Republican Progress

Printed each Wednesday Morning, by WILLIAM A. GARD, Editor and Publisher.
IN ADVANCE, $1.50 a Year

The president would not allow a rain storm to interfere with his campaign trip into West Virginia. To a man who has braved the assaults of office-seekers for six months, as Mr. Harrison has, the angry elements have no terrors.

Samuel J. Randall has dyspepsia, gout, erysipelas and insomnia, so that it is evident that a big salary don't always make a man comfortable.

Jack Kilrain has volunteered the opinion that Sullivan will win in his congressional fight. But Jack must bear in mind that the Republicans party is not as easily knocked out as he is.

Kansas City has suppressed the Salvation Army because it was too rowdy. The moonshiners and gamblers were greatly annoyed in their business by the unseasonable conduct of this noisy organization.

An Italian engineer has experimented with sugar as a means of preventing the incrustation of boilers, with satisfactory results. A boiler which used to be incrustated in six weeks, had two kilograms of sugar introduced every week for four months, and then a film of incrustations was found which could be easily washed off.

Corporal Tanner has been the best friend the old soldier ever had, and it is to be regretted that his differences with Secretary Noble were such as to necessitate his retirement. The general impression among the people is that with the exception of a little indiscretion, amounting to nothing serious, Tanner was all right.—Emporia Republicans.

The latest class of swindlers traveling over the state are boiler inspectors claiming to be sent out by the authority of the state to inspect boilers and portable engines. These swindlers invariably condemn the boilers, and directly afterwards another swindler comes along and endeavors to sell new boilers to the owners of the old ones.

The birthday of Robert E. Lee has been made a legal holiday in Georgia by legislative enactment. The south is seemingly more devoted to the memory of her traitors than the north is to the memory of her patriots. Who has proposed the birthday of Grant as a legal holiday?

The managers of the Kansas State Fair are leaving no stone unturned to make the occasion a thrilling success. Among the exhibits are a wedding, a baby show, the debauching of sixty head of cattle, and a batch of lunatics from the insane asylum. There is no reason why visitors shouldn't enjoy themselves.

The Democrats have claimed all along that Blaine would do something to imperil the government, and now sure enough, it turns out that he has perfected a scheme for uniting the American nations in a commercial union, to the great injury of several governments—in Europe. This, of course, will add to the reputation of the Republican party and will aid in perpetuating that corrupt organization in power. The Democrats will never feel quite easy about Blaine until he is dead and buried in a deep, deep grave.

The country people of Harrison and Crawford counties are now doing a prosperous business collecting May apple roots for shipment to an eastern patent medicine establishment, says the New Albany Ledger. One dealer of that city purchased ten bags of the commodity a few evenings ago. As the May apple grows wild in profusion among the hills there is no reason why gatherers shouldn't add to their board very easily.

Says the Indianapolis News: Now, while the State Fair is yet fresh in minds of the people, it may be apropos to present, briefly, some of the opinions of business men and experienced managers of fairs on the manner in which it should not be conducted. It seems to be the all but unanimous belief that the time has come for some radical changes from the old order of things. The State Fair of the past week has been substantially a repetition of that of last year and the year before last, and of ten and twenty years ago. It seems to have worn a rut which, in the nature of things, becomes harder to leave each year. In some lines of the exhibits, improvement is noticed, but it is due to the progress of the age and not to any change of policy on the part of the fair managers. So uniformly is the fair of each year a repetition of that of the preceding, that could everything now in the Exposition Grounds be preserved intact until next year the public would probably accept the situation with no suspicion of the real truth. The expression: "Oh, everything out there is what I have seen a dozen times, I don't want to go any more," or its equivalent, is common. The same big yellow pumpkins and gigantic carrots, the same quilt, which Grandma Smith picked out of 5,633 pieces, the same baggies and stoves and game and side shows and lakies are found year after year in the same places and take the same premiums. People have grown so familiar with it all that they know how things will look before they see them.

"Hovey's Babies." A great deal was said about "Hovey's Babies" during the reunion at Arkansas City. The origin was told by Gov. Hovey in his speech made at the reunion. "In 1862, after the glorious campaign in which Gen. Grant immortalized himself, Grant said to me: 'Hovey go home and raise a division of 10,000 men, and bring them to the front.' I went to Indiana—you remember it—and published a card, saying: 'Come and join the forces. Young men who are unmarried and have no wives to leave, come forward and let us form a division and fight the battles of our country.' You came. Ten thousand boys came heedless to me, and they fought with me on many bloody battlefields. They fought 100 consecutive days—hot days of battle. Like two great saws, the contending forces were cutting back and forth night and day. During these constant engagements the 'babies' made the grandest display of courage and fortitude and loyalty that I have ever seen or have read of in the pages of history. Those 10,000 boys charging the enemy over open fields, the layonets gleaming in the sun, our side loudly cheering and the enemy advancing! We charged the enemy and they didn't stop. Their deeds are not recorded in history. I don't know why, but I do know that Roman history could not furnish a parallel to the heroism and bravery displayed by those babies."

The Horticultural Fair, this week makes the following liberal offer of special prizes: There will be given to each purchaser of a ticket during the Fair, a ticket with a number thereon which will entitle the holder to one share in a drawing of a fine Silver Butter Dish, especially designed and engraved for the Society. The drawing will take place on Saturday evening at 9 p. m. at Ryan's Hall. On Thursday evening all boys purchasing a 10c. ticket will be given a number which will entitle the holder to one share in a drawing of a fine large doll, drawing at 9 o'clock. On Saturday afternoon each girl purchasing a 10c. ticket will be given a number which will entitle the holder to one share in a drawing for a fine large doll, drawing at 4 o'clock. All these drawings will be conducted by a committee chosen from the audience, and perfectly fair and honest. These prizes are now on exhibition in JOKER SMITH'S show window.

