and popular cutter, resides at the house, and will draft and cut your garments so they will fit well, and make you a "rep," for selling the best brands in staples.

The choice Mexican coffee, at Jimmy Robinson's grocery, West side of square, is worthy of your investigation. He keeps the choicest of everything in the grocery and provision line.

NEVER SINCE the world began has such a stock of goods in the Globe's furnishing line, been seen in the store of McGee & Co. Anything you may have heard of or seen in the city is received here promptly, and offered for sale at city prices. If you don't see what you want just ask for it.

WE KEEP three or four of the best Riding Cultivators with Plow pads. The Oliver Chaffee Plow stands at the head and we have it building will be enclosed by Jan-1st and is to be completed by July 1st, 1890. Work will begin this month.

LIBRARIAN Spangler left Wednesday night for his summer trip to Europe. The party now number nine and will likely receive additions at New York.

Rev. J. L. Pitner, class of '69, was the guest of Prof. and Mrs.
Beck while in the city. He is partor of the largest church of Bloomington, Ills., to which Mrs. Brodix, now of this city, formerly belonged.

Alfred H. Guthrie, Prep. class
'89, will have charge of Indian Springs, his father having bought out the Dobbins brothers. Mr.
Guthrie will be glad to welcome any of his old friends to the springs.

To all old alumni the presence of Mrs. Nutt and Mrs. Thompson has contributed greatly to their pleasure and satisfaction. One and all wish these good ladies many years yet of peaceful and happy life, in return for their good deeds of other days.

Prof. Miter and Osthaus went the one north to Wisconsin and the other east to Toledo, Ohio, on commencement day.

Prof. Van Nuyts and son will spend the summer at Waupaca, Wisconsin.

Edward H. Griggs of '89 will take part in the school of Philosophy at Farrington, Conn. He will have a position in the Faculty of I.
U. next year.

Senator Wright received a unanimous vote of thanks for his excellent address to the Alumni. It was ordered published.

Among the best of the after-dinner speakers was Rev. J. L.
Pitner.

Miss Maggie Porch, a competent and successful teacher in the Rushville schools, is at home to see the family, and enjoyed the reunions of her student friends.

Rev. Halstead's common sense address to the students was highly appreciated. The reverend gentleman is a pleasant speaker, who always says something when he talks.

Dr. Branner, State Geologist of Arkansas, drew on I. U. again, securing E. M. Kindle, who went down to that swampland country to fight flies and fever.

Ex Senator Wright was the favorite and popular Speaker at Commencement week. He always had something to say that was worth listening to, and he said it in a way that was pleasing.

Dr. Allison Maxwell of Indianapolis was among the commencement visitors. The Doctor is one of the most genial of men, and the Progress is proud of the fact that he stands at the front of his profession in the State's capital.

Dr. Jordan has bought a lot in the Atwater addition, and will build on it in the near future.

Prof. Will Bryan left for Vincennes on last Friday, to visit relations for a few days.

Fraser Hight has come home to spend his vacation.

Two solos were sung Wednesday, during commencement exercises, by Miss Nutt of Greencastle, a granddaughter of the late Dr. C. N. Nutt.

Dr. Jordan will deliver a series of five lectures in Des Moines, Iowa, this week.

Miss Bain's mother was in the city last week.

D. K. Goss, wife and child, were in the city last week.

Will Fessler, of Indianapolis, a former student, came down to hear his brother deliver his graduating speech.

The base ball boys had their photographs taken by Summers, By the way Summers reaped a harvest in that line this season.

The jaw bone boys, upon the invitation of the Phi Delta united in their social on Monday evening last.

W. T. Thompson of Edinburgh, who was a special student in college last year, came over to see the boys last week.

Ki Hert, who was a student at I. U. a number of years ago, was in the city last week. He is now traveling salesman for a Chicago shoe house.

Miss Lora Wilson has returned to her home in Bloomington from Tarkio, Mo., where she has been filling a position in the faculty of Tarkio College. By a private letter the Progress learns that Miss Wilson has earned the confidence and esteem of all connected with Tarkio College, that she was unanimously elected by the Board, and will probably fill the Latin Chair.
The Progress is always happy when it can chronicle the success of Bloomington people.

Miss Nellie Smith had Miss May Brown of Clay City for a commencement guest last week.

Everybody knows Eld. Bray, a man whose honesty and accommodating spirit has never been questioned—he is one of Charley McPhee-ter's salesmen, in his grocery store (old Groves stand). Go to this nest, cozy establishment and give your order for goods.
Charley Mc. sells goods at a very small profit—hence his store is the one for boarding house keepers to patronize.

To All Whom It may Concern:
I am the General Machine Co.—Goudron. You will know that I found the McCormick Harvester did not pay the expense of repairs and its draft.
To repair it had some to buy. I cut over 100 acres of wheat and oats last year and can say that your machine gave me perfect satisfaction in every respect.

Respectfully,
SAM. OATBART.

Joe W. Snodgrass, Agent Bloomington, Ind.

This machine is on exhibition at Bogger's Livery Stable, near depot.

CATASTROPHES! MAY OCCUR. BUT THEY WILL NOT PREVENT "THE EAGLE"

Clothing Store from selling goods cheaper than any other house in Bloomington.

connected with getting up an excursion reunion and banquets, and making it a success in all particulars.

—Mr. A. E. Johnson's stock sale occurred as per advertisement, and some six hundred dollars worth were disposed of. Mr. J. said last week that a large amount of his corn was under four feet of water in the bottoms, and that many farmers would be greatly injured in their finances by the freshet.

—M. J. Smith and family, C. R.
Worrell and family, and Mrs.
Maude Showers left for Cedar Lake on Monday. Tobe is anxious to use the new pole, presented to him by his Cincinnati admirers.

Rime will leave for Montana in a few days to visit her brother—Miss Leona Rime and Miss Mary Glover will leave in August for Montana, where they have positions as teachers in the public school at a very large salary.

—Dobkins Bros. have sold the Indian Springs to Alfred Guthrie of Tunnelton. They take as part payment a stock of goods at Orleans which is still to be paid $15,000, and the remainder, some $30,000, to be paid.

—Rod Winslow, the carriage maker, is the proud papa of a prospering daughter. He can manufacture his own sooting syrup, can Witlow.

for New York on Wednesday night of last week.

—"Protzel tinted shoes" is what an exchange calls the new style now worn. They are abundantly ugly, anyhow.

—Mrs. Vosburg of Waupaca, Wis., well known to many persons here who have spent the summer on the lakes at Waupaca, is suffering from disease of the spinal marrow, and has been suspended by the head and feet for months, unable to allow any part of her spine to touch the bed. Her agony is said to be great, and she is slowly waking away and is awaiting death to relieve her.
