Eagle Clothing House.

FAMOUS FOR the choice country produce is supplied to regular customers in the old established grocery house of Hemp, Wilson, "Progress Block."

CARLOADS of various kinds of goods are arriving at Joe Smith's Fancy Bazaar and Jewelry Emporium every week. Every useful article seen in the famous "Fair" at Chicago is duplicated at Smith's, and very many of them at lower prices than are demanded at the Chicago bazaar. In standard goods the best brands of silverware are kept. All the most popular makes of watches, clocks, etc., can be found at this house and at prices lower than in the large cities for the reason that expenses are two-thirds less here. Ask Joe to show you some of these goods.

HEADQUARTERS for Tobacco, Cigars and conical goods. Hemp, Wilson's grocery store.

Geo. H. McCarty, BLOOMINGTON'S BREAD BAKER BAKER BAKER BAKER.

EVERYTHING you may call for that is kept in a dry goods store, can be found in Charley McPherson's store, the only store on the north side of the square where good goods are kept. He has an especially handsome line of ladies' dress goods, ribbons, laces, etc., and in parasols, fans, ties, collars, cuffs, etc. he carries many novelties seen nowhere else. One feature of his store is cheapness—he sells the most reasonable prices for goods, and you can find yourself out with a number of articles at the price you pay for one at some store.

—Cheapest Coffee, Tea, Tobacco and Cigars, at Hemp, Wilson's grocery store. Try one of the new brands of cigars at this store.

FAMOUS for the good goods it sells out, and famous for the handsome suits of clothing, the ready-made suits to order, McGee & Co.'s store is on the top wave of popularity. The "latest" is fashionable goods, may always be found at this store. Drop in and look around—no charge.

BREAD, cakes, crackers, pies and everything usually kept in a confectionery or restaurant, at George Benckert's.

You will find the best goods, in the grocery line, at Hemp, Wilson's. He receives fresh goods every week, so that nothing in his house is stale. Call on him in "Progress Block."

REDUCTION in prices of all goods at McGee's clothing store has taken place. Ed. is the buyer, and he gets such bargains every time he goes to the city that he can afford to sell cheaply. The life has been out of prices at McGee's, however, and it will pay you to call and see the goods.

We keep three or four of the best Bidding Cultivators and Plow mades. The Oliver Chilled Plow stands at the head and we have it.

BAKER, NEEDLE & CO.
CRAIG WORTHLEY has a lot of first-class Buggies, Carriages, Phaetons and Spring Wagons, at his very stable, which he will sell for cash or will trade for mules or horses. Call on Craig before you buy your stock.

GET A WHEAT DRILL. The best is the cheapest. Baker, Need & Co. believe they have the best, and you should go and examine for yourself.

ALL THE PEOPLE raise their voices in praise of the grocery house of Char. McPherson. It is a neat, clean establishment, where everything you may call for is kept in its season. The genial proprietor is always glad to meet his old friends, and will have your goods delivered promptly.

For homemade cheese and sweet dairy butter, Charley McPherson's grocery store, (old Greenwald) takes the blue ribbon. Ask for the homemade Campbell cheese—it is delicious.

YOU WILL WANT A WHEAT DRILL, soon, and it will pay you to go to Baker, Need & Co.'s hardware store and examine the well tested "McPherson" and "Superior." These machines sow fertilizer as well as grain, and have all the latest and best improvements. A large wheat crop will be put in this year, and you can't borrow a drill when you want it—you'd better buy one.

As to GROCERIES, it would be well for you to remember that Charley McPherson's is in the old Greenwald or Hunter grocery corner. He is selling lots of goods too, because he has plenty of the best, and takes pleasure in waiting on the trade.

Everybody smokes the "X. Y. Z." cigar. For sale by all first-class dealers.

THE Harrison Mixed Paints are the best and purest in the world. Will cover more space, look better, wear better, give greater satisfaction than any other brand. Call and see testimonials.

