West Side. ADAMS, HALL & CO.

FAMOUS FOR the choice country produce it supplies to regular customers, is the old established grocery house of Hemp, Wilson, "Frogman Block."

CANADIAN lots of various kinds of goods are arriving at Joe Smith's Fancy Butcher and Jewelry Emporium every week. Every useful article seen in the famous "Fair" in Chicago is duplicated at Smith's, and very many of them at lower prices than are demanded at the Chicago houses. In standard goods the best brands of silverware are kept. All the most popular makes of watches, clocks, etc., can be found at this house and at prices lower than in the large cities for the reason that expenses are two-thirds less here. Ask Joe to show you some of these goods.

HEADQUARTERS for Tobacco, Cigars and canned goods. Hemp, Wilson's grocery store.

Geo. BENCKART, BLOOMINGTON'S BREAD BAKER BAKES BEST BREAD.

EVERYTHING you may call for that is in a dry goods store, can be found in Charley Mobley's store, the only store on the south side of the square where good goods are kept. He has an especially handsome line of ladies' dress goods, silks, laces, etc., and in parlors, fine, fine, collars, cuffs, etc. he carries many novelties seen nowhere else. One feature of his store is cheapness—he sells the most reasonable prices for goods, and you can get yourself out with a number of articles at the price you pay for just at home stores.

Choice Coffee, Tea, Tobacco and Cigars, at Hemp, Wilson's grocery store. Try one of the new brands of cigars at this store.

ALL THE PEOPLE take their wives in pairs to the grocery house of Chas. McPherson. It is a neat, clean establishment, where everything you may call for is kept in the season. The general proprietor is always glad to meet his old friends, and will have your goods delivered promptly.

Don't neglect the opportunity to get a late style suit of clothes, as now offered by McGee & Co., at prices as low as to be remarkable. An immense Fall stock has been purchased and installed in the store, coming in almost every day. While in the store examine the striped Henderson jeans pants. Something entirely new, and so handsome and well made that no one would suspect them to be sold for less than $5, though they go for less.

You will find the best goods, in the grocery line, at Hemp, Wilson's. He receives from home every week, so that nothing in his house is stale. Call on him in "Progress Block."

REDUCTION in prices of all goods at McGee's clothing store has taken place. Ed, the buyer, and he gets such bargains every time he goes to the city that he can afford to sell cheaply. The life has been cut out of prices at McGee's, however, and it will pay you to call and see the goods.

—Bargains upon the "X. Y. Z." cigar. For sale by all first-class dealers.

CHOICE COFFEES are Jimmy Robinson's specialty. He has an immense coffee trade and he secures it by keeping the best that could be procured for money. While this is a specialty it does not prevent him from having in stock the best line of groceries ever seen on the west side of the square. He has given you bargains for ages.

CHAS. WORLEY has a lot of first-class Buggies, Carriages, Phaetons and Spring Wagons, at his Agency stable, which he will sell for cash or will trade for mules or horses. Call on Craig before you sell your stock.

ENGLISH CHAMBER SETS, of the latest designs, have been received by James Robinson, the original west side grocer. These sets are worth inspection by lovers of the beautiful, whether they buy or not. This ware is warranted not to "crack," or get full of little hair-like cracks, and will last a life-time with care.

—Have your old buggy top repaired by Roe L. Winslow.

—See the "Grand Rapids" Spiral Spring Buggy and Carriage at Roe L. Winslow's, Free Block.

TRY Geo. Benckart's delicious "Parker House Rolls." They are very fine.

CHOCOLATE COFFEES, Tea, Tobacco and Cigars, at the grocery store of Lewis Williams, opposite Seward's Foundry. Call and get prices.

LEWIS WILLIAMS is located opposite Seward's Foundry, in the grocery business. He keeps a full stock of everything in his line. Call in and see him.

DO YOU WANT novelties in Queensware and Glassware? Hemp, Wilson keeps everything you may want at his grocery store, under the Progress office.

