FAMOUS for the choice country produce it supplies to regular customers, is the old established grocery house of Hemp, Wilson, "Progress Block."

CARLOAD LOTS of various kinds of goods are arriving at Joe Smith's Fancy Bazaar and Jewelry Emporium every week. Every useful article seen in the famous "Fair" at Chicago is duplicated at Smith's, and very many of them at lower prices than are demanded at the Chicago house. In standard goods the best brands of silverware are kept. All the most popular makes of watches, clocks, etc., can be found at this house and at prices lower than in the large cities for the reason that expenses are two-thirds less here. Ask Joe to show you some of these goods.

HEADQUARTERS for Tobacco, Cigars and canned goods. Hemp, Wilson's grocery store.

Geo. Beckert, Bloomington's HOB BREAD BAKER, BEST BREAD.

YOU SHOULD see the handsomely decorated rooms of Robertson Bros. on the northeast corner of the square. They keep very choice stock of goods in their line, especially Tins, Canned Goods, and Cigars. Call and see them.

EVERYTHING you may call for that is kept in a dry goods store, can be found in Charley McPheters' store, the only store on the south side of the square where good goods are kept. He has an especially handsome line of ladies' dress goods, ribbons, lace, etc., and in parasols, fans, ties, collars, cuffs, etc. he carries many novelties seen nowhere else. One feature of his store is cheapness—he sells the most reasonable prices for goods, and you can fit yourself out with a number of articles at the price you pay for one at some stores.

Choice Coffee, Tea, Tobacco and Cigars, at Hemp, Wilson's grocery store. Try one of the new brands of cigars at this store.

FAMOUS for the good goods it carries out, and famous for the ready-made suits and clothing, the McGees & Co.'s store is on the top wedge to prosperity. The "latest" in furnishing goods, may always be found at this store. Drop in and look around—no charge.

BREAD, cakes, crackers, pies and everything usually kept in a confectionery or restaurant, at George Beckert's.

You will find the best goods, in the grocery line, at Hemp, Wilson's. He receives fresh goods every week, so that nothing in his house is stale. Call on him in "Progress Block."

REDUCTION in prices of all goods at McGees' clothing store has taken place. Ed. is the buyer, and he gets such bargains every time he goes to the city that he can afford to sell cheaply. The life has been cut out of prices at McGees, however, and it will pay you to call and see the goods.

WE KEEP three or four of the best Riding Calvins and Plow made. The Oliver Chilled Plow stands at the head and we have it. BAKER, NEELD & CO.

Don't forget to call on Charley McPheters, in the old Greaves stand, and secure some of his choice groceries. He makes it a point to keep the best goods and sells as low as anybody in the business.

ICE. ICE. ICE. ICE. ICE. If you want the best Lake Ice you should leave your order at the Roseberry & Cron meat-hopstand, south of the Faulkner Hotel. B. Cron has a supply of the choicest ice, and will deliver it promptly to all parts of the city. Make your contractal once.

For homemade cheese and sweet dairy butter, Charley McPheters' grocery store, (old Greaves stand) takes the blue ribbon. Ask for the homemade Campbell cheese—it is delicious.

BAKER, NEELD & Co. keep a very choice and desirable stock of Wall Papers, Borders, etc. It was bought at a great bargain, and the bargain is donated to the firm's customers.

Get door and window screens at Baker, Neeld & Co.'s. Best in the town. Keep out the flies.

AS TO GROCERIES, it would be well for you to remember that Charley McPheters is in the old Greaves or Hunter grocery corner. He is selling lots of goods too, because he has plenty of the best, and takes pleasure in waiting on the trade.

THE Harrison Mixed Paints are the best and purest in the world. Will cover more space, look better, wear better, give greater satisfaction than any other brand. Call and see testimonials.

BAKER, NEELD & Co. CIGARS, Tea, Tobacco and fragrant Coffees are some of Robertson Bros. specialties. They sell as low as any firm in the business, and deliver goods promptly.

CHOICE COFFEES are Jimmy Robinson's specialty. He has an immense coffee trade and he secured it by keeping the best that could be procured for money. While this is a specialty it does not prevent him from having in stock the best line of groceries ever seen on the west side of the square. He can give you bargains for spot cash.

SALESMEN wanted to solicit for our well known Nursery. Good wages paid every week. Permanent employment guaranteed. Write at once to Geo. Beckert, Chicago, Ill. July 11-19w.

The choice Mexican coffee, at Jimmy Robinson's grocery, west side of square, is worthy of your investigation. He keeps the choicest of everything in the grocery and provision line.