BAKER, NEEDLE & CO.
CHOICE COFFEES are Jimmy Robinson's specialty. He has an immense coffee trade and he secured it by keeping the best that could be procured for money. While this is a specialty it does not prevent him from having in stock the best line of groceries ever seen on the west side of the square. He can give you bargains for spot cash.

SALESMEN wanted to solicit for our well known Nursery. Good wages paid every week. Permanent employment guaranteed. Write at once before territory taken, stating age.

CHAS. BROS., Chicago, Ill. July 17-1904.
—The choice Mexican coffee, at Jimmy Robinson's grocery, west side of square, is worthy of your investigation. He keeps the choicest of everything in the grocery and provision line.

I have come to Bloomington to stay, and will buy good horses, mares or geldings from five to eight years old, and everything in harness and late style, such goods as will "wear and themselves." Come and see me before you buy or think of trading. Office in old Christian church building, east of National Hotel, or inquire at Craig Worthy's Livery Stable. DAVID MCGINNIS.

—The choir of the A. M. E. church went to Spencer last week to supply the camp meeting people with music. There are few better choirs in any of the churches than that belonging to A. M. E.

—Mrs. Durand with fancy goods on the north side of the room, and Mrs. Bowman with millinery goods on the south side, in the way they will conduct their business in their west side store room.

—Nathan Smith will move to town from his farm in the southern portion of the county; Jonathan May will also come to town and occupy his property, corner of Walnut and 3d sts., and John G. Robinson will move in and occupy the Rhorer house west of M. J. Smith's.

—Geo. M. Chase of Topeka, Kansas, stopped in Bloomington a couple of days last week, on his return from Boston, where he goes to buy his goods twice each year. Mr. Chase is carrying on a profitable boot and shoe business in Topeka.

—Monroe county is pretty well fixed. There are four Government positions charged up to it, viz: two pension examiners, a mail agent, and a wagon inspector. Singular to relate, however, the pension examiners are both Cleveland men, and the two others have never been assigned to their field of operations.

—Thos. C. Whisnand will ask the commissioners to grant him license to sell liquor in the new iron building recently erected by Frank Dobson. It might be called "the iron hall."

—Since the general Recorder of this county came from Washington tp., launched into the sea of real estate speculation, and has done well, many of his friends in that section have been tempted to do likewise, and every day some individual removes to the city. All are welcome.

—Martinsville Republican: Mrs. John Campbell and three daughters, of Bloomington, and Mrs. John Redmond and two daughters, of Logansport, are visiting their sister Miss Mary A. Smith, at the residence of A. Rose, and are patronizing her health giving Artesian Mineral Water.

—John Cole left Bloomington last week for Middletown, Ind., with three fast horses and two groomes. He has two pacers and a trotter, and will without doubt bring back ribbons and money.

—"If it sticks" a trade has been made of considerable magnitude in this immediate vicinity. Dr. Davis of the Monroe Route has contracted for the farms of W. J. Allen and Wm. C. Fee, and abstracts have been furnished. Allen's farm consists of 143 acres, and is to be bought for $75 per acre; Fee's farm contains 215 acres and is held at $50 per acre. The Allen land joins the city limits at the north-eastern corner, and the Fee land joins the Allen land on the east. If the trade is closed Dr. Davis will use the land as an immense stock farm and residence, and there is no finer location in Indiana.

—At the laying of the corner stone of the Soldiers' Monument on the 22d, the 70th and will hold a reunion. Geo. Thornton is the only surviving member of the 70th in this locality.

—Chas. Alexander and Ed. Hall returned from Martin county last week looking ten years younger. This improvement however they attribute to the time spent at Trinity Springs, which they prefer to any other. They report nearly 100 guests at Trinity.

—Some parties, one night recently visited the residence of Geo. Payne Jr., and in the capacity of "regulators" administered a severe admonition to that gentleman. Mr. Thos. Oliver, a prominent citizen of Benton tp., was also recently admonished in like manner to mend his ways.