—Smoke the C. C. C. Cigar.

—Smoke the C. C. C. Cigar.

—For homemade cheese and sweet dairy butter, Charley McPherson's grocery store, (old Groves stand) takes the blue ribbon. Ask for the homemade Campbell cheese—it is delicious.

—Charley McPherson is stocking up his handsome grocery store for the Fall trade, and will make a specialty of supplying boarding houses with choice goods at close prices. Call and get his job lot prices. The best is cheapest—he has the best.

—Buggies of all makes at Roe L. Winslow's, North College Avenue, (Free Block).

TAKE A CHEW of my new selections of Tobacco, and while in the store examine goods and prices. LEWIS WILLIAMS.

Call at H. P. Tourner's jewelry establishment and see his extensive stock of eye glasses, spectacles and optical goods.

THE RELIABLE and long established grocery house of Hemp, Wilson is still at the corner of 6th st. and College Ave. Only the best goods kept in stock.

Volpert's restaurant and bakery, north side of the square, is in regular receipt of best brands Baltimore oysters. They will be served in my style and on short notice.

To My Customers: I have waited on you for that note and account too long already. Don't get mad if you get a statement through the Postoffice but come in and settle.

W. J. ALLEN.

SALESMEN wanted to solicit for our well known Nursery. Good wages paid every week. Permanent employment guaranteed. Write at once to the following address: CHAS. BROS., Chicago, Ill. July 17-19.

I have come to Bloomington to stay, and will buy good horses, mares or males from five to eight years old and will pay cash or will trade. I have for sale buggies, carriages, phaetons, robes, jackets, spring wagons, road carts, etc. Everything is first-class and late style, such goods as will remain in demand. Come and see them before you buy or think of trading. Office in old Christian church building, east of National Hotel, or inquire at Craig Worley's Livery Stable. DAVID MCGINNIS.

BEST LUNCH in town, at George Benckart's. People from the country can get fresh bread, pies, cakes, etc., at this place at reasonable prices.

—In going to and from the Fair drive out 7th st. and see the new houses on that thoroughfare, and the handsomely located lots.

—The Indiana State Fair will be held at Indianapolis, September 23 to 28. Every effort is being made by the management to make the Fair the best and most attractive ever held. Indiana is the center of the breeding of improved live stock, and the State Fair the nucleus where will concentrate the competitors in the "battle of the breeds."

—The astrologers say that this year is to be one of great fatalities, because it began with a total eclipse of the sun, Jan. 1st, and ends with another, Dec. 31st.

—The round trip fare on the Monon to Chattanooga will be about $8.30. A number of the Army of the Cumberland will go from here.

—The "Amish sect" is the name by which a small band of religiousists in Davies county are known. The male members are not permitted to wear suspenders or buttons on their clothes; the same must be fastened with hooks and eyes, and they have other equally eccentric customs. Neither are they permitted to own a folding top buggy.

—"Good morning, little orphan," said the corn to the oats. "Why do you call me orphan?" replied the oats. "Because you have no fodder," chuckled the corn. The oats was shocked.

PERFECTION HEADLIGHT OIL is the brand I sell and warrant. Whenever you get my Perfection Oil your lamps will not smoke and the unpleasant odor so common with other oils is missed. Call at Chas. H. McPherson's grocery.

PUBLIC SALE.—I will offer for sale by Auction at my residence, one mile north of Bloomington, Wednesday, Oct. 2d, 1889, all my personal property, consisting of Horses, Cattle, Hogs, Machinery, Farming Implements, Household and Kitchen Furniture, Corn in Field, Hay in Stack and in Barn, etc. Sums of $5 and under cash; all sums over that amount a credit of six months will be given secured by notes with good security and without interest. —Miss Addie Perry, daughter of Maj. H. F. Perry, is taking lessons in drawing and painting, at Lafayette, and may remain all winter.