CRAIG WORLEY has a lot of first-class Buggies, Carriages, Phaetons and Spring Wagons, at his livery stable, which he will sell for cash or will trade for mules or horses. Call on Craig before you sell your stock.

BEST LUNCH in town, at George Beckert's. People from the country can get fresh bread, pies, cakes, etc., at this place at reasonable prices.

An enraged rooster attacked Mrs. Frank McPheters one day last week, and struck her in the face with one of his spurs. These Bloomington roosters are b-a-d chickens.

Those Cedar Lake bass sent by Toke Smith were uncommonly fine, and arrived in good condition. They reminded one of the mountain trout of Colorado.

John Blair's family have been entertaining Mrs. McCurdy and daughters of Princeton, Ind.

A number of Monroe county people have visited Martinsville, arriving well during the past two days, among them J. W. Baskirk and wife.

WALL PAPER! WALL PAPER! We have brought on the largest stock of Wall Paper ever seen in the town; it is also the finest. The proof of this is an examination. BAKER, NEELD & Co.

Read announcement of the Eagle Clothing Store. When you go there ask for Lot and number—that's where the bargains are. Take the Progress along and point to their advertisement.

Just think of a fine suit of clothes selling at from $6.50 to $10! It is wonderful, but that is the way they are doing at the Eagle. Read their advertisement, take the Progress down and point out what you want.

At the "Eagle" they are selling MoleSkin Pants for 75c. That is cheaper than going naked.

New items added to the Red Letter Sale every week, until summer goods are closed.

John and Will Thomas are proprietors of the new Barber Shop in the Durand building, west of the National Hotel, and solicit the patronage of the public. The room is neatly furnished and all the appliances are first-class. Competent workmen will be found at this Barber Shop during business hours, and no pains will be spared to please the public. Remember the place and call.

ALL GOOD PIANISTS praise the fine action and the unsurpassed singing tone quality of the Vose & Sons Piano.

Don't fail to attend the Banner Red Letter Sales, for all summer goods must go, at some price.

I have come to Bloomington to stay, and will buy good horses, mares or mules from five to eight years old, and will pay cash or will trade buggies, carriages, wagons, surreys, carts or harness. I have for sale buggies, phaetons, whips, robes, dusters, spring wagons, road carts, etc. Everything is first-class and late style, such goods as will recommend themselves. Come and see them before you buy or think of trading. Office in old National Hotel, or inquire at Craig Worley's Livery Stable. DAVID MCGINNIS. June 12-3m.

BUY A GOOD PIANO!

STOP PAYING BIG PRICES FOR F. LUTER, the authorized agent of Monroe county, sells the celebrated Henry F. Miller, the favorite Vose & Sons and the unequalled medium priced New England Pianos. Also the Durdell and Washburn Organs. Prices as low as in Boston or Indianapolis. All Pianos warranted for five years. Sales for cash or on time.

Jas. Slocumb is one of the lucky increase veterans.

There will be plenty of oats and grass, owing to the "wet spell."

Miss Hettie Ourbacher of Louisville is the guest of Miss Maude Vanzandt in this place.

The little girls present were Misses Josephine Clark, Maude Carmichael, Jennie Clamen, Grace and Cora Hinkle, Maude Showers, Alice Worley, Jessie Simmons, Flora Dodd, Ida Waldron.

John Keck, the South College Avenue grocer, is the father of a lively young boy. John is doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Ida Henley arrived in Bloomington on Monday, and will go from here to Cincinnati on Wednesday to take a course in vocal music. She says that Friday, the publisher's report of her marriage was without any foundation whatever. She has been teaching music in Rockport since last fall, and has met with all the success she could expect.

Miss Clara Orchard will go to Columbus, Ind., this week to visit Miss Nora Long.

W. M. Fee of Lewiston, Idaho, is the guest of Wm. O. Fee's family.

Henry Eller is in receipt of an original Indian pension.

Bob Marshall is developing a good deal of hard work power that he was not supposed to possess when he tackled the stone quarry business. After Bob gets himself trained down about ninety pounds he will send a challenge to John L.

Dr. Tufts, Optician, representative of the "American Optical Association," is now in Bloomington. Office at Wm. Browning's residence. Dr. Tufts came to Bloomington by request of citizens. Call and see him. CONSULTATION FREE. He is prepared here to grind glasses into your old spectacle frames, thus saving you cost of new frames. Bring them with you.