—Marshall & East will be the only firm in Bloomington that has had the nerve to push the stone business, having secured a chandler for their stone quarry. There is just as good stone in Bloomington as can be found anywhere in this or Lawrence county, and there is no reason why it should not be quarried. A Chicago dealer was in town last week and contracted to buy all the stone Messrs. M. & E. could take out.

—Ab. Dowden, J. M. Carmichael and Stant. Thresher own a spoke factory near Stanford, and on Wednesday afternoon last the boiler exploded, resulting in the death of Henry Fowler, a son of Pat. Fowler. The boiler was in good condition, so far as is known, and Jim Strange, who acted as fireman and engineer in the absence of the regular engineer, stated that he had tested the gauge just previous to the explosion and that it stood two guages of water. Strange says the first thing that he knew he was knocked down, and then heard some one scream in the direction of the pond in front of him; he then saw a man's head rise above the surface; he rushed in and dragged the body out and it proved to be that of Fowler, who had been thrown about fifty feet by the explosion, and into the water. Fowler was carrying water in buckets and emptying them in a barrel that stood near the boiler, and it is presumed that the explosion occurred while he was at or near the barrel. His injuries were in the abdomen principally, and he lived but a few minutes after he was taken from the water. The others, some five or six in number, were not injured seriously. The boiler was torn to pieces, and will be a total loss. The funeral of Fowler occurred on Thursday, and was largely attended.

—On Saturday last (so Mr. Harvey Hazel informs the Progress) the barn of Jas. Baxter was destroyed by fire at about midnight. The barn contained $100 worth of hay, and four stacks of hay across the road were also burned. The granary is 75 feet away from the barn, and it was found that several sheafs of oats had been carried from a field near by, placed in the granary and ignited, but the beech timber of which the building was constructed would not take fire easily and it smoldered and had died out. There is no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary. The loss is estimated at about $700 with no insurance, the policy having expired in April last.

—Mrs. Ben. Adams Jr. was prevented from going to Kansas, Tuesday morning of last week, because of sickness; S. E. Carmichael was also unable to go in consequence of the dangerous illness of his little son, Edward.

—The Oulitic Stone Co., of which John Crafoza is President and Will. Adams Secretary, had a man testing the depth of the ledge, last week. He has a machine with which he bores out a core, and by means of this contrivance he went down fifty feet through a solid mass of buff limestone of the finest quality before striking a seam. This is a remarkable showing, and proves that there is enough stone there to warrant longer than the present owners will have any use for it.

—W. C. T. U. hall, over Sigsbee's store, will be opened on next Saturday (17th) from 2 to 4 p. m. for a social gathering of members and friends. Women from the country are especially invited to spend all or a part of that time, as is convenient to them, with those who will endeavor to make the hours pleasant and profitable.

—On Sunday evening Miss Ella Tuley and her sister Mrs. T. T. Treat, were out driving a pony in a road cart. When in Fairview, a dog rushed out at the pony and the animal jumped to one side, overturned the cart and spilling out the ladies, began to run. Mrs. Treat held to the lines for a short time and sustained some painful bruises, but fortunately neither lady was seriously hurt. The pony dashed east on 6th street at a furious run till he reached Worley's stable. The cart, which was entirely new, and the property of Miss Ella, was badly damaged—a shaft being broken and the dash crushed.

—Last Saturday night the attention of the city officers was attracted to the vicinity of the depot where George Bookman, a young man who has given the police a vast amount of trouble in the past, was found getting into a fight, as usual when intoxicated. He was arrested by Marshal Owen and Gar. Reeves and taken to the county jail. Before being put in he was searched, and a knife taken from him. After he was placed in a cell he reached through the iron lattice door and gave officer Reeves a vicious slash across the right arm with a keen knife that had evidently been concealed in his coat sleeve. Several arteries were severed and Reeves bled profusely before surgical aid could be secured.

—Mrs. Ellen Haley of east 8th street is sick with cancer, and is gradually growing weaker with no hope of recovery.

—Geo. Bookman was turned over to the circuit court at its Sept. term to answer to a charge of cutting with intent. Bail was fixed at $2,000. He didn't give it.