—Linc. Browning, who has been traveling in the east with Clint. Worrall, is at home sick with typhoid fever.

—All students buy clothing at the Corner.

—The daughters of Ab. Anderson and Wm. Bolinghouse are both sick with typho-malarial fever.

—At present there are no vacant boxes in the postoffice, and a number of persons are waiting for additional boxes and drawers which will soon be supplied.

—J. A. Walter Howe and family left for their new home in Mt. Vernon, Iowa, Mrs. Polk for her home at Vicksburg, Mississippi, and Mrs. Frank Hunter for her home at El Paso, Texas, on Monday.

—Four powerful passenger locomotives, numbered from 86 to 90 have been placed on the Monon. They are handsome machines, and are needed to pull the heavy trains now run over this popular line.

—Ind. Journal: Miss Julia Landers, left yesterday afternoon for Washington, D. C., to visit her sister, Mrs. Mollie Landers Beall, for a short time before going to Bryn Mawr College. On Friday evening, Mrs. Beall will give a large reception.

—The Coffin-Mullikin trade, which for a time was "off," has now been closed and the deed for the College Avenue house has been secured by Mr. Graham. Leroy Sanders occupies the house at present and will be compelled to find another location.

Neckwear—Dress Ties, Tecks, Puffs, Four-in-Hands, Winders. The Corner.

—Thursday night David Hughes and wife went to church, and on returning to their home found that some twenty of their friends had taken possession, in commemoration of the fact that it was the 44th anniversary of Mr. Hughes' birth. A pleasant evening was spent by those who had met together.

—Considerable typhoid fever of a malarial type is being developed in Bloomington. If the Board of Health would start some evening on a "snelling tour" they could locate several pig pens in this city that are odorous enough to produce cholera.

—Last Sunday completed the thirty-third year that Dr. Kirkwood and wife have lived in Bloomington.

—Every rain now chokes up the sewer at the corner of 6th st. and College Avenue, and Wilson's cellar and Showers' meat shop are inundated. A suit for damages is threatened, as there is no relief while the water from two streets is emptied through a small pipe like the one located at this point.

Collars and Cuffs in Endless Variety. The Corner.

—Several gentlemen of this place, among them Dr. McGee and Geo. Bollenbacher, are interested in an option on forty acres of stone land near Stillenville, and a meeting is to be held on Friday to organize a quarry company. J. W. THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.

—We beg leave to advise our readers to be sure and not forget to see the Panorama of the Battle of Gettysburg, while in Chicago during the Exposition. Take advantage of the low rates and see Gettysburg. There is no picture in the world like this of Gettysburg; no other picture presents such a scope of country or gives such a thrilling representation of a battle. It is no wonder it is called "Chicago's Pride, and Greatest Artistic Attraction."

On Wednesday, Green Ring, Trotting and Pacing.

Thursday, Fast Trotting and Pacing.

Friday, Running Races and Grand Parade.

Half-fare rates on the Monon from Geoport and Mitchell.

—The folly of carrying a revolver was illustrated last week, in the case of Mount Cather an E. I. fireman at Elkhart, who while at work dropped his "trusty 32" from his pocket, and was shot through the bowels by the explosion of the innocent thing. This is a lesson he will not forget, if he should live again.

Suits and Overcoats made to order. The Corner.

—The Pennsylvania Ry. Company will reduce the time to Chicago to 8 1/2 hours. The shortest time now made is 11 hours. In order to meet this competition the Monon is buying some very heavy new passenger engines, one of which has already been received and made its first trip Sunday night with a freight train; and will do some running that will surprise the natives along the line. The distance between the two cities is 328 miles via the Monon, 303 miles via the Pennsylvania route.—Ex.

—Indianapolis Journal: Miss Grettie Y. Holliday will leave to-morrow for Deer Park, Md., to spend a week with Mrs. Benjamin Harrison. She sails the following week for Florida.