Henry Starks, at one time a well known horseman of Bloomington, was in town last week. Starks is superintendent of the Louisville street car stables. At one time while here, Starks bought a little mare and trained her till she could pace easily at 2:38; he then sold her for $300, making a good profit. The mare was taken to Boston and trained till she got down in the twenties, and finally sold for $5,000. Starks has a good position at Louisville, and is a good man for the place.

CHARLES H. BOLLMAN, Bloomington, Ind., July 15, '88. Whereas, The class of '88 has been called to mourn the loss of one of its worthiest members, Charles H. Bollman, and since the relation held throughout his entire college course with us makes it highly fitting that we express and record our appreciation of him. Resolved, That his ability as a student will ever be held by us in grateful remembrance and that the removal of such a promising young man from our midst, leaves a vacancy that will be sadly felt and realized by all the members of the class as well as by the entire community. Resolved, That we express our deepest sympathy with the friends and relatives of the deceased, and that these resolutions be published in the city papers and copies be furnished to his mother and the members of the class.

Mrs. Lucas is making some handsome improvements on her property at the north end of Morton street.

I. Milt. Rogers' son-in-law, Henry Lee, has returned to Kansas; his wife will remain here during the summer.

John Waldron has sold another lot in his addition, on east 5th street, Mr. Swayne of the train dispatcher's force being the purchaser. Price $350.

Wheat will come in at a pretty lively rate perhaps, early in the season, not because the price is high (70c), but because there is a large crop of it.

Frank Foster will preach at Cold Water, Kansas, during the next two months, but like all the other boys had to start from Bloomington.

The first wheat brought to this place for grinding was raised by Jas. Moore, east of town. The grain was solid and good and averaged 35 bushels to the acre.

Another artesian well is being dug at Martinsville. The expense of "taking treatment" at the Barnard well is said to be $8 per week now, in addition to board. That is a little on the Hot Springs style.

A serious accident happened to T. P. Whitson, last Wednesday. He was on his way home in a road wagon, and was thrown from the vehicle when near the Wood Yard. The wheels passed over him, and his injuries it is feared may prove fatal.

Frank Axtell of the Washington (Davies co.) schools is sick with fever at the residence of his father—came here to the funeral of Mrs. Kennedy and was taken sick after arriving.

Washington county, according to the enumeration just taken, would be a good place for colored people's "hook," as there is not a colored person in the entire county. Salem, the county seat, is said to be especially hospitable to the colored folks and great inducements are held out to any who will locate there.

There is considerable sickness in town at present, especially fevers, due, no doubt, to the great quantity of decaying vegetation and the number of pig pens that are stinking in various portions of town. This is an outrageous thing and should not be tolerated. As a matter of justice to those of our citizens who take care of their premises the slovenly and careless people should be compelled to do right in this particular as a measure of relief for themselves as well as others.

Program for convention of the Christian churches of Owen, Morgan and Monroe counties, at Spencer, Indiana, July 25th and 26th, 1889:

THURSDAY, JULY 25th. Meeting opened by Judge W. M. Franklin, President of the District Executive Committee; Devotional Exercises, Geo. Johnson, Moderator; Address of Welcome, C. H. The produce business, already a big item in Bloomington, promises to be larger still. J. D. Dillman having severed his connection with Dronberger & Co. is now employed by the Jordan produce company, and the north end of the Model Mill building has been rented.

Auditor Blair has been earning his vegetables by the sweat of his brow this summer, and triumphantly ate less than a peck of tomatoes of his own raising, early last week. West side ahead? Or o-u-rse it is.

John Graham was trying natural mineral water last week.

Col. Isaac Worrall is entertaining Miss Edwards of Spencer.

John M. McGee will locate in Marion, O., where he will conduct a pension office.

Eld. James M. Mathes, well known here, was 81 years of age on the 10th. He is residing at Bedford.

The "Bee Hive," Jas. Hunter's furniture store, and Lindley's drug store are now each protected by screen doors.

The foundation trenches for the new college building remind one of the trenches around Vicksburg.

Plenty of corn in the market. Rev. Minton is said to be the champion roasting ear raiser, with Bob Foster a close second.

Albert Sadtler and his wife (formerly Miss Evans) now of Martinsville, are visiting Bloomington relations and friends.

The brick masons have been hurrying up the work on Benson's building, and the tin roof will be on, and will be painted this week.

People are "coming in" from the surrounding villages daily, and becoming citizens of Bloomington. This town seems to be the center of attraction.