Mellichamm He No Good. [Indianapolis News.] If there has been more excitement than usual over the departure of Chinamen for their native country, it is because Pang Jung, for several years at the head of the Indianapolis colony, is taking his leave of America. Pang Jung, under the business name of "E. Long," has been operating a steam laundry on Massachusetts avenue for eight or ten years. Unlike —The confederate veterans have organized a southern Grand Army, to be known as the United Confederate Veterans' Association. Gen. John B. Gordon, of Georgia, has been made its commander, and he has issued an address in which he states the purposes of the organization, the chief of which is to "succor the disabled, help the needy, strengthen the weak and cheer the disconsolate." Those Democrats who have been grumbling so long and loudly about the G. A. R. being a Republican machine can now be congratulated upon having a Grand Army machine of their own.

—The following additional premiums will be given at the Horticultural Fair next week:

Best Mince Pie,	1st.	2d.
Best 5 Quinces,	$1.00	50c.
Best Pumpkin Pie,	50	25
Best Qt. Sorghum Molasses,	1.00	50
	50	25

In addition to the premiums offered of some $50 thereon, the society will give to the best exhibit by one exhibitor of all vegetables, including potatoes, root and miscellaneous vegetables, an honorary certificate of life membership to the society. They will also give the same certificate to the best and largest display of fruits of all kinds by one exhibitor, in addition to cash premiums offered of some $40. The same certificate for the best and largest display of plants and flowers by one exhibitor, in addition to premiums of about $50.

—One year's subscription to the Progress will be given to the winner of first premium on plate of Cling Peaches—peaches to be donated to publisher of Progress.

Columbia College, New York City, will permit young women to enter an "annex" by passing the same entrance examination as the young men. The ladies who have the "annex" in mind propose to furnish the money to rent or build it. Columbia College has nothing to do with the money, the discipline or the manners of the new "annex." It has bargained to furnish the learning only. The "annex" is to be known as Lisianski College. The young ladies for the present will be tethered to the course in arts. Young ladies who want to be lawyers or chemists or mining experts will still be barred out of the University.

—The Horticultural Society of Monroe co. will hold its second annual Fair on the 10th, 11th and 12th of October. This is one of the most praiseworthy organizations that has been formed in this locality—one that deserves the cordial support of the people. The officers are I. M. Rogers, President; W. H. Nease, Vice President; J. R. Worrall, Secretary; Jos. S. Dinamore, Treasurer. The price of admission has been placed at the low rate of 10 and 15c. 25c. entry fee will be charged. Each exhibit is to be properly entered, labeled and in place by 12 m. October 10th. All exhibits to be home-grown or home-made by exhibitor. Monroe is taking a front rank as a fruit raising county, and it is proper that these exhibits should be had in order to encourage horticulturists and by an interchange of views and experience to put them at to the best methods of cultivation and as to the most desirable varieties. Mr. Orl. R. Worrall, the obliging Secretary, will take pleasure in supplying you with a premium list. Get one, and compete.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a certified copy of a Decree to me directed from the Clerk of the Monroe Circuit Court, in a cause wherein William L. Cox is plaintiff, and John B. Cox and Martha Cox are defendants, requiring me to make the sum of Seven Hundred and Ninety Dollars and Three Cents, with interest on said debt and costs, I will expose at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., of said day, at the door of the court house in Bloomington, Monroe county, Indiana, the real estate and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, the following Real Estate, to-wit:

The south half of the southeast quarter of section twenty-one (21), and the north half of the northeast quarter of section twenty-eight (28), and the west half of the northwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27), and the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty-two (22), all in town nine (9), north range one (1) east, containing two hundred and eighty (280) acres.

More or less of said land is situated in Monroe county, Indiana. If such rents and profits will not sell for a sufficient sum to satisfy said debt, interest and costs, I will, at the same time and place, expose to public sale the fee simple of said real estate, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge said debt, interest and costs.

Said sale will be made without any right whatever from valuation or appraisal laws.

THOMAS J. FARR,
Sheriff Monroe County.

Oct. 9, 1889.

NOTICE OF INSOLVENCY.
In the matter of the estate of John Roman, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that upon petition filed in said Court by Richard A. Falk, Administrator of said estate, setting up the insufficiency of the estate of said decedent to pay the debts and liabilities thereof, the Judge of said Court did, on the 3rd day of September 1889, and said estate to be probably insolvent, and order the same to be settled accordingly. The creditors of said estate are therefore hereby notified of such insolvency, and required to file their claims against said estate for payment on or before the 1st day of the next term of said court, to-wit: the 10th day of October, 1889.

Witness, the Clerk and seal of said Court, at Bloomington, Indiana, this 7th day of October, 1889.

ENOC H FULLER, Clerk.

—The season is almost at hand when hunters of all ages get their guns and go forth to bag the shy and secluded game. It is not impertinent, therefore, to advise the sportsman not to blow down the muzzle of his gun; not to playfully point an "unloaded" weapon at a friend; to take due care that when he aims at a mark it be not a human being transformed by the leaves and shadows of the woods into the semblance of some kind of an animal. Eternal vigilance is the price of safety on the part of gunners.