Artesian well No. 2 will have a No. 1 derrick building whether they strike anything or nothing. As the well is located on the west side, however, the investors feel very confident.

Sullivan took good care to keep away from Bloomington. Whenever a Bloomington policeman undertakes to arrest a bruiser he he as big as a mountain, he must "come along."

On the first Sunday in August there will be a Graveyard Meeting at Mt. Salem, six miles south of Bloomington. Preaching in the morning by Dr. Flood, in the evening by Rev. Lyons. A general invitation is extended to all.

The American Eagle, gallant old bird, never was in higher feather than on its 113th birthday. With American ideas in the ascendant and the Republican party in power, the outlook for the country could hardly be better. Are you ready? Hip! hip!

The people who had put up their hay carelessly last Saturday were busy on Monday evening it out to dry. The rain on Sunday was a "soaker."

The "Model" grist mill shut down Saturday evening, the contract under which it had been run having expired. It may not be operated before September, when a str. firm of capitalists will probably come from Chicago to "make the wheels go round."

Misses Adda, Lora and Maggie Wilson are visiting in Indianapolis, expecting to remain several weeks.

Ewing Butterfield and Harry Swindler returned from Pine Lake on Saturday last. They report week-long unusually plentiful, voracious, hot intense and the menu exceedingly poor.

On July 5th Edward H. Griggs of I. U., was married at Indianapolis to Miss Jennie Fry. Miss Fry was a graduate of '88, and Mr. Griggs graduated in June last. The couple have gone east, where Mr. Griggs will pursue his studies.

The Indianapolis Journal of last Friday had among its personal items the following:

Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, occurred a pleasant home wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, No. 104 Peru street. Their daughter, Miss Lotta A., was married to Prof. Wm. J. Bryan, of the State University, Bloomington. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Edson, of Memorial Presbyterian church. Prof. and Mrs. Bryan will spend the summer among the mountains of Tennessee.

Milford Mathers is now conductor on the train from Orleans to French Lick Springs.

During the big 4th of July demonstration at Denver, Colorado, Mr. F. E. Dewesse and wife (nee Bertha Baker) left their room for a few moments while they went to the next corner to see the procession. On returning they discovered that Mr. W.'s fine gold watch had disappeared. They had incautiously left the door unlocked.

Prof. Geo. Owen, practical demonstrator of Geology, has established a chair of active research in the city college for light offences. The students in this department will be permitted to occupy airy quarters at the southeast corner of the depot, under a neat awning, and will have as a lecturer and tutor perhaps Prof. Gar. Reeves. As this region is noted for its vast variety of geological formations, the school, which will be conducted pretty much as the Concord school of philosophy is supposed to be, will doubtless be productive of great good to those who are so fortunate as to partake of its hospitality. Further particulars may be secured at the county jail.

Look out for the Red Letter Sale at the Banner.

Don't fail to attend the Banner Red Letter Sales. All summer goods must go at some price.

Word was received last week from Way Cross, Georgia, that Chas. Bollman, who in company with Fessler, had gone to that place on an lithologic trip for the Smithsonian Institute, had been stricken with swam fever, and could live but a few days. On Saturday evening he died, his friend Fessler having started for the north the day previous. Fessler arrived here Sunday night, very much the worse for his trip. He will accompany Dr. Jordan and Prof. Everman to Colorado this week. Mr. Bollman is at Pittsburgh, and it is expected that the remains will be forwarded to that city for burial.

In accordance with the request of his mother, the remains of Charles Bollman were taken from Way Cross, Ga., to Pittsburgh for burial.

Miss Myrtle Logg, a graduate of I. U., class '88, was married on June 26th to Dr. Beall of Clarksburg.

Miss Eva Brown returned home from Terre Haute on last Saturday, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Jessie Cliver.

So long as the Continental Hotel of Chicago has Mr. Ed. Hawks as its chief clerk, so long will its friends be as numerous as its well pleased guests are countless. Mr. Hawks is one of the most obliging, unostentatious gentlemen we have ever met in the hotel fraternity. The Continental is still managed by Mr. Collins, who seems omnipresent in its watchful care over the minor details, and go so far toward making a hotel what it should be: a qu. home-like place of rest and recuperation. This model hotel is located on the corner of Wabash Avenue and Madison st.

A Kansas exchange says that if you put your ear to the ground you can hear the potatoes quarrelling for more room.

Marshall Owen says it is not necessary for him to remind you about cutting weeds—there is a State law and a city ordinance on the subject, and some day he'll commence cutting affidavits and left. You hear him.

ORDINANCE NO. 50.
